How the Spirit Prospers

Every morning at sunrise as I left the shore-side cabin by the pine-clustered little lake, I was greeted by the harsh, strident voices of crows. They poked derisive fun at me. They chuckled at the incongruity of a vacationer, sent northward for a rest, rising at daybreak merely to outfox a wily bass. They jeered from the air above my boat. They taunted from the limb of a shore-line pine. They ridiculed me singly and sniggered and scoffed in whirling flocks. Then as the sun rose higher in the sky, with a few parting disparaging caws the crows flapped their leisurely way into the cool green shadows of the nearby forests.

Those birds set me to thinking as I plied my lure among the lily pads. How have the crows managed to survive the inroads of civilization in such large numbers? Though persecuted relentlessly by man, fired upon, dynamited and poisoned, crows are now more plentiful in America than when the Pilgrim fathers landed. Still, as for 300 years, they remain contemptuous of all adversaries and triumph over all unfortunate changes in their environment.

Crows have thrived because they have stood together against all comers. They are community spirited, interested in each other. When a flock of crows is busy feeding, a sage old sentinel, sharp of eye and wit, is stationed high in a nearby tree. Should prowling man or predaceous beast come near, a warning alert is sounded by the guard, and the flock beats a hasty retreat.

Another reason why crows have enjoyed prosperity, though persecuted, is that they readily adjust themselves to changing conditions. When America was younger and but one vast wilderness spreading from sea to sea, crows made a good living here. Then as pioneers pushed back the forests and planted the plains with farms, the versatile crows scrounged a livelihood still, following the sower over the freshly turned sod, snatching the seeds before they could sprout or pulling up the tender shoots of corn, and raiding the orchards. As America settled into a vast agricultural economy, the agile-minded crows adjusted to that, too. With the development of an agricultural economy there came a deluge of insects feeding upon the farmer's crops, mice raiding his fields and bins, the carrion of dead farm stock littering the land. There the crow found easy pickings. Again he prospered. And now, in industrial America the crow's numbers are legion still. While not a city bird, crows live in the suburban areas with their raucous caws and fill the inter-urban fields and forests with their lively crow talk and crow laughter. Wherever one travels in North America, from city limits to distant wilderness, the crow will be found, fat, sassy and prosperous.

Man might well take a lesson from his black feathered fellow-sojourner through life. Our prosperity, like the crow's, rests in part upon our ability to unite with others in mutual assistance and in a pliable frame of mind that permits adjustment to changing conditions.

The person who claims to be self-sufficient is fooling no one but himself. He does not raise all his own food, write all his own newspapers and books, make all his own clothes, deliver his own mail, heal all his own diseases, or create all the beauties that surround him. There are others, and above all, another, to whom credit is due and without whom the enjoyment of life would be impossible. The prosperous soul recognizes how much others mean to him and tries daily to be of significant help to them in return.

The spiritually prosperous person is one, too, who adjusts smoothly to inevitable changing circumstances. He seeks some good in every situation and finds it. He acquires food for thought and nourishment for spirit from success and failure, from happiness and heartache, from health and sickness, from friendship and solitude. By an ingenious alchemy he makes every experience into moral enrichment.

Jet black and saucy inheritor of the earth, cawing your enjoyment of life from branch and sky, thanks for what you have taught me concerning living victoriously.

Michigan Milk Production Goes Up Five Per Cent

Michigan's milk production rose 5 per cent in the past ten years even though the milk cow population decreased 15 per cent during the same period, R. G. Warmbold, Michigan representative of the American Can Company, reported today.

Improved feeding and dairying methods bringing about greater productivity per cow were advanced by Warmbold as one of the major reasons for the increased output.

The 5.6 billion pounds of milk produced on Michigan farms in 1954 helped set an all-time national record of 123.5 billion pounds, said the official of the can company which annually produces hundreds of millions of paper milk containers. Michigan farmers shared in milk receipts totaling about $199 million, he added.

This national record, Warmbold said, was produced by 12 per cent fewer milk cows than were on America's farms in 1944, when the cow population was at a record total of 25.6 million cows. However, Warmbold pointed out, the 22.4 million cows in 1954 produced an average of 5,512 pounds of milk each, almost a thousand pounds more than the 1944 cows.

Accepted Orchard Practice Found Wrong By Test

Scientists at the Michigan State University Experiment Station have great patience when it comes to providing or disproving statements. Take this case:

For many years fruit growers believed that clean cultivation of orchards would bring the best results. But it took 25 years to prove to everyone's satisfaction that the statement was wrong. Horticulturists at MSU reported in the current issue of The Quarterly Bulletin that sod mulch cover was much better than clean cultivation for Bartlett pear orchards.

The sod mulch cover actually retarded tree growth and fruit production for the first 12 years, however. But from then on the trunks grew larger and the trees produced more fruit than did the clean cultivated plot.

At the end of the 25-year test at the Graham Experiment Station, Grand Rapids, the fertilized sod mulch had produced 1,136 more bushels of fruit. And the sodded trees had 80 per cent more fruit above two and a half inches during the six years the fruit was under a grading test.

Then, too, the sod mulch cover practically eliminated water loss in the orchard. And the condition of the soil in the cultivated plot got worse as time went on. The compacted soil caused runoff, making a drouthy subsoil. So fruit size suffered when rainfall was short.

The horticulturists found essentially the same was true for apple orchards. For cherries they conducted a leaf analysis. This showed a much better fertility level in favor of the sod mulch culture.

Geologists say the White Pine ore body in Michigan's Upper Peninsula is the largest known undeveloped copper reserve in America.

More Light Hours Will Keep Hens In Production

Smaller number of daylight hours means a shorter working day for the poultry laying flock. Now is the time to begin using electric lights to lengthen the day for the layer, according to J. M. (Mac) Moore, extension poultry specialist at Michigan State University.

Additional light in the laying house is especially valuable for keeping old hens in production when days get shorter. Moore says it's easier to keep them laying than to bring them back to production. Pullets that have been laying for a month or so may also go into a slump because of the shorter days.

Electric lights should be used in the morning or evening to make a total of 13 or 14 hours of light daily on the floor of the laying house. Morning lights don't require a dimming device but evening lights do. The dimming device is necessary so the birds can find their way to the perches.

Moore recommends 25 watts of light per 100 square feet. Light should be well distributed over the entire house, both on the floor and feeding area as well as the roosts. Use reflectors above the light bulbs, too, so that the ceiling does not absorb too much of the light.

Lights should be used regularly throughout the entire season. If not, the birds may moult and interrupt egg production.

Traffic Fatalities For July '55 Take 11 Per Cent Drop

The upward trend in Michigan traffic deaths that extended over four consecutive months was broken in July with a reduction of eleven per cent under July of last year, according to the Michigan State Police monthly report. Injuries and the total number of reported accidents, however, again increased.

There were 162 persons who lost their lives in July, 20 less than a year ago.

Injuries increased 13 per cent, or from 5,054 to 5,732, while accidents went up five per cent from 14,455 to 15,111. Nearly all of the increase in accidents occurred in rural areas.

The record for the first seven months of this year includes 1,037 persons killed, 32,685 injured and 105,336 reported accidents. Deaths are up eleven per cent from 938, injuries increased eight per cent from 30,331 and accidents gained two per cent from 103,289.

For the same period rural areas, which are accounting for an increasing proportion of the accident problem, reported more than 75 per cent of the deaths, over 44 per cent of the injuries and nearly 24 per cent of all reported accidents.

Mileage traveled for the first six months of this year, the latest figure available, was 14.2 billion, an increase of nine per cent over 13 billion in the same period last year. The death rate of 6.2 per 100 million miles of travel was up seven per cent.

A new variety of leaf lettuce, called Tendergreen, has been developed at MSU. It combines the good features of both Grand Rapids and Bibb varieties and will boost yields in both home garden and greenhouse.

Low pork prices are predicted by the U.S. Department of Agriculture during the coming fall and winter due to the big pig crop last spring. Michigan State nutritionists remind you to cook pork slowly and thoroughly. You may want your beef served rare, but never serve pork any other way but well done.

Your Dog Missing?

All missing dogs should be reported at once to the Charlevoix county Humane Society as dogs running at large are being brought to them to be held three days until owners can redeem them.

BE SURE YOUR DOG WEARS HIS LICENSE TAG so the Society can locate owners.

SCHOOL CHILDREN are being warned in their classrooms NOT TO BRING THEIR PETS to school as the areas are under rigid patrol for dogs illegally running at large. PARENTS are asked to remind them and keep dogs confined to their owner's premises at all times.

The Public is invited to visit our shelter, still under construction due to lack of funds to complete it. Attend our regular monthly meetings and SEE WHAT IS BEING DONE about Charlevoix County dog problem. . . YOUR INTEREST and suggestions may be a means of making our services better.

The Society supported entirely by voluntary contributions and $1 per year or more membership dues, is short more than $3,000.00 of their proposed budget for this year's operations. They are filing intentions to raise funds by public solicitation in order to keep their program in effect.

Complete financial and working budgets and records have been made available to City of Charlevoix and their officials.

Don't be fooled by believing there is NO DOG PROBLEM . . . or that the Humane Society is not doing anything about it.

BETTER HUMANE SUPPORT will bring you BETTER HUMANE SERVICES. You'll be glad your county has an animal shelter.

MICHIGAN'S hard-pressed taxpayers took a breather of a sort when Gov. Williams disclosed an $18 million surplus. But they still kept paying.

The governor said that the increase in collections and a number of economies in state government had built up the surplus from the dust of a 65 million deficit two years ago.

It was at this point of fiscal desperation that the legislature passed the $30 million a year business activities tax. A business boom did the rest.

Republicans said this year's surplus would be more like $13 million. Rep. Rollo G. Conlin (R-Tipton), chairman of the House taxation committee said:

"The governor seems to be optimistic."

Seers at the Capitol immediately predicted that agencies which have been pleading for years for more cash to run their services would renew their requests and the surplus would vanish.

"THERE WILL never be a tax reduction in state government," said one bureau chief. "Services may expand, and more people may be hired, but no less money will be required."

Gov. Williams took the opportunity to blast Republicans in the legislature for paring down his appeal for more building money for state colleges and universities.

Republicans said the problems couldn't be solved with mere money, that a complete survey of needs of higher education should be undertaken.

The study is now underway under the direction of Senator Don Vander Werp (R-Fremont), chairman of the Senate education committee.

1956 legislature," he said.

ANCIENT PROBLEM of what to do with an overflow of mentally retarded children is coming home to roost.

The governor is getting ready to call a special session of the legislature late in October to cope with the same issues that have bothered lawmakers in regular sessions for years.

The story has been told many times.

There are more than 1,800 youngsters with mental problems who cannot be admitted to LaPeer Home and Training School because it already is overcrowded.

"Commitments have become a farce because there's no place to send these unfortunate," said a mental health expert.

During the last session, committees of both the House and Senate fought over bills which would take over tuberculosis hospitals at Grayling and Howell for the care of mentally retarded children.

The battles were fought and lost. Tuberculosis officials pleaded that the space would be needed if those who already had contracted the disease could be found.

GRISLY PROBLEM of traffic death will also be considered at the special session. An 11% increase in the number of fatalities for the first seven months of 1955 over last year was announced by State Police. This apparently convinced the governor that no more time can be lost before taking action.

The legislators will again be asked to pass laws which will tighten driver licensing, reduce highway speeds and provide funds to maintain files of driver records. Existing law provides for files but money must be appropriated if records are to be kept properly.

These and other laws have been recommended in past years by the State Safety Commission, but proposals frequently became enmeshed in politics.

FARM GROUPS have taken new heart in their campaign to move the state fair out of Detroit.

For years the drive has waxed hot and cold with charges flying that the Detroit fair is "a carnival" and that farmers have little opportunity to display their products in the proper atmosphere.

Latest impetus to the take-the-fair-outside campaign came with Michigan State University's centennial farm equipment exposition which drew thousands to the campus.

It was the first time of an out-state function devoted exclusively to farmers and their equipment.

"The campaign to move the fair out of Detroit is getting hotter by the day," said George B. McIntyre, state director of agriculture.

Opponents of the idea say that the engineering and industrial exhibits, the sideshows and midway at Detroit is what makes the state fair solvent.

After years of deficits, the fair is now earning a small sum or "at least," it's paying for itself," said McIntyre.

The final decision rests with the legislature, however, and its membership is still outstate-minded, though Detroit and other metropolitan areas are gaining influence.

GOVERNMENT reform is continuing in Michigan, though the approach is slightly changed this year.

For five years, the Legislative Committee on State Government

Issue Injunction Against Grazing

LANSING — The people of Michigan secured a temporary restraining injunction this week against a livestock owner whose cattle grazed on state land in Oscoda county.

Judge Herman Dehnke authorized the injunction in Oscoda circuit court at Tawas City to freeze the problem of grazing trespass until a trial can be held. The cattle of defendant Charles Galbraith, Mio, were impounded for grazing on public land in 1954 and 1955.

No date has been set for the trial.

Reform has been operating as a research group, studying ways to improve the functions of state government.

There have been a number of notable ideas written into law for the agencies.

"That function is now finished and we must promote some of the other ideas we have developed," said Senator Frank Andrews (R-Hillman). He is chairman of the committee working for acceptance of new ideas. Among them: Abolition of the state superintendent of public instruction and the auditor general as elective offices.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

...Makes a Man Healthy, Wealthy—and Tired!

Sandy Peterson's nephew Pete has gone back to college. He worked on Sandy's farm a couple of months last summer to get hardened up for football.

He seemed to enjoy farm life all right—but like most city kids it took him some time to get used to a farmer's schedule.

Sandy claims that when he went in to wake Pete—on the first morning—the boy looked up startled and asked what time it was. Sandy replied it was four-fifteen. "Gee," Pete murmured, "if we're going to do a day's work tomorrow you'd better get to bed!"

From where I sit, we must have heard a million stories like that. But they show how some people assume their customs are the only proper ones. To most city folks getting up at 4:15 seems odd, because they don't do it. Just like some people don't think enjoying a glass of beer is "right" ... because they happen to prefer another beverage and haven't waked up to the fact that everyone has a right to his own choice.

Malcolm MacDowells Plan Extensive Remodeling At Newly Acquired Farm

Reconstruction plans are now under way at the old D'Ooge farm located on the Boyne City road, recently purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm MacDowell from Dr. Dorothy Dart of Lansing.

The property consists of ninety acres of wooded and open land with 190 feet of lake shore frontage.

Mr. MacDowell's present plans include converting the large three-story barn structure on the property into a two-story chalet apartment overlooking Lake Charlevoix. Five box stalls and tack room are already nearing completion on the lower level and their horses will be moved from their present quarters at the Leeb farm within the next two weeks. A one-half mile race track is being planned on the back plateau portion of the property for the training and exercising of their five horses which were brought to Charlevoix from California.

Mr. MacDowell has engaged Clifford Conley, Jr., outstanding San Francisco architect, who designed the MacDowell adobe home in California and who is also designing new Detroit offices for Malcolm MacDowell and Associates, Inc., mortgage bankers.

Mrs. MacDowell and a group of friends are converting a picturesque old stone building, constructed on the property in 1895 by Mr. Grandie, into a ski hut to be used in connection with a small natural ski run.

Mr. and Mrs. MacDowell moved to their new farm from the Leeb farm last week to oversee renovating operations during the winter months. They expect to move into their new home by early Spring.

Gordie Howe And Fred Huber Are Kiwanis Speakers

Members of the Charlevoix Kiwanis club and their guests Monday night heard Gordie Howe, star forward on the Detroit Red Wings Hockey team, and Fred Huber, publicity director of the club speak on the world's fastest game, hockey.

To illustrate their talks, the pair showed films of the 1955 Stanley Cup play-off and answered questions on the game at a round-table discussion which concluded the meeting.

Fifty-one members and guests attended the dinner meeting at the VFW post home. Among the guests were the following visiting Kiwanians: I. T. Sanborn of Petoskey, Ralph Hahn of Alma and A. A. Schaefer of the Strathmore-Detroit club.

Two members were presented with perfect attendance pins by Leonard Burns, past president. C. M. Bice received a 5-year pin and Lawrence Weindt a 3-year pin.

Lansing Youth Bound Over To Circuit Court

Lansing, W. Ferrin, 18, of Lansing, was charged with breaking and entering the Charlevoix Beach Hotel early Monday before Justice John Connolly Wednesday morning and was bound over to the next term of circuit court. He was placed on $1,500 bond and returned to the Charlevoix county jail where he had been held since Monday when he failed to furnish bond.

Ferrin admitted in Chief Clarence Hise Monday afternoon that he broke into the resort hotel early Monday and stolen cigars, cigarettes, liquor and a .32 automatic pistol stored in the hotel office. He gained admittance, he said, by climbing a fire escape, slashing a screen and breaking a glass in the third floor door. He lighted his way to the main office on the first floor by the use of matches. He at first denied starting a fire in the office and stealing the pistol. However, after undergoing lie detector tests at Traverse City Tuesday he admitted starting and extinguishing the fire and told police where the gun was hidden.

Ferrin was brought in for questioning Monday after the night policeman, Jack Beal, remembered seeing him near his rooming house about 5 a.m. Monday. He at first denied but later admitted breaking into the hotel. The break-in was discovered by Mrs. E. L. Kramer, who with Mr. Kramer owns and operates the hotel, when she returned to the hotel Monday morning after spending Sunday night with relatives at Norwood.

The young man who was employed at a local restaurant during the summer also admitted breaking into a tool shed at Brinkside cemetery in search of a garden hose Friday night. Later, he said, he and two minors stole a hose from the Ernest W. Wells residence at 207 E. Dixon and cut it up to be used as a siphon to draw gasoline from the tank of an auto owned by one of the minors.

He was not involved, however, in the ransacking of the Lewis Courtide home during the day last Friday during which $54.00 or more was taken. He was questioned about this during the lie detector tests Tuesday.

Ferrin is on probation on a charge of breaking and entering at Marquette, Wis., last spring.

Will Show Film 'The Nile Mother' Here On Friday

"The Nile Mother" and a visual film in full color will be shown at the Assembly of God Church, 203 East Upright Street, Charlevoix on Friday, Sept. 30 at 8:00 p.m.

Rev. Chas. W. H. Scott, superintendent of the Michigan District of the Assemblies of God has consented to include Charlevoix in his itinerary of introducing the amazing missionary work of Miss Lillian Trasher in the founding and developing of the Trasher Assistant Orphanage in Assiout, Egypt.

Miss Trasher's story is stranger than fiction. She found the Lord Jesus Christ as her personal Saviour as a young girl while living in Florida, later broke her engagement to be married because of the burden of the Mission field. Then without any financial backing of any kind set out for Egypt. After arriving in Egypt it was quite by accident that she became interested in Orphanage work. A harassed father gave Miss Trasher his frail, motherless baby. There was nothing to do but take care of the infant. This was the beginning of the now world famous Assiout Orphanage of Assiout, Egypt, which presently cares for over one hundred boys and girls.

Give Report On Goldman Meyer Fund For Year

A total of $745.07 was spent on emergency aid by the Lenore Goldman Meyer Fund during the fiscal year which ended recently. Robert Bridge, secretary-treasurer of the administration committee reported at the annual meeting held recently.

In breaking down his report on expenditures, Mr. Bridge said that 12 cases involving some 30 people had been assisted directly by the Fund and that countless others, had received assistance in other ways. Among these was the milk program carried on in the Charlevoix public schools, St. Mary's Parochial school and the Retarded Children's school. Through the cooperation of school personnel milk is given to children who might not otherwise receive this nourishing diet need. $210.01 was spent on this program alone.

Other expenditures included $219.55 for clothing; $100.82, shoes; $84.62, fuel; $37.80, food; $60.36, bedding and $20.00, miscellaneous expenses.

The amount spent last year was slightly more than during the 1953-54 fiscal year when $545.87 was spent.

In making his report, Mr. Bridge said that he felt that it spoke well for the people of Charlevoix that only real emergencies were being cared for through the Fund and that residents of the community are not inclined to take advantage of the services provided through the Fund although the entire community is familiar with it. It shows, he continued, that people want to help themselves when they can and ask for emergency assistance only when in dire need.

This year's expenditures bring to $14,092 the amount spent since the fund was established 14 years ago.

Another local couple will be named to the administration committee to succeed Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miles who have served for the past three years. The appointment will be made at a meeting of the local committee to be held later this fall.

Attending the recent meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Alvin D. Goldman, Blanche Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ranger, Mr. and Mrs. Bridge, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. Miles, Mr. and Mrs. William Supernaw and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bice.

County Supervisors To Decide On Court House Repairs In October

A decision regarding the Charlevoix county court house faces the board of supervisors when that body meets here Tuesday, Oct. 11, for its annual October meeting.

The court house issue was brought to the immediate attention of the board following receipt of a letter last week from Arnold C. Renner, Chief of the Michigan State Police Fire Marshall Division, who said that a report made to his office following a reinspection of the county court house here showed that there had been little progress made relative to compliance with the orders issued by the department. He asked for a report on what disposition the county plans to make relative to making necessary repairs which included, among other things the reworking of the old building.

Copies of the letters were sent to Russell Curtis, chairman of the board of supervisors and county officers including Clerk F. R. Bulow, prosecutor C. M. Bice, probate judge Floyd A. Supp and register of deeds Grover C. Genett.

A committee composed of Clarence Rabach, Lee Sneath Jr., Robert Barnett of East Jordan and Robert Lee of the grounds and building committee and Mr. Curtis, T. R. ODDS 'N' ENDS

By Fran Martin

YOU KNOW, this would be a pretty nice world if it weren't for some meaneys . . . big ones and little ones . . . who are bent on making people unhappy . . . Remember the little guy from Boyne City, Steve Anthony, the most hospitalized youngster in the north, whom we had a story on last spring . . . Talked with his mother Monday and she told us that someone had poisoned Steve's pup, a black cocker which was only two months old . . . Steve tore home from school every night to play with his dog and he's broken-hearted, as who wouldn't be . . . Maybe you know where he can get another one . . . If you do drop his mother a note at 341 N. Lake St. in Boyne City . . .

CHARLEVOIX will have a new interest in pro basketball this year . . . what with Ron Feiereisel playing with the Minneapolis Lakers. He is the grandson of the H. G. Feiereisels and the nephew of Mrs. Gerald Left . . . and if you'd like any of the details just ask Mr. H. when he returns shortly from Chicago . . . Ron just got out of the service and before that was the star of the DePaul U. team in Chicago . . .

SOME youngsters just seem to have a way with animals . . . Tom Oleksy seems to be one of those kids for Sunday he found a baby raccoon in the woods south along Lake Michigan and the next day the little animal went to him as though Tom had always been his friend . . . "Specks" as the youngsters call him because of the black markings around his eyes evidently broke his front leg at one time because it is "crooked" . . . He's a shaggy looking animal for he already has his heavy winter coat . . . but as friendly as a kitten . . . washes his food before he'll eat it, holding his finger-like paws . . . the cutest thing you've ever seen . . . Tom plans to keep him for a pet for if he released him now he's afraid the dogs would catch him for he's already lost his fear of them . . .

ANOTHER report on a bottle released by the Great Lakes Research Institute and found along Lake Michigan down from the end of Michigan ave. by Don Nowland . . . He sent the enclosed card and found it had been released 23 miles northwest of Frankfort on June 28 . . . C. Y. Marshall also told us he's found several more near the south pier recently and would let us know where and when they'd been tossed overboard . . .

SHERIFF Glenn Rose tells this story about the old gentleman who came in recently to have his driver's license renewed . . . He answered all the usual questions correctly until they came to the one about handicaps . . . Glenn asked him if he had any handicaps and he answered 'Yes, we raised four' and before Glenn could recover from the shock the old fellow went on to say 'Yes, me and the Missus raised four but they're all married now' . . . handicaps, exemptions . . . it's all in how you look at it . . .

CALL THIS what you will but a couple of weeks ago, Keith Caray, our municipal golf course manager, invited Bob Wallace and Perry Smith to Midland to the big stag golf tournament and banquet which concluded the season at the Midland Country Club . . . What happened? Between the two of them they walked off with every prize offered, and there were quite a few except for the door prize which happened to be a door . . . Neither of 'em, it seems, had any use for it . . . What's that about biting the hand which feeds you or words to that effect . . .

YOU KNOW people who collect things . . . just things that they might want to use some day . . . But what anyone would want with a 1907 dog license tag, Sandy Bodley, the janitor at school, is still trying to dope out . . . A couple of weeks ago he was going through a box of nuts, bolts and trivia and ran across this oddity . . . Know any poach without a license tag? . . . See Mr. Bodley . . .

IN CASE you hadn't noticed, Christmas is just 12 weeks from this coming Sunday . . . and if we were ambitious we'd tell you how many shopping days were left but you wouldn't heed our warning anyway so we'll wait 'til there are 10 or so and mention it . . . If you think we're rushing the season, you should see the October issue of the Postal Service News which is filled with Christmas plans . . . entitled 'Shop Early, Mail Early' the department has announced all sorts of suggestions to get you, the public, into the spirit of the thing . . . So sit sit down right now and start planning your Christmas shopping and mailing . . . which brings to mind another important reminder . . . Your Christmas parcels to members of the armed services stationed overseas must be in the mail by the middle of November for delivery by Christmas so start now picking up gift items and nuts and candy in sealed cans . . . There are all sorts of things you can send if you devote a little time to it . . . So keep the postoffice department and your serviceman happy . . . mail your Christmas parcels early . . .

"LETTERS bring happiness" is the slogan of the annual National Letter - Writing week which is scheduled for Oct. 2 through Oct. 8 . . . So why not make some of your friends or relatives happy by observing the week . . . We know we'd like to hear from some of our friends even tho' we never find time to acknowledge the letters . . .

WHAT WAS Charlevoix doing just 50 years ago this week? . . . We will be glad to tell you for Mrs. Harry Elzinga has loaned us an old Charlevoix Sentinel which was found at their home at 205 Mason St. during a recent remodeling project which tells the story . . . For instance, The Main street sewer was laid from Bridge St. west to a point well beyond State St. . . . The Argo Co's Charlevoix roller mill was running nights to help out the East Jordan mill which was out of commission owing to a break in the Deer creek dam . . . The steamer Missouri was crowded to her utmost capacity on her annual $5 excursion to the Soo . . . The editor (the publisher was Willard A. Smith) accompanied M. D. Woodford in his 40 hp. Winston automobile to Traverse City, leaving here at 11 a.m., stopping at Norwood for dinner, and arriving at destination a little after five in the evening. To an old-timer such a trip is a revelation . . . Bert Mason, in his ad, was urging people to shop at home and not in Petoskey, Grand Rapids or Chicago . . . Swift's Clover Leaf bacon was 13 cents a pound, lard 10 cents; sugar was sold at 17 pounds for $1.00, lamp chimneys and lantern globes were five cents apiece . . . and on Sept. 30 the temperature was 88 degrees in the shade at Norwood . . . The steamers Hum and Chrysler left every half-hour for East Jordan between 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. where connections could be made with the Detroit and Charlevoix railroad . . . By spending less than they make, people become wealthy, according to an ad by the Charlevoix County bank, Nichols, Butlers and Bridge . . . Fred E. Cartier, in his ad, was urging people to 'cut loose from ready-made clothes' . . . Levi Shea was advertising double or single harnesses plus single, surrey (with the fringe on top?), express, light and heavy team, double buggy and farm harness . . . Charlevoix Lumber Co., C. R. Bellinger, M. A. Levinson, Charles Jeffries, James F. McGeagh, H. L. Iddings were also among the newspaper's advertisers as was L. D. Bartholomew and Co., S. M. See & Son and Mrs. H. A. Carr who sold hats . . . ladies' hats, that is, and were they fantastic . . . One thing that just stayed us as far as make-up of the paper was concerned was the fact that all the little local items were on the front page . . . Gee, maybe they were right and that's where they belong . . . Anyway, it was great fun reading the issue of Oct. 5, 1905 . . .

EVERYONE will be glued to radios and TV sets this week as the World Series opens . . . Who's going to win? . . . Your guess is as good as the next . . . But who wants to get excited about a subway series anyway . . . I hope the Bums beat the pants right off the Yankees but of course they won't . . . They never do . . . But we can wish, can't we? . . .

AND COME Saturday there'll be the football games . . . That's something to look forward to . . . we tolerate baseball during the spring and summer 'cause we know that come fall, that grand old game of football will be with us . . . This looks like a grand season ahead of us as far as listening . . . And as for watching our own team play . . . that looks pretty good too . . . Those boys have got their work cut out for them . . . but give 'em a little time and we think they'll do OK . . . So lots of luck, Raydels, against East Jordan this week . . . And remember, no matter how little E. J. has they'll be up for their game with you . . . So watch it . . .

SPEAKING of East Jordan, the Red Devils' game with Grayling was broadcast the last week, as you might have heard . . . But Mrs. Barbara Waldon on Grant St. didn't know it was being broadcast until she dialed Lennox 6-the East Jordan exchange . . . and before she had a chance to dial the remainder of her number was getting the broadcast over the telephone . . . A mix-up some place and since Mrs. W. wasn't too interested in the game and wanted to dial an East Jordan number she was quite perturbed . . .

Michigan's population increase — more than 10% in the past five years — is the biggest in the Middle West.

It's Not So Easy

I have the notion that you feel real good — your Fashion Count was under 14 and you are thinking that that Parisian hack in 1849 had been counting each frill and ruffle by twos.

Recall now, the statement read "Fourteen eye arresting elements" Let us see how this Rule of Fourteen Works.

A one piece dress is a count of one. Buttons would make it two. A suit with buttons gets a count of three.

The basic frame of a hat is one; a feather adds one; so would a veil.

A watch is one; a group of bracelets is one; glasses another; and a necklace one more.

Yes, your engagement and wedding ring count as one.

Your hose — one.

Shoes — if plain are one; if decorated in any way, add one.

A purse is one — unless it has contrasting color or trim; that is extra.

Gloves the same.

Sequins, fringe, metallic cloth-beaded materials count high by themselves.

Want to try again? It's like our food these days — meat calls for potatoes, potatoes call for gravies, vegetables call for butter, salads call for a dressing, tasty meals call for a dessert. It's the extras that weight us up.

Edward Fochtman Assisting In Project Studying Chicago Air Pollution Problem

If Chicago should become a cleaner city one of these days no small credit will be due to Edward Fochtman of Elmhurst, Ill., son of Mr. and Mrs. Angus L. Fochtman, and his associates in the fine particle division of the Illinois Institute of Technology's Armour Research Foundation, according to an article which appeared recently in the Chicago Tribune.

Illinois Tech's fine particle research group is a member of the Midwestern Air Pollution Association, a group of industrialists, civic leaders and government men which recently paid $20,000 for a study of dirt in Chicago's air. Mr. Fochtman's associates, led by Morris Fisher, research supervisor, gave the group a rough idea of where the dust is coming from. Now the association is trying to raise $100,000 for a more detailed study of air pollution.

feeling that Chicago air can be cleaner, smell better and have less noise. The first study did not involve research on noise or smells.

Inefficient combustion in home furnaces is one of the worst offenders as far as smoke pollution is concerned, he said, adding that people also should put on end to the litter thrown on the street and should get out of the habit of burning refuse in back-yard incinerators.

Mr. Fochtman's group also checks complaints regarding offensive sources. The city laws forbid smoke of more than 40 per cent density to be released into the air continuously. Smoke of 60 per cent density can be released for a maximum of six minutes.

The group also maintains 25 dust collection stations all over the city of Chicago the year around. Dust collected in large mouthed jars is analyzed each month for the quantity that fell in each area and for the contents of dust sample.

Facts obtained by the group are available without charge to the city's dust abatement department, which takes action against violators and also cooperates with the U.S. Public Health Service in that body's nation-wide survey.

Mr. Fochtman, a research chemical engineer, has been measuring and pinpointing air pollution in the Chicago area since 1948 when he joined the I.I.T. staff. His discoveries may have led to his choice of Elmhurst as a home for his wife and three children in 1951, since the difference between air samples he has taken in Chicago and the suburbs can, in the winter, be like black and white.

Charlevoix Wins 14-0 Victory In First League Tilt

Over-power Rams In Second Half Offensive

The Charlevoix Rayders racked up their first win of the current football season Friday night when they defeated Harbor Springs 14-0.

This week the Rayders will travel to East Jordan to take on the Red Devils who are having a slim year, material-wise, but despite this can be depended on to give the Charlevoix eleven a good game because of old rivalries. Last week against Grayling the East Jordan line found itself in the second half and the Vikings managed only one TD after scoring two quick ones in the first half.

In the Rayders' game with Harbor Springs, the local squad had trouble getting started on their offensive attack although their defensive line held early in the game when the Rams made their way to the four-yard line. In the second half the offense started to roll and Charlevoix scored two touchdowns, one a 65 yard run.

With one more game behind them, the Rayders should come out on top in their meeting Friday unless the Jordanites come up with more than they have shown in the past.

If end Guy Swanson is back in the line-up this week after missing the Rams game because of a throat infection, the line will have little more depth and center Walt Poquette who played defense end against Harbor Springs can be utilized in another spot.

In the game last week Harbor Springs kicked off to Charlevoix who took the ball on the 20 and returned it to the 28. The Rayders picked up one first down but lost possession of the ball on their own 43 when Harbor Springs recovered a Rayder fumble. The Rayder line held on the next series of plays and Harbor was forced to kick on fourth down. With Charlevoix taking the ball on the 20 yard line. A loss of two yards on the first play plus an offside penalty set the Rayders back to their own 12 from where Vandenberg punted after failing to gain lost yardage. The kick was blocked and the Rams took over on the Rayders' seven.

Harbor recovered their own fumble on the six but lost five yards on the next down on an offside penalty. A two yard gain plus another offside penalty pushed the Rams to the 15 yard line. A Ram pass took the ball to the Charlevoix four where the Rayders took over on downs. Charlevoix moved the ball to the 17 to end the first period.

The Rayders picked up two first downs and moved to the Harbor 44 where Garry Vandenberg was forced to kick on the fourth down. An exchange of punts and a series of ground plays found the ball in Harbor Springs' possession as the half ended 0-0.

Charlevoix kicked off to the Rams to open the second half. After picking up a first down Harbor Springs punted on the fourth down of the second series.

of plays and Charlevoix took over on their own 35 yard line. On the next play Quint Walker took the ball off right tackle and went 65 yards to score. Vandenberg kicked for the extra point.

After an exchange of fumbles following the kick-off and a pass interception by Charlevoix, the Rayders moved the ball to the Harbor 14 where the latter took over on downs when their defensive line held. The third quarter ended with the Rams in possession of the ball on their own 28 yard line.

A 10-yard penalty as the last period opened set the Rams back to their own 18 from where they were forced to kick out of danger. Charlevoix returned the punt to their own 40 where the next touchdown drive started. On two first downs the Rayders moved the ball to the one where Vandenberg took it over for the touchdown. His kick for the extra point was good and the score stood at 14-0.

On the first play from scrimmage following the kickoff, Quint Walker intercepted a Rams pass and was brought down on the Harbor 45. The Rayders moved the ball to the Harbor 36 before the Rams intercepted a Rayder pass and returned the ball to the 43 yard line. Harbor Springs kicked out of danger and Charlevoix lost the ball to the Rams on a fumble as the game ended. The entire Varsity squad with the exception of Swanson, who was sick, saw action in the game.

Last Week With Class 'C' Teams

Action in the Northern Michigan Class C league saw Boyne City trounce Mancelona 31-0; Grayling defeat East Jordan 20-6; Gaylord win over Pellston 14-0 and Charlevoix edge Harbor Springs 14-0 to open the 1955 gridiron season Friday.

The opening games did much to show up the strength as well as the weaknesses in the teams of all eight opponents and gave league members a look at the competition they will be meeting during the next seven weeks.

Boyne City 31 Mancelona 0
Playing at Mancelona, the Boyne City Ramblers displayed the drive anticipated by Rambler followers and racked up five touchdowns including two in the first and third periods and one in the second quarter.

Fullback Carl Charon, a sophomore, accounted for three TDs with halfbacks Gary Neville and Charles Stocker adding one each. Only extra point was added on a pass from quarterback Bob Fitzpatrick, Murray Northrup. All touchdowns were made on line plays following concerted drives. Mancelona never threatened.

Grayling 20 East Jordan 6
It was fullback Lloyd Failing all the way as the Grayling Vikings, fielding a veteran line-up, scored three touchdowns over East Jordan on the latter's field Friday afternoon.

Failing took the opening kickoff and went 70 yards for the Vikings' first touchdown. Halfback Gary Worden ran the ball over for the extra point as the first quarter ended 7-0.

Failing went over from the one-yard line in the second period to make the score 13-0. The pass attempt for the extra point failed. East Jordan Red Devils seemed to find themselves in the second period and after picking up four first downs fullback Dick Johnson went over from the three yard line for the touchdown. Larry Woodcock's kick for the extra point was wide and the score remained 13-6.

Failing scored his final touchdown on a 63 yard run in the third period. Halfback Bill Kenyon ran the extra point over. East Jordan had the ball on the Grayling two yard line as the game ended.

Gaylord 14 Pellston 0
Halfback Jim Glasser scored from the four yard line midway in the first period in the game between Gaylord and Pellston Friday night. After Larry Warner's conversion kick went wide, an offside penalty on Pellston gave the Blue Devils another chance and Glasser ran the ball over for the extra point. The second period was scoreless and the half ended 7-0.

Early in the last quarter, Gaylord quarterback Mike McKillop intercepted a Pellston pass at midfield and returned it to the Pellston 28 before he was stopped. On the next play McKillop passed off to halfback Warner who went the distance for the touchdown. Again an offside penalty was called on Pellston after Gaylord had missed the extra point. On the second try Glasser ran the ball over to make the score 14-0.

Rayders To Meet Traditional Rivals At East Jordan Friday

The Charlevoix Rayders will travel to East Jordan Friday to take on the Red Devils as the second week of loop play in the Northern Michigan Class C league gets underway.

In other games scheduled for Friday, Mancelona will play at Pellston at 3 p.m.; Boyne City will host Gaylord and Grayling will invade Harbor Springs in games scheduled for 8 p.m. Friday.

Game of the week will definitely be the Boyne City - Gaylord meeting with both teams out to keep their top spots in loop ratings which are now shared with Grayling and Charlevoix.

Both teams have shown drive and a strong offense as well as a tight defense against league opponents. Last week Gaylord defeated a strong Pellston eleven 14-0 and Boyne City trounced Mancelona 31-0.

Both teams boast a number of seasoned players as well as returning lettermen and after a week in which to correct mistakes made in opening games and an opportunity to strengthen weak spots in their line-ups the teams should be in top shape when they meet this week. Boyne City will have veteran quarterback Bob Fitzpatrick back in the regular line-up after limited action against Mancelona. The return of Fitzpatrick, an excellent ball handler and signal caller, is expected to give Boyne City the extra punch they will need to defeat the Blue Devils who do not have the depth of the Ramblers. The latter, however, will have to come up with a defense to stop fast - traveling halfback Jim Glasser who has scored three of the Blue Devils' four touchdowns scored this year. The game will be a close one but Boyne City is expected to remain on top of the heap.

The strong Grayling eleven composed of veteran players is expected to have little trouble with the Harbor Springs Rams although the latter is fielding a more aggressive team than in recent years. The Rams showed plenty of scrap against the Rayders last week, holding the defending champions to a scoreless first half. The team, which shows inexperience and lack of weight, however, is not expected to be any match for the big Vikings whose sights are trained on the league title.

Big things were expected of the Mancelona Ironmen after they trounced Lake City 46-0 to open the season but Boyne City last week set the Ironmen back on their heels by a score of 31-0. Pellston may not be able to score as many touchdowns as the Ramblers but with one game behind the Hornets can be expected to come up with a win over the struggling Ironmen.

The Hornets were playing their first game of the season when they played at Gaylord last week while the Blue Devils had already defeated Tawas 12-0. With a little experience behind them, Pellston is expected to emerge a strong threat to all comers with a line-up that has a number of veteran players listed.

Rigid Regulations Control Import of Canadian Game Birds

Lansing — To save time and trouble, hunters should observe "the letter of the law" when importing migratory game birds from Canada this fall.

Birds brought into the U.S. from Canada must have head, head plumage and feet attached and, where required, must be accompanied by provincial export permits.

Other regulations should be checked with international boundary authorities before hunting.

Report Given On Goldman Meyer Fund

Fund was established in 1941 following the untimely death of Mrs. Meyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Goldman. It was designed to offer emergency aid to those in the Charlevoix area in need of immediate assistance other than medical care. Only persons not receiving financial aid from other sources are eligible for assistance through the fund.
Mrs. Meyer in whose memory the fund was established had been a summer resident here since childhood and though she spent only three months each year in Charlevoix her interests were always in the community and its people. It was for this reason that the memorial fund which bears her name was established in Charlevoix.

The initial contribution was made by Mrs. Meyer's immediate family who continue to contribute substantial amounts annually to keep it in operation. Many people who have become acquainted with the work of the fund now contribute to it in honor or in memory of someone. Each year many new names are added to the list of contributors.

The fund is administered locally by the administration committee headed by Mrs. Ranger.

Growth and Decline

one of the worst natural enemies of baby ducklings is the jackpilot, otherwise known as the Northern Pike. Moving noiselessly in the shallow, sluggish waters of the northland marshes, lakes and rivers, the jackpilot spies a mother ruddy duck with her several downy little tagalongs feeding on wildy dancing water beetles. Swiftly and silently the jackpilot rises to the surface. There follows a noisy splash, the snap of dagger-lined jaws, a greedy gulp, and a duckling slides down the gullet of this pirate of the North to appease his hunger for but a few hours.

It has been estimated that eight out of every hundred wild ducklings hatched on North American lakes and rivers are devoured by jackpilot. In one year these death-dealing denizens of our northern waters consumed 8,700,000 little ducks — almost the same number as were killed that year by human hunters. What a difference it would make in our duck population if all jackpilot would go on a year's duckling-free diet.

Throughout the natural world two antithetical processes are constantly taking place — growth and decline. A duck egg is laid, develops, hatches, and the duckling feeds and grows. Then suddenly it is snatched from the surface of its pond home by a voracious jackpilot. There is an instant decline in the duck population — a reduction of one duckling. But as a result of its rapaciousness the jackpilot grows.

Soon he is caught by an excited wide-eyed fisherman, and immediately there is a reduction in the jackpilot population. But the fisherman dresses the pike, bakes him, and he is eagerly eaten by the fisherman's family. Absorbed into their bodies, the jackpilot makes muscle and bone.

So the process goes on, with decline being as important as growth. Tumbling leaves and falling timbers are as much a part of a forest as are sprouting pine seeds and growing hardwood saplings. Without the pourish humus made of rotting leaves and twigs and old tree trunks the forest could not grow.

In the realm of the spirit decline and growth are of equal consequence. Some aspects of personality must decline if worthy traits of character are to grow. Childhood must recede if maturity is to be reached. Selfishness must die if serviceability is to live. The mediocre in us must give way to the better and the better to the best. Thus we live by dying!

Often our low moods drift in upon us in the wake of thoughts about death. But if death is such a normal part of our total experience on earth, can it be evil? The same good God that made possible birth and growth planned for decline and death. When the mystery of our departure is at last cleared up for us, shall we not find the answer somewhere in the goodness of God?

Herman Ellis, of St. Ignace, official photographer and public relations man for the Straits bridge was a guest at the first full meeting of Banks PTA held at the school, Tuesday evening, Sept. 20.

Mr. Ellis showed slides of scenes at the construction of the bridge, which he had photographed and spoke briefly about each picture. The desire of many to see the project themselves indicates that Mr. Ellis does his work well in every respect or the interest would not have been cultivated.

Music on the program was provided by Mrs. Hans DeYoung and Laraine Rius who played a piano duet.

Following the program the business meeting was held. A highlight was the announcement by Mrs. John DeYoung and her ways and means committee that the country fair will be the "order of the day" at the October meeting to be held Tuesday, Oct. 18.

Veenstra-VandeKieft Vows Exchanged In Atwood Christian Church Ceremony

Ellsworth—The Atwood Christian Church was the scene of a lovely fall wedding, Friday evening Sept. 23, when Jennie Veenstra daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Veenstra was united in marriage to Richard J. Vande Kieft, son of Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Vande Kieft.

Rev. Paul Veenstra, brother of the bride, from Rock Rapids, Iowa, performed the double ring ceremony, assisted by the Rev. Vande Kieft. Large baskets of assorted glads and the candelabra provided a fitting background.

Mrs. Hans De Young, organist, played the traditional wedding music and accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Robert Klooster, who sang "Because" before the entrance of the bride party; "The Wedding Prayer" after a brief talk by Rev. Vande Kieft and before the vows were spoken; and then sang "The Lord's Prayer" as the couple knelt after the ceremony.

Jennie, given in marriage by her father, made a lovely bride in her wedding gown of white nylon sheer over satin, featuring a Chantilly lace trimmed sheer yoke, long tapered sleeves, fitted bodice, full skirt, with Chantilly lace trimmed full length train, starting from the front waistline. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a seed pearl trimmed wreath. She wore a strand of pearls, gift from the groom, and carried a white Bible topped with a gamallia gladiola and streamers of white ribbon interspersed with French carnations.

Mrs. Thomas Wynsenia Jr., sister of the bride was matron of honor. She wore a white nylon sheer formal embossed with lilies of the valley, worn over pastel green satin. She carried a conical cascade bouquet of white and pink carnations.

Mary Lou De Vries, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid wearing a formal identical to that of the matron of honor and carrying a colonial cascade bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Joseph Vande Kieft Jr., brother of the groom attended as best man and Thomas Wynsenia Jr. served as groomsmen.

Bernadene Kay Sloothak, small niece of the bride, from Holland, served as flower girl, dressed as a miniature bride with lace trimmed white satin formal and fingertip veil. She carried a basket of pink and white flowers.

Master Perry Penfold, nephew of the bride was ring bearer. Andrew and James Veenstra, brothers of the bride seated the guests.

Mrs. Veenstra, mother of the bride chose a light navy blue street length dress with black accessories for her daughter's wedding.

Mrs. Vande Kieft wore a charcoal suit with black accessories. Their corsages were fashioned of red rosebuds and white French carnations.

A reception for about 100 guests was held in the church basement following the ceremony with Mr. and Mrs. Jake Witvugt of Bauer, as master and mistress of ceremonies.

The three tiered cake, iced in white and topped with a miniature bride and groom, was served as a part of the lunch. Mesdames George Koster, John Retsema, Mas Bolser and Martin Elzinga were in charge of the kitchen.

Misses Karen Potts, Roseau Elzinga, Margarita Doctor, Minnie Mae De Vries, Marcia Ritsema and Marilyn Setzema, served the guests. They wore party aprons, gifts from the bride.

Mrs. Frank Meekhof, Mrs. Darwin Penfold and Mrs. Corwin Sloothak, sisters of the bride were in charge of the gift table.

Following the ceremony the newlyweds left on a trip into the upper peninsula and Canada. On their return they will live near Portland where the groom will assume the pastorate of the Christian Reformed Church.

For travelling, the bride chose an autumn blue two piece dress of shantung, with navy blue coat and accessories.

Police Cooperate In State Safety Program For Kids

Police Chief Clarence Heise and Sheriff Glenn E. Rose today announced that Charlevoix and Charlevoix county are cooperating with the State Safety Commission on the annual September "WATCH OUT FOR KIDS" traffic safety program.

"Each year," they said, "motorists need to be reminded that children are returning to school and that there is a special need to watch out for them — many of whom have just returned from carefree vacations and have not adapted themselves to the routine of going to and from schools."

According to law enforcement officers 5,057 children were struck down by automobiles on the streets and highways of Michigan last year—119 of them died and many were crippled for life.

"Our departments will pay particular attention to speeding near schools during September as a forceful reminder to all motorists to watch their speed as they watch out for kids in school areas," they continued.

They give the following advice to parents. They are urged to teach their children this simple rule by repeating it over and over again:

STOP at the curb
LOOK both ways
WAIT until it's safe to cross
WALK across the street

In conclusion they said, "Hitting a little girl or a little boy with a ton and a half of steel is not a pleasant thing to do. You, as a driver in such an accident, would find small comfort in the fact that the police may decide that the mishap was caused primarily by the child's own carelessness."

Corn-on-the-cob time is here. Here are some things to look for when buying corn — bright, plump kernels; well filled cobs without insect injury; dark green husks which are fresh in appearance and wound tightly around the bottom of the ear; shiny, dark brown silks; and a stem, green at the break, to indicate freshness.

MSU Short Course In Ag Available To County Boys

Boys from Charlevoix county have an opportunity this year to take a short course in agriculture at Michigan State University.

Ed Reberman, the agricultural agent, said there are several scholarships available for the course. The training included eight-week terms with instruction in dairying, crops, farm management, livestock, poultry, soils, horticulture, farm mechanics, plant diseases, bacteriology, insects and parasites and subjects that can be selected.

Special courses in leadership, family living, parliamentary procedure and public speaking also will be a part of the students' schedule.

While attending the short course the students will be housed in the Short Course dormitory and will eat at the Short Course cafeteria. Complete cost for an eight weeks' term is $180 for room, board, tuition and books.

More information about scholarship possibilities is available at the county extension office, according to Reberman.

San Juan Rabbit May Be Problem To State Farmers

Lansing — Michigan may have a San Juan rabbit problem on its hands, and then again it may not.

San Juan rabbits come from the San Juan Islands in Washington's Puget Sound and are noted for their burrow - digging erosion - starting abilities. They reproduced like fury on their island home and at one point numbered about 1000 per square mile.

Because of the San Juan's destructive habits, various conservation groups have resolved against them, including the national Wildlife Society, and the International Association of Fish and Game Commissioners.

Recently, Conservation Department field workers found numbers of the rabbits have been released in Michigan for dog field trial work. Releases have been made in several southern Michigan areas.

But state workers doubt that releases made so far have been enough to establish the San Juan here. He stems from a domestic breed of bunny that in the San Juan Islands turned wild, but here his situation is similar in many ways to that facing any freed domestic animal. He will have to adapt to Michigan conditions and he may do that, but right now it appears doubtful.

The main concern is for the future. Being both wild and domestic, the San Juan's legal status is in doubt. No law clearly controls releases or importations of these rabbits and later releases might include enough hardy, adaptable individuals to trigger a full-scale agricultural problem.

"I don't see a Leader Dog for the Blind around Charlevoix," you may say. That is true and it is the hope of the Leader Dog for the Blind in Rochester that you never will. However, to this organization which furnishes a trained dog and trains a blind person how to use the dog for a fee of $150.00. The actual cost of the service is $1.50. No blind person is denied a dog because he is unable to pay the fee.

National agencies included in the Michigan United Fund offers many services. The National Travelers Aid Association, for instance, has many stations throughout the United States which are available to all travelers seeking assistance with problems while away from home. More than 80 young men and women from the Charlevoix area are now in the armed services. Many of them use one or more of the 206 USO Centers in the United States and overseas. The theme of the USO, "A home away from home," means more to these service men and women in peacetime than during a period of war.

for in peacetime servicemen have more leisure time and sometimes fewer places to spend it. Thus in contributing to the Michigan United Fund one cannot think in terms of only Charlevoix but rather in terms of your responsibilities to the state and nation. All Michigan United Fund agencies are local agencies and as local agencies are a part of the Community Chest.

Corps Of Solicitors Ready For Campaign To Raise $7,650.00

The 1955 Community Chest drive to raise $7,650 for 10 agencies will open Tuesday, Oct. 11, under the direction of Mrs. Gordon L. Freedman and Mrs. Charles A. Duerr as co-chairmen.

The increase of $1,777 over the 1954 quota of $5,872 is due mainly to the addition of two new agencies, the Retarded Children's School and the American Red Cross, to the united drive.

Reginald Greenway and William Foehman who were named to the Community Chest board of directors last week to fill vacancies left by the resignation of Mrs. Dean Davenport and Mrs. Herbert Campbell will be in charge of the business and industrial divisions.

The residential drive will be in charge of Mrs. Freedman and Mrs. Duerr assisted by Mrs. Robert Wallace and Mrs. Robert Lieberman. The mailing committee will be in charge of Fran Martin assisted by Mrs. J. K. Reed who will do the clerical work.

The kick-off meeting for the 1955 Community Chest drive, the only meeting to be held prior to the drive, will be held Monday, Oct. 10, with the drive officially opening the following day. All captains and their workers are urged to attend the meeting in order to receive their instructions and campaign material.

The Community Chest agencies and their quotas follow: Boy Scouts, $1,100, an increase of $150 over last year; Girl Scouts, $600, a decrease of $100; City Recreation, $500, an increase of $300 over 1953 and the same as allotted the agency last spring from funds on hand; Salvation Army, $300; Community Nurse, $1,200, an increase of $200, hospital maintenance fund, $750; Emergency fund, $400, a decrease of $50; Michigan United Fund, $1,101, an increase of $34, the Retarded Children's school, $855 and the American Red Cross, $488. The latter two agencies are new to the Chest. The Red Cross quota is for only half the next fiscal year as the chapter budget, set up earlier, had funds available for the first six months of the year.

Campaign expenses were set at $140.

The Charlevoix Service organization which requested $400 last year is not participating this year since its budget did not show a need.

A series of five articles appeared in the Charlevoix Courier during the month of September in an effort to acquaint the public with the participating agencies and how their funds are spent.

Robert Lieberman is Community Chest chairman.

Area Development Committee Will Meet On Monday

The new Northern Lower Peninsula Development Committee will hold its first meeting Monday at Grayling. Invited to attend are 12 men representing eight economic fields of Charlevoix county and the other 28 counties of Michigan's northern lower peninsula.

The new committee will coordinate the efforts of the Northern Lower Peninsula communities in developing the area's economy.

The Northern Lower Peninsula Advisory Board of the Michigan Economic Development Commission first recommended the coordinating committee after an economic study of the area. An area progress conference which met last June in Cadillac approved the recommendation and set up a nine-man organizational committee, headed by Arthur E. Steinbrecker, manager of the Northern Michigan Electric Co-operative, Inc.

ODDS 'N ENDS

By Fran Martin

IN CASE you haven't noticed it yet, Charlevoix got a big mention in the October issue of Ladies' Home Journal. It's included in the serial "My Brother Adial" written by Mrs. Elizabeth Stevenson Ives, sister of Adial Stevenson, Democratic candidate for president in 1952 and as you'll see in the article, a former summer resident here. . . . Tells about the family's days at the Belvedere club which Mrs. Ives calls the "Robert Burns days." So take a look. . . . you'll find it without any trouble. . . . And later it will be published as a book. . . .

DID YOU ever see a more beautiful autumn day than we had Sunday. . . . cool and crisp with a definite tinge of fall in the air. . . . leaves tumbling down. . . . Just the kind of day that one will remember for a long, long time. . . .

But we understand that the hunters did not approve of this beauty. . . . there were too many leaves on the trees and those on the ground were dry and noisy. . . . Didn't hear of anyone getting anything. . . . at least, we didn't see any with our name on but then it's kinda early in the season for that. . . .

ONLY BIRDS we heard about was the one which opened the season early in Charlevoix. . . . by flying into the second story window of the county courthouse and breaking its poor little neck. . . . Art Nettleton, courthouse custodian, would have nothing to do with the bird. . . . since it was the day before the legal season opened (and he wasn't going to be caught with a partridge in the bag) so we understand the sheriff enjoyed partridge for dinner Saturday night. . . .

NOTICED in the newspaper the other day that from now on in-berated persons in England will not be able to "mail" themselves home. . . . Seems the English were overdoing it and it wasn't worth it as far as the postoffice department was concerned. . . . They only realized 10 cents per mile and with having to provide an attendant it just wasn't worth it to them. . . . We'll bet if they had a few postal employees like ours they wouldn't pull that stunt more than once. . . . and chances are they'd be sober before they'd much more than finished paying the postage on themselves. . . . However, it is still possible to post bees, cows and dogs (what, no pigs?) If there are postal employees who are capable (?) of handling them. . . . So help us, that's what it said. . . . Maybe this old custom dates back to the time when men wore coats of mail!!! . . . Do you suppose? . . .

HOW ABOUT that football game Friday? As long as they were going to win it, it might have been a little easier on the nerves if those Rayders had scored earlier in the game. . . . That they'd never get themselves over that goal line. . . . This week it's going to be even tougher when they meet Grayling. . . . despite the fact that the latter dropped a game to Harbor. . . . Doesn't mean a thing. . . . So here's luck to Coach Carey and his Rayders. . . . We know you can do it if you try. . . .

THE WEEK after this, Oct. 14, is going to be homecoming. . . . It's the Boyne City game and it's going to be terrific. . . . The Pop club wants everyone to come who can. . . . It promises to be a great program with a homecoming queen, a parade with floats, a pep rally with a bonfire and snake dance. . . . Sounds like loads of fun so plan now to attend the big event. . . . You won't be sorry. . . .

NEXT WEEK our Community Chest drive is scheduled to get underway. . . . The quota this year is big but there are a lot of worthwhile organizations included in the Chest so plan now so you can make your contribution when the worker calls. . . . And remember one thing, will you? . . . When the Community Chest solicitor comes to your door, be nice to her or him. . . . After all he's only doing a job. . . . collecting money so that the agencies can carry on their work. . . . And don't ask the worker to call back. . . . Make your plans now to answer the call by giving when the knock comes on your door sometime next week. . . .

ANOTHER couple of U.S. Fisheries battles turned up recently. . . . they were put adrift Sept. 5 two miles northwest of Charlevoix and were found at the Lake Michigan bathing beach later in the month. . . .

DON'T KNOW if Mrs. Franklin Curtis will ever be named worthy matron of the Charlevoix Eastern Star chapter but if she is she's prepared for it. . . . just recently she was presented with a worthy matron's pin bearing the name of Ruth A. Bedford (her maiden name) which was worn by her great-grandmother in 1896 when she served as head of the local chapter. . . . And she also had the past matron's pin. . . . They're lovely. . . . so different from those seen today but real keepsakes she treasures. . . . She just received them recently from a cousin, Will Campbell who lives in southern Michigan. . . .

Dear Charlevoix high school Alumni:
Wherever you are, whatever you are doing, drop everything to be on hand Oct 14 for the greatest, grandest, most terrific, tremendous, gigantic, colossal, world-shaking Homecoming of all times! Skip college classes, break appointments, go A.W.O.L. . . . nothing is more important than your attendance at this once-in-a-lifetime affair.

There's a parade at 4. There's a football game with Boyne City at 3 p.m. There's a dance (We hope it will be a Victory ball) There's nothing but fun and excitement ahead of you. You can't afford to miss it for three reasons:

1. We need you!
2. We want you!
3. We'd miss you if you weren't!

Autumn flowers are so very colorful. . . . and one appreciates them so much because there are so few of them and their days are limited. . . . Everyone's enjoyed it so much she's mighty glad she was patient with it. . . .

IN THE mail during the week a letter from Pete Johnson, now spending some time on top of the world, at Thule, Greenland. . . . Must be quite an experience. . . . As for us, we'll leave it for the Eskimos. . . .

Pioneer Residents Observed 53rd Wedding Anniversary Here Tuesday

Mr. and Mrs. H. Pearl Johnson, pioneer residents of this community, observed their fifty-third wedding anniversary at their home at 209 1/2 W. Upright ave. Tuesday. The date also marked Mr. Johnson's seventy-seventh birthday anniversary.

There was no formal observance of the occasion on Tuesday. Both events, however, were observed at a family dinner Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were married at Petoskey Oct. 4, 1902. At the time of their marriage Mr. Johnson was a member of the crew at the Charlevoix Lifesaving station and helped build the main building still used as the U.S. Coast Guard Lifeboat station. Later he served at Michigan City Ind., where he was injured so badly on a lifesaving mission Sept. 8, 1909, that he was retired from the service following his recovery.

Later he returned here and was employed as a commercial fisherman by Geik C. Geiken, John O'Neill and a Mr. Dolman, well known names in the commercial fishing business in Charlevoix's early days. He also worked as a decorator and painter.

In 1937 he and Mrs. Johnson went west and for the next 14 years made their home in Oregon where he worked as a painter, smoked fish and made "goofies," miniature animals, people and birds made of pine cones, hard-shelled nuts and pipe cleaners. This is a hobby he still follows.

Born at Grand Haven Oct. 4, 1878, Mr. Johnson came to Charlevoix as a child. His first job, he recalls, was aboard a lumber barge as a second cook at the age of 12 years.

Mrs. Johnson, the former Esther Taylor, was born in Marion township Jan. 3, 1884. Besides doing her housework, she busies herself with crocheting.

Both are avid fishermen and nightly may be found on the docks fishing for perch now that the fall run is about to start.

The couple has one daughter, Mrs. Wayne (Luella) Ford of Grand Rapids and a son, Archie Johnson of Coopersville. They also have five grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Dresses Extra-Special at $5.95

Lucky I consider myself to have been among the 97,239 fortunate few to attend the Michigan - Michigan State Football Contest last Saturday. The sun in its full strength and beauty bent its rays to each head and costume to produce a galaxy of color very difficult to imagine. Heaven forbid that we ever be without red as a fashion color! Red glorifies the massive crowd as the frosted maple glorifies our beloved outdoors today. It isn't as prevalent, nor as dominating as before but instead takes its place as accent to much more earthy tones. Basically it's a bed of brown this season. A whole family of browns — sable, mink, cinnamon, copper and amber — comprise the fashion field. Turfed up with soft, neutral greens as a favorite accessory color. It's Avacado and "Avacado Peel" (a blackened green) that's new. Dotted here and there with rich periwinkle blue for added color. And there you have the composite color of 97,239 persons in the fall of '55. Have you ever asked "Who determines the colors of fashion?" Be sure it isn't anyone other than yourself — and thousands more like you — who dictate and present the fashion picture in its entirety and true sense.

GOOD NEWS SPECIAL: ALL REGULARLY PRICED $5.95 DRESSES Thursday, Friday and Saturday Only—Specially priced at $3.39.

It's a gay special in pretty plaids and plain cottons for all size figures. They are new, lively cottons to brighten your day. And only once in a very few times do you find such value at the very low regular price — now as a WEEK-END SPECIAL at $3.39.

In the solemn hours God's Gift is Flowers

The traditional way to say "with sympathy" is to say it with flowers. Through the centuries men have turned to this blessed way of expressing their tenderest thoughts to friends and dear ones. Those left behind will never forget the beautiful memory picture your thoughtfulness helps to create. And in years to come you gain rich satisfaction in having contributed to the silent sermon on everlasting life that flowers add to this sacred occasion.

Reorganization Of High School Band Promotes 17 Members To Senior Group

The organization of the 1955-56 Charlevoix high school band has been completed according to C.A. Odmark, director of music in the local schools.

Seventeen students have been promoted from the Varsity band to the Senior band and for the first time the organization is completely a tenth, eleventh and twelfth grade group. The band is slightly smaller than last year's, numbering 57 pieces.

Present band members have all studied a minimum of 3½ years, having started their instrumental training during the second semester of the sixth grade, continuing in the seventh grade beginning band, the junior or Varsity band during their eighth and ninth grade years with membership in the Senior band clinching their efforts. The majority of the band members continued their studies during the summer program so that there has been a continuous application of time of at least 42 months of training before the new Senior band members reached their present goal. A conservative estimate of time devoted to training would be five hours a week which, when computed on a 42-month basis, would mean that each student in the band had spent at least 840 hours preparing himself for membership in the Senior band. This applies to tenth grade students; the older students have spent even more time on their music program.

The band members do this not for credit received but for the satisfaction and pleasure derived from membership in such an organization. Band members receive only ¼ credit per year, or ½ credit per semester, for their efforts.

Activities of the band are many and varied. The group presents at least three formal concerts during the school year, appears at all home football games and most basketball games, provides music for various civic functions and for the weekly pep meetings at school. In addition it participates in the State Band and Orchestra festival where it has won top honors in district participation eight out of nine years. In state competition the band has won highest honors four times in the eight times it appeared. In addition to these activities the band represents Charlevoix in many out of town events, such as this past summer when it participated in both the National Cherry Festival at Traverse City and the Soo Centennial Celebration at Sault Ste. Marie.

Mr. Odmark, the director of the band, is beginning his tenth year as director of the music program in the local school and now has 125 students in the instrumental music program.

The tentative alignment of the band roster for the 1955-56 follows:

Flutes: Donna Durand, Carol Durr, Joan Brady, Sylvia Lee Miles; oboe, Sharon Swanson; bassoon, Joyce Nielsen; clarinet (first) Sharon Belding, Joan Heilig, Margot Davenport, Deanna Loft, Dee Gneil.

Solo cornet, Clarence Peters; Bill Purdy, Pat Bulow, Walter Poquette, Jerry Stebe; second cornet, Roberta Mayne, Ruth Ann Smith, David Miles; third cornet, Wanda Russell, Barbara Jarvis, Raymond Schultz.

Horns, Janet Crump, Sue Gilt, Ellen Miller, Lucille Sanford, Lorabelle Elzinga; baritone, Robert Beassey, Susan Crump, Donna Guild, Sandra Cunningham; trombone, Ivan Parsons, Robert Mol Carol Burgis; basses, Larry Ingalls, Stanley Harwood.

Drums, Carolyn Steel, Beth Lewis, Suzanne Grate, Kae Lewis, Janet Allison.

A new flame resistant finish for cotton cloth has been developed by U.S. Department of Agriculture scientists. It is hoped to be used in the future for safer uniforms, tents and other cotton fabric items for the military. The finish adds wrinkle resistance and rot resistance to the fabric.

Dodge Introduces New 4-Door Hardtop

One of the newest, most exciting automobiles to appear on the American motoring scene in recent years is the glamorous 1956 Dodge Four-Door Lancer hardtop. All of the youth and vigor of true hardtop styling has been skillfully combined with the comfort and convenience of the four-door sedan. While the car shown above is in the Custom Royal series, the same body style is being offered in the lower priced Royal and Coronet series.

Sewing on that hat you are making over is just as important as the kind of trim you use. Use a single or double thread. Bring the needle through from the inside, then back, just once, using the stab stitch. Michigan State home economists suggest tying the threads loosely so there is some give between the hat and the trimmings.

When we sold the Dr. Mitchell place a few days ago... a house with a Park Avenue Address... close to shopping, without parking, close to school without a bus ride... churches, library, yet just a block up the street to Lake Michigan and a sunset every evening... a home to live in, and from to enjoy Charlevoix. That was what the Holland Hayes family purchased at 110 Park Avenue!

NOW, we have another place with all the same desirable hidden amenities... just two doors west. And this place completely furnished can be sold without furnishings) 204 Park Avenue. It will be a pleasure to give you more details and to show you this home.

Remote Control

A few days ago I asked a teenage youngster, "Where would you guess you might find the heaviest and strongest muscle on a bird?" And the answer I received was, "On the wings, of course!"

"But why would the largest muscle be on the wings?"

"Because they are needed there to give power for flying."

That makes sense. Since a bird flies with its wings, it would seem necessary that the wing muscles should be large and powerful to perform the work of flight. But pluck the wings of a freshly shot ruffed grouse or pheasant and you will find them to be thin, weak-looking things, singularly disappointing in appearance. There is hardly any muscle there at all.

How can this be explained? The answer is found in the fact that the bird does not actually use its wing muscles for flight. Instead, these meager muscles are used for simpler, less energy-consuming tasks such as stretching out the wings and folding them again when a flight is finished.

Look at a ruffed grouse cock standing haughtily in a sunlit forest glade or making mining tracks along the brook's edge, or strutting his stuff down a forest trail, and you might guess where his muscles are. In the breast, which he perpetually swells as if he were having his chest expansion measured, the ruffed grouse carries his power for flight. Attached all along the keel of the breastbone, from there it reaches to the bird's shoulder and ends in a strong unstretchable tendon. The tendon in turn is fastened to the front of the upper wing-bone. The bird flies by contracting this breast muscle, pulling the wing downward against the resisting air. When the wing is lowered, the large breast muscle relaxes and the wing is raised into position (by an opposing muscle, also located in the breast) for the next downward stroke. Thus the bird flits from one haunt to another, its rather feeble wings controlled by a tremendous power seated elsewhere in its body. Its wings are operated by a kind of "remote control," the action being removed from the site of strength.

Life is like that, causes often being rather remote from effects. Pain in the shoulder and left arm may indicate trouble in the heart. Floods in a valley can be traced to melting snows on distant hills and far-off mountain tops. We can read today because an alphabet was invented thousands of years ago, and the bulk of reading matter available to us has its origins in Gutenberg's invention of movable type, devised some decades before Columbus' momentous voyage. History is a study of the prologue of present events, and psychoanalysis is the technique of tracking down the infant beginnings of a person's current mental ills. Not only bird wings, but nearly everything seems to be operated by a power somewhat removed from the visible effect—by remote control.

Modern telegraphy is operated with the help of a code based upon dots and dashes. It is generally supposed that the dots and dashes in telegraphy get their names from the shape of the symbols used in sending messages, and that these symbols are as ancient as our written language. But that isn't so. Bill Vaughn, of the KANSAS CITY STAR, has reported that the terms "dot" and "dash" as used in telegraphy are tributes to two youngsters, the children of Millard Fillmore, thirteenth president of the United States. Mr. Fillmore was an early and powerful supporter of Samuel Morse in the inventor's often-frustrated attempts to contrive and market an instrument for sending messages by wire, and his children, Dorothy and Dashiell, were Morse's friends. It isn't known just how much inspiration and cheer the disheartened creator of the telegraph received from the young Fillmores. But it is certain that after long years of patient work and many discouragements, Morse's experiments were successful, and the first message sent over the wire stretched from Baltimore to Washington D. C., read, when decoded, "What hath God wrought!" The coding was in "dots" and "dashes," named after the Fillmore children. Dorothy, known as "Dot" and Dashiell, nicknamed "Dash." To whom should the invention of the telegraph be credited? To Samuel F. B. Morse? Of course. But those sources of encouragement, the Fillmores, were in charge, too, lending help without which Morse might have failed. The Fillmores were in remote control.

What we are and do today have been largely determined by habits formed in the yesterdays. What we shall be in a year or a decade, our future strength of body, mind, and spirit, is constantly being decided right now by our present behavior. What we are getting out of life can be traced to distant origins in what we have given. A young lad and his mother, it is said, lived high among the mountains. One day the boy was punished for some misdemeanor and his mother punished him severely, whereupon he ran to the edge of a great precipice and screamed back at his mother, "I hate you!"

• Thomas Alexander of Rogers City visited Monday with Mr. and Mrs. M. Franklin Olmstead.

• Mrs. George Ilgman and children, Michael, William, Patrick and Sue, visited Monday with relatives here.

• Weekend guests at the home

"I hate you!" Across the chasm came an answer, "I hate you! I hate you!" Alarmed, the boy ran trembling to his mother and asked, "Who is that bad man across the chasm who shouts, 'I hate you!' at me?" The boy's mother led him back to the precipice edge. "My son," she said, "try calling out 'I love you! I love you!'" The child followed her directions, calling, "I love you! I love you!" with all his might. And the echo came back, clear and strong, "I love you! I love you!" The wise mother drew the lad tightly to her and whispered to him one of life's wondrous open secrets. "My son, that is a law of life. What you give, you'll get."

Life is made up pretty much of shouts and echoes, what we get being a reflection of what we have given often a long time ago.

Life is operated by remote control.

Rice is offered in the grocery store in many forms. Regular polished white rice has the hull, bran and germ removed. Brown rice has a nutty flavor and more nutrients than white rice. With only the hull removed, brown rice doesn't keep as well and needs longer cooking time. Converted rice is regular white rice with B vitamins and minerals retained. Precooked rice is partially cooked before packaging, thus saving home cooking time.

NORTHLAND DRIVE-IN THEATER

Little Theatre To Present Play "You Can't Take It With You"

The Petoskey Little Theatre will present the ever-popular Moss and Kaufman comedy, "You Can't Take It With You" at the Petoskey high school auditorium Monday and Tuesday to open its 1955-56 season.

The play will be one of four to be presented during the Little Theatre's tenth anniversary year. Presented under the direction of Ross Stouffer Jr., the celebrated comedy tells the story of the Sycamores who seem mad, but it is not long before everyone realizes that if they are mad, the rest of the world is madder.

In contrast to these delightful people are the unhappy Kirbys whose son, Tony, falls in love with Alice Sycamore. When Tony brings his parents to dinner at the Sycamores on the wrong night, Alice realizes that marriage with Tony is impossible.

But love will find a way, so despite the actions of the ex-Grand Duchess turned waitress, the members of the household engaged in the manufacture of fireworks, ballet dancing, playwriting, the printing machine in the parlor, and Grandpa's interview with the tax collector when he tells him why he doesn't believe in the income tax, the pair finally get together but not before the audience has enjoyed countless laughs.

The role of Alice will be played by Marion Brower and Tony by Jim Stoll. In the supporting cast will be Mrs. Robert Gregory, Mrs. Victor Cannon, Mrs. William Pletzer, Tom Paxton, Gordon Carter, Wynn Peck, Dr. Hubert Hayes, Mr. Gregory, Dr. R. E. Todd, Bertram Rowe, Mrs. Don Golden, Milton Kniebes, Mrs. O. B. McVay, Carl McGrath, Ralph Pierson, Al Anstead and Mrs. Wilmer R. Moyer.

Curtain time will be 8:00 p.m. Season tickets are now on sale. In Charlevoix information regarding tickets may be obtained by calling 6633.

'Power' Magazine Devotes Article To Local Plant

In the current issue of the McGraw-Hill publication, "Power", an entire page of the magazine is devoted to the suggestions made by the city's former superintendent, R. R. Robinson.

Accompanying the prize-winning article entitled "Cost-Conscious Rebuilding Gears Diesel Plant for Growing Load", are two photographs of Charlevoix's municipal light plant and a fuel system diagram showing provisions for No. 5 and light oil.

The story with the pictures relates what Mr. Robinson found when he came to Charlevoix in August 1954, the purchase of used diesel generators, how the plant was remodeled to house the engine, how the switch to No. 5 fuel oil was handled and how it cut fuel costs an estimated $8,000 a year.

Two Community Correspondents Added To Staff

The Charlevoix Courier has two new correspondents, Mrs. Arthur Stoll of the Barnard district and Mrs. William Hair of the Murray district.

Mrs. Stoll succeeds her mother, the late Mrs. Clyde Smith, who served as Courier correspondent in the Barnard district for 40 years. Mrs. Hair who is now teaching near Midland is covering the Murray district.

In behalf of the correspondents as well as the Courier, you are invited to call the correspondents in your respective district with your news. This applies to residents of other districts also.

"Names make a newspaper" is a well-known phrase in the newspaper world. Without your cooperation your newspaper cannot be a success.

Airplanes are becoming noisier. New jet engines with powerful afterburners generate 150 decibels, a fury of sound equivalent to 1,500,000,000 people all talking at once. Nothing in man's previous experience approaches that intensity.

Last Week With Class 'C' Teams

Boyer City and Charlevoix remained the only undefeated teams in the Northern Michigan Class C league following Friday's games in which Harbor Springs upset top-rated Grayling 13-0 and the Boyne City Ramblers trounced Gaylord 26-0.

In other games played Friday Charlevoix won over East Jordan 7-0 and Pellston defeated Mancelona 20-0.

Harbor Springs 13 Grayling 6
In the game at Harbor Springs the underdog Rams thrilled a homecoming crowd with their fine performance which gave them a one-touchdown victory over the highly-touted Grayling Vikings. It was the first time in more than five years that Harbor has won a homecoming game.

The first period was scoreless but a recovered fumble on Grayling's 43 as the period ended gave the Rams their first break. On a series of seven plays to open the second quarter Harbor Springs moved the ball to the 12 where left end Don Lauer took it on a pitch - out from quarterback Ritchie Clarke for the touchdown. Clark drop-kicked the ball for the extra point.

Harbor's second break came midway in the same period when the Rams recovered a Grayling fumble following a punt. Moving the ball from the Grayling 33 to the one-yard line on six plays, halfback Kent Talcott carried it over for the touchdown. The kick for the extra point was wide.

The third quarter was scoreless but in the last period Grayling quarterback Gary Parkinson recovered a Harbor fumble on the Rams' 24 yard line. On a series of plays including two quarterback sneaks, the Vikings carried the ball to the five yard line where halfback Bill Kenyon went over to score. Grayling attempted to run the ball over for the extra point but was stopped short of the goal line.

Except for the one touchdown, Grayling never got inside Harbor Springs' 45 yard line.

Boyer City 26 Gaylord 0
The strong Boyne City eleven had no competition from Gaylord as the Ramblers rolled up four touchdowns and had a fifth called back following a penalty on the Ramblers in the third period.

Halfback Charles Stocker accounted for two touchdowns plays and fullback Carl Charon and halfback Gary Newville scored one each.

Stocker took a pass from quarterback Bob Fitzpatrick midway in the first period to score the Ramblers first touchdown on a play that covered 34 yards. The kick for the extra point was wide. Charon went through center for 43 yards and a touchdown early in the second period with Stocker booting the extra point. Later in the same period Stocker scored from the seven on a line play after Boyne City had recovered a Gaylord fumble on the latter's 20 yard line.

The third period was scoreless but Newville added a touchdown midway through the final period when he went over from the two yard line. The Ramblers blocked a Gaylord punt and took the ball on the Gaylord 13 to set up the last scoring play. Stocker kicked the extra point to make the score 26-0. Gaylord never threatened.

Pellston 20 Mancelona 6
At Pellston a much-improved Horret squad trounced the visiting Ironmen 20-6 with left halfback Ron Keiser, fullback Jim Robinson and right halfback Frank Durkalec scoring the touchdowns.

The first touchdown came early in the first period as Kaiser scored from his own 45 following a series of plays the first time the Hornets had possession of the ball. Robinson ran the ball over for the extra point. Pellston took the ball on their own 35 and kicked off to the Ironmen, who moved it to the four yard line, where fullback Gary Shisler took it over to make the score 7-0. The kick for the extra point was blocked by end Dale Drier and the score remained 7-0.

In the second quarter Mancelona punted to the Pellston 30 where the Hornets took over and on a series of pass plays from quarterback Basil Naganashe to ends Drier and Pat Cabinaw moved the ball to the five where Robinson went through the line to make the halftime score 14-0 after a pass from Naganashe to Kaiser added the extra point.

Mancelona kicked off to Pellston to open the second period. On the first play from scrimmage, Durkalec went 60 yards for the touchdown. Pellston's attempt to run the ball over for the extra point was unsuccessful.

Mancelona moved to the Pellston 20 two different times late in the game but Pellston intercepted Ironmen passes both times to stop the assault.

ing to Grayling to meet the Vikings on the newly-lighted gridiron.

All games this week will be played at 8 p.m.

After last week the consensus of opinion in the north is that Boyne City will be the team to beat. With a versatile backfield that can run and pass as well as play a good game on defense and a big, hard-playing line, Boyne City's 1955 squad is at present rated as the top team in the league. In this position, every opponent will be out to trip the Ramblers but all comers will find the going tough as they meet the victory-bound Ramblers who have their sights trained on the title which was snatched from them in their final game of the season last year by Charlevoix.

Though Pellston is a team that is improving with the season and have a 20-6 win over Mancelona to their credit, chances are they have not improved enough at this time to defeat the Boyne City squad which won over Mancelona 31-0 and Gaylord 26-0. Pellston lost to the latter earlier in the season by a 12-0.

Gaylord and Mancelona will renew an old rivalry this week when they meet on the Ironmen's gridiron. The Blue Devils, in second place with a one and one record, will have a slight edge over their hosts. The Ironmen, however, would like to come out of their cellar position and may give the visitors a close game.

East Jordan, whose outlook is better now than it was earlier in the season, will take on the Harbor Springs Rams in the Ottawa Indian stadium this week. Inspired by their unexpected win over the highly-touted Grayling Vikings by a 13-0 score, the Rams who are showing great improvement will be trying to stay in the win column, a position they have held few times in recent years. East Jordan is out to rack up its first win of the season so the game should be a close one with the outcome a toss-up.

Rayders Miss Four Chances To Score

In a game which saw the Charlevoix Rayders miss four scoring opportunities before getting across a touchdown pass late in the game, the local eleven defeated East Jordan 7-0 to successfully defend their Northern Michigan Class C title for the second time this season.

This week the Rayders will travel to Grayling to meet the Vikings who will be playing under lights on their home field for the first time. The system which includes 48 light arrangements has been installed on the athletic field by the city of Grayling.

If comparative scores mean anything, Charlevoix will have its work cut out for it this week. Grayling trounced the East Jordan Red Devils 20-6 while the Rayders merely edged past the Jordanites by a one-touchdown margin. On the other hand, Grayling was defeated 13-6 by Harbor Springs, a team the Rayders had beaten by a 14-0 score earlier.

In the past week the Viking squad has been hit by injuries which are bound to hurt them. Veteran end Mel Luter is out of the line-up for the remainder of the season with a fractured arm received when he slipped and fell in the locker room following the Harbor Springs game Friday; hard-running fullback Lloyd Failing is slowed up with a bad leg bruise; halfback Steve Jorgenson has a bad ankle sprain; letterman Richard Moore who was expected to give the backfield some depth and sophomore quarterback Bill Hall are out of the line-up with injuries received in practice. Moore has an arm fracture and Hall a fractured collar bone.

However, with 15 returning regulars and lettermen, Grayling will not be as hard hit as other teams with fewer experienced players. On Tuesday Coach Larry Baumann had not named replacements for his injured players.

In the game at East Jordan Friday, Charlevoix threatened four times but twice the East Jordan line held on the goal line and twice Charlevoix fumbled inside the East Jordan 10-yard line.

As the game drew to a close without either team scoring, the Rayders, in desperation, executed a pass from halfback Garry Vandenberg on the 22 yard line to quarterback Quint Walker who stepped over the goal line to score the winning touchdown with less than four minutes remaining in the game. Vandenberg's kick for the extra point gave the Rayders their narrow 7-0 victory.

East Jordan kicked off to the Rayders to open the game but after picking up one first down the Rayders lost the ball to East Jordan on their own 40. The Red Devils picked up a first down to the Charlevoix 40 and a 15-yard penalty on the Rayders moved the ball to the Charlevoix 25.

The East Jordan threat was short-lived, however, when the Rayders recovered a Red Devil fumble on the 28. They moved the ball to the East Jordan 40 but another 15-yard penalty set them back to their own 25 as the first quarter ended.

With 25 yards to go on fourth down, Vandenberg got off a long kick which went to the East Jordan 35 and rolled to the 21.

On the second play East Jordan was set back to their own six yard line following a major penalty and on the next down kicked out of danger to the 26 yard line where Charlevoix took over.

A series of plays moved the ball to the East Jordan 10 for a first down but a five-yard penalty for too much time in the huddle set the Rayders back to the 15. A three yard gain and five-yard offside penalty on East Jordan placed the ball on the seven yard line. On the next play the Rayders moved the ball to the East Jordan three but East Jordan's line held and they took over on downs.

After two unsuccessful attempts to move the ball, East Jordan punted to their own 23 where the Rayders again took over and marched the ball to the 10 yard line. After moving to the four yard line, Charlevoix fumbled and East Jordan recovered to halt another scoring threat.

The half ended with the Devils in possession of the ball on their own seven.

Charlevoix kicked to East Jordan to open the second half but an East Jordan march bogged down on the Rayder 46 after they had picked up one first down. After an exchange of punts in the general area of midfield, East Jordan kicked to the Charlevoix 10. The Rayders elected to kick out of danger and East Jordan took over on the Rayder 35.

Charlevoix recovered an East Jordan fumble on their own 35 and opened a drive which found them well in East Jordan territory as the third period ended.

On a series of line plays the Rayders moved to the Jordan eight where Walker passed to Guy Swanson in the end zone for what looked like a touchdown until he dropped the ball. On a fourth down running play, the ball was carried out of bounds on the East Jordan five where the Red Devils took over.

East Jordan punted to their own 33 after failing to pick up yardage on the Rayders were again on the march. After moving to the Red Devil 10 after picking up two first downs, Charlevoix again fumbled, this time on the 10 yard line with East Jordan recovering.

After moving the ball out to their own 17, East Jordan punted and Charlevoix returned the kick to the 27 yard line. An offside penalty on the Jordanites moved the ball to the 23 from where the scoring play started. Vandenberg faded back to the 30 and tossed the ball to Walker who stepped over for the touchdown.

Charlevoix kicked off to the Red Devils who bogged down and punted to Charlevoix as the game ended.

ODDS 'N' ENDS

By Fran Martin

SUCH beautiful Indian summer weather now that the rains are over. It was lovely football weather Friday what with the rain and wind but now... If we just didn't have to work we'd spend all our time soaking up a little sunshine. We can have just weeks of this and no one's going to mind at all... Maybe if this continues the poor perch fishermen won't freeze to death as they certainly were doing Saturday. Think we'd settle for buying them at the fish market rather than sit out there in the middle of Round Lake catching 'em in this weather... But then, we're not much of a fisherman... just a fish eater...

THANK heaven there are those people who look after us and give us some now and then... Such as the Pearl Johnsons did last week with a mess of big, shiny smelt that they'd caught off the dock at night... Seams the silvery little things go after the minnows, or so I'm told, and that's how come they come in from the big lake this time of the year...

IT'S HISTORY now, we know, but we can't help mentioning the World Series... I had my doubts about the Dodgers but de bums came through when all seemed in vain... they did it the hard way... by coming back after losing the first two games of the series... and they beat the Yankees on their home ground... Noticed in one news story a list of oddities during the season... But, as he wrote, the greatest oddity of all was the fact that the Dodgers won at all... We don't like baseball particularly except at World Series time... or when the National league has something at stake...

WHAT'S that about the jungle claiming its own or words to that effect... After the experiences over the weekend the residents in the general area of the Stewart family on Lewis st. are becoming a little concerned about the situation... On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Harry Stewart noticed a neighborhood peep stalk something... Thinking perhaps it was a kitten or some other small pet, she went to the back door where she was met by a big ole raccoon... More than a little surprised she called not only to her own but the neighborhood youngsters as well... Everyone, kids and adults came tearing, which, as one might expect, frightened the little thing who was next seen peering around the corner of the house... waiting for the furor to die down before putting in another appearance... Everyone quick-like offered him food and water... and being hungry he threw caution to the wind and came out of hiding... In a short time he was eating food from their hands and seemed to be enjoying the attention he was receiving... Toward dusk, however, he slunk off to his home... heaven knows where... and hasn't been heard from since...

AND JUST to keep things interesting, an owl which at first was classified by the kids as a huge monster but turned out to be a little screech owl settled in a tree in the Stewart yard and proceeded to let out its blood-curdling screech... It was just dusk and everyone gathered 'round to watch and hear him but he soon fluttered away... There are other small black animals with a white stripe on their backs in the neighborhood... We didn't run into any but we stuck to the roadway Monday night after getting a whiff of said animal... So don't be surprised if you see just about anything in the way of a native animal around these days...

A BELATED happy birthday to our old friend Dr. Perry G. Holden, the king of corn... and we mean that literally... He observed an anniversary this week his 90th and we hope he'll have many many more... You all remember him... he lived here until a few years ago with his daughter, Mrs. Ellsworth Besemer and now is in Lansing with his son, Ellsworth Holden... He's one of the oldest living graduates of what is now Michigan State University... In those days it was a school where students earned their keep by taking care of the stock and working on the farm maintained by the college... Agriculture, especially corn, has come a long, long way since then... We sure learned a lot about this corn and about the years when the great corn states were having their growing pains... with great pioneers in the ways of agriculture nursing them through the difficult years... For all these wonderful, wonderful things he had done he was honored at Michigan State and presented with his doctor's degree in agriculture... An honor long due... So to Dr. Holden, a happy birthday... we miss you and your lectures that you used to give us, at the drop of the hat or the mention of corn, we might add those were the happy days in Charlevoix...

FROM THE John Wolfs who are on a visit to Germany... their first in 44 years when they went to Europe on their honeymoon... the news that they've arrived safely and are taking a 500 mile auto trip from Bremerhaven along the Rhine to the district where they will visit... Relatives met them at the port and are taking them on the trip... Sounds like a wonderful experience...

TRAGEDY struck Charlevoix this week... On Wednesday Mrs. Howard Fales and her young daughter, Ginger, were injured critically in an auto accident and the mother, at this time, remains in critical condition... As though that wasn't enough, it struck again just before the football game at Grayling... Freddie Putman, a member of the football team and a boy with a million friends, we find, was snatched away... Why those things happen no one will ever know... It was a shock not only to his family, the Leo Putmans, but to everyone who knew him...

THERE is little that can be said except that we're sorry... Like everyone we extend our deepest sympathy to his family... and to his coach and team-mates who

Warn Corn-Picker Operators To Heed Safety Measures

A 12-foot stick will go through the snappings rolls of a corn picker in just one second. Even at idling speeds, the stick will move about two feet per second, according to Ed Rebmman, Charlevoix county agricultural agent.

That one second or even six seconds is plenty of time for the rolls to catch the operator's hand and pull the arm through.

Richard G. Pfister, farm safety specialist at Michigan State University, points out that it makes no difference whether the operator is pushing or pulling in his attempt to free the clogged picker—he can get caught either way.

If he's pushing toward the rollers, he will likely fall toward them before he can recover his balance. If he is pulling, the jerk the rolls will give when they catch a stick or corn stalk will cause the hand to involuntarily tighten and he pulled down by the picker action.

For these reasons Agent Rebmman says that the only safe way to unclog snappings rolls is to shut off the power completely and use a goose-neck wrecking bar or some similar tool to clear the rolls. Don't gamble a hand or arm for a few seconds' time.

IT HAPPENED ON . . .

BEAVER ISLAND

By Loy Malloy

A few more hunters spent the weekend on the island. Among them were Harry Smith, Bob Hill-ton and Bernie Wilson from Mason.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Townsend are visiting at the Warren Townsend cottage. Warren Sr. joined them for the weekend.

Mr. Stork made two deliveries to the Beaver Island Medical Center within 24 hours. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Can-nagham in the early hours of the morning of Oct. 8 and in the afternoon a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Bellows.

Dr. and Mrs. Nels Sorenson, Mr. and Mrs. Vic Sorenson and friends are spending a few days at the Sorenson cottage.

Elston Pischner and Joe Dillingham were on the mainland during the past week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. "Doc" Collins and a friend spent the weekend here. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Karsten left last week for a two week visit to Detroit and Iowa.

Word has been received that Mr. and Mrs. Emerald Gallagher are the parents of a son, John Patrick, born on Sept. 13. Also in September a son, Edward B., was born to Mr. and Mrs. Leo Gallagher.

L. J. Malloy and Earl Boyle left Sunday to attend the October session of the board of supervisors.

Last week Bruce Coentanz had a 29 hand while playing cribbage. This hand is quite rare in the cribbage game.

William Betty was a business caller to Charlevoix last week. Anthony Greene and two friends spent the weekend at the home of Mrs. Mary Greene. Mr. and Mrs. John Kempker are vacationing at their cottage at Lake Genesereth.

Michigan's population increase — more than 10% in the past five years — is the biggest in the Middle West.

Notice To Hunters

All of the area East of the 1-2 section line through section 22 and 27 is closed to hunting except predators.

Johnsons Observe Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. H. Peall Johnson, pioneer residents of this community, pictured at their home where they observed their fifty-third wedding anniversary Oct. 3.

Mr. Johnson is pictured making 'goofies', zany little people and animals made from pine cones, pipe stems and hard shelled nuts, a hobby he started while the couple lived in Oregon from 1937 to 1951. The first 'goofies' made in the west were made from sea shells. When he returned here, such shells were not available so he substituted the native materials found here. He also utilizes such things as small native shells and crab claws.

His tools consist of a jack-knife, a small drill and tweezers for handling the small materials. When the 'goofies' are completed they are coated with clear varnish to preserve them.

Mrs. Johnson is pictured examining one of the finished 'goofies'. She says she leaves the 'goofies' to her husband. She sticks to her crocheting.

• Mr. and Mrs. Russell Jackson of Frankfort spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Clare Staley.

W.S.C.S. Observes Anniversary At A Dessert Luncheon

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Charlevoix Methodist church observed its fifteenth anniversary at a dessert luncheon at the church dining room Thursday.

The luncheon and the business meeting which followed also marked the beginning of the 1955-56 year of activities.

Mrs. R. G. Bennett, chairman of the birthday committee, introduced Mrs. Frank Bird, who served as president of the organization for 12 years, who related the history of the Charlevoix group.

Mrs. Bennett cut the tiered anniversary cake and Mrs. L. E. McGhan presided at tea service.

At the business meeting which followed the topic of the lesson was "The American Indian and what we can do to help them." Several members participated in the discussion.

The Rev. Lloyd M. Schloop gave the invocation and Mrs. McGhan the devotions at the business meeting.

Dickens Club To Entertain Guests At Evening Meet

The Dickens Study club will entertain the members of the Shakespeare club as well as the husbands of all members of both clubs at an evening meeting to be held at the VFW post home at 8 p.m. Monday.

Mrs. Harold Dugal of Traverse City will give an interesting lecture and show slides of her European travels. She will be assisted by Mr. Dugal.

Mrs. Ralph S. Hamilton, president of the host club, will welcome the guests and introduce the speaker.

• Mrs. Eunice Houck and Marge Gentz planned to leave this week for Florida where they will spend the winter months.

Two Sentenced In Circuit Court

Judge Charles L. Brown, presiding at a special term of circuit court here Friday, sentenced two young men who had violated probation to Southern Michigan prison.

Lawrence D. Ferrin, 18, of Lansing, charged with breaking and entering the Charlevoix Beach Hotel early the morning of Sept. 19, was sentenced to 1 1/2 to 15 years. He was on probation from a Marinette, Wis., court for a similar charge at the time he entered the local resort hotel.

Harlan Smith, 18, of Charlevoix, was sentenced to 1 1/2 to five years on a charge of larceny over $50. He had been placed on two years probation last spring.

The pair will be taken to Southern Michigan prison this week by Sheriff Glenn E. Rose.

Charlevoix Scores 13-7 Victory Over Grayling

Ramblers To Challenge Rayder's Title Friday

The Charlevoix Rayders made it three wins in a row Friday over the highly-touted Grayling Vikings to stay on top of the heap in the Northern Michigan Class C league.

The first place spot is shared with Boyne City whom the Rayders will meet at Kipke field in the homecoming game Friday night.

The victory over Grayling, however, was marred by the sudden death of Fred Putman, 18-year-old senior end, who collapsed during warm-up exercises preceding the game and was taken to Mercy hospital via ambulance where he was pronounced dead on arrival. The Rayders and their coach, Don Carey, were not notified of the tragedy until they returned to the locker room after the game.

The Rayders who played their best game of the season against the Vikings last week, will have their work cut out for them this week when they meet the Ramblers.

The Boyne City squad is made up of a number of veterans as well as several lettermen from last year's squad. Thus far they have romped rough shod over Mancelona (31-0), Gaylord (28-0) and Pellston (34-6) on their march toward a possible Northern Michigan Class C Conference title.

Last year the Ramblers were title-bound until they met the Rayders in the last game of the season. Charlevoix played the role of spoiler, however, by defeating them 19-6 and literally snatching the title from their hands. The Ramblers have not forgotten this indignity and will be out to even old scores and try to hand the Rayders their first defeat of the season.

Though the Ramblers still have games with Harbor Springs, East Jordan and Grayling, Charlevoix remains the big hurdle on their way to their first title since 1944.

Everyone who has seen Boyne City play reports that the Ramblers have "everything". This week the Rayders will be put to the test and will be given an opportunity to prove themselves. The game could be close.

Last week the Rayders took the Grayling Vikings in their stride and emerged the victors by a 13-7 score.

The first time the Charlevoix eleven took the ball after Grayling had punted out of danger following the kick-off, they moved into scoring position but the rugged Viking line held on the one-yard line and the Rayders lost possession on downs.

Later in the period Charlevoix recovered a Grayling fumble and were on the march as the quarter ended.

With backs Garry Vandenberg and Kenny Balch carrying the ball, the Rayders moved to the nine-yard line from where Vandenberg went over for the touchdown to the second quarter. He added the extra point on a kick to make the score 7-0. As the half drew to a close both teams were forced to punt as they failed to make progress on the rain-soaked field.

The third period was scoreless with first one and then the other team punting out of a bad spot on fourth down.

Early in the last period Grayling got a break when the Vikings blocked a Rayder punt and took over on the Charlevoix 28.

A determined Viking squad marched to the 10 yard line but on the next play the ball carrier fumbled following a hard tackle by Kit Carson and Charlevoix recovered.

On a series of downs the Rayders moved to their own 40 but there the play bogged down and the Vikings took over. They picked up a couple yards and then were set back to the 37 and spent the next two downs moving to the 42 where Charlevoix again regained possession.

On the first play from scrimmage Vandenberg went through the line to the Grayling 44 where Balch got away and went to the three to place the ball in scoring position. On the next play he went around end to score. The pass for the extra point was knocked down and the score remained 13-0 with less than two minutes remaining.

Coach Carey sent in several substitutes for the kick-off. Halfback Gary Worden took the kick and romped 80 yards to score. Bill Kenyon ran the ball over for the extra point.

Neither team threatened seriously during the remainder of the game.

Last Week With Class 'C' Teams

Boyne City defeated Pellston 34-6 and Charlevoix won over Grayling 13-7 to retain their first place positions in the Northern Michigan Class C league Friday night.

While this action was taking place Harbor Springs moved into possession of second place with a 13-0 victory over East Jordan and Mancelona moved into the win column for the first time by upsetting Gaylord 6-0.

All games in the loop were played on rain-soaked fields and rain fell at times during the evening.

Boyne City 34 Pellston 6

Boyne City continued its victory march by romping over the Pellston Hornets who managed to cross the goal line only once in the closing minutes of the game.

The Ramblers had everything their own way as they scored in all but the third period.

Boyne City kicked off to the visitors who failed to gain ground. On the first play from scrimmage after taking the Pellston punt fullback Carl Charon scored from the 44 yard line with halfback Charles Stocker converting for the extra point.

Later in the same period on a series of plays that started on the Hornet 30, quarterback Bob Fitzpatrick scored from the one on a quarterback sneak. Stocker again booted the extra point.

In the second quarter Fitzpatrick passed over the goal line to end Murray Northrup for a tally with Stocker missing the up-rights. Later in the period, however, Stocker took a pitchout and romped 40 yards to score. He added the extra point with a kick.

After a scoreless third period, halfback Gary Newville went over from the one with Stocker kicking the ball over for the extra point.

With time running out and the Ramblers substituting freely, Pellston quarterback Ron Keiser broke away and went 52 yards to score. The attempt to run the ball over for the extra point failed.

Harbor Springs 13 East Jordan 0

The game at Harbor Springs was scoreless for three periods as first one team and then the other punted out of danger. In the last quarter, however, the Rams capitalized on the recovery of an East Jordan fumble on the Red Devil 15 by moving it to the three yard line in three plays.

Northern Class C League Teams Reach Half-Way Point For 1955

The teams of the Northern Michigan Class C league will reach the half-way point in their 1955 schedule this week as Charlevoix hosts Boyne City in a homecoming game; East Jordan plays at Mancelona; Grayling moves north to Gaylord in games scheduled for 8 p.m. and Harbor Springs invades Pellston for an afternoon game to be played at 3 p.m.

Charlevoix and Boyne City, now sharing first place in league standings, will fight it out this week for possession of the league lead. This game is expected to be a good one but the more experienced, versatile Ramblers are definitely the favorites with Charlevoix playing the role of underdog.

When East Jordan journeys to Mancelona this week the Red Devils will be intent on moving out of last place in loop standings by defeating the Ironmen who are now sharing third place with Gaylord. Grayling and Pellston which all have a record of one win in three games.

Mancelona's one victory is over the Gaylord eleven by a 6-0 score. East Jordan on the other hand has lost to Grayling (20-6), Charlevoix (7-0) and Harbor Springs (13-0) and would like very much to emerge from its lowly position. This may be the week that their wishes will come true.

It will be a renewal of an old rivalry when Grayling plays at Gaylord this week. The Vikings and the Blue Devils are probably the biggest teams in the loop but have failed to show the power expected of them earlier in the season.

Grayling has defeated East Jordan but later dropped games to Harbor Springs (13-6) and to Charlevoix (13-7) while Gaylord has a win over Pellston (12-0) and losses to Boyne City (26-0) and Mancelona (6-0). Comparative scores are not available since they have not played mutual opponents but on the strength of their records to date, the team that takes advantage of the breaks and does not back down to hard tackles and rushing will come out ahead.

The Harbor Springs-Pellston game will be a hard-fought battle from the first to the final whistle for this is the renewal of a grudge game. Unless the Hornets show more than they have so far this season, they may find themselves being taken by the Rams who are now holding down second place in league standings. The Rams have shown unexpected strength and will be playing hard to retain their newly-acquired position.

Pellston, on the other hand, has not shown the anticipated aggressiveness or running ability expected from an experienced squad although they do have a 20-0 win over Mancelona to their credit. The Hornets, playing on their home field, should have an edge but the scrappy Harbor Springs outfit may upset them. This is one game that could go either way.

Annual Michigan Week Observance To Begin On Third Sunday In May

Michigan Week, the annual observance dedicated to telling people of the state and the country about Michigan's greatness, will be celebrated in 1956 May 20-26.

The week-long observance will begin with the third Sunday in May — late enough to have good weather for outdoor celebrations in all the areas of the state, early enough to be a major event of the school year and timed to give a big boost to the summer tourist season.

Russell Swaney, head of Detroit's Federal Reserve bank, who was Wayne county chairman last year, will be general chairman. He succeeds Grover C. Dillman, president of the Michigan College of Mining and Technology.

In the near future Mr. Swaney will appoint a county chairman for each of Michigan's 83 counties, who in turn will be expected to appoint a chairman for each community and to organize whatever county and community committees may be needed to handle the numerous activities of Michigan week and its seven special days.

Trooper Bernard Schrader of the Brighton post, Michigan State Police, with the Superintendent's Trophy which he won at the 18th Annual Michigan police pistol matches held at Jackson, Sept. 22-23-24.

Each year the winners name is engraved on the trophy which he retains until he is defeated at the annual matches. Trooper Schrader also won the Fletcher trophy for the second time this year but lost his state championship to Harry Reeves, the national champion he defeated last year. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Schrader of Charlevoix, he is now the fire arms instructor at the Michigan State Police School, East Lansing.

Avoid Damage To Grass Waterways When Fall Plowing

Protect those grass waterways when you're plowing this fall. Grass waterways are an essential part of the water disposal system for the farm.

Ed Rebmam, Charlevoix county agricultural agent points out that extra drainage needed when heavy rains — forming rains put the farm drainage system to a test. Water that falls during these heavy rains will run off somehow, and unless you provide a safe waterway, it will probably cut a gully, says Agent Rebmam.

Be sure to lift plows and straighten disks when crossing waterways. One crossing with a disk set to cut can do much damage to the sod and make it easy for gullies to start.

Plow at right angles to the waterway, never parallel to it. Make it easy for the water to flow into the waterway rather than to follow the plow or cultivator marks along its side.

Agent Rebmam's final suggestion for the protection of a waterway holds true at all times whether plowing or cultivating or not — don't use the waterway for a roadway.

North India's worst flood in 70 years has made hundreds of thousands homeless.

Legume Pasture May Cause Bloat During Fall Months

Watch out for bloat when you turn your cattle on late fall legume pastures. This warning comes from Ed Rebmman, Charlevoix County agricultural agent.

Cattle can bloat on the young juicy growth of fall legume pastures just as easily as earlier in the season, according to C. F. Huffman, of the dairy department of Michigan State University. There's no prevention for bloat, he emphasizes, and dairy-men should keep a watchful eye on cattle when they are turned in on any new growth. Check the herd several times a day, he adds.

If a case of bloat does develop, Agent Rebmman urges taking the herd off the pasture immediately. He recommends barn feeding rather than taking a chance on more cases of bloat and possible loss of animals as result.

Sportsmen Group Asks Hunters To Spare Pheasants

A plea to spare the pheasants which were 'planted' recently by a group of young sportsmen was issued today in the hopes of protecting the young birds which at this time are not afraid of humans.

The group raised the birds from eggs secured from the Conservation Department and late this summer released 350 young birds at the Ken Ager farm in Marion township. The birds have since 'migrated' throughout Marion, Norwood and Charlevoix townships.

In asking that the birds be protected, Henry Supernaw Jr., a spokesman for the group, said that if the birds were unmolested for a two-year period there would be good hunting for everyone.

Feeding stations to be placed at strategic places in the woods will be stocked with feed during the forthcoming winter months.

County's Budget For '56 Totals $183,209; Increase Of $26,892

A 1956 budget of $183,209.25, the largest in the county's history, was adopted by the Charlevoix county board of supervisors as the group adjourned its annual October meeting Thursday.

Upon adjourning the shortest meeting in recent years, Russell Curtis of Marion township, chairman of the board, advised the supervisors that they would be recalled at a later date, probably December or January, to discuss the issue of a new court house. At that time it is expected that the architect, who was engaged recently, would be prepared to present preliminary plans and estimated costs of a new building to house county offices.

The new budget which was adopted at the closing meeting of the group was $26,892.25 more than the 1955 budget of 156,317.

The 1956 welfare budget of $53,000, an increase of $18,000 over the 1955 appropriation of $35,000, accounted for the major part of the overall increase.

In addition to the regular allocation to the welfare department, a $10,000 appropriation for capital improvements at Grandvue hospital, the county-operated hospital near East Jordan, was made to the welfare commission. The major improvements on the hospital necessary to meet fire marshal requirements include the installation of a fire detection system, construction of a fire escape from a second floor ward, electrical re-wiring, removal of the water heater fuel tank from the basement to an outside site and other minor changes. This year's appropriation was an increase of $1,000 over the amount allocated last year for improvements.

Other appropriations include $15,000 to the sheriff's department, an increase of $3,000 over the 1955 allocation to cover the cost of a full-time night deputy or turnkey; $2,500 for the maintenance of Whiting Park, an increase of $1,000 plus $700.90, final payment on a road construction program within the park and a new appropriation, $500, fish and game.

A request for a full-time day deputy which Sheriff Glenn E. Rose feels is necessary now that radio communication system is in use and to assist in patrolling highways was referred to a special committee for study. The committee named by Mr. Curtis is composed of Henry Lee of Boyne City, Ben Smatts of South Arm township and T. R. Miller. The group will report its findings at a later meeting and the issue decided at that time.

ODDS 'N' ENDS

By Fran Martin

OUR LITTLE ole Charlevoix Rayders sure did themselves proud Friday night... and finally came through with the kind of ball they're capable of playing... Slow to tell this year, they'd been more or less telling their way but when the chips were down they had what it took... We've maybe seen better football but never more determined playing... To those of you who were foolhardy enough to bet against those kids (and we hope you lost your shirts) let us tell you something... If you'd bothered to ask those youngsters they would have told you they were going to win that game... and when they made that statement you'd have noticed a certain confidence about them that was unmistakable... they meant what they said... And being men of their word, they went out and did it...

BUT, HEY... don't forget you've got three more games on the schedule... with teams that would love nothing better than to pick you off... Coach Ray Brown of Pellston is living for the day when he can pin your ears back... So are Gaylord and Mancelona... so don't let down now or you'll be dead pigeons... And that we wouldn't like... Take 'em as they come, mind your manners and Coach Carey and who knows... It's all up to you now... Lots of luck...

SUPPOSE we'll be hearing all about the success (?) of our bird hunters as of today... How anyone has the courage to shoot one of those beautiful pheasants we'll never know... But this weekend will really tell the tale of whether there are many birds around... And for heaven's sake, be careful in the woods... Don't shoot at a sound... it could be your best friend, you know...

UP UNTIL the rain and wind this week, the countryside has been beautiful... And there's one fellow who's been enjoying his jaunts around the country this fall even though it was in the line of duty... It's Kenneth Sweet the driver for Hess Furniture, who said he didn't mind working in weather like this...

WE MEANT to mention it earlier but it slipped our mind... You probably remember reading about the Mrs. Elizabeth Ouder-kirk of Grand Rapids who is a possible heir to a three million dollar estate of a Canadian industrialist... But did you know that she's the mother of a local resident, Howard Ouder-kirk and the grandmother of Bob Ouder-kirk and the twins, Mrs. Doris Foster and Mrs. Theron Luft of Traverse City... Mrs. Ouder-kirk is the mother of a large family and could well enjoy a few comforts after the hardships of rearing a big family on a farm in Emmet county... And who knows, maybe Howard will be driving instead of repairing Cadillacs as he now does at Cooper-Franklin...

THE MAIL in the past couple weeks has taken on a cosmopolitan atmosphere as cards arrive from Ed Madill who's doing something... we don't know what for he isn't talking... for the State Department... from Spain... where it is beautiful... from Athens where the Greeks still have a word for it and more recently from Istanbul in Turkey... What a life... It may mean work for him but it sure sounds wonderful... and certainly different...

SOMEBODY must have had a summer's job tossing bottles overboard in Lake Michigan last summer... two more bottles put adrift by the Great Lakes Fisheries in Ann Arbor have turned up over the weekend... Jim Ladd reported finding one Saturday this side of Nine Mile point on Little Traverse Bay... the bottle was broken when washed onto the rocks but he salvaged the card... On Monday Roger T. Jones of Ann Arbor, who was visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Harvey Campbell, found one just north of the north pier... He's decided to return his card in person for he not only lives in Ann Arbor but his dad is Dr. Philip S. Jones, of the University Math department and Roger knows his way around the campus... You see, he's only five years old... Certainly the Fisheries Department would appreciate such service...

WE'RE ALMOST afraid to mention this... after all the wild animals that have found their way to the north side... But the latest to join the trek was a 'possum (didn't know there were any this far north) who found himself treed over on Auld ave. Saturday night... All this about 1 a.m., and his presence created quite a stir among the pooch population in the area... As a result, Mr. Possum will hang no more by his tail for he got himself shot... stone cold dead...

AMONG the spectators at Kipke field Friday night to watch the Rayders trim Boyne City was a guy who was captain of another Charlevoix team 35 years ago... He's still a great sports fan and he'll always see him at the games... He's John Hallett, who captained the Charlevoix team of 1920... Incidentally, the biggest crowd ever to witness a game at Kipke field was on hand Friday night to watch the big game...

AN ORCHID to the homecoming committees who worked so hard to make the second annual homecoming festivities a success fall even though it was in the line of duty... The Pao rally was super, the parade Friday afternoon with the clever and original floats was enjoyed by a big crowd and the halftime coronation ceremony and band performance was more than a bit of alright... And of course the Rayders cooperated to make it a perfect event with their win over Boyne City... What more could one ask...

SPEAKING of the band, here's quite a coincidence... if I may mention my family... The one and only Martin to play in the high school band was my brother, Claire, who played for the last time when he returned from three years in the service during World War II to finish the last semester of high school... Just before the parade Friday I happened to mention in the presence of my young nephew, John, that he was the first Martin to play in the band in some nine years... It wasn't 'til then that he mentioned he thought he had his uncle's uniform... Quick-like he and Mr. Odmark unbuttoned the many buttons on the old uniforms now worn by the Varsity band and sure enough... there on the tag was Pie Martin's name... Quite a coincidence, as I said, for not even Mr. Odmark had noticed it when uniforms were doled out...

D. A. R. Chapter Has Luncheon At Valhalla Farm

The Pe-to-se-ga chapter of the D.A.R. held its annual Columbus Day luncheon and regular business meeting at Valhalla Farm near Wildwood Harbor Friday.

Mrs. C. E. Williams, Mrs. James McNeal and Mrs. W. C. Naylor, all of Boyne City, were hostesses at the luncheon which was attended by 17 members and one guest.

Mrs. H. A. Webster of Boyne City gave the devotions and read a beautiful poem written by George Bernard for President Eisenhower before the latter's recent illness. The salute to the flag was given by Mrs. Ralph Eagle of Petoskey.

Mrs. Elizabeth Mellon of Petoskey read the names of the charter members of the D.A.R. and also advised the group regarding the many changes in the by-laws as proposed at the Continental Congress which she attended in Washington last spring.

It was suggested that D.A.R. members and all other interested persons support the Bricker amendment in order to preserve the constitutional right of Americans. The members were told that "we do not want to lose our hard-earned national sovereignty and independence of action by becoming a vassal province in a world super-state. We also do not want the United Nations Charter revised in such fashion that it will turn the U.N. into a limited world government".

Mrs. Rita Lusk has gone to Traverse City to spend the winter months with her daughter, Mrs. Marjorie Smith.

THOUGHTS AFIELD

Harold E. Kohn

Taking A Chance

Everyone gambles. Risks are inescapable in this kind of a world, and the fundamental difference between the vicious and the virtuous gambler is in the nature of the things upon which they will place their bets.

Some take desperate chances because of their stupidity. They don't know all that the risks involve. Wild creatures make such foolish blunders, robins building their nests on the coupling between railroad cars or on the axle of farm wagons, where their nests and young are unintentionally destroyed. A flying squirrel dropped down our Hideaway House chimney one cold winter's night, much as he might parachute down the deep cavity of a half-low tree. But the smooth inside walls of the chimney offered him no footing for clambering out again. He was trapped inside the cabin, separated from the warmth of his nest and his stores of food. We found him dead of cold or starvation, his tail curled about his fragile body in a final sleep. When he took his fatal leap down our chimney, he was betting his life he could leave again when ready. He gambled and lost.

I've seen a pair of deer cross a road in traffic and plunge recklessly headlong into a fence when blinded by a car's headlights. They took a chance that their path was unobstructed, and lost.

Whitefooted mice will build a nest anywhere, not thinking of all the possible consequences. Cabins that are used infrequently may harbor a mouse family almost any place, in cupboards, on rafters, in the furniture. A deer mouse possesses the foolhardiness to make itself at home in a bear-skin rug, not guessing that its rooms may be reduced to rubble under the careless, blundering feet of the master of the house. But possibly all animals are not such witless gamblers, since it has been said that horse sense is the sense that horses have that keeps them from betting on people!

The world-wide vice of vicious gambling seems all the worse because it is a cheap perversion of the heroic sort of risk-taking that characterizes human beings at their best. Public lotteries, gambling joints, race-track gambling, speculation stocks, numbers rackets and the like are all ways of prostituting a noble human trait—the urge to adventure, to take a chance.

When rightly used, the impulse to wager is one of the glories of human nature. Without it there can be no great living. When a youngster decides upon his vocation he gambles. Success is not guaranteed him. The Almighty is not honor-bound to see that anyone achieves preeminence in his profession or even a modest degree of achievement. The venturer bets his training, his talent, and his will to succeed against all the obstacles that will come his way.

In marriage, too, we take chances. We love a person and believe in that person. We learn a few things about a mate during courtship, but beyond what we know on the wedding day lies the vast range of the unknown—what the partner may be like in a year, ten years, or a half-century. Moreover (disturbing thought!), my partner gambles on me, knowing very little of what I am and nothing at all of what I might turn out to be. As an old proverb puts it, "Marriage is a lottery!"

Among the world's greatest gamblers are the medical scientists. The amount of thought, research, money, hours, perspiration, and hope spent on cancer research alone is startling. Multiply these by the number of human ailments for which scientists seek relief cure and prevention and you have a staggering expenditure. When will success come? Nobody knows. Will the researchers succeed at all? They have no guarantee. They are betting what they know and what they are that their efforts will be rewarded with victory.

Christian faith and behavior are the most exalted ways of taking a chance. And only those who are spiritually rich can afford this kind of gambling. Paupers dare not be adventurous in their spending. Their resources, being next to nothing, will soon be exhausted and no replenishment is in sight. So the spiritual beggar dare not offer his friendship unless he is certain it will be paid back immediately by those to whom it is given. But the rich can extend friendship freely, taking a chance that it will not be repaid. They have a backing of vast reserves of friendly feelings out of which they can spend. The spiritually destitute cannot readily forgive, or easily exercise patience or render selfless service. For them such expenditure is a psychological impossibility. If they have any virtues they must be spared for rare critical circumstances, for a "rainy day." Their precious slenderness of forgiveness, patience, or service cannot be risked on just anybody. But people of moral and spiritual means, "rolling in riches" of understanding and pardon, endurance and forbearance, love and helpfulness need not be so careful. They need no guarantees that their goodness will be repaid or rewarded or even appreciated. They can take risks.

• Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Milliman have returned to Battle Creek after spending a week with the latter's son, Charles J. Pontius and daughter, Denise, in the absence of Mrs. Pontius, who spent most of the week in Grand Rapids.

It is in the light of this understanding of the relationship between our inner reserves and our outer behavior that a perplexing teaching of Jesus is made clear. "Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you, bless them that curse you, and pray for them that despitefully use you. And unto him that smiteth thee on one cheek offer also the other; and him that taketh away thy cloak forbid not to take thy coat also." Only people of an inner abundance can afford to do that.

The way to live an adventurous life is to build up your store of spiritual resources. Then you can take many a chance.

Charlevoix Defeats Boyne City By 13-12 Score

Victory Puts Rayders In 'C' League Lead

The Charlevoix Rayders came through Friday night to upset the strong Boyne City Ramblers 13-12 to take over the Northern Michigan Class C league lead, a position shared by the two teams since the season opened.

This week the Rayders will host the Pellston Hornets who are fresh from a 7-0 win over Harbor Springs. The victory is their second of the season.

Though Charlevoix will have an edge in the meeting Friday, Coach Ray Brown will have his Hornets up for their meeting with the Rayders, a team they have sought to defeat for many years.

In the game here last week, Boyne City was a two-touchdown favorite but midway in the first period the Ramblers found themselves trailing for the first time this year after the Rayders capitalized on a pass interception to score. Though Boyne City came back to tie the score, Charlevoix scored in the second period to go ahead 13-6 at halftime. A blocked kick by Garry Vandenberg following a Boyne tally in the last quarter gave the Rayders their slim one-point victory.

The victory cast the Rayders in the role of spoilers for the second year in a row. Last year another Rambler squad was well on its way to its first loop title since 1944 when the Rayders defeated them 19-6 in the last game of the '54 season. This year the Rayders, who had been playing only medium style ball, loomed as the only serious obstacle on the road to the '55 title when the Ramblers went on to Kipke field Friday night before a record homecoming crowd.

The Rayders, playing their hardest and smartest game of the season, set the visitors back on their heels from the start as they

Little Rayders To Meet Petoskey Reserves Tuesday

Charlevoix's Little Rayders will host the Petoskey Reserves at Kipke field at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, a game which has been set ahead from Wednesday.

The game will be a second meeting with the Little Northern whom the local Reserves played to a 6-6 tie earlier in the season.

Last night the Charlevoix reserves were scheduled to meet the Mancelona Reserves on the Ironmen's field.

Last week the Reserves soundly trounced the visiting Boyne City Reserves 26-0, in a game which saw halfbacks Ron Anderson and Tom Lakies cross the goal line twice.

In the first period Lakies went 50 yards after penetrating the Rambler line to rack up six points, with Bob Mol going over on a quarterback sneak for the extra point. Later in the same period Anderson scored around end from the 10.

In the second quarter Lakies, on a line play, went over from the three to make the score 19-0 at halftime.

The third quarter was scoreless but in the last period Anderson romped 75 yards to wrap up the game for the Rayders. Lakies went through the line to add the extra point as the game ended 26-0.

Starting for the Rayders were Garry Vandenberg, Kenny Balch, Terry Davis and Quint Walker in the backfield and Walt Poquette, Jerry Stebo, Wayne Sundberg, Joe Etienne, Joel Arvilla, Kit Carson and Guy Swanson. Others seeing action were Larry Ingalls, Clay Walker, Gary Smith, Charles Pierce, Bruce Bergmann and Charlie Dennis.

Charlevoix won the toss and elected to receive. Boyne City's fullback, Carl Charon, a speedy sohomore, kicked off with Terry Davis returning the ball from the five to the 37 where Vandenberg fumbled on the next play with the Ramblers recovering.

Boyne City's pass was incomplete and on the next play a major penalty set them back to their own 8. On the second play from scrimmage following the penalty, Quint Walker intercepted quarterback Bob Fitzpatrick on the 35 and ran the ball back to the Boyne 14. Vandenberg picked up four yards through the line before halfback Balch went around end to score from the 10. Vandenberg's kick was wide and the score stood at 6-0.

Boyne took Vandenberg's kick and on a series of plays, including a 33-yd. run by Charon, returned the ball to the Rayder 33. With Fitzpatrick Doug Newville and Charon totting the ball, the Ramblers moved the ball to the Charlevoix one where Charon took it over to tie the score. The pass for the extra point was incomplete and the score remained 6-6. The first period ended with Boyne in possession of the ball on the Rayder 48 after the latter had failed to move the ball and lost it on downs.

As the second period got underway the Rambler offensive bogged down and Boyne was forced to punt. Poquette blocked the punt and Charlevoix took possession on the Boyne 34 for their first real break of the game.

Charlevoix moved to the Boyne 22 on runs by Quint Walker and Balch, for a first down. Vandenberg went to the 16 on a line plunge and a jump pass from Walker to end Swanson moved the ball to the Rambler two and another first down. The Ramblers, however, threw up a stone-wall defense and the Rayders lost the ball to the Ramblers on the two after four tries for a touchdown.

On the second plays the Ramblers fumbled, with Quint Walker recovering on the five, and Charlevoix was again in scoring position. On the first play Vandenberg fumbled but Walker scooped up the ball and went around right end to score. Vandenberg's kick was good and the Rayders led 13-6.

The Ramblers returned Vandenberg's kick to the 36 where they started a concerted drive which moved them to the Rayder 43 where Charlevoix took

Last Week With Class 'C' Teams

Action in the Northern Michigan Class C loop last week saw the underdog Charlevoix Rayders upset the highly-touted Boyne City Ramblers 13-12 to take over the league lead for the first time this season. Until Friday's game the two squads shared first place.

In other games played Friday Pellston edged past Harbor Springs 7-0, East Jordan dumped Mancelona 18-13 to rack up its first win of the season and Grayling defeated Gaylord 20-7.

Last week's games marked the midway point of the current football season with three loop games remaining to be played. The season will end Nov. 4.

Pellston 7, Harbor Springs 0

At Pellston Friday the Hornets scored their only touchdown against Harbor Springs midway in the first period and then spent the remainder of the afternoon protecting their slim lead.

The lone tally followed a concerted drive which saw the Hornets take a Ram punt on their own 30 and with right half Frank Durkalec carrying the ball move it to the Rams 30 and a first down in a 40 yard run. The Hornets with quarterback Ron Koser and fullback Jim Robinson carrying the pigskin moved to the 15 where an offside penalty set them back to the 20. On the next play Durkalec went over in a play that covered 23 yards. Halfback Charles Marshall went through the line to score the extra point.

Pellston threatened several other times throughout the game but lacked the punch to cross the goal line although over as the half ended.

Vandenberg kicked off to Boyne to open the second half but after moving the ball from their 29 to the Rayder 37 the march was halted and Charlevoix took over. This time the Rambler line held and Charlevoix punted to the Boyne 48.

A series of plays, including a 23 yard pass from Fitzpatrick to Murray Northup, put the ball in scoring position on the four, but on a fourth down attempt to score Charon was pushed back to the 11, where Charlevoix took over. The later was on the Charlevoix 30 in Rayder possession as the third period ended.

As the game went into its final period the Rayders marched to the 45, but a 15-yard penalty put them back on the 30. Two plays later Charlevoix fumbled with Boyne recovering, but on the next play Carson intercepted a Rambler pass on the Boyne 43 and Charlevoix was back in the game.

Possession was short-lived however, as Boyne recovered a Rayder fumble at midfield. A long Rambler pass was called back when the Ramblers were offside but on a second try Fitzpatrick passed to John Juday, who came up with the ball on the 29 following a tussle with Quint Walker. A 15 yard penalty on the Rayders moved the ball to the 14, from where Fitzpatrick passed to end Murray Northup for the touchdown after the latter had taken over on the four.

Vandenberg blocked the kick for the extra point with less than three minutes remaining and the Rayders held on to their slim lead.

The Rayders took the Boyne kick on the 40 and picked up three first downs as they moved to the Boyne 13 as the game ended.

The game was marked by hard tackles and excellent runs, especially on the part of the Boyne backfield, with the Rayders playing their finest game to date.

Rayder ball-carrier and halfback, Kenny Balch, making one of the substantial gains which gave Charlevoix a 13-12 victory over the Boyne Ramblers at Kipke field Friday night. 8 Pictured throwing a key block is Kit Carson while Terry Davis (26) gets in on the action. Class C Teams Go Into Last Half Of Football Schedules

The teams of the Northern Michigan Class C league passed the half-way point in their current schedules last week and from now on each will be jockeying for a better position in loop standings as the season draws to a close.

This week will find East Jordan they were inside the Rams 15 yard line four times in the last period alone.

The win moved Pellston into a tie for third place with Harbor Springs and Grayling after the latter had defeated Gaylord 20-7. East Jordan 18, Mancelona 13. East Jordan moved into the win column for the first time this season Friday when they racked up an 18-13 victory over Mancelona.

Though East Jordan led 12-0 early in the second period, the Ironmen came back to make the halftime score 13-12. The winning touchdown for the Jordanites came late in the game with only three minutes remaining.

Larry Woodcock scored the first Red Devil touchdown midway in the first quarter on a quarterback sneak from the one yard line. Their second score came early in the second quarter when fullback Dick Streator scored from the four yard line.

Mancelona, however, snapped back to score twice before the half ended. Halfback Charles Davenport went over from the three and fullback Gary Shisler scored from the four later in the period. A pass from quarterback Galen Christopher to end Fayze Jabara took the ball over to give the Ironmen a one point half-time lead.

Neither team threatened until late in the game when halfback Gareth Thompson went over from the seven to put the Jordanites ahead with three minutes remaining. East Jordan attempts to score the extra point were not successful.

Linemen Jack Ingalls suffered a rib injury during the game which is expected to sideline him for some time.

Grayling 20, Gaylord 7. The Gaylord Blue Devils got off to an early lead in their meeting with the Vikings when halfback Jim Glasser took the ball through center from the two to score with Terry Couch converting to give the home team a 7-0 advantage.

Grayling, however, scored in each of the remaining periods to take the game and move into a third place tie.

Michigan Turkey Growers Will Receive Higher Prices For '55

Michigan turkey growers likely will receive two to five cents a pound more for their live birds during the holiday market period than they did last year.

That's the outlook now, reports Henry E. Lazere, extension poultry marketing economist at Michigan State University.

He says the New York price for ready-to-cook turkeys seems to reflect the overall market situation best. And for the holiday period, he indicates, New York prices for fryers-roasters and young heavy hens are likely to average 55 to 56 cents and the young toms 42 to 50 cents.

Prices paid Michigan growers for live turkeys are 15 to 20 cents a pound under New York ready-to-cook birds.

Lazere bases his predictions on the reduced numbers of turkeys reportedly grown this year as compared with last and the usual seasonal price change between September and the holiday market period.

The same number of heavy breed turkeys are being raised this year as last and about 15 per cent fewer of the light breeds, the latest national figures indicate.

Watch the New York prices, Lazere advises, to keep the best tab on the overall market situation.

Tie This One for Consideration—

Closed the office early last Saturday to go after pheasants with Papa Foster. I used fewer shells than the old gentleman and took home more birds—but not because I did better shooting.

I'd borrowed a dog for the occasion. Papa took along Blue, his ancient pointer. Several times I noticed Papa walk up to a clump of bushes Blue had pointed at and fire into the air—though he hadn't flushed a single bird.

Naturally, I wanted to know why. "Well," he said sheepishly, "I've been hunting with that dog for 11 seasons. His nose isn't much help any more—but I'd rather waste a shell than let him know." From where I sit, Papa always shows consideration for people, too. For instance, this is a small thing, but he puts a bottle of beer on ice for me when I visit him—though he never takes anything but coffee himself. Even if he doesn't agree with me on a matter of personal choice (which is his right) he'd rather not make a "point" of letting me know.

Eleanor Steber To Open Community Concert Series Friday, October 28

The Northern Michigan Community Concert Association will open its ninth annual concert series at the Petoskey high school auditorium Friday, Oct. 28.

The distinguished Metropolitan Opera soprano, Eleanor Steber, will be the first artist on the concert series.

Miss Steber is at the top of her profession in opera, concert, radio and television and holds a unique position in the world of music today. During the past winter she sang her thirtieth operatic role. She is also one of the few American singers with an international reputation and is as much of a star in the entertainment capitals of Europe as she is in the United States, Canada, and Hawaii.

A recording star during her entire career, she made records for RCA-Victor for 10 years and is now Columbia Master Works artist. Her albums, satisfying to a wide variety of tastes, are classified in the best-selling class.

The blonde, blue-eyed soprano was born in Wheeling, W. Va., and after studying at the New England Conservatory received a Metropolitan Opera contract by winning the Metropolitan Opera Auditions of the Air. She made her debut as Sophie in Strauss' "Der Rosenkavalier" and soon established herself as one of the most important members of the company.

Curatin time will be 8:30 p.m. and admission is by membership only.

The next attraction in the current series will be the Paganini Quartet on Saturday, Nov. 12.

'56 Chevrolet sets new Pikes Peak record in top-secret test!

Not long ago a hush-hush, camouflaged '56 Chevrolet scorched the nerve-breaking road up Colorado's Pikes Peak for a new NASCAR* certified record—the first time that old King of the Mountains has seen a new official stock car record in years! And what a road! 170 chilling turns and no guardrail! It's the first and only time a new model ever proved itself such a great road car before its introduction! The '56 Chevrolet showed the kind of performance that makes driving safer and more fun. So wait for the car that beat the King of the Mountains!

Charlevoix Elementary school principal Glenn B. Snider (with pointer) and members of the special committee which compiled new report cards look over eight of the 13 comments listed under Citizenship found on the new cards which will be issued to 402 elementary students this week.

Mr. Snider is pictured pointing to a comment which he feels is an especially good one. With him are (l to r): Miss Frances Milner, Mr. Snider, Mrs. Jeanette Novotny and Larrie Tuomela.

"If you don't like it, change it to meet your needs" is a well known saying.

Kiwanis White Elephant Sale Nets $1,221.00

The recent three-day White Elephant sale sponsored by the Charlevoix Kiwanis club netted a total of $1,221.50 for the Youth Center fund. Kit Carson, general chairman of the event announced Monday night at the regular meeting of the organization held at the high school cafeteria.

This brings the Youth Center fund to $4,784.86.

In announcing the result of the sale Mr. Carson expressed his appreciation and gratitude for the fine cooperation given the event. He said that without the fine contributions which made the sale possible, the Kiwanians, their wives and others who worked and especially Angus Fochman and the Charlevoix Oil Co. which made the sale site possible the annual White Elephant sale would not be the successful project that it has grown to be.

The members of the club, by a unanimous vote joined Mr. Carson in expressing their gratitude to Mr. Fochman for his fine work with the White Elephant sale by naming him an honorary member of the Kiwanis club, the second in the club's 20 year history. The first was the late Dr. R. B. Armstrong.

A film, "America, the home of the free," was shown by Lyle A. Dowell of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co.

Guest at the meeting was Neal Pastoor of Twin Falls, Ida. Those planning to attend the 15th Division Fun-fest at Mackinaw City last night (Wednesday) were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bird, Mr. and Mrs. Kit Carson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Willis, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph V. Bess, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Macdonell, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph S. Hamilton and Bradley Stanton.

'Pranksters' In Norwood To Drive Cold Cash Deal

Halloween trick or treat will have a serious as well as fun angle in the Norwood community this year. Pranksters will be members of the Norwood Methodist Sunday school and they plan to drive a hard bargain — sell each or else — to compile a report card for elementary youngsters which they felt would give a true picture of the child in school.

Disposal of the loot is the serious side of the project. The money collected is to go to the United Nations Children's Fund. It is part of the Sunday schools program to observe United Nations Week, said Mrs. Charles Weisler, Sunday school superintendent.

A committee composed of Larrie Tuomela, sixth grade teacher, Mrs. Jeanette Novotny, third grade teacher and Miss Frances Milner, second grade teacher and former elementary principal was named by Glenn Snider, elementary school principal, to work on the project with the assistance of the remaining 12 teachers of the elementary school faculty.

Every teacher was asked to list the things he or she felt should be incorporated in the new card. These suggestions were screened and presented for discussion over a period of several months before the cards parents will see this week were finally adopted after meeting with the approval of the faculty. Mr. Snider and Supt. R. G. Bennett.

This week parents will see the results of the project when the youngsters in the first through the sixth grades bring the new cards home for the first time this year.

The cards are attractive as well as informative with a picture of the Charlevoix elementary school on the cover.

Inside the cover is a new marking system for both the elementary and the older students. On the early elementary cards will be found the familiar "U" which means poor, "S" for satisfactory, "S-" fair plus "I" for improvement.

In the upper elementary grades the marking system will be as follows: A for excellent; B, good; C, fair; D, poor and E, failure.

Found on the opposite sheet under the heading of Citizenship.

An Antrim county school teacher who had signed a contract to teach a Charlevoix county rural school which later consolidated with the Charlevoix rural agricultural school after the school year had started was awarded the amount of her salary plus interest and costs in a decision handed down here by Judge Charles L. Brown last week.

The teacher is Mrs. Carrie S. Stool of Ellsworth who had signed Aug. 20, 1953, to teach the Marion township school district 9. She had taught the school for one week and received $50 for her services when a special election closed the school which was then annexed by the Charlevoix district.

Judge Brown ruled that the Charlevoix district assumed the obligations of the Marion district when it annexed the latter, so awarded Mrs. Stool $2,200 plus interest and costs.

The school district has 20 days in which to appeal Judge Brown's decision. On Wednesday no decision had been reached in the matter.

Cub Scouts Need Den Mothers To Start Activities

This is an SOS! More than 75 boys in the community of Charlevoix want to become Cub Scouts.

But there's one big obstacle standing in their way... there are no den mothers available.

Charles Bleha, Cub Master, has issued a plea for adults to take a den if little boys who have lived for a few days when they could become Cubs. It is not necessary that you be a mother. The only requisite is the urge to do something for your community by helping these kids get a start in scouting. Your programs for the year are planned for you so you do not have to plan your own.

If you are interested, and sure you can't say "no" to nearly 100 little boys, contact Mr. Bleha at Leonard Burns.

City Council Amends Zoning To Commercial

The Charlevoix city council, following a special hearing Monday night, amended the zoning ordinance to change two lots and part of a third located in the Mason addition on the north side of Huribut ave. between Bridge and State streets from Residential district 11 to Commercial district 1.

There was no opposition to the amendment of the zoning ordinance requested by Mrs. E. K. Shenahan. The property involved is known as the Armstrong property.

It is understood that a commercial building will be constructed on the property when the sale of the property is concluded.

In other action during the special meeting the council issued a building permit to Kit Carson and Fred Willis for the construction of a new building to house the Charlevoix postoffice. The structure will be built at 109 Mason st. and leased to the U. S. Postoffice Department. The postoffice will be moved to the new location by June 9, 1956, the expiration date on the lease where the postoffice is now located.

The Lake Construction Co. was awarded the contract for unloading the Fairbanks-Morse 1136 KW diesel engine which has arrived from Texas. The contract was worth $400.00.

Polio Vaccine Is Now Available For Children 5 to 9

If you have a child in the five to nine year age range, right now is an ideal time to see to it that he gets the new polio vaccine, Dr. A. F. Litzemburger, director of district health department No. 3, urged this week.

He went on to say that local health departments have vaccine on hand for five through nine year old youngsters, and based upon local decision, the vaccine also may be given to youngsters in the one through 14 age group and to pregnant women.

While not enough vaccine is stocked to care for all these groups, a large number should be vaccinated without delay, Dr. Litzemburger said. He said the polio season is about over and this is the best time to start immunization which will give protection against paralytic polio next year.

Family doctors may get the vaccine from the local health department to immunize anyone in the designated group. The vaccine is being supplied free with the only cost the office charge made by the family physician.

Quoting Dr. Albert E. Heustis, state health commissioner, Dr. Litzemburger termed the results of the use of the vaccine so far "most encouraging both in Michigan and country wide." He said that Michigan should make prompt use of every dose of vaccine secured so more youngsters will have the maximum protection from paralytic polio by the time the seasonal rise in polio begins next year.

ODDS 'N' ENDS

By Fran Martin

WITH WIND and cold weather (40 degrees) like we had Sunday night and Monday can winter be far behind? We hope it's a long way off but this time of year you just don't know... so get the storm windows on, check the fuel supply, bring in the garden tools, put the snow shovel in a convenient place, batten down anything that will blow away and hope the old snow doesn't fly for a while. And don't say it can't happen... Wasn't it Nov. 10 or so that we got two feet of snow overnight in 1952?

WITH FIVE down and two to go our Rayders are doing alright... With Gaylord on the schedule this week and Mancelona here next week high school football will soon be over for 1955... So far it's been a real good season... Sure hope it stays that way... If the Rayders will buckle down and play ball (but not like they did the first half Friday).

they'll end up in the proper place in the standings... By the way, hope someone made a copy of the magic words Coach Carey used Friday night 'cause when his team came back on the field for the second half they were an entirely different outfit... they played ball... Never know when you might have to have the magic formula again so hope it's filed away in the proper place...

HOW DO YOU like the beautiful new pennant... a rich maroon with Charlevoix the beautiful written across it in white letters... that the band totes these days... It replaces the big white one that was ruined at the Soo last summer when the band marched in a downpour... And speaking of the band... they are to be complimented for their fine halftime performances this season... They've done a grand job... Like everything else around our town we're mighty proud of them...

THIS WEEKEND will be the big one for the kids are goblins, ghosts and just about anything else you'd like to name will come knocking on your door with the request "Trick or treat"... Hal-lowe'en, to our way of thinking, is one of the happy times of the year for the little ones... and the not so little ones... So don't forget to prepare for the callers and have your treat ready... 'cause we can't imagine you doing a trick... that they'd find entertaining... And do be careful while you're driving because most of these kids aren't used to being out at night and don't realize how difficult it is to be seen at night...

AND FOR those people who like to shop in leisure... don't forget that Christmas is only eight weeks away... And for those of you who do your shopping Christmas week... you're missing a lot of fun by doing it up in such a short time without shopping around...

HAVE YOU contributed to the Community Chest yet... If you've been missed you can always leave your contribution at Lieberman's... Look over the list of worthwhile agencies included in the Chest and then dig a little deeper... without your support they cannot carry on their fine work...

Our apologies to Howard Ouderkirk... who does not repair Cadillac at Cooper-Franklin but operates his own garage with Bud Klooster at the corner of Antrim and State sts... in other words... the Charlevoix Hudson Sales and Service...

WE HAVEN'T seen it yet but we have it on good authority... right from the author's mouth, you might say... that "Feeling Love?" written by our own Rev. Harold Kohn, will soon have a new jacket... So look for it... and get yourself a happy surprise... We can't describe it 'cause we haven't seen it yet either...

HAVE you noticed that just about all our summer birds have left us... a week or so ago all the robins in town were assembling in our neighborhood... You could almost hear them discussing their route and time schedule... and then one morning they were all gone... But there are a few brave little "chirpers" still around... Since we don't know our birds we don't know what they are but we hear them now and then... Haven't heard of any geese traveling south yet... 'til we see or hear them, we always have a feeling that winter won't be here right away... But let the first flock honk by and you can bet their practically snow on their tails... Or so it seems...

And speaking of hunters, the kind that stalk the deer are counting the days 'til the season opens... It's less than three weeks when it will be legal to shoot the deer with firearms although the bow and arrow season has been on for some time... Just another two weeks and all the hunters will be taking off for camps hither and yon... With weather like we've been having it doesn't seem possible but the calendar says it's true...

Voice of Our Readers...

I would like to appeal to the citizens of our community to observe parking restrictions which are in effect in front of the Charlevoix post office.

Our city council generously granted two parking spaces in front of the post office to allow the public to make use of the "Courtesy" collection box which has been installed not only as a convenience to our local patrons but also by transients.

Some patrons are of the opinion that this space has been reserved for them while they are on business in the post office. THIS IS NOT THE CASE. The council has also designated two parking spaces on the Antrim st. side of the post office for these patrons.

Your cooperation in keeping this space clear will not only make your fellow towns-people happy but will also keep the traveling public from calling us names behind our back.

Thank you!

Marian Warner And William Pasche Speak Wedding Vows At St. Mary's

The wedding of Marian Joan Warner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Warner, and William Pasche, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Pasche of Lansing, was solemnized at St. Mary's church Saturday.

The Rev. E. Francis Denay officiated at the nuptial mass and double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with arrangements of autumn flowers. Mrs. Doyle Warner, aunt of the bride, was the soloist and Mrs. Frank Olesky the organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of white Chantilly lace and tulle over satin for her wedding. It was fashioned a fitted lace bodice, tulle yoke, high lace collar and long, lace sleeves. The bouffant skirt had wide panels of lace and a chapel length train. Her nylon tulle fingertip veil fell from a seepared tiara and she carried a cascade bouquet of white fringed carnations centered with red roses.

Mrs. Robert Pasche of Lansing, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, was matron of honor and Carolyn Stow, cousin of the bride, and Jean Skinner of Lansing were bridesmaids. They wore identical ballerina length gowns, of peacock shantung trimmed with aqua taffeta and worn with matching boleros, and floral headresses. They carried columbia bouquets of autumn flowers.

Robert Pasche of Lansing assisted his brother as best man and Eugene Backlund, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Robert Perry, both of Lansing, were ushers.

Mrs. Warner selected a tushia, dress and navy and white accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Pasche, mother of the bridegroom, wore a Copenhagen blue dress and navy accessories. Their corsages were of white pompons.

Winter --- Around The Bend!

"Our weather is changing. The forecast is for continued warm — for at least the next 100 years." Scientists vary in explanations. One is that the extreme cold weather of former years was caused by volcanic eruptions that created a "dust filled" air that stood as a shield between earth and the sun. Another is that the Carbon Dioxide from industrial smokestacks is both heating and drying to the earth. Still another is the sun is getting hotter. And then there is the changing course of the northern ice jet stream — nonexplainable and threatening. All probable explanations and though we relish the thought of a more moderate climate, it has and will present new problems. For a more complete study of this I refer you to last Sunday's Detroit News.

But don't give up the thought of a need for winter outer-wear yet! We can get mighty cold in the next hundred years — in fact, the next few months if we don't prepare.

The picture, too, is changing — to a new type of jacket that doesn't need snow or slacks to do a beautiful job of coverage all season long. Naturally, it pairs perfectly with either one — but the Big Surprise of '55 is Northlander's versatile styling that lets one jacket do better than double duty.

At Fay's it's the "Hide-Away" Hooded Shorties. The new "Short Coat" in Zelan Parka Poplin with warm quilted suede lining! The "Hide-Away Hood" becomes a scarf in milder weather or it can be easily unbuttoned to remove. In the seasons best colors — in all sizes —

Child Life shoes tested

The makers of Child Life shoes, Herbst Shoe Manufacturing Company, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, adopted as a manufacturing and selling project a statement handed down by the United States Supreme Court. The quotation runs, "Good will is the disposition of the customer to return to the place where he has been well served." A parent, satisfied with a particular brand of children's shoes, will return again and again to buy quality made, well designed shoes. Parents' Magazine's testing and evaluation of Child Life shoes reveals basically sound design, quality materials and thoughtful skill incorporated in many construction details not always apparent to the consumer.

Regular type Child Life shoes are made of—good quality leather, Goodyear Welt construction, good grade twill lining to absorb perspiration, leather insole, sturdy reinforcement in toe caps to prevent them from breaking down under pressure, and in most styles, a leather reinforcement at the top of the heel called a labover or "dog-tail" to protect the stitching where a child forces his heel into a shoe.

Library Is Given Antique Piece By Mrs. Robert Taylor

An antique settee which was in the Old Statehouse at Springfield, Ill., during the time of Abraham Lincoln has been presented to the Charlevoix public library by Mrs. Robert L. Taylor in memory of her late husband.

The late Mr. Taylor, an attorney for the Election Commission of Chicago, made frequent trips to Springfield where he had occasion to admire the settee that had played its silent role in countless historical events associated with Abraham Lincoln. He eventually became its proud possessor and on his retirement the piece of furniture was moved to his home here. Mr. Taylor died in 1946. Mrs. Taylor continued to reside here until 1953 when she returned to Chicago to make her home.

During a recent visit here Mrs. Taylor presented the settee to the library along with a brief sketch of its history. Miss Florance Milner, librarian, accepted the gift.

Trout for Tomorrow

After trout hatch from eggs, the delicate fry-size stage of life begins. Workers at conservation department hatcheries must keep careful watch over the young fish to make sure water is the proper temperature and that they have enough to eat. Such scenes as that above are common these days in hatcheries throughout the state, as next year's trout get started in life.

Charlevoix Will Host Postmasters Of State In June

Charlevoix will be host to the 1956 conference of the Michigan Postmasters Association June 21, 22 and 23. Postmaster Peter H. Timmer announced after returning from the organization's annual meeting in Detroit last week where the convention site for next year was selected.

Charlevoix was chosen over Bay City and Grand Rapids, Mr. Timmer said.

The convention will be held at the Charlevoix Beach Hotel and will bring up to 300 members and guests to Charlevoix for the three-day meeting.

Compile New Type School Report Cards

ship is a list of 13 items designed to give the parent a real picture of how the child is progressing, the reasons he is not getting along, in school as well as his shortcomings and good points.

On the list are points which the teachers felt best explained the existing situation to the parents. These include: finishes work on time, works well without direct supervision, is neat and orderly in work, reads voluntarily in free time, contributes to class discussion, easily discouraged, attentive, appears to try, is courteous, has self control, talks too much, appears immature and has good health habits.

After studying the list it is easy to see the word picture the report card will paint for the parent, thus making it easier to help the child correct his shortcomings and encourage him in his good points.

There are also times when a teacher must send a note home by the child. In the past there have been times when the notes have been conveniently 'lost'. But Johnny or Joan will no longer be able to get away with this familiar childhood stunt for there is even a place to be checked if a note accompanies the card.

It might be said that the teachers, in changing to the card of their choice, have tried to include everything in it that is possible.

Their efforts were commended by other teachers in the area when the new card was presented at the recent Regional M.E.A. meeting in Petoskey by Miss Milner. Many schools asked for copies which they plan to adopt for their own use.

On the back cover where the parent signs the card are brief messages from Mr. Snider and Supt. Bennett.

A 30-cow dairy herd is needed in order to cover the extra costs of chopping green forage, reports C. R. Hoglund, MSU farm economist.

Charlevoix Routs Pellston Eleven By 25-6 Score

Rayders Retain Loop Lead With Five Wins

The Charlevoix Rayders racked up their fifth win of the current season by defeating Pellston 25-6 to retain their first place standing in Northern Michigan Class C play Friday night.

This week the Charlevoix eleven will travel to Gaylord to take on the Blue Devils who are sharing the loop cellar with Mancelona with one win in five games.

Gaylord won the first game of the season, a 12-0 victory over Pellston, but since then has failed to come up with a win. Despite the fact that they have the biggest team in the league with a number of very capable players, the Blue Devils have fallen victim to Boyne City (26-0), Mancelona (6-0), Grayling (20-7) and East Jordan (13-7).

Barring an upset, the Rayders should come up with a win.

The game here Friday got off to a slow start with both teams scoring touchdowns on long runs only to have them nullified by penalties. The first half was scoreless.

In the second half, however, Charlevoix caught fire, scoring three TDs in the third and one in the final period while Pellston scored only once late in the game.

Charlevoix kicked off to the visiting Hornets who failed to make ground and punted out of danger. The Rayders in turn had to punt with Pellston taking over on their 43 yard line. After picking up a first down Pellston quarterback Basil Naganashe got off a long pass to end Pat Cabinaw who romped the distance to score. A Hornet offside penalty, however, nullified the play and Charlevoix took possession on their 14 after taking a short punt.

On the next series of plays the Rayders picked up two first downs to their 42 where halfback Gary Vandenberg got away for a 58 yard run and only to have it called back when both teams were offside. Charlevoix, however, continued to move on the ground and wore on the 15 when Pellston recovered a Rayder fumble as the quarter ended.

Six first downs by the Hornets moved the ball to the Charlevoix eight early in the second quarter where Vandenberg intercepted a Pellston pass and Charlevoix was back in the game. The Rayders moved the ball toward midfield only to have a pass intercepted as the half ended.

The Rayders looked like a new team when they returned for the second half with Vandenberg taking the kick-off and returning 75 yards for the touchdown. The kick for the extra point was missed and Charlevoix led 6-0 with less than two minutes of the period gone.

Pellston returned the kick to their 28 and punted to the Rayder 35 after failing to gain a first down. The Rayder march picked up two first downs to the Pellston 22 where quarterback Quint Walker took the ball over for a touchdown. Vandenberg converted and Charlevoix led 13-0.

Again Vandenberg kicked off with Pellston taking the ball on their 25. On the next two plays, however, they were pushed back to their 10 when Walt Poquette broke through twice to smear the ball handler.

Pellston was forced to punt and the Rayders took the ball at midfield, moving it to the Hornet 20 on two first downs where halfback Ken Balch went over for the tally. The

Rayder Reserves Take 40-7 Victory From Mancelona

Charlevoix's little Rayders rolled over the Mancelona Reserves Wednesday night by a score of 40-7. Ron Anderson, Tom Lakies, Bill Poquette and Ron Vandenberg accounted for touchdowns.

The first touchdown came early in the game when Lakies went 39 yards to score the first touchdown on the first play from scrimmage after the Rayders had recovered a Mancelona fumble. Lakies added the extra point on a line play. Later in the period Anderson scored from the 10 on an end run to make the quarter score 13-0.

Mancelona scored its only TD of the game in the second period on a 60 yard pass play. A line play accounted for the extra point as the half ended 13-7.

Anderson scored through the line from the 35 and Lakies ran the ball over for the extra point to open the second half. Later in the quarter Poquette scored on a reverse play from the 30 with Anderson totting the ball over for the extra point.

Coach Pete Burns sent in substitutes to open the last period with some 30 players in all seeing action. Vandenberg scored from the eight on an end run and Lakies scored on a 75 yard run following a screen pass play. Bob Mol made the extra point on a quarterback sneak.

Kick was not good but by this time Charlevoix held a 19-0 lead.

For the third time in the period Vandenberg kicked off to the Hornets who were forced to punt to the Charlevoix 44 as the third quarter ended.

In possession of the ball as the final period started the Rayders, on two first downs, marched to the 22 where a jump pass from Quint Walker to end Guy Swanson moved the ball into scoring position. On the next play, however, set the ball back to the 27 and nullified the pass gain. This time Walker passed to Terry Davis who went all the way and the score was 25-0. The attempted pass for the extra point was incomplete.

With Coach Carey emptying the bench during the final period Charlevoix kicked off to Pellston who moved the ball from their 30 to the Charlevoix 39 where Swanson intercepted a Hornet pass but his efforts were in vain as an offside penalty by Charlevoix gave the ball carriers the gain. Pellston continued its march to the 16 where halfback Frank Durkalee went over for the score. The attempted plunge for the extra point was stopped.

Charlevoix took the kick and after three offside penalties by anxious substitutes was forced to punt from their 30. Pellston was in possession of the ball on the Charlevoix 32 as the game ended.

Last Week With Class 'C' Teams

Favored teams came through with victories in the Northern Michigan Class C league last week as Charlevoix defeated Pellston 25-6; Boyne City won over Harbor Springs 24-6; Grayling romped over Mancelona 24-12 and East Jordan edged past Gaylord 13-7.

As a result of the action, Grayling moved into third place behind Charlevoix and Boyne City and East Jordan advanced to a tie for fourth place with Harbor Springs and Pellston. Gaylord and Mancelona are in the league cellar with one win in five starts. Boyne City 24 Harbor Springs 6.

Playing at Harbor Springs, the Boyne City Ramblers utilized their fine aerial attack which had failed to work against the Rayders the week with passes accounting for major gains and two touchdowns.

Halfback Carl Charon started the scoring by going over from the eight with four minutes gone in the first period. Later in the same quarter, quarterback Bob Fitzpatrick on the 38 passed to end Murray Northup who took the ball and went over from the three to make the score 12-0 as the period ended.

Harbor Springs scored its only tally early in the second period when halfback Ed Mathews romped 40 yards to score. Quarterback Richie Clarke's drop kick was wide and the score remained 12-6 although the Rams were deep in Rambler territory as the half ended after recovering a Boyne City fumble on the 43.

In the third period Boyne City marched to the Rams one-yard line but lost the ball on downs after failing to go over in four tries.

Early in the final period Fitzpatrick got off a long pass to left end John Juday who was brought down on the three yard line in a play which covered 44 yards. Halfback Charlie Stocker went over from the three to score.

Later in the period Charon took the ball on the Rams 10 yard line, fumbled on the five and then recovered his own fumble on the one from where Doug Newville went over on the next play.

On the final play of the game Stocker received an ankle injury after stopping Mathews who had intercepted a Boyne pass. The injury, however, was not serious and he is expected to be back in the line-up next week.

Grayling 24 Mancelona 12. At Grayling it was Gary Worden all the way as the speedy halfback scored all four Viking touchdowns on long runs.

In the first quarter he went 53 yards after breaking through the line and in the second period he went 30 yards around end to make the halftime score 12-0 for the Vikings.

The third period was scoreless but in the final quarter both teams scored two touchdowns apiece. Mancelona scored first on a quarterback sneak from the two by Galen Christopher with both Jim and Gary Parkinson blocking the kick for extra point. Worden came back to add a third Grayling touchdown on a 39 yard run but fullback Gary Shisler on the series of play went over from the two to make the score 18-12. Worden romped 55 yards late in the game for the final TD.

Worden is credited with accounting for 231 of Grayling's 293 yards in the game. This yardage does not include passes or punt returns.

Charlevoix Rayders clear the way for ball carrier, quarterback Saint Walker, as he made a substantial gain against the Pellston Hornets Friday in a game Charlevoix won by a score of 25-6. Other players are not identified.

ran the extra point over to tie up the game.

With four minutes remaining the Red Devils recovered a Gaylord fumble on the 22 and returned it to the nine where Streeter passed to quarterback Larry Woodcock for the winning touchdown after East Jordan had failed to move the ball on two downs.

The attempted run for the extra point was stopped short of the goal line.

the other Cadillac models for 1956—introduce a standard of automotive excellence that will find no counter-

... their brilliant new color combinations... their sparkling highlights of chrome and gold... all combine to create a beauty that is truly unique.

Where could you find anything to equal them in luxury?
Inside are fabrics of rare richness and pattern...

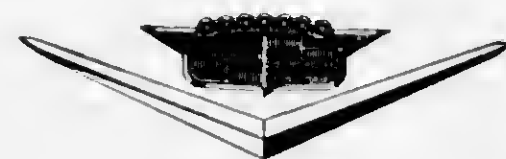

and features of comfort and convenience that will delight even the most experienced Cadillac owner.

And where could you find anything to rival them in performance? There's a completely redesigned Cadillac engine developing 285 and 305 horsepower... a new, controlled-coupling Hydra-Matic Drive... and advanced Cadillac Power Steering and Power Braking.

This extraordinary new Cadillac beauty... and this dynamic new separate series and in nine individual body styles.

THOUGHTS AFIELD

by Harold E. Kohn

A Sense of Direction

This November we shall read in our newspapers as we do every fall, that some hunter is lost in the green and white vastness of Northern Michigan forests. Fellow hunters will form a rescue party and comb the woods and clearings for some sign of their unfortunate companion. They will form a rescue party and search for his tracks. They will look for blazed trees that might hint the direction he had taken from camp. They will scan the sky for a wisp of smoke from his signal fires. Their ears will strain too late.

When is a man lost? When he doesn't know where he is? No. A lost hunter knows where HE is, but he doesn't know where his camp is. In his quick, panicky looking around he has ascertained exactly where he is. He is about ten paces in front of a giant white pine and five paces to the right of a towering, rotting pine stump. Just ahead of him is a clearing he has never seen before, and twenty-five yards or so to the left is a thicket's edge beyond which lies what appears to be an impenetrable marsh. Where is he? He knows the precise answer to that. Now, where is camp? In what direction? It wouldn't matter much how far away camp might be, if he only knew what direction to take to get there. Lostness is never a matter of not knowing where you are. Being lost means not knowing the relationship of where you are to where you ought to be. It is losing your sense of direction.

The preventive against getting lost is to refuse to be led by imagination or hunch or whim. You need objective guidance, to be led by something outside yourself. An accurate, well adjusted compass will help you find your way. If you are without a compass a watch will do, providing the sun is shining. Hold your watch flat, and point the hour hand toward the sun. South will be found halfway between the hour hand and 12 on your watch dial. If the day is too cloudy to see the sun, hold a twig or a stiff blade of grass at the rim of your watch and more than likely the sun's direction will be shown by a faint shadow falling on the watch face.

On a clear night the stars will give you your bearings. Look to the sky where the Big Dipper can be found. See the two stars that form the edge of the dipper farthest from the handle? Draw an imaginary line between those two stars, extending it about five times the distance the stars are apart, and the far end will rest on the North Star. This heavenly body, sometimes called Polaris, has for centuries guided sailors upon the trackless seas, and has led lost wayfarers homeward. It stands directly over the North Pole. Find the North Star and from it you can determine any direction you wish.

The Iroquois Indians looked to many a wood-sign for their directions. Pileated woodpecked holes and flying squirrel holes told them which way might be east, since both creatures tend to have their front door greet the rising sun. Iroquois used to say that the north side of a hill was a quieter carpet upon which to walk, while the south side was noisy. A northern exposure was apt to be moist and mossy while the south side (exposed to the sun) was arid with the sound of rustling dried leaves and grasses and the snapping of twigs.

East is indicated by the tips of hemlocks and pines which usually point very slightly in that direction. Northwoodsmen declare that spruce gum dropping from the north side of a tree is apt to be a dirty grayish color, while that on the south side of a spruce will be the color of booby.

Find the nests of waterfowl on a lake shore and you have likely come upon the lake's west edge, for waterfowl seem to have a preference for the western side of lakes and streams for nesting purposes.

These and scores of other signs have been used by man to find his directions.

Migrating birds and fishes find their way across hundreds of miles to wintering and breeding grounds. How do they do it? They carry no compasses. Landmarks cannot be the answer since myriads of young birds make the southward journey in the fall, and they have never flown the route before and landmarks could hardly aid fishes since there is a monotonous sameness about most

Little Rayders Defeat Petoskey By 26-13 Score

Charlevoix's Little Rayders wrapped up their 1955 season Tuesday night with a 26-13 win over the Petoskey Reserves, a team they tied 6-6 earlier in the season.

The win gave the local reserves a record of four wins and one tie for the season.

In the game Tuesday night Charlevoix scored early in the first quarter when halfback Ron Anderson broke away for a 44 yard run to make the score 6-0. The attempted plunge for the extra point was stopped short.

Later in the same period Petoskey came back to tie the score on a 35 yard run by Charles Becker.

Early in the second quarter Anderson broke away a second time and romped 70 yards to score. Quarterback Bob Mol ran the extra point over.

Following a concerted drive midway in the third period Mol took the ball over on a quarter back sneak from the one foot line and later in the period Bill Wilbur scored from the 10 for Petoskey with Denny Hiltchough scoring the extra point to make the score 20-13.

Charlevoix put the game on ice late in the final period as Bill Poquette went 25 yards to score.

Pete Burns and Terry Rice are the Reserve coaches.

Elk Rapids Man Elected To Head Dist. 16, M. U. C. C.

Lew McColey of Elk Rapids was elected chairman of M.U.C.C. district 16 at the regular meeting and election of officers held Thursday at the Charlevoix Rod and Gun club. Ted Malpass of East Jordan was named vice chairman.

The assembled members from several northern Michigan counties heard C. B. Meigs, state representative from the Charlevoix district, discuss conservation legislation.

Ellsworth Sportsman's club will be host to the district meeting in January.

stream and ocean bottoms, and fish cannot see terrain lying above water. Well, then, how do creatures find their way? Some scientists suggest their directional sense may be a response to the earth's magnetic currents. Some day we may know the answer for certain. But when the riddle is solved it will be plain that migrants travel not by hunch or whim but by being true to something outside themselves.

Shakespeare had his "Hamlet" character, Polonius, spout a bit of foolishness that the world has adopted as gospel truth.

"To thine own self be true, And it must follow, as the night the day, Thou canst not then be false to any man."

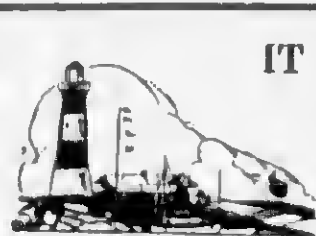

Being true to yourself is good, but not nearly enough. Unless a person is true to something outside himself and less fallible than himself, he is headed for trouble. An imaginative nine-year-old, when making a mistake in arithmetic, saying that ten times ten equals ninety, is not encouraged to continue expressing himself, giving his imagination free rein. "To thine own self be true" is poor advice then. He needs to be true to mathematical fact which was here before his birth and will be here long after his great grandchildren are honored with final rites. A contractor, making a mistake in building your new home, putting the garage where the living room ought to be, will not be comforted with the admonition, "to thine own self be true." You will order him to be true to the architect's blueprints and to his earlier agreement to abide by them.

A navigator at sea finds his bearings not by consulting his whims of the moment nor his fleeting desires, nor his fallible imagination. He looks to his compass. And if a buater, excited by the sight of bounding deer and confused by hours of chase over their twisting trails, should find himself lost, he had better be true to something other than himself. Only then will he find his way home.

The least panicky people in these changing, bewildering times are those who are true to something more vital, lasting and authentic than a passing urge, an ephemeral whim or a hasty hunch. They have a sense of direction, knowing not only where they are, but where they are headed. They are led by the great moral and spiritual poles, and they are guided by the fixed stars of our moral firmament, such as the Ten Commandments and the Sermon on the Mount.

To thine own self be true? Rather, be true to God.

ODDS 'N' ENDS

By Fran Martin

WITH THE temperature dipping toward the 32 degree mark and that old white stuff covering the ground last week, winter can't be far away. As we write this we cross our fingers and hope for the best but come November 1 anything, but anything, can happen. So if you haven't the storm windows on, the bulbs in, the screens and garden tools stored better get to it.

AND DON'T forget that business places will be closed or operating with skeleton crews in another 10 days as everyone takes to the tall timber in search of the elusive deer and the bear who's already laid himself up for the winter. If he's smart. Trailers are beginning to appear from nowhere and hunters are laying in supplies. Can't see how anyone can get excited about it but since we're in the minority guess there must be something to this hunting fever. We know one thing, there's no cure for it. Wonder who our oldest hunter will be this year? Wouldn't be a bit surprised if it is Chris Drost who's going to celebrate his ninety-second birthday come Christmas Day.

AN INTERESTING bit of information came to our attention last week after third ward alderman Tom Carey had handed in his resignation. Seems Tom is the third generation of Careys to serve on the city council. His dad, Leo, and his grandfather, Charles, also did their bit as city fathers. Don't know who his successor will be but it's too bad that some of these people who are always talking about the way the city should be run aren't appointed to take over the job which is just about the most thankless in the world. Maybe you don't agree but then our sentiments.

HAD A grand gabfest Saturday with just about the grandest guy we've met in many a moon. He's not going to thank us for writing this, but we had to mention him. He's Pat Harris, a man with at least a little knowledge about anything you'd like to mention and that covers just about everything we talked about. He loves people, loves to visit and is quite a student of human nature. And he can talk more than we can!!! But he's great company and we're looking forward to another visit next summer. Incidentally, he's a great Rayder fan and the last we saw of him he was trying to influence the weather man to keep the days decent 'til after Friday's game. Sure hope his arguments were convincing.

FRIDAY, as all you football followers know, ends the 1955 grid season. That little ole team that didn't look so hot the first two weeks of September when we first looked them over mofed itself under the tutelage of Coach Carey into a team that has surprised everyone. It certainly speaks well for not only the coach but the team that lent itself so well to the teachings of its elders. 'Tis said that a good athlete must be ready to sacrifice and there are players on that team who sacrificed a desired position or gave way to a better player for the good of the team. he must have a competitive spirit. and who can doubt that this team has that and he must have the spirit to win. that important factor came to light in the Boyne game when the boys proved themselves.

AND WHILE we're on the subject of football, how did you like the little Rayders game last week. the one with Petoskey that completed the season. It was the first time we'd seen 'em although we'd been hearing about them. And for little kids can they ever play football. give them another year or two and, chums, watch out. Sure hope they not only keep the scrappiness they have but increase it a few times. After looking them over we're convinced that Charlevoix's going to be doing OK for awhile.

AND HOW about that Michigan - Iowa game Saturday. It was wonderful to watch or listen to but if you happen to be a Michigan fan it was hard on the nerves. That's cutting it too close for comfort but it sure was something. Incidentally, there were quite a few names that sounded mighty familiar. including our own Jim Bowman, Stan Knickerbocker who spent the summer here and, of course, big Ed Meads who has visited here. One of the things we got the biggest boot out of during the game was the announcer and his only comment after Macntz caught the TD pass that put Michigan ahead for the first time. Over and over he kept saying "My goodness, oh my goodness." Suppose his vocabulary had to be limited over the air but we couldn't think of a less appropriate comment.

Campus Comments

Larry Petersen, John Connolly, Tom Erber, Larry Burns, Bob Miles and Jim Fiedler are among the Michigan State students who spent the weekend here with their respective families.

Thomas Bleha, University of Michigan senior, has been named to represent the University at the seventh annual student conference on U. S. Affairs to be held at the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, N. Y., Nov. 29 through Dec. 3.

On the campus he is the president of the Inter-House Council. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bleha.

Nancy Bodley, third year student in the school of nursing at the University of Michigan, has pledged the Kappa Phi sorority at the University.

Charlevoix IN UNIFORM

From Dick Scheid A.T.A.N. now stationed in Hawaii with USN Air Transport Squadron 21 a letter telling of his new and interesting hobby. . . skin-diving and underwater fishing with a spear. He writes: "I went to the crater of Koko-head, an extinct which long ago broke, allowing the sea to enter forming an almost perfect circular bay, to try out my skin-diving equipment. I got a face-mask, a snorkel tube, a set of swimming fins and a spear-gun. Boy, is it ever fun! "I only managed to spear two fish but the reason for that is the scenery. I'm telling you, it was really beautiful underwater for the sun was shining and the water was as clear as could be. I spent 20 to 30 minutes at a time just looking at the coral formations and the schools of fish swimming by without a thought of the gun in my hand (The latter similar to a case of buck fever, I guess). When I did settle to the business at hand finally, the first time I fired the gun under water I got the first fish of the two. The second one I got at the extreme range of my gun, a very good (or lucky) shot as the range is about 10 feet.

"A friend of mine has promised me he could take me out to a place he found next time so I can get a chance at some big ones. It is really quite an experience to meet the fish in their home ground to do battle, rather than hope that there are some around that will be attracted to the baited hook you've hung over the side of a boat.

"There is really nothing to it. . . just a matter of laying in the water and looking around till you find something to shoot at. With the snorkel there is none of the discomfort of holding your breath while looking. That is what I really like about it for the last time I was here it seemed every time I spotted a fish my lungs were about to burst and I'd have to surface to get some air. By the time I got back underwater the fish had moved to a healthier locale, leaving me in a white-hot rage."

Dick is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Scheid and a veteran of seven years in the Navy.

Last Word in Farm Machinery

Curly Lawson was first in this area to use one of those roadside vending machines. He's sold milk and eggs in one about a year now, and recommends them highly—but with reservations.

"Mine's the latest model," says Curly. "Built-in refrigeration unit—heater—an automatic sign turner-on for night. Takes any combination of coins."

"However," he warned, "those machines aren't cheap to buy... or operate. They run about $3500. If you're not on the main highway like I am—where lots of city people pass—you'd better stick to the old methods."

From where I sit, you have to admire Curly for his pioneering spirit. Of course, there's also plenty to be said for those who tend to stick to the old proven methods. People's ideas differ on the subject—on any subject. Like you may always drink buttermilk with your meals... while a glass of beer's the "automatic" choice with me.

Here it is for '56—

Best Buick yet

When better automobiles are built Buick will build them

IT COMES upon the heels of the most successful Buick in history—and beats it in every score.

In shimmering steel and solid sinew, it's Buick for 1956—and there's never been anything like it for pure automobile.

You get a good hint of what we mean when you take in its sweep-ahead styling—from the air-splitting prow of its V-front grille to the robust rake of its cantared rear profile.

You get an even better hint when you open the doors and see the dazzle there.

But it's when you put this beauty to the city streets and the open highways that you learn the best of it.

For here is performance without parallel. A new advance in Variable Pitch Dynaflo* goes airplanes one better—steps up your getaway in normal driving without switching the pitch. But when you do need that extra surge, it's there instantly—and in extra abundance.

The might of big 322-cubic-inch V8 engines in every Series brings new record high power to all Buicks—Roadmaster, Super, Century, and the bedrock-priced Special. And to handle such dynamic driving power, the whole rear end has been endowed with extra brawn and heft and solidity.

We could spread before you an acre of blueprints on the engineering gems that spark the spectacular performance and ride and handling and roadability of these great Buicks for 1956.

But you can get the full and magnificent story right now, at our showroom, in a face-to-face meeting with the best Buick yet—now on display, and setting a dazzling new pattern for 1956.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Last Week With Class 'C' Teams

The Charlevoix Rayders with a 33-0 win over Gaylord Friday night continued to lead the Northern Michigan Class C league as the current season goes into its final week.

Elsewhere in the league Friday night, Mancelona upset Harbor Springs 15-6; Grayling won over Pellston 27-20 and Boys City rolled over East Jordan 45-7.

Following Friday's games Gaylord remained alone in the league cellar with one win while Mancelona climbed to a fourth place tie with East Jordan, Pellston and Harbor Springs and Boys City and Grayling held their second and third place standings.

Mancelona 15 Harbor Springs 6
The Harbor Springs Rams got off to an early lead when halfback Ed Mathews went 45 yards through the line to score in the first period. Quarterback Richie Clarke's kick for the extra point was wide.

In the second period, however, Walker, Balch and Terry Davis taking the ball placed it on the two yard line, where Davis went over to make the score 12-0. Walker's kick was good and the score was 13-0.

Charlevoix kicked off to the Blue Devils with the ball going out of bounds on the Charlevoix 42. On the first play from scrimmage Swanson intercepted a Gaylord pass on the 46 and the Rayders started another touchdown march which took the ball to the 19, where Walker passed to Swanson for the tally. Walker added the conversion and the Rayders went ahead 20-0. Gaylord was in possession of the ball on their own 30 as the half ended.

Gaylord kicked off to Charlevoix to open the second half, but after advancing to the Gaylord 30 the Rayders lost the ball on downs and Gaylord started a sustained drive which took them to the Charlevoix 30 where the Rayders recovered a Blue Devil fumble. The Rayders marched to the Gaylord 6 yard line, where a major penalty pushed them back to the 23. They had regained yardage to the Gaylord 10 as the third period ended without a score.

Walker attempted a field goal as the game went into the final period but it was wide and Gaylord took over on the 20 yard line. After three tries they were forced to punt and the Rayders regained possession of the ball on the 42. On the next play Walker got off a long pass to Swanson who romped the remaining 20 yards to score. The kick for the extra point was blocked.

Vanderberg kicked off to Gaylord, who moved the ball from the 27 to the Charlevoix 40 on two first downs but lost possession on downs. Two plays later Gaylord intercepted a Rayder pass on the Gaylord 32. On the next play Charlevoix and on the first play from scrimmage Balch went 32 yards to score. Walker converted and the Rayders led 33-0.

After taking the Rayder kick Gaylord picked up three first downs to move the ball to their own 20 in the Charlevoix 35 where the Rayders took the ball on downs. They had advanced the ball to the Gaylord 28 when the game ended.

NMCC Teams Make Last Try For Loop Rating In Games Friday

The 1955 Northern Michigan Class C football season will draw to a close this week as all eight loop teams see action. Pellston will be playing at East Jordan at 3 p.m. in the only afternoon game of the week while Boys City will travel to Grayling; Harbor Springs will entertain Gaylord and Charlevoix will host Mancelona at 8 p.m. Friday. Pellston and East Jordan, tied for fourth place with Harbor Springs and Mancelona, will not only be playing out their schedule but, taking advantage of their last opportunity to better their loop standings.

East Jordan has never finished in the second division and they will be up for this meeting which will mean so much to them.

The Hornets showed plenty of scrap last week before they were finally bowed to Grayling by a score of 27-20. Pellston will be the edge in the game but the Jordanites, stinging from their 45-7 beating at the hands of Boys City, will be scrapping hard to stay in the running until the final whistle is sounded.

Grayling, riding high with three straight wins behind them in which halfback Gary Worden ran wild, scoring the majority of the touchdowns on long runs, will be out to trip the second place Boys City Ramblers when the latter play on the Crawford county field this week.

Boys City, whose only defeat this season was a 13-12 loss to Charlevoix, will attempt to defend its present standing and hope that Mancelona will upset the Rayders, thus giving the Ramblers a share of the title they have sought for 10 years. If Coach Larry Baumann's Vikings continue their successful running play and can come up with a pass defense they could upset the Boys City eleven. The Ramblers, however, must be given the nod because of their past record.

In the first quarter Fitzpatrick pitched a 28 yard pass to halfback Carl Charon who stepped over for the touchdown. Fitzpatrick then converted for the extra point. Later in the period halfback Gary Newville intercepted a pass on the Jordanites' 14 to score.

Halfback Charles Stocker made his way over from the two following a sustained drive early in the second period. Quarterback Doug Newville intercepted a Red Devil pass on the 40 and went the distance as the half ended, 25-0.

There was no score in the third period but in the fourth Fitzpatrick threw a 39 yard pass to Charon who stepped over the goal line for the TD; got off a 34 yard pass to end John Juday who ran eight yards for the tally and got off the longest pass of the game to end Murray Northup, a 45 yard aerial, which Northup took on the goal line. Fitzpatrick converted on the first and last touchdowns.

East Jordan's lone touchdown came late in the game when halfback Gareth Thompson went over from the two following three passes from halfback Dick Street-er, to fullback Dick Johnson which moved the ball 57 yards in four plays in the two where Thompson went over. Johnson ran the ball over for the extra point.

Sport Sedan Makes Bow with 1956 Chevrolets

Reminiscent of the sport coupe which Chevrolet introduced with such sensational success in 1950, a sport sedan makes its debut along with the company's other new models. Elimination of the center pillar in the window area adds smartness as well as unexcelled visibility. The hardtop sedan will be available in the Bel Air (above) and "Two-Ten," two of three price-graded series of cars offered by Chevrolet for '56. Engine choices include two more powerful V8's and one 6. The "Super Turbo-Fire V8" develops 205 h.p.

Better Quality Forage Cuts Dairy Feeding Costs

The average farmer in Charlevoix county can cut his dairy herd feeding costs as much as 25 per cent by improving the quality of his forage and by feeding more forage and less grain.

That's the conclusion of Ed Rebnan, Charlevoix county agricultural agent. He points out that feed makes up about half the cost of producing milk.

C. R. (Ray) Hoglund, farm economist at Michigan State University, conducted a study of 172 south central Michigan dairy farms which showed that 50 per cent of the farms' alfalfa - brome stands rated excellent. That means 70 per cent or more legumes and few weeds.

Yet only 25 to 30 per cent of the hay harvested in this area was of excellent quality. Poor harvesting and storage methods were the reasons, according to Hoglund.

If a farmer has a good alfalfa - brome stand and uses improved harvesting methods, he can produce all the protein most dairy cows need, Rebnan contends. If a cow produces two or more pounds of butterfat daily she probably will need more protein, however.

He points out that early harvest of alfalfa - brome — by July 1 — will furnish cattle with a good supply of protein. But, he adds, if you have late-harvested grassy forage it will pay to feed protein supplement. The crude protein content of grass has often drops as low as eight per cent by July 1.

Wins Vacation Trip To Florida In Sales Contest

A week's vacation at Miami, Fla., is the pay off for Sam Brill, one of two Ford tractor and implement dealers in the state who won awards in a July 1 to Sept. 30 sales contest. His volume totaled 232 per cent of his quota.

The award, presented Monday by Mr. Del Riddle, district supervisor, provides an all-expense trip for the winner and his wife. (Unfortunately, Mr. Brill only collects half of his award. He's a young bachelor.)

Mr. Brill's dealership includes Charlevoix, Emmet and Cheboygan counties with headquarters at Charlevoix.

YOU'VE HEARD of a man without a country . . . but how about the guy who has two countries? . . . It isn't possible? . . . According to a story which appeared in a recent Detroit newspaper it's not only true but the man with two countries is someone many of you know . . . Norman Birnkrant . . .

Seems that when the newly liberated Republic of Austria was not financially able to open a consulate in Detroit, Birnkrant, whose parents came from that country, offered to take on the duties of the Austrian consul, so besides being a member of a law firm composed of six brothers, he's the official representative of the Austrian government in the Motor City . . . Right now he's looking for heirs to a $7 million dollar fortune . . . If your ancestors came from middle Europe you might just get in touch with him . . .

KIDS IN costumes of every description . . . big ones, little ones and middle-sized ones . . . came knocking on the door Monday night while out "tricking" and "treating" . . . Don't know who was having the most fun . . . the little kids or the adults who were accompanying them . . . We must live in a convenient spot 'cause we sure had a raft of kids . . . Amongst the last to come were a couple members of the Reserve football team . . . When we mentioned being football players and still going out on Halloween we got this quick answer . . . I had to go out for football to learn to protect myself . . . Last year the big kids took my 'trick and treat' bag away from me . . . Now there's a pretty sharp answer, we'd say . . .

SO Princess Margaret will not marry Group Captain Peter Townsend . . . Thus the romance of the decade came to an unhappy end . . . But, you know, her stock went sky-high in my estimation . . . Don't know what your sentiments of the situation are but that's the way we feel about it . . . but to our way of thinking it was the only thing she could do . . . A smart gal and a mighty thoughtful and unselfish one . . .

THE UNITED STATES has charged both Israel and Egypt with armistice violations. It urged them to agree to an immediate cease-fire to end "bloodshed and loss of life."

THE ARMY has ordered a reorganization of its Chemical Corps to seek new germ and gas weapons and means of defending against them. The corps' mission will be to develop agents of biological, radiological and chemical warfare "to the fullest extent the human mind can encompass."

THE STATE SENATE this week passed a much-criticized bill providing an emergency program for the care of mentally retarded children.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER is planning to fly east Friday (tomorrow). But his doctors report it probably will be late January or February before he can arrive at a decision on whether to seek re-election. Heart specialists gave Mr. Eisenhower an enthusiastic bill of comparative good health following intensive examination of the President this week.

THE DEFENSE Department has made the Army solely responsible for buying and supplying food for all the military services.

AMERICAN AIRLINES has announced the purchase of 30 Boeing jet transports and said it would establish the nation's first transcontinental jet service June 15, 1959.

SOVIET Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov stunned the Big Four conference this week with a thunderous demand for Communist dominance in a united Germany. Molotov's rejection of any plan to unify Germany by free election in the foreseeable future and his blunt demand that all Germany follow the Communist course of the East German regime demolished western hopes of conciliation, built by his Moscow remark earlier that he was bringing back "better baggage" to Geneva.

Community Choir Seeks Members For Christmas Vespers

An invitation is being extended this week to anyone in the community who is interested in joining the Charlevoix Community Choir preparatory to the annual Christmas Vespers.

The invitation has been extended by C. A. Odmarr, director of the group, who said there was some question as to whether there will be enough interested singers to hold rehearsals this fall.

Questionnaires have gone out to former choir members to ascertain the feasibility of a Community Choir this year and this article constitutes an invitation to those who did not receive a questionnaire.

Anyone interested in participating should call Mr. Odmarr at LI 7-2494 before the weekend. Further information regarding the Choir may be obtained from him.

Return From French Morocco
Staff Sgt. Thomas Jackson, accompanied by Mrs. Jackson and their son, Tommy, and Mrs. Jackson's mother, Mrs. E. A. Mock, returned home last week from French Morocco, North Africa, where the former had been stationed with the U. S. Air Force the past three years. Will Observe Diabetes Week November 13-29

Nov. 13 to Nov. 19 has been designated as Diabetes Week.

Local members of the northern Michigan Medical Society and the District Health Department are cooperating in the program by setting up Testing Centers for diabetes test. These tests will be made free of charge to all residents of the Charlevoix area during Diabetes Week.

Local doctors' offices, the community nurse's office at the Charlevoix elementary school have been designated as testing centers where urine specimens may be left during the week for examination.

All specimen bottles must be marked plainly with labels bearing the name, address and telephone number of the patient. Persons will be notified of any abnormality in the specimen.

What is diabetes? It is a disease which affects the patient's ability to utilize certain kinds of foods in a normal way. Starches, sugars and other foods are usually converted by the body into actual or potential energy but in the diabetic the body is unable to properly convert, store or utilize these foods. Consequently, the sugar content of the diabetic's blood is abnormal.

The diabetic may be thirsty, and may feel parched. Because the sugar in his blood is not converted into energy, he tends to become weak, tired and hungry. However, since he cannot utilize fully the food he eats, he loses weight no matter how much he consumes.

What kind of people are likely to get diabetes? Diabetes is no respecter of age, race or sex. Anyone may become a diabetic but the disease is more often in people whose families are already known diabetics; those over 40; the overweight and in women in more cases than men. To be on (Continued on Page 12)

Frank Novotny Almost Bags A Deer With Car

Without benefit of bow and arrow or rifle, Frank Novotny reports almost bagging a deer Saturday night.

While traveling south on US 31 just south of the village of Torch Lake, a 10-point buck dashed in front of his car. The deer which did not seem to be badly hurt got away while Mr. Novotny stopped to look over the damage done to his car. He reports the damage was not extensive and he and Mrs. Novotny continued on their trip to Newaygo. The accident happened about 6:30 p.m.

Band Dinner Will Be Held Tonight At High School

Tickets for tonight's Band Benefit dinner will be available at the door, C. A. Odmarr, ticket chairman, announced today.

The Band Benefit dinner will be held at the Charlevoix high school cafeteria beginning at 5 p.m. tonight (Thursday). On the menu will be Swiss steak, escalloped potatoes, a vegetable, salad, rolls, dessert and coffee. More than 400 people are expected to attend.

Committees of parents have been hard at work preparing for the benefit event which has been so successful in recent years.

Tickets have been selling well and another banner crowd is expected tonight, Mr. Odmarr said. If you have not been approached by a band parent or band member, there will be tickets available at the door tonight. The Charlevoix Band Parents Association, the sponsoring organization, extends a cordial invitation to everyone.

Chest Campaign For Funds Is Over The Top

The 1955 Community Chest fund campaign in the Charlevoix area has gone over the top, Mrs. Gordon L. Freedman and Mrs. Charles A. Duerr, co-chairmen of the drive to raise $7,650 for 10 agencies, reported Wednesday.

As of that date a total of $7,641.68 had been contributed to the fund campaign. The figure includes only $169.59 in pledges which will be fulfilled within the next few weeks.

The realization of the needs of these agencies, the generosity of everyone who was contacted, the desire for a united drive plus the thorough coverage by the workers were the contributing factors to the success of the 1955 fund drive, Mrs. Freedman and Mrs. Duerr said.

At this time the Community Chest board of directors headed by Robert Lieberman in behalf of the 10 agencies for which the funds were raised would like to express its gratitude to everyone who contributed in any way to the success of the campaign.

Contributions to date include: residential, $1,492.08; business, $2,223; summer residents, $1,412; organizations, $108; industries, $1,493.75; school, $234; county building, $13; hospital employees, $116.05; townships including Ironton and Beaver Island, $79.80.

Michigan Press Group Will Meet Here Next June

The Michigan Press Association will hold its annual summer outing at the Charlevoix Beach Hotel in 1956 Elmer White, secretary - manager of the organization, has notified J. Clark Dolliver of the Charlevoix Courier.

The three-day meeting will be held here in June. The exact dates are not known at this time. The conference was formerly scheduled for Traverse City but because of a road building program to begin early next spring in the Grand Traverse area the Traverse City hosts asked that the meeting in that city be postponed until 1957.

Hunters Prepare For Annual Trek North For '55 Deer Season

Michigan's 1955 deer hunting season which will open Tuesday and continue through Nov. 30 is expected to attract some 425,000 hunters, about 25,000 less than the average turnout for the last three seasons.

The decrease is anticipated because no special season will be held this year in the northern lower peninsula. Special "any deer" seasons in the region during the previous three-year period boosted the average annual deer hunter total to 450,000.

Last season 430,000 hunters bagged 65,000 deer.

Average Charlevoix's deer hunters who will leave this weekend for favorite hunting grounds in the upper peninsula are Mr. and Mrs. William Butters who will be located near Townline lake near Shingleton for two weeks. Camping close by will be Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hess and son, Ralph Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Pemberton will leave Saturday to hunt near Foster City.

Deer hunters who fill their licenses on opening day or Wednesday morning are invited to call the Courier office, LI 7-2211 or LI 7-6633 and report their luck. The Courier would like to know the approximate area where the deer was bagged, the time the number of points and approximate weight for a story for the Nov. 17 issue of the newspaper.

Heading for the Lake Gogebic country in Ontonagon county Thursday night will be Bert Staley, his son, Clare, Glenn Rose and Orville Hilton. They plan to be gone about two weeks.

On Saturday Kit Carson, Frank Bird, Ted Combs, Flay Brown, and H. C. Bird of Traverse City will leave for their hunting camp in the Two-Heart river district in the upper peninsula.

John Mol, Carl Kohler and Gordon Moeller will leave Saturday for the Foster City district. Gene Gihelyou and son Clare, Frank Pop, Frank Novotny Jr., and Edwin Mann will leave this weekend to hunt in the Munising area. Charles Bellinger will join his hunting party near Haco.

Bonnie Nickerson, Bruce Henley, Ken Ager, Keith Nickerson of Petoskey and Ralph Shapton of Detroit will leave Friday for Bruce's Crossing.

For the first time since 1929 the Heise brothers and their party who usually go to the Trout Lake district in the upper peninsula will hunt near Rogers City. In the party will be Clarence Heise, Charles Heise, C. B. Meggison, Don Meggison, Mike Hamlin and Capt. Alfred Brow.

George Cook and his son, Ira, of Grand Rapids, plan to hunt in the Chandler Hill district; the Bergmann family will be located in the Vanderbilt district. Among those in the party will be Fred Bergman, Robert Mitchell, Charles, Bill, Bud and Big Bergmann. They may be joined by George, Eugene and Ted Bergmann.

Many others will hunt in the counties adjacent to Charlevoix returning home each night. Still others will go to their usual hunting districts. Those mentioned have been brought to the attention of the Courier.

Announce Plans For St. James Harbor Work

Plans to make St. James harbor at Beaver Island a Great Lakes harbor of refuge were announced recently by the Army Engineers. The project which would eventually include dredging a channel into the harbor, the construction of a dock and other work on the harbor will cost an estimated $83,500.

Work would start next spring on the basis of an $18,500 pledge by the Michigan Waterways Commission and the Engineers as a starter to dredge a 150-foot channel to a depth of 14 feet in the inner harbor at St. James. This would permit lake freighters to take refuge during bad weather.

Other work would include a new $25,000 dock at St. James and another $40,000 appropriation to complete work in the harbor. The last appropriation has been virtually assured next July in the new fiscal year.

Work is started in the spring it is hoped it will be completed by 1957.

West Michigan Tourist, Resort Group Rewarded For Publicity

Grand Rapids — The West Michigan Tourist and Resort Association has been awarded a plaque for the "best news and photo coverage of any area in the United States" by the Midwest Travel Writers association.

Thirty-one travel editors of metropolitan newspapers in fifteen states voted the award. The publicity bureau for the state of Kentucky, directed by Mack Sisk, placed second to the West Michigan association.

Award of the plaque was made by Paul Aird, travel editor of the Detroit News and chairman of the awards committee of the writers organization, at a dinner for 100 leaders in the tourist promotion field at the Chicago Press club recently. Aurey Strohpaul, publicity director of the West Michigan association, accepted the plaque.

The West Michigan Tourist and Resort association won the honor in competition with state and area tourist promotion agencies throughout the United States. In 1953 the West Michigan association was runnerup.

In making the award, Aird said "stories and pictures sent out by the West Michigan Tourist and Resort Association are timely and consistently good."

Members of the travel writers organization feel that even with a limited budget the West Michigan association did the best job in the United States in luring tourists with photos and news stories in 1955.

Commenting on the award to West Michigan, Leonard R. Barnes of Detroit, associate editor of the Automobile Club of Michigan's publication Motor News, asserted that "if Michigan hopes to retain its share of the tourist business or increase it, we must maintain and improve the advertising and promotional programs. What we need is the output of other organizations comparable to that of the West Michigan Tourist and Resort Association."

Chester C. Wells, secretary-manager of the West Michigan Tourist and Resort Association, in expressing the gratitude of the industry in the 31 counties of West Michigan for the national recognition by the foremost writers on travel in America, said:

"It is gratifying to know that the efforts put forth to stimulate a desire on the part of the people of other states to vacation in West Michigan have gained the approval and recognition of a profession trained to serve the public."

Charlevoix county is one of the 31 counties represented in the area served by the West Michigan Tourist and Resort Association.

OUR CHARLEVOIX Rayders have done it again... raked up another title... and we'd like to be at the head of the line when congratulations are handed out... We don't mind admitting that on September 1 we didn't think that this was our year... but we (and a lot of others) reckoned without a bunch of kids who loved football and didn't like losing... To our way of thinking this year's squad was made up of a lot of guys who did two things... learned fast and gave their best in every game... It was fortunate that they reached their peak by mid-season when their best was needed most... It's always pretty nice when they come home with the title but this year it's "extra special" because a bunch of guys got it the hard way... We bow low to the '55 Rayder squad and their coach... for giving Charlevoix a full season of fine football and an early Christmas gift...

AND NOW the attention will be focused on the round ball game... that's right... basketball... The Rayders first game will be Dec. 2... Haven't seen the sked yet so don't know who it will be with... To our way of thinking, basketball is fine when there's no football to watch... But there are those who will be happy now that their game is about to start... Wanna make any predictions?

BUT BACK to football... Somebody goofed Saturday... Somebody forgot to tell Steve Sebo's Penn squad that they were supposed to lose by 40 points... So what happens?... That guy, Frank Reippel takes the kick-off in the end zone and goes the length of the field to score and whammo!... before the game is 19 seconds old Penn leads 7-0... Bet the most surprised guy there was Sebo... Of course the Irish came back to win but they sure had butter-flies the first

Paganini Quartet Will Be Heard In Concert Series Saturday Night

The Paganini Quartet, a string ensemble, will be heard in Petoskey Saturday as the second attraction of the Northern Michigan Community Concert Association series.

The concert will be presented at the Petoskey high school auditorium at 8:30 p.m. Admission is by membership in the Association only.

Artists of the Paganini quartet are Henri Temianka, Gustave Rosseels, Charles Foldart and Lucien Laporte. Their instruments are four fabulous Paganini Strads, re-assembled after a century of dispersal following Paganini's death.

It is from these instruments, made by Stradivarius more than two centuries ago and at one time the most cherished possessions of the famous virtuoso, Nicolo Paganini, that the quartet takes its name.

What Is Behind It All?

Autumn is full of reminders that much that is most vital and real in life cannot be seen. We see only things. But behind the things are the silent, invisible forces that make things possible and that make them significant.

During these days and nights of falling leaves wild Canada geese drift southward. Goose-talk floats down upon the crisp autumn air, the honking voices of winged prophets warning earth-dwellers of coming winter. Look sharply upon a clear fall night, and sometimes you can see across the moon's bright face a thin, unstable, moving procession forming a broad V, then straggling out into a swaying, wavering, single line. From northern Canada they come, from the Barren Grounds near the Arctic, from Labrador and the northernmost outreaches of the United States. Few sights are so filled with the atmosphere of wilderness and few sounds so wild, as the wing to wing flight of Canada geese and their gabbling and honking on a late October's night.

The big birds in migration are a thrilling sight. So is the harvest moon that brushes soft light upon their beating wings and tints the tops of rising and falling hills far below, and spreads a silken sheen across little streams and the lakes' broad waters. But beyond sight, and just as real as the observable, are the invisible powers that make for goose flight and moonlight, and without which neither would be possible. The migration urge is non-material. It cannot be seen nor touched nor weighed. The moon's soft glow is but the reflection of the sun, say the astronomers—the sun hidden behind the earth's bulk and shining elsewhere now, on the other side of the world, but not here. Moonlight is the visible manifestation of an invisible power.

When, at the dawning of another day, the now concealed sun shows its face again we shall see but a bright round ball in the heavens and nothing of its real power. Is there the faintest hint, as you look at that beneficent globe, that it is really a terrifying cauldron of flames and gases, 865,000 miles in diameter? Does it appear so hot that some celestial pourer could empty the Atlantic, Pacific and Indian oceans, and our own Great Lakes too, into it and they would almost instantly be converted to vapor without even a spit or sputter? The sun is that vast and that hot. Moreover, like all other things, the sun is composed of atoms, invisible particles of matter, made up of invisible neutrons and protons, spinning in invisible orbits around an invisible nucleus. That bright, round ball in the sky is a symbol of the deceptiveness of appearances. Things are not what they appear to be. Everything is more than a thing. It is a manifestation of an invisible power.

A wedding ring is more than a ring. It is an outward and material sign of an invisible bond of affection, unseen but real. A warm handclasp is more than the touch of flesh upon flesh. It is a visible sign of an invisible friendly feeling.

You are invisible. You can see your hand and your foot, but they are not the real you. Your hands and feet move at the impulse of your purpose, your love, your intellect and thought. These make up the real you. Look into the mirror, and what do you see? Your body, but not your character and personality. The power behind that body is the real you, and that power no one on earth has ever seen.

So with all the things we fear and love the most. They are essentially invisible. We see war and its devastation upon cities and hamlets and returning soldiers, sailors and airmen. But its real ruin is wrought upon the unseen, distraught minds and outcast spirits of mankind, just as its real causes are in the imperceptible suspicions, covetousness, fear and hatred of man. Munitions and material ravages of war are but visible signs of invisible conditions.

Houses are visible, but homes are not. Churches can be seen, but the fellowship of believers that makes the Church is an invisible spirit. Citizenship papers are seeable, touchable and weighable, but patriotism is not. A marriage license is purchasable, but love is not. Birthday and anniversary gifts can be measured in terms of dollars and cents, but thoughtfulness and appreciation cannot.

The stupidity and tragedy of materialism lie in being deceived by appearances, which are subject to quick change and decay, and in any case are apt to be misleading. Always man has tried to preserve his material possessions against the ravages of time, and has been disappointed. In the meantime, man's ideas, seemingly so fragile and ephemeral, have outlasted his most durable ornaments, architecture, monuments, tombs and sacred vessels. Our longing and searching for peace persists after block-busters have done their worst. Art lingers long after pictures have been lost or destroyed. The Word of God outlasts the writer and his manuscripts. Worship survives the falling of altars and temples. The products of man that time has

Production Credit Group Re-Elects Two Of Directors

Joseph Martineck Jr. of Marion township and Arnold Osterlander of Afton were re-elected for three year terms to the board of directors of the Gaylord Production Credit Association at the twenty-third annual meeting of the organization held recently in Gaylord.

Andrew Lampen, president of the Production Credit Corp. of St. Paul, Minn., addressed the meeting. While speaking on the topic, "What is a Co-operative?", Mr. Lampen used a 'flannel-graph' board to graphically illustrate the actual economic actions which an individual takes when joining together with others to achieve a common goal.

A. J. Townsend presented the secretary-treasurer's report and spoke briefly on some of the current credit problems. Mr. Osterlander presided at the meeting and gave the directors report which included an analysis of where the so-called family size farms stand in our economic system and some of the possible directions that may be taken in the future.

The meeting was held at the VFW post home where the Auxiliary of the Gaylord post served lunch at noon. Immediately following the lunch the group was entertained by the magic and humor of Edgar Stephan of Alpena.

proven most durable have been his heroic conduct, his inspirations and his ideas, all of which are spiritual.

We all want to be of durable stuff. Our one chance lies in linking our lives to values that outlast our bodies and to the Power that it "behind it all."

State Police Recruit Team Here Nov. 23

A Michigan State Police recruiting team will visit Charlevoix on Wednesday, Nov. 23, to interview applicants in connection with the current drive to obtain 200 additional troopers authorized by the special session of the legislature.

The team will be located at the court house from 7 to 9 p.m. Its members will be Charles Countryman and Donald Mellon of the Gaylord post.

Of particular interest to young men is a new salary increase approved by the State Civil Service Commission. Training school pay has been raised to equal that received the first year by a full-fledged trooper and there is also a general increase covering all brackets.

The range is $151 every two weeks, beginning with training school, up to a maximum of $192 in the trooper ranks. Likewise, the maximum is attained at the end of four years, or a year less than formerly. In the past, training school pay has been $110.

In addition to salaries, troopers receive approximately $75 a month for subsistence. They also are given their uniforms and traveling expenses and two paid vacations a year.

To be eligible, a candidate must be between 21 and 29 years of age, inclusive, not less than five feet, nine inches in height and in good physical condition. He must have a good character and have a high school education or its equivalent. Married as well as single men are accepted.

"The visit of the recruiting team has been especially arranged so that young men may learn at first hand what a real opportunity this is to join a career service," said Sgt. Oscar Anderson, commander of the Gaylord post. "They may also inquire at any State Police Post or talk to any State Police officer. But the recruiting team visit is for their convenience."

Applications must be in by Nov. 30. If sent by mail to the Civil Service Commission in Lansing and postmarked by midnight of that date, they will still be accepted.

The recruits will be trained and out into service as quickly as possible. The legislature authorized more State Police manpower to combat the highway accident rate through increased traffic law enforcement.

New Pink Light Bulbs Are Proved To Be Pleasing

New pastel pink colored light bulbs have been announced by three major light bulb manufacturers.

These new bulbs are available in sizes the same as other bulbs, explains Jessie Marion, extension home furnishings specialist at Michigan State University. These wattage numbers include 60, 75, 100, 150, 200, 250, and 300. Miss Marion says the pink bulbs are good for many uses. They provide a soft light, reduce glare and shadow, flatter complexions and produce a pleasing atmosphere for comfortable living.

Pink bulbs will enhance warm colors in fabrics, foods and furnishings. But she warns, do not use them as reading lamps, because of the lower output of light due to the pink color.

Do not use them for sewing, because of the lower output of light and because color in fabrics may be distorted. Another "don't" is to remember in using pink light bulbs is when applying make up. Miss Marion says that under white light, there will be less chance of misapplying cosmetics.

Miss Marion says red-orange and yellow-orange colors are enhanced or enlivened by pink light bulbs. These colors, in home furnishings, look on a fresh look, she comments. With cool colors such as greens and blues, the pink bulb tends to subdue and gray.

These changes may not be unattractive. Deep dark colors (warm or cool) will be affected less than delicate pastel colors with the use of the pink bulbs.

Save your energy by sitting instead of standing whenever you can. Sit to pare vegetables, do dishes and iron.

MICHIGAN IS starting fast and early to count its blessings for 1956.

The third annual Michigan Week has been scheduled for May 20-26 and committees already are at work.

It is the annual toast to business, industry, education, the resort areas, agriculture and all the things that make the state something extra special to its citizens.

The advertising value of Michigan week has been demonstrated. Business is booming and more people are coming to the state to spend their money and vacation time.

Russell Swaney, head of Detroit's Federal Reserve Bank, is Wayne County chairman for the 1956 Michigan Week. He will appoint chairmen for each of Michigan's other counties.

With details yet to be worked out, the week will again begin with Spiritual Foundations Day May 20 and end with New Frontiers Day on May 26.

MAYORS WILL again exchange cities in a rewarding feature of Michigan Week.

The sponsors believe next year's Michigan Week will see the greatest outpouring of pride and enthusiasm that the people of a state have ever shown for the place they live and work," said Walter L. Ciesler, president of Detroit Edison Co., and president of Greater Michigan, Inc., sponsor of the celebration.

Michigan Week, after two years, is standardized — starting the third Sunday in May, late enough for good weather for outdoor

Now Is Time To Apply Fertilizer To Fruit Trees

Now is a good time to apply fertilizer to fruit trees.

Fruit trees have root systems that often go deep into the soil, according to Paul Larsen, extension horticulture specialist at Michigan State University. Fall application gives the fertilizer a chance to reach the roots by spring so that the tree can make quick use of it when the warm weather arrives.

Potash and phosphorous can be applied in the fall to all fruit trees under all soil and cultivation conditions, according to Larsen. Nitrogen can be applied except on light soils where clean cultivation is practiced.

Larsen recommends these rates for nitrogen: For apples — one-half pound of ammonium nitrate or its equivalent for each year of orchard age until 5 to 7 pounds per tree have been applied. For other tree fruits — about half that amount.

Larsen suggests that phosphorous and potash be applied if there is evidence of need in individual orchards. Usually 300 to equivalent is enough potash and phosphorous to satisfy the needs of orchard trees.

If the trees need lime, Larsen recommends that it be applied in the form of dolomitic or high magnesium limestone.

celebrations, and early enough to be a major event of the school year.

Again headquarters of Michigan Week will be in the office of the Department of Economic Development in Lansing.

There will be an official proclamation of the week by Gov. Williams and all citizens will be asked to show why they're "proud to live and work in Michigan."

DRY GROUPS have found ready agreement among state officials in an attempt to outlaw the sale of "near beer" for children in Michigan.

The beer is one-fourth of one per cent alcohol, a content so small it does not come under the state's definition of an alcoholic beverage.

The Rev. Ross J. McLennan, executive secretary of the Michigan Temperance Foundation, started the ball rolling against "near beer" and said he would offer a bill to the 1956 legislature. Frank Blackford, chairman of the Michigan Liquor Control Commission, agreed immediately. He said:

"I don't like it as a parent or as a state official."

Ralph W. Daniel, executive director of the Michigan board of alcoholism, said he, too, would go along with the idea of banning the sale of beer for the consumption of children.

"When you give beer to children in any form, you're dealing with dynamite," he said. The weak beer is sold by food wholesalers and is distributed in several large and small cities in the state.

MICHIGAN physicians, dentists and veterinarians will hear leading civil defense authorities discuss the medical aspects of civil defense in an intensive one-day symposium in Detroit, November 16. As the first symposium embracing such a variety of professions, this is looked upon by civil defense officials and others as a

When your cookbook says to cut meat "julienne" style, cut it into long, slender strips. To "lard" a roast means to insert strips of fat in gashes made in the meat or to insert them into lean meat by means of a larding needle. "Marinating" means to allow the meat to stand in French dressing or a mixture of oil and vinegar. To "saute" means to cook in a small amount of hot fat.

U. S. Department of Agriculture specialists say that most fruits have better flavor, texture and color when frozen with sugar or syrup than when packed unsweetened.

Homemaking filers Hog marketings are expected to continue their increase with the high week probably coming in late November. Prices are now at the lowest point of the past nine years.

THE STATE'S new Fair Employment Practices Commission has laid down the ground rules for its function in government.

It calls upon the people of Michigan to cooperate to end discrimination in employment. In a policy statement, it said:

Prejudice and discrimination against any individual or group because of race, creed, color, national origin, religion or ancestry are contrary to our great American tradition of equal opportunity and treatment for all. They are threats to peace and public welfare.

"Accordingly, the commission calls upon all employers and employment agencies, public and private, all labor organizations and all other individual and organizations concerned with matters of employment to:

1. To become familiar with the requirements of the Michigan State Fair Employment Practices Act;

2. To review their present practices and policies to ascertain whether they are in conformity with the provisions of the act;

3. To freely consult with members of the commission or its staff relating to provisions of the act concerning which they seek clarification;

4. To discuss with the commission presently used or proposed applications for employment or membership for advice as to their content as affected by the act; and

5. To adopt practices and policies consistent with, not only the letter but also, the spirit of the act.

Shedding around its possible powers of imposing penalties for violations of the act, the commission said:

"The commission regards hopefully the informal process of conciliation and mediation prescribed in the act, through which it will endeavor to avoid or adjust controversies, with the expectancy that this process will lessen the use of the Commission's enforcement powers."

Develop A New Blueberry Type For State Land

Research has again given a boost to the Michigan blueberry industry.

Another new blueberry variety has been developed that fits Michigan growing conditions and can make use of still more of the state's poor farming lands.

The new variety, called Sunray, was developed by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. It has the same medium early growing season as Stanley, a popular variety with many Michigan blueberry growers. The Sunray, a high quality berry, is larger in size than Stanley, according to Harry K. Bell, extension horticulture specialist at MSU.

The state's blueberry industry has developed into a three-million-dollar business as a result of research carried on at the MSU South Haven experiment station.

In addition to this research, the Michigan Agricultural Experiment Station cooperates with the USDA in testing blueberry varieties. Much of this testing is

Facts Told About Advantages Of Plowing In Fall

Is fall plowing worth while?

Tests at Michigan State University show the best yields with fall plowing in some years. But the yield advantage is tipped toward spring plowing other years. Experiments were with corn, sugar beets and tomatoes.

Lynn S. Robertson, a soil science researcher at MSU, cuts into the claim that fall plowing takes advantage of freezing and thawing of the soil to break up large clods.

That break up, he says, also means a loss of soil stability and an increase in top crust. That's true for light soils low in organic matter.

Current research at the South Haven station is aimed toward developing a blueberry variety that will fit into growing conditions for the upper peninsula of Michigan. More than 1,000 hybrids are tested each year in the search for suitable varieties.

A flame-resistant finish for cotton cloth has been developed by the Department of Agriculture Research laboratory in Louisiana. It will be some time before the materials finished with the process will be available for home-makers' use. When they are, it will mean cotton cloth that is more fire-resistant and lighter in weight. The fire resistant material will be used for work garments, military uniforms, camp outfits and upholstery and curtain fabric.

Michigan ranks first in the nation in the production of salt, gypsum, calcium, magnesium compounds and marl.

When a man reaches an altitude of 120 miles, or 630,000 feet, he will encounter all the medical problems characteristic of space, among them cosmic and ultraviolet radiation, meteors, weightlessness, and the darkness of the void, says the National Geographic Society.

Ever Eat a Football?

Everybody would enjoy eating these delicious, make-believe footballs, for they're simply "hard-boiled" eggs prepared as favors for fall neighborhood parties. Gridiron table centerpiece is made of green velvet. Ten-yard stripes are strips of paper. Goal posts and flagpoles are pencils set in modeling clay. Use a food dye to color the cooked eggs a uniform brown, and a black crayon to draw stitching and lacing lines on "football." You can "score" highly with this party idea, the Poultry and Egg National Board suggests.

Rayders Win Third Straight Class C League Title

End Season With 27-6 Win Over Mancelona

The Charlevoix Rayders, coached by Don Carey, racked up their seventh league victory of the season, a 27-6 win over Mancelona to capture their third straight Northern Michigan Class C title.

Friday's game officially ended the football schedule but the climax of the past season came at the halfway point when the Rayders met the title-bound Boyne City Ramblers and defeated them 13-12.

The Rayders got off to a rather shaky start, edging past Harbor Springs (14-0), East Jordan (7-0) and Grayling (12-7) before finding themselves against Boyne City in mid-October. From then on it was smooth sailing for the Rayders as they rolled over Pellston (25-6), Gaylord (33-0) and Mancelona (27-6). They scored a total of 132 points to 31 for their opponents. Thus the team that started the season with a 13-0 loss to Class B Rogers City came through to rack up another Class C title.

In the game with Mancelona Friday night the Rayders scored two touchdowns before the game was five minutes old to give them a 14-0 first quarter advantage.

The Rayders won the toss and elected to receive. The local 11 took the Mancelona kick and returned it to the 42. With backs Garry Vandenberg, Kenny Balch and Terry Davis totting the ball to the 22, Quint Walker passed to end Guy Swanson for a four-yard gain but an off-side penalty on the next play moved the ball back to the 22 where Davis went over to make the score 6-0. Quint Walker added the extra point on a kick.

Class 'C' Leagues Coaches List Players Lost For 1956 Season

As football equipment is checked and stored in preparation for next season, Northern Michigan Class C coaches are taking stock of returning players and counting the veterans who will be lost by graduation or the 19-year-old age limit.

The 1955 league champions, the Charlevoix Rayders, are counting 16 seniors among their losses. Grayling is next with 12, Mancelona has 10, East Jordan and Gaylord, eight each, and Boyne City, Harbor Springs and Pellston, six each.

The third quarter was uneventful with neither team threatening. Charlevoix was in possession of the ball on the 29 as the period ended.

The Rayders picked up two first downs to the four yard line where Clayt Walker went over to score early in the final period. Quint Walker booted the extra point.

Vandenberg kicked off to the Ironmen who took the boot on the 33 and moved it to the 40 where quarterback Galen Christopher passed to Ironman Gary Shisler on the Charlevoix 40. The 202 pound fullback went the distance to rack up the Ironmen's only tally. The kick for the extra point was blocked.

The Rayders took the Mancelona punt and returned it to the 44. Quint Walker moved the ball to the 49 and then passed to Swanson who carried it to the Mancelona 42 but a major penalty set the Rayders back into their own territory. After failing to pick up yardage Vandenberg punted to the Mancelona 27. After three pass attempts Mancelona punted to the Rayders who were in possession on the Mancelona 43 as the game ended.

Playing their final gridiron game for Charlevoix were 15 seniors. Co-captains Garry Vandenberg and Kit Carson. Clayt Walker, Quint Walker, Jerry Stebe, Gary Smith, Joe Etienne, Walt Poquette, Charles Pierce, Wayne Sundberg, John Bascom, Bill Blain, Bruce Bergmann, Guy Swanson, and Paul Foster. Last Week With Class 'C' Teams

The Northern Michigan Class C conference wrapped up its 1955 football schedule Friday night as Charlevoix defeated Mancelona 27-6 to capture its third straight loop title; Boyne City edged past Grayling 14-0 in a game that was scoreless until the last five minutes; Harbor Springs won over Gaylord 20-0 and Pellston dumped East Jordan 20-14.

The Rayders with seven wins in league play captured the conference title after getting off to a slow start following a non-league loss to Class B Rogers City by a score of 13-0. As the league season opened one week later, the Rayders went on to defeat East Jordan 7-0, Harbor Springs 14-0; Grayling 13-7; 13-12; Pellston 25-6; Gaylord 33-0 and Mancelona 27-6.

The climax of the past season came in the fourth game of the schedule when the Rayders met the Boyne City Ramblers who, until mid-October, were undefeated and seemingly title-bound. Charlevoix, however, came into their own that night and stopped the Ramblers in their championship march by a score of 13-12 and then went on to take the title.

Boyer City 13 Grayling 0
Playing at Grayling on a field from which a 10-inch snowfall had been removed for the game, the Vikings held Boyne City to a scoreless game until late in the final period when fullback Carl Charon broke through right tackle to score on a 35 yard run. Later in the period he went through left tackle to score from the 40. Halfback Gary Newville scored the extra point on a line plunge following the first touchdown and a halfback Charlie Stocker booted the conversion following the second to give the Ramblers a second place standing as the season ended.

Until Charon's spectacular run, the game had been played between the 30 yard markers with neither team threatening. The wet field, which had patches of ice, slowed down the running attack of both squads, who displayed excellent aggressive tackling and blocking.

Harbor Springs 20 Gaylord 0
At Harbor Springs where the field was partially covered with snow, the Rams' fullback Jack Meyer went over from the 10 to score the first Rams touchdown. The ball was fumbled on the conversion attempt and the first period ended 6-0.

Late in the second quarter halfback Kent Talcott scored from the one-foot line after halfback Gordon Kruskie had carried it to the eight. Meyer scored the extra point on a line plunge as the half ended.

Kruskie recovered a Gaylord fumble on the latter's 40 to set up the Rams' final tally. On a series of ground plays with Meyer and Kruskie carrying the ball Harbor Springs moved the ball to the three where Talcott again went over to score. Clarke passed to Kruskie for the extra point.

Pellston 20 East Jordan 14
The Pellston Hornets racked up their second win in 11 years over the East Jordan Red Devils Friday when they took the Jordanites 20-14 with East Jordan fighting hard to get back into the game as the final whistle sounded.

The teams played a scoreless first period before Pellston scored early in the second period as Jim Robinson, Hornet halfback, went over from the 23 following a drive which started on the Pellston 30. Basil Nagagnashe scored the extra point on a quarterback sneak.

Pellston added another tally on a pass from fullback Ron Kaiser on the 20 to end Pat Cabinaw on the 10 who then

Says Green Chopper Feed Program Needs Careful Planning

Michigan dairy farmers who are thinking about operating a green chopper next season better plan carefully, advises C. R. (Ray) Hoglund, a farm research economist at Michigan State University.

He figures a 30-cow herd would be best in order to cover the extra costs of green chopping. Hoglund came to that conclusion after a study of 42 dairy farms in the state.

The economist believes, however, that chopping may be profitable with a 20-cow herd if the animals are high producers — 100,000 pounds or better; or if the cows would have to cross a dangerous highway from pasture to the barn.

But other things are necessary, too, for the best results. Hoglund suggests the farmer should have skill in operating the machinery. The farmer should make sure he can grow good forage throughout the growing season. It should include a combination of alfalfa, broomrape and sudan.

So, the economist indicates, green chopping will be profitable for only a limited number of farmers. For most farmers he suggests:

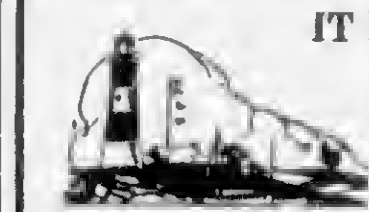

Consider strip grazing as a substitute to get many of the benefits of green chopping.

Develop a good system of grazing practices which provides for about one ton of grass silage per cow to supplement pastures.

Use increased amounts of lime and fertilizer to boost the carrying capacity of the forage crops.

IT HAPPENED ON . . . BEAVER ISLAND

By Loy Malloy

Mrs. Grace Cole has gone to the mainland to visit her sisters, Mrs. J. Supernaw and Mrs. Emil Piachner.

Last Thursday evening the monthly meeting of the B.I.C.A. was held in the high school.

Walter Wojan is on a business trip to Plymouth.

Sunday afternoon there was a meeting of the parents and teachers in the high school. The parents received their children's report cards and also an invitation to visit the schools this week, National School Week.

Warren Townsend Jr. and his son are spending a few days here and at High Island. Nora Gallagher and Florence Rolland are spending a few days on the mainland.

Guess we'd better get prepared for winter. The weekend here was terrific. It rained all day Sunday and turned to snow on Monday.

Mrs. V. H. LaFreniere and son, Leon, were on the mainland last week for a couple of days.

I suppose by this time the hunters are preparing for their hunting trips. By this time next week the season will have started.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry F. Vail are off the island for 12 days while the doctor is attending two medical post-graduate conferences at the Michigan Academy of General Practice in Detroit and International Medical in Milwaukee, Wis.

Rock Elm News By Mrs. A. B. Lawton

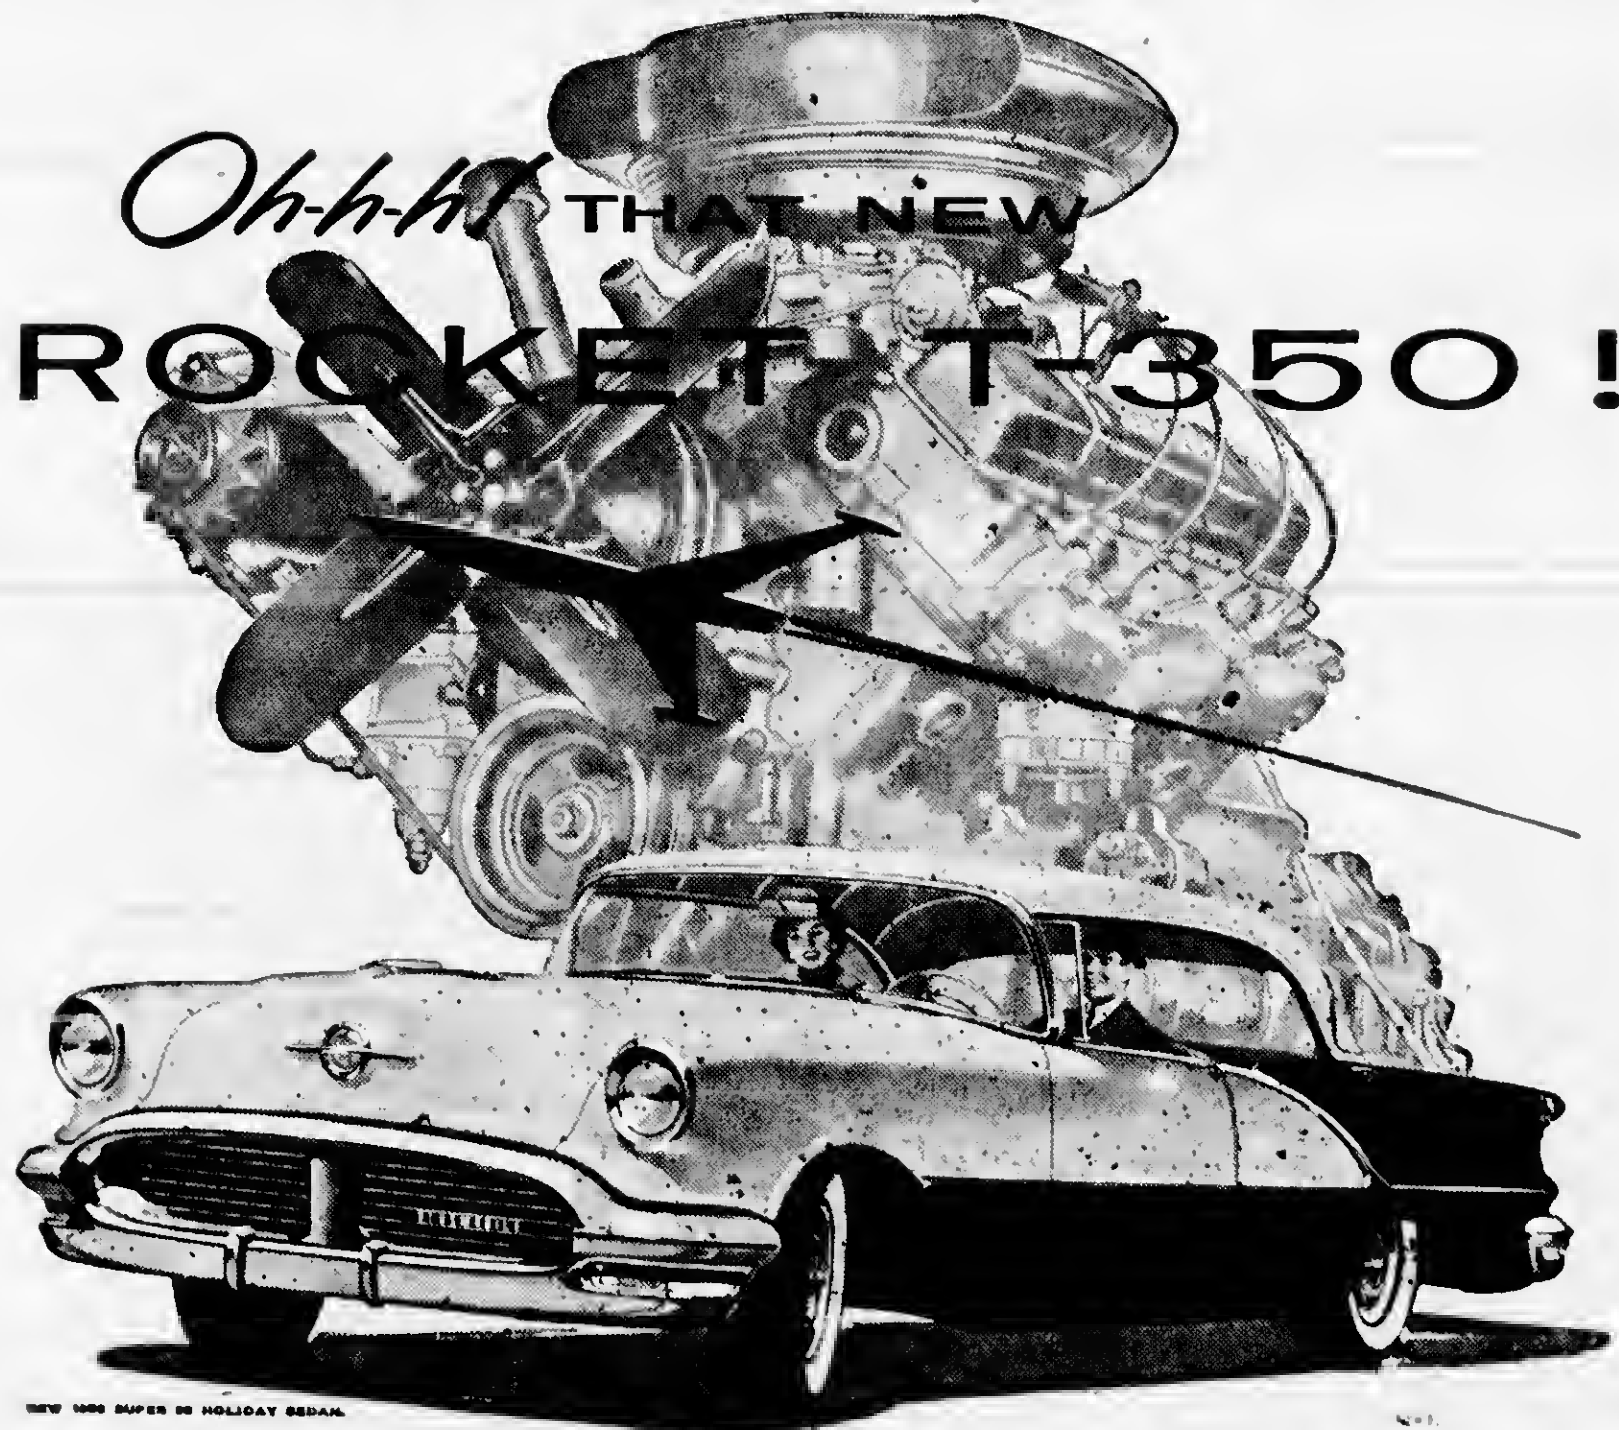

The recent storm caused considerable trouble on our telephone line.

Mrs. Lord was out calling on the residents of this district Saturday, in the interest of the Red Feather drive.

Mrs. Lawton and son drove to Traverse City last Thursday.

An old weather prediction is that if it rains on the first Sunday in the month it will rain every Sunday in the month but one, which is either the last or next to the last one. If that proves true we can expect some unpleasant Sundays this month.

went 10 yards to score as the half ended 13-0.

The third period was scoreless but early in the final period halfback Dick Johnson went over from the seven to score East Jordan's first touchdown to climax a drive that started on the Jordanite 35. Freshman fullback Jim Yettaw ran the ball over for the extra point.

Pellston wrapped up the game midway in the final quarter when Hornet halfback Frank Durkaleo went over from the four following a 60 yard drive by Pellston. Keiser scored the extra point on a line plunge.

The determined Jordanites, fighting back in an effort to pull the game out of the fire, took to the air despite the wet field as halfback Dick Streeter on the 15 passed to quarterback Larry Wnodocek who took the pass on the four and went over the goal line to cut the Hornet lead. Johnson carried the ball over for the extra point. East Jordan was again on the march as the game ended.

Now Control Winter
Weeds With Spray

You can use one of the newer chemicals now to control troublesome winter weeds in strawberries. Chlorn-IPC—at the rate of two quarts in 50-gallons of water per acre—will control common chickweed by spraying in November, Ed Reberman, Charlevoix county agricultural agent says. It also will take care of field sorrell, the long-leaf winter weed, before it gets large.

But don't expect it to take care of the mouse-ear chickweed, less common than the other kind of chickweed, Reberman indicates.

If you have the mouse-ear chickweed—identified by a hairy appearance—you will need a dinitro spray, according to horticulture specialists at Michigan State University.

But, they caution, don't apply dinitro weed killers until strawberry plants are fully dormant—late November or early December in southern Michigan. The chemicals caused much damage to strawberry beds in 1953 and 1954 when applied too early.

For detailed information on the use of dinitros and other herbicides obtain a copy of Extension Folder F-190, "Chemical Weed Control in Small Fruits and Orchards," from the county extension office at Boyne City, Reberman suggests.

Hen House Floor
Should Be Dry

Keeping laying house floors dry is a constant winter problem to many Michigan poultrymen.

Michigan's high humidity causes wet floors in cold weather unless houses are properly built, according to Ed Reberman, Charlevoix county agricultural agent.

One hundred hens laying 60 percent give off about 22 quarts of water per day. Much of this moisture is in the vapor stage and must be moved before it hits the floor and condenses.

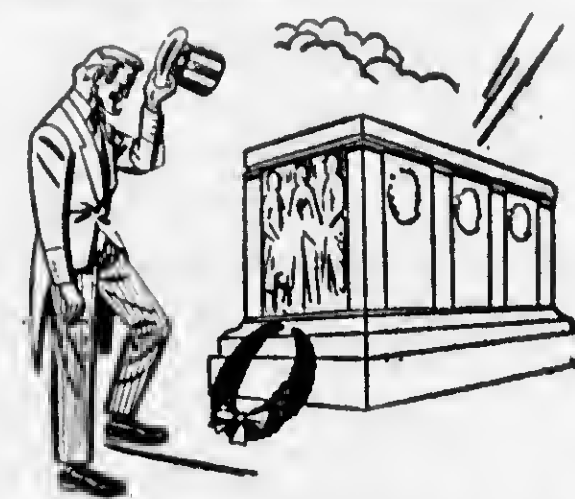

J. M. (Mac) Moore, extension poultry specialist at Michigan State University, recommends using a straw-loft poultry house or forced draft ventilation to ease the wet floor problem. Insulating the house makes ventilation more effective, he adds.

In a straw loft house, the floor of the loft is covered with about three feet of straw which acts as insulation. This insulation allows the moisture from below to move into the loft but keeps the heat in the laying area. Doors with louvers are placed at either end of the loft.

If forced draft ventilation is used, Agent Reberman points out that plenty of air intakes are needed. Thorough ventilation is not possible unless air can be moved into the building at many points. Intakes or open windows should not be over 10 feet from each outlet fan. With this method, the warm ceiling air is moved out of the house because it holds more moisture vapor than does cold air.

Since breakfast should provide from a fourth to a third of the day's food needs, children and adults who have little or no breakfast are likely to get too little protein and vitamin C, says MSU nutrition specialists.

A new variety of leaf lettuce, called Tendergreen, has been developed at MSU. It combines the good features of both Grand Rapids and Bibb varieties and will boost yields in both home garden and greenhouse.

Will Observe Diabetes Week

The safe side, people in these categories should be especially careful to have themselves tested periodically for glycosuria.

According to the best available estimates, there are about a million undiagnosed diabetics in the United States alone. In addition, approximately three million more individuals in this country are potential diabetics whose disease may become apparent as time goes on. Even today, when diabetics under treatment are enabled to live practically normal lives, it still ranks eighth among the leading causes of death by disease in the United States.

Once diabetes is detected it can be controlled. This is why diabetes detection week is held annually to bring to the attention of the public the need for constant vigilance in order to detect the disease in its early stages.

In order to assist the residents of the Charlevoix area, local doctors and the district health department are making testing centers available to everyone during Diabetes Week Nov. 13 through Nov. 19.

Postoffice Has New Pamphlet On Parcel Wrapping

Helpful facts about wrapping and shipping are contained in a new and profusely illustrated pamphlet entitled "Packaging and Wrapping Parcels for Mailing" available free at the Charlevoix postoffice, Postmaster Peter H. Timmer has announced.

The pamphlet describes the types and sizes of cartons best suited for outer and inner shipping containers; gives details for the internal protection for goods being shipped; lists hints on wrapping chinaware, stemware, framed pictures, and other goods; gives instructions for marking various types of parcels to insure the quickest possible delivery.

The employees of the Post Office Department have a tremendous job ahead of them again this coming Christmas season," Mr. Timmer added. "Every effort will be made to deliver all mail on time and in good condition for Christmas Eve as has been done in the past. May I urge all mailers to avail themselves of these two free pamphlets: "Packaging and Wrapping Parcels for Mailing" and "Domestic Postage Rates and Fees" which will answer most of your mailing questions, demonstrate the best methods of packing goods and help the postal employees in their important work of moving the huge volume of Christmas parcels."

Band Benefit Dinner Proves Great Success

The annual Band Parents benefit dinner held Thursday at the high school cafeteria surpassed the most optimistic estimates of its sponsors when more than 550 people were served. Randall Crump, president of the sponsoring organization, reports.

Final reports are not complete at this time but it is estimated that out of the gross proceeds of over $500 the Band Parents Association will net well over $400.

The entire Association, composed of 84 parents of Varsity and Senior band members, co-operated in this project. Much of the food was donated while the meat and some foods were purchased. It was all prepared and cooked by the parents, assisted by Mrs. Marie Blissett, who contributed her time though she is not a band parent. The cafeteria was taxed to capacity by the crowd which began forming before 5 p.m. and continued for two hours.

The serving committee of band mothers was assisted by several Senior band members; the dishwashing was done by the band fathers.

In commenting on the success of the project, C. A. Odmark, band director, said it was an excellent example of what can be done when a group of people work together toward a common goal.

The Band Parents Association would like to take this opportunity to thank those who contributed to the success of the dinner.

New Date Is Set For Hearing On Zoning Change

A hearing on a proposed amendment to the zoning ordinance was continued until 8 p.m. Monday, Nov. 28 after objectors appeared at the regular meeting of the city council Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Juilleret appeared before the council to object to changing the present zoning ordinance so five acres of property in the Eaton addition now classified as agricultural district 1 could be changed to industrial district 2. The Cities Service Oil Co. proposes to use the property for storage if the zoning ordinance is amended. The oil company and the owner of the property, Albert V. Edwards, petitioned the council to amend the ordinance.

The Juillerets are building a new home adjacent to the property involved.

In the only other action, bills amounting to $14,970.14 were approved and ordered paid.

Mrs. C. Mitchell Passes At Home In Chicago, Ill.

Mrs. Clarence Mitchell, mother of the Rev. Kenneth A. Mitchell, died unexpectedly at her home at 1233 N. Springfield ave. in Chicago late Friday.

Funeral services and burial were held Monday.

The Rev. Mr. Mitchell, her only son, accompanied by Mrs. Mitchell and small daughter, left Saturday morning to attend the services and spend some time in Chicago with his father.

Since the turkey, native to this continent, made its initial appearance on the dinner table at the first Thanksgiving Day observed by the Pilgrims in 1621 in gratitude for their successful year in the new land, it has become known as the traditional holiday bird.

During the following three centuries the once wild bird has been domesticated and now is raised on turkey farms throughout the country and today is not only a holiday bird but a year-around source of food.

Early in the 1940s many Charlevoix county farmers started raising the state turkey. By 1948 some 60 growers were raising more than 40,000 birds annually. In most cases the turkeys were not the main source of income but a profitable 'sideline' crop for the farmers.

Since 1949, however, the number of growers has decreased until this year only 11 farmers were listed among the growers who raised 14,000 turkeys as compared with 15 growers who raised 18,300 last year. In '53 there were 24,500 and in '52, 28,500 turkeys raised in the same area.

According to the turkey growers, the shrinking margin of profit because of the high cost of poultry and feed, marketing demands, increased cost of transportation to marketing centers plus the trend toward larger flocks by fewer growers are the major reasons the small growers are leaving the business.

In addition, a number of growers suffered severe financial losses last year when the wholesale price hit a new low of 22 cents for toms and 30 cents for hens at the peak of the marketing season. By mid-

William Golden Struck By Truck, Seriously Hurt

William Golden, 19, second year student at Ferris Institute in Big Rapids, and son of Mrs. Ada Y. Golden, remained in critical condition Wednesday at Butterworth hospital in Grand Rapids, where he was taken Monday night for treatment of severe chest injuries received at 9:35 p.m. Monday when he was struck by a semi-trailer truck on US 131 two miles north of Big Rapids in Mecosta county.

According to Mecosta sheriff's officials Golden was one of several fraternity pledges who were walking to Reed City on US 131 as part of their initiation into the fraternity. The boys were proceeding north on the left side of the highway when he was struck by the left front bumper and wide view mirror of the cab as the truck, also traveling north, passed a passenger car.

He suffered a crushed chest, punctured lung, a concussion and other severe internal injuries. He was given emergency treatment at Community hospital in Big Rapids and then taken by ambulance to the Grand Rapids hospital for emergency surgery.

His mother, accompanied by Mrs. C. D. Geiken, left at once for Grand Rapids to be with him.

He is Hal M. Hill, supervisor of the transmission department of the Northern Michigan Electric Cooperative in Boyne City since 1951, who will come here Dec. 15 to assume his new duties.

Mr. Hill is well known here, having served as superintendent of the city utilities department for 2½ years between 1949 and '51.

A native of Mt. Pleasant, Tenn., he has attended several technical schools including a diesel electric school and has been associated with the operation of electrical plants for 17 years. He is a veteran of World War II.

Mrs. O. Saunders Is Killed In Car Collision

Mrs. Oakley Saunders, 47, resident of Eveline township, was fatally injured in a two-car collision one mile south of Sheridan on M-66 in Montcalm county Saturday morning while enroute to East Lansing to visit her son, Milford, a student at Michigan State University.

The accident occurred when Mrs. Saunders' car, in which she was riding alone, and one driven by Dr. V. J. Winingier, 38, of Greenville collided head-on. It is understood that Dr. Winingier's northbound car was crowded off the highway on the right shoulder by an unidentified vehicle. The doctor apparently lost control of his car in attempting to re-enter his traffic lane and swerved into the path of Mrs. Saunders' southbound car. It was foggy at the time and visibility was poor.

Funeral services for Mrs. Saunders were held at the Pontiac Chapel Tuesday with the Rev. Lloyd Brasore of Petoskey officiating. Burial was in Brookside cemetery.

Born at Kalkaska Sept. 11, 1908, the former Audria Yahr came to Bay Shore in Charlevoix county as a small child. She was married to Mr. Saunders at Bay Shore in 1928 and moved to the present family home in Eveline township. Mr. Saunders was killed in a farm accident Sept. 29, 1951, when a pipe he was handling struck a power line while he was working on a well-digging project.

She was a member of the Presbyterian church. Surviving are two sons, Wayne of Charlevoix and Milford a student at Michigan State University; two grandchildren; her mother, Mrs. Edward Yahr of Bay Shore; three brothers, Clifford of Bay Shore, Arthur of Boyne City and Clayton of Grawn and two sisters, Leona of Bay Shore and Mrs. George Paulsen of Ypsilanti.

His office will be open on the second floor of the Lieberman building in the near future.

Deer Hunters Make Reports Of First Day

Only five deer were reported in the Charlevoix area on the opening day of the season which was rainy with moderate temperatures and high winds.

Glenn Crain, local livestock dealer, was the first hunter to report his kill. He brought down a 10-point buck on his farm in Marion township at 7:20 a.m. Tuesday while hunting with George Squequist of Richmond who filled his license with a seven-point buck in the same general area an hour later.

Percy Empey of Norwood reported an eight-point buck shot on his Norwood township farm at 7:40 a.m.

Richard Farmer, hunting with his son-in-law, Charles W. Cross of Saugatuck shot an eight-point buck weighing approximately 150 pounds at 8:15 a.m. He was hunting in the Phelps district.

Mrs. Bertha Jensen, hunting near Petoskey, brought down a big buck which Conservation officers said would dress out 200 pounds.

The above are the only deer reported at the Courier office though there may have been others.

Other hunters who are spending the season at their favorite hunting grounds are Bernie Ward and son, Bernie Jr., Carl Towles and son, Gene and Lawrence Swanson and son, Larry, who are near Ralph in the upper peninsula; Floyd Ikens and his brother, Arthur Ikens of Boyne City, who are at their camp in Ontonagon county and Louis Holm who is hunting in the eastern section of the state as are numerous other hunters.

Six Charlevoix Rayders Named On League All-Conference Teams

Six members of the Charlevoix Rayders' 1955 championship squad have been named to the Northern Michigan Class 1 football teams selected this week by the coaches of the eight team league.

Three Rayder players were named to the all-conference first team and three to the second squad.

Runners-up in league competition, the Boyne City Ramblers also placed three players on the first string squad and three other Ramblers were given honorable mention. East Jordan and Pellston each placed two players on the first squad and Mancelona was given one berth. Grayling and Gaylord players won second team assignments and Harbor Springs players were given honorable mention.

The players were named by a point system and only a few points separated players named to the honor squads.

Rayder back Garry Vandenberg, end Guy Swanson and guard Joe Elienne composed the trio of local players to make the coaches' dream team. Quarterback Quint Walker, center Walt Poquette and tackle Kit Carson won second team berths.

All are seniors. Vandenberg was a member of the 1954 All-Conference first team.

Named with Vandenberg to the backfield of the All-Conference first team were Carl Charon, a sophomore and Bob Fitzpatrick of Boyne City and Ron Keiser of Pellston, a junior who will be 19 in June and therefore ineligible next season. In the line with Swanson and Elienne were Dale Drier of Pellston at the other end position; Herb Nichols of Mancelona and Ed Barden of Boyne City, tackles; Jerry Sweet of East Jordan, guard; Richard Johnson of East Jordan, center. All are seniors but Barden who is a junior. Johnson was named to the all-conference team in 1954. Named to the all-conference (Continued on Page 12)

ODDS 'N' ENDS

By Fran Martin

IF YOU'RE a football fan you'll know what we mean when we say that the scent of roses is becoming more noticeable every day . . . throughout the state . . . With Ohio State ineligible to return to the Rose Bowl this year Michigan's two 'big' teams are the top candidates for the honors . . . Both Michigan and Michigan State have one loss each to date . . . and both are listed among the top 10 in the nation . . . Added to that they're the top teams in the Big Ten . . . We're plugging for Michigan since we're a long-time Wolverine fan . . . But it's nice to know that if Michigan doesn't make it, Michigan State will take over . . . And we can't think of a nicer guy than Duffy Daugherty to have this happen to . . . So, come New Year's Day, which will be here all too soon, this great state of ours will be represented by one of our two great universities . . . Makes you feel kinda good, doesn't it? . . .

AND FOOTBALL reminds us of basketball, which is the big deal in Charlevoix . . . Over the weekend we gathered material for our basketball story this week . . . And holy cats, does it ever look like a whale of a season . . . Boyne City's loaded but good . . . Pellston's not far behind with Grayling coming up with plenty of veterans and of course there's Charlevoix . . . For those of you dyed-in-the-wool basketball fans let us warn you right now . . . Make a trip to the doctor and get your blood pressure checked before Dec. 2 rolls around . . . This will be the year . . . and don't say we didn't warn you . . .

WE ALSO talked to a lot of turkey growers over the weekend too . . . Couldn't help but mention the changing times . . . the cycle started in the early 1940's, reached its peak between '46 and '50 and now the circle is being completed . . . with only a few growers remaining . . . All this despite the fact that more turkeys than ever were grown throughout the country last year . . . It's a changing world and farm trends are probably changing more than others . . . The little guy is being swallowed up or crowded out of the business, we're told . . . So turkeys, which were once so plentiful in our county, aren't so many anymore . . . CHRISTMAS carols are being heard more and more as the great holiday draws near . . . To our way of thinking the beautiful songs which tell so very well the story of the birth of Christ in a manger in Bethlehem so long ago could be played every day in the year and we'd never tire of them . . . Soon we'll be hearing the other old favorites White Christmas, Jingle Bells and the other songs of our day which are so much a part of the holiday season . . . If you get the idea we like Christmas you're right . . . It's the most wonderful time of the year . . . for then we hear from friends we never hear from any other time of the year . . . everyone has the spirit of 'Peace on earth, goodwill toward men', a feeling that should extend around the calendar . . . It's the time for happiness and humbleness . . . It's a wonderful time and we wouldn't miss it for the world . . .

Just in case you need a reminder, there are only 32 shopping days 'til Christmas and that includes today . . . Better get rolling or you'll never make it . . .

THOSE Charlevoix residents who were lucky enough to hold Northern Michigan Community Concert tickets were thrilled Saturday night by the playing of the Paganini quartet . . . Such beautiful instruments and such heavenly tones . . . The instruments were made by Stradavari for the composer, Nicolo Paganini and are more than two centuries old . . . It was a thrill just to see them . . . and the music . . . it was heavenly . . .

WHY IS IT that youngsters simply cannot contain themselves until the first snow arrives . . . One little gal on our street, Robin Crase, has been doing a bit of wishful thinking . . . She already has her sleigh on the front porch, ready for action . . . And by the looks of things snow can arrive at any time . . . If the wet stuff that's been coming down this month were white stuff instead, we'd be snow-bound by now, that's for sure . . . But the hunters are hoping there'll be snow and cold weather . . . snow to track the deer in and cold weather to keep it, in case they get a lucky shot . . .

ONE OF the grandest guys we've ever met was honored at halftime of the Michigan State-Minnesota game in East Lansing Saturday . . . He's watched college grow from a handful of students to its present status in Big Ten competition . . . He knows every boy . . . that's part

Potoskey Little Theatre Group To Present 'Gas Light' This Month

Potoskey Little Theatre will present its second production of the current season, "Gas Light" at the Potoskey high school auditorium Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 28 and 29.

The play, which will feature a

Charlevoix resident, Rodney Creede, is under the direction of Ross W. Stoakes Jr.

The movie version of the play starred Ingrid Bergmann and Charles Boyer; on Broadway, under the name of "Angel Street", it ran for two years.

"Gas Light", presented in a Victorian setting, tells the spine-tingling story of the Mannings of Angel Street.

Under the guise of kindness, handsome Mr. Manningham is torturing his wife into insanity, accusing her of petty mental wanderings he has arranged himself.

Since her mother died of insanity, she is more than half convinced that she is going out of her mind. However, while her husband is out of the house, a kindly police inspector visits her, ultimately proves to her that her husband is a maniacal criminal suspected of committing a murder 15 years ago in the same house and that he is preparing to dispose of her.

Thus starts the game of uncovering evidence against Mr. Manningham. It is a thrilling and melodramatic game.

The use of gas lights, from which the play derives its title, has a great importance in setting the scene for an evening of exciting entertainment.

Need For PTA Cited By Dr. Gaskill At School Open House

A need for a greater bond between parents and teachers was emphasized by Dr. Riley Gaskill of the Department of Education, Central Michigan College, at the formal program during the first open house of the current school year at the Charlevoix public schools Wednesday evening.

In addressing the group on the subject, "Bonds of Understanding," Dr. Gaskill said that this bond between teachers and parents whose chief interests are the children is the basis of a greater understanding of the students and their problems.

Uno Suomela introduced Dr. Gaskill and served as moderator at the discussion period which followed.

The organization of a Parent-Teachers Association in the community was the main topic introduced for discussion. Mrs. Robert G. Martin was named temporary chairman of the group which will meet later to organize. Interested persons who signed a list of parents advocating such an organization will be asked to meet early next month to formulate the plans for a PTA group.

The Girls Glee club of the Charlevoix high school directed by C. A. Odomark and accompanied by Mrs. Leonard Burns provided the special music for the program.

Approximately 250 parents and friends attended the program in the auditorium. More than 700 parents and friends visited the classrooms and conferred with the teachers during the visitation period which preceded the program. Supt. R. G. Bennett said.

Refreshments were served in the cafeteria at the close of the meeting.

County's Turkeys Ready For Market

November the market leveled off a little and the price rose to 24 and 33 cents respectively for toms and hens but a number of growers had sold their birds at the lower price.
This year the market is up a little over the 1954 price with hens bringing 32 cents and toms 27 cents early this week.
The majority of the birds will go to the Thanksgiving market this year although a number will be saved for the Christmas market and others will keep turkeys to be sold during the forthcoming months.

Hiram Breck whose farm is located near East Jordan continues to have the largest flock although this year's is some 1,700 birds less than he raised in '54. He raises both bronze and white birds. He will save only 200 birds as a breeding flock and will market the remainder. About 25 percent of the remaining birds will be sold live weight in southern Michigan and the others will be processed at his own plant and sold oven-ready throughout the north.

John Barkdoll, north of Charlevoix, has the second largest flock in the area, 2,500 white Empire turkeys, 300 more than in '54. All his birds will be sold on the Thanksgiving market, some 50 per cent live weight at Breckinridge and the remainder locally.

John L. Boss in Marion township has some 2,300 bronze birds, including 2,000 of his own and 300 raised by his father, the late Lawrence Boss. He will sell all the birds on the Thanksgiving market with the majority of them going to the processing plant at Breckinridge. Neither Barkdoll nor Boss will keep breeder flocks this year.

Addison Chew had a flock of 1,500 birds but all but a breeder flock of 475 of the bronze birds have already been marketed at Hemlock. This was 500 more turkeys than he raised last year.

Rowley Williams who raised only 200 turkeys in 1954 hiked his flock to 1,000 this year. After selecting 200 birds for a breeding flock the remainder of the bronze birds will be marketed in southern Michigan and sold locally.

Albert Carlson had 850 birds again this year and will market approximately 350 this month and the remainder in December. The birds, white Hollands, will be sold in Detroit and at Hemlock.

Sanford Matchett who raises both white and bronze birds now has approximately 800 birds which he will market for both the Thanksgiving and Christmas markets in the area. He plans to save a breeding flock of 300 birds.

Jolmar Rombach will keep a breeding flock of approximately 150 birds and market the remainder of his 700 bronze birds live weight on the Thanksgiving market.

Lawrence E. Boss who raises white Orpingtons had 400 birds this year, 100 more than last season. He plans to save a breeding flock of 150 birds and market the remainder in Detroit. He will New York or feather dress the birds and truck them to markets there.

Ole Nielsen who last year raised 500 turkeys had only 150 this year. They have been sold for the Thanksgiving market with a third of them sold at farm and the remainder at Hemlock.

Four growers who raised a total of 4,000 birds last year are no longer in the business. They are John Brock who had 1,500 birds, Eldon Potter who had 1,000 and Richard Potter who had 500 and the late Rudy Korh, veteran poultry raiser, who had 1,000

EVERYTHING YOU DO!

FROM THE MOMENT you awaken until you go to bed, almost everything you do is closely dependent upon the operation of trucks. In fact, even while you're asleep, trucks are working for you. (Beds arrive by truck, too, of course.)

Without trucks, your favorite food market would have empty shelves. Without trucks, you wouldn't find gas stations located conveniently almost everywhere you turn. Without trucks, the building of new homes, factories, and stores would slow to a walk and businesses of all kinds everywhere would suffer.

Sooner or later, everything you eat, wear, or use depends on trucks for transportation. Eventually, everything has to get to you — the consumer. So, when you consider that trucks haul three times the tonnage handled by all the other forms of transportation combined, you realize how very important they are to you!

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Seen Monk's "Better Half"?

Monk McCarthy's latest creation has the town talking again. You can see it parked in front of Monk's auto repair shop on Maple.

Remember last year Monk cut two cars in half, and put their front ends together? You couldn't tell if the thing was coming or going. Sure attracted attention.

New Monk's taken Tog Morgan's old sedan and completely restored one half of it. One side is as good as new, the other looks like—well, Tog's old car. "Sort of a before-and-after demonstration," Monk told me, "shows folks the kind of work I do."

From where I sit, some of Monk's ideas may look a little wild sometimes... but I wouldn't want to tell him how to run his business any more than I'd like him to tell me what beverage to enjoy. He always keeps a hot pot of tea in his garage—I'd rather have a cold glass of beer—but respect for each other's opinion is "auto"-matic with us both.

Michigan Bell Manager

EVER THINK about extension telephones as Christmas gifts? Almost anyone on your list would appreciate these unusual gifts—they make things so much easier around the home. And they will be appreciated every day of the year. They make unique gifts—not likely to be duplicated by others. An extension phone costs just $1.21 a month including tax, plus a one-time installation charge. We'll install them just before Christmas or we'll attractively gift wrap them—free of charge—to place under the Christmas tree, to be installed after Christmas. To order your gift telephones, call our Business Office.

30 YEARS OF RESEARCH at the Bell Telephone Laboratories have resulted in a new type of cable that is actually a copper spring coiled inside a flexible covering. The new cable is called a "wave guide" and it can be run uphill or down and be bent around corners. Its most remarkable feature is the number of Long Distance conversations it can carry. In the future we may have "wave guides" no thicker than a fountain pen that will carry tens of thousands of Long Distance calls and many television programs at one time. Research such as this keeps Long Distance rates low. Call tonight and see!

THE OTHER DAY we heard of a little girl who wanted to call up and invite a playmate to come over. But Mary wasn't home, so she called June. She wasn't home either, so her mother suggested calling Phyllis. "Yes," said the little girl, "but first I'll wait a while because somebody else on the line might want to make a call."

Isn't it surprising how wonderful kids can be!

Good Job Of Calf Raising Will Pay Off Dairy Farmer

A good job of calf raising will pay dividends to a dairy farmer, and a lot of cases it will help him off the rocks, Ed Rehman, Charlevoix county agricultural agent reminds.

A poor job of raising calves this time of year, he insists, leads to scours and pneumonia. But a farmer, he adds, can cut losses with these three simple precautions:

Keep and disinfect the maternity pen and calf enclosure with hot lye water.

Do not overfeed milk. Eight pounds a day per calf is the most you should feed.

Keep feeding utensils clean, scouring them with hot water after each feeding.

Keep calf pens dry, clean and free from drafts. Cardboard along the pen's sides helps.

Keep infected calves away from other calves.

How serious a poor job of raising calves can be was pointed out recently by Don Hillman, extension dairyman at Michigan State University.

A farmer is not able to cull and upgrade his herd because he may lack replacements.

His income isn't as high as if he could sell good calves and he must pay out money to buy replacements. If he continues to bring in replacements for many years, he runs a risk of disease, age,

Junior Livestock Show To Be Held In Detroit Dec. 6-8

The climax of the year for many Michigan 4-H Club members will come with the Detroit Junior Livestock Show, slated Dec. 6-8 at the state fairgrounds coliseum.

Market beef steers, fat lambs and hogs will come from 32 counties in the Wolverine State to make the show the largest in its 26 years, says Maurice Hill, assistant state 4-H Club leader at Michigan State University.

The tentative exhibitor list includes 425 youngsters who will show 570 steers, 78 pens of fat lambs and 67 pens of market hogs. That compares with 435 steers, 71 pens of lambs and 58 pens of hogs in the 1954 show.

Animals will be entered on Tuesday, Dec. 6. On the following day they will be judged. And on Thursday they will be sold to the highest bidder during an auction at the fairgrounds coliseum.

The event is open to the public without charge. It is sponsored by the Detroit Junior Livestock Society headed by Charles E. Scott, manager of the Detroit Stock Yards.

In addition to being a consequence of good behavior, beautiful character is found where there is inner harmony, everything fitting together nicely, and nothing causing discord. That doesn't mean the absence of problems, nor the non-existence of some tensions. It means, rather, that there is no element there that doesn't belong with the rest. No character is beautiful where everything is in order except for the presence of disharmony. Dishonesty mars all the rest, clashing violently with it like a clown's fish necklace of frankfurters on a queen's coronation gown. When

Grade Students Observe Book Week

Old books, new books, favorite books, storybook friends and storybook dolls were featured in the book display prepared by the second grade under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. Bessie Coleman, in observance of National Book Week Nov. 14-18.

A 93-year old Sander's Union third grade reader was the oldest book on display although the majority of the old books, readers and language books, were those used before 1910.

The display of new books was the most colorful and included a number of science books as well as reading and literature books and illustrated books by Child Craft which are now in use in the school.

Favorite books varied from fairy tales to such standards as Black Beauty to stories of Davy Crockett with each child displaying his favorite book.

The storybook friends were equally as varied. These were third dimensional pictures made by the students and posted about the classroom. They included Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs, Little Black Sambo, Red Riding Hood and the Wolf and other favorite characters, among them the ever-present frontiersman, Davy Crockett.

The storybook dolls, owned by the children or borrowed from their friends, added a touch of beauty to the display.

In keeping with book week, the youngsters also wrote and illustrated original stories thus giving them a greater appreciation of books.

The class as a whole also keeps a class story book... a 24 by 36 in. "book" in which is recorded the important things that happen to them as a class during the year.

With the closing of public school for the long weekend, a number of teachers and their families are leaving town for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Bingham and family plan to leave Wednesday for Gables; Mr. and Mrs. Max Novak and family plan to leave the same day for Jensen to visit relatives. They will also spend some time in Grand Rapids. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hamilton and daughter Christie, will go to Lake City.

Also Mrs. Ethel Courier plans to visit her sons-in-law and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Livingston and family in Saginaw and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Weidau and family at Tawas City and Miss Norma Spansail will go to Niles to visit her family.

The announced purpose of "S-D Day", as it is called, is the effort, by extra care, to avoid all serious accidents on that day, just to show it can be done.

In an effort to bring the need for safe driving to the attention of the driving public of Charlevoix, the Shakespeare Study club has announced plans for a poster and slogan contest for Safe Driving Day.

The contest is open to any student in either the grade or high school. Prizes will be offered for the best posters submitted as well as the best slogans entered in the contest. Two prizes of $3.00 and $2.00 each will be offered in the contest.

Deadline for the contest is noon Monday, Nov. 28. All entries are to be turned in at the high school office. Mrs. William Ratigan and Mrs. Lee Moorland are co-chairmen of the contest.

Urge All Citizens To Observe 1955 'Know Your America Week'

The All-American Conference to Combat Communism, which sponsors, annually, the KNOW YOUR AMERICA WEEK program has chosen for its 1955 theme: "Consider the Blessings of Freedom." Coming as it does during the Thanksgiving period, this nationwide observance will be a reminder to all Americans that they must not take for granted all the liberties they enjoy.

The All-American Conference, a cooperative enterprise of 54 national organizations with a combined membership of more than 50,000,000, has received the need of the unified power to meet the subtle tactics of this subversive menace.

Last year more than 2,700 communities observed KNOW YOUR AMERICA WEEK. Many pooled their organizational resources to develop well-rounded and positive Americanism programs. Participating in this endeavor were members of various religious groups; fraternal, service and civics groups; prominent women's clubs; business, professional and labor organizations; teachers, school children, Chambers of Commerce and neighborhood trade associations.

November 20 to 28 has been set aside as KNOW YOUR AMERICA WEEK in our community. It has been endorsed by President Eisenhower, Gov. Williams and Mayor James Hiller.

The week will give all of our citizens an opportunity to re-dedicate themselves to democratic principles, and to realize that knowledge of America will foil the thrusts of communism.

All citizens should participate in this important observance to keep alive the spirit of freedom as against the tyranny of communism.

Local Schools To Close For Thanksgiving

The Charlevoix public schools and St. Mary's parochial school will close at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday for the annual Thanksgiving recess.

Classes will be resumed at the usual hour Monday, Nov. 28. Other schools in the immediate area which include three rural schools had not decided whether or not they would be closed Friday.

With the closing of public school for the long weekend, a number of teachers and their families are leaving town for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Bingham and family plan to leave Wednesday for Gables; Mr. and Mrs. Max Novak and family plan to leave the same day for Jensen to visit relatives. They will also spend some time in Grand Rapids. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hamilton and daughter Christie, will go to Lake City.

High Winds, Wet Snow Bring Winter To Area; Damage Is Extensive

High winds up to 60 miles an hour and a wet snow which froze on highways brought winter to northern Michigan last week.

The winds which hit their peak between 8 p.m. and midnight did considerable damage, tearing branches from trees, uprooting trees, blowing down farm buildings and television antennae and putting utility lines out of order.

In addition considerable damage was sustained by the lighthouses in northern Lake Michigan, Chief Warrant Officer Joseph Etienne, commanding officer of U.S.C.G. Group Charlevoix reported.

T. B. Reynolds, engineer superintendent of the Charlevoix county road commission, reported that eight trees had blown over highways during the early hours of the storm.

Both city and REA utility lines south and southeast of the city were out of order for several hours. City crews were out until 3 a.m. Thursday morning making repairs. Telephone circuits to East Jordan were out of order Wednesday night and most of Thursday. Their only contact was via police radio.

A barn on the McGinnis farm on the Marion Center road was toppled by the wind as was a brooder house on the Albert Carlson farm in Eveline township. Mr. Carlson said that 25 full-grown turkeys were lost as a result of the wind damage.

At the same time the Charlevoix fire department stood by when a chimney at the Carlson farm burned out at the height of the storm.

In Charlevoix more than 30 television antennae were toppled or damaged by the storm. Several cars were damaged when struck by falling branches. In some instances, utility wires were torn down by the branches.

William Golden Is Reported In Better Condition

The condition of William Golden 19, sophomore student at Ferris Institute in Big Rapids, who suffered severe chest injuries in an accident Nov. 14, is improved according to a telephone call from his mother, Mrs. Ada Y. Golden who is with him at the Butterworth Hospital in Grand Rapids where he was taken for treatment.

He sustained the injuries the night of Nov. 14 when he was struck by a semi-trailer truck while walking along US 131 two miles north of Big Rapids.

In her call Mrs. Golden asked the Courier to relay to their many friends their gratitude for the many letters and telegrams but most of all for the prayers which meant so much in the days immediately following the accident.

Mrs. Golden plans to remain in Grand Rapids until her son can be discharged from the hospital. Her address is: Butterworth 153 Crescent NE, Grand Rapids, Mich.

ODDS 'N' ENDS

By Fran Martin

HOW DID you like the big blow the other night? ... Swear the wind hasn't blown that hard that long since the year of the big blow back in '39 or so. ... We figured if our house held together in that we had it made. ... Every one we talked with felt pretty much the same although some weren't so lucky. ... TV antennas came down, branches were torn from trees and in some cases trees toppled. ... and that howling wind. ... But next day things cleared up and here we are. ... with snow that arrived Friday night and winter's here. ...

Which is pretty much according to schedule, weather-wise when you think that Thanksgiving is Thursday. ... And in another four weeks Christmas will be upon us. ... Things sure are happening fast, aren't they? ...

THANKSGIVING always brings up the old argument. Should we have turkey, or ham or chicken. ... or is it just like any other Thursday in the year. ... And why should we have such and such because your grandmother or maiden aunt always served it. ... Guess it's all in what you grew up with. ... Some people think it isn't Thanksgiving without pumpkin or mince pie or Christmas without plum pudding. ... At our house it isn't a holiday unless we have date cake. ... a very special kind with lots of super-due topped with whipped cream. ... It's wonderful. ... and part of the holiday season, as far as our family is concerned. ... We'll settle for most anything in the way of meat, however, 'cause we've had what means a holiday to us. ... But no matter what you're having. ... be grateful for it, for the land we live in, for the foresight of our forefathers, for the wonderful friends we all have. ... And surely everyone of you has something very special to be thankful for. ... And while you are saying a prayer of thanksgiving this Thanksgiving Day 1955 add a little prayer for continued peace. ...

LAST MONDAY night the town was shocked by the news of the injuries sustained by one of our college students. ... Bill Golden, a sophomore at Ferris Institute who was hurt so badly when he was struck by a truck. ... Those first few days there wasn't much good news but came the weekend and things looked brighter. ... And then on Saturday night he was able to talk briefly with his grandparents, the Ben Yettaws. ... And then everyone was able to take the first deep breath they'd taken all week. ... We hope that both he and his mother know that they were in the thoughts of everyone during those dark hours. ... So get better, Bill, and hurry home. ...

WE WERE sad Saturday when Michigan suffered such a humiliating defeat at the hands of a guy named Cassidy and his crew from just below the Michigan

Harold E. Kohn

Thoughts for A Rainy Day

It was a rainy Sunday afternoon in late summer. Shining silver lines of moisture slanted down from heavy skies as we left Charlevoix and drove toward our woodland retreat. Glistening bright splashes splattered upon the windshield of our car and upon the pavement and dimpled mud-side puddles. The leaves of all the trees we passed looked gay and party-ready, washed by the rain and scrubbed by the brush of a stiff wind.

Some people would call it a "nasty day," for it was a picnic-spoiler, thoroughly drenching all bright plans for an outing. But as we drove up to the gate opening upon our mud-puddle strewn trail that wanders between rain-heavy birches and apple trees to Hideaway House, we saw at the trail's edge two creatures that would not permit a downpour to upset their picnic plans. A pair of fawns stood under the dripping apple trees, hawking. They watched us nervously but without fleeing while we stared back at them. They eyed me, between nibbles, as I stole from the car and took down the first gate-rail. I reached for the second rail and removed it. Still they stayed, alert but not panicked. Then, while laying the second pole in the grass, I accidentally knocked it against the first with a loud thud. That was enough. The fawns would tolerate our curiosity but not our noisy impertinence. They bounded away gracefully to engage in a rainy day pastime in some wooded retreat.

One reason why some of my choicest friends are animals is that they never grumble about the weather. They accept it. They adjust to it, and sometimes seem to revel in enjoyment of weather that humans call by unprintable names. There is no place on earth so cold that some creature doesn't live there, and without looking the least bit grouchy about it. The rainiest areas of the world in the tropics are inhabited by some of the gayest monkeys and liveliest birds. It is rumored that in the arid regions of the American West people have gone so long without rain that moisture is foreign to them, and that one time when a drop of water fell on a man, his buddies had to throw six buckets of sand in his face to bring him to! That's really dry! But animals are found in our western deserts, accepting the conditions there, adjusting to them, and thriving.

What ingenious methods we use to escape the acceptance of unpleasant facts! When we blunder, we build fantastic alibis far worse than the mistakes themselves. Imperfect people marry other imperfect people, but won't accept a spouse's imperfections. Frustrated because they cannot entirely remake their partners from human beings into angels, they discard them and take up with somebody new, only to be disappointed again. They forget some things: that successful marriage is not merely a matter of GETTING the right kind of a mate, but also BEING the right kind; that marriage is not for angels, but human beings; and that to be human is to be imperfect. Much marital discord could be avoided if we would accept such facts.

Deeply bereaved people have been known to keep the body of a loved one in the house for weeks, not notifying authorities, and treating the body as a living person. They could not accept the fact of death. Such a flight from reality never assuages sorrow. It prolongs it. Sometimes the escape from fact leads straight to insanity.

Many a mother, aspiring to a musical career and never able to achieve it, has made herself and her child miserable by trying to compel him to take her place. She imagines he has the musical capacity that in her was never developed because of her early marriage and the rapid coming of a large family. He is goaded into spending long hours over the piano keys. He is denied boyhood pleasures because of his mother's excessive demands upon his time for practicing. When he forgets a phrase of music at a recital of pupils, or stumbles badly in his performance before house guests, he is made to feel guilty. He has let his mother down, bringing her grief and shame. She never guesses that his talent doesn't lie in music, but possibly in woodworking, or scientific experimentation, or in mathematics. Her wish that he would fulfill her own frustrated ambitions for the concert stage have blinded her to what he is. The result is a miserable mother and son, and the stunting of a real talent in some area other than music. A person who cannot accept unalterable fact is a menace to self and to others.

Some people suffer irreparable damage because they cannot accept the superiority of another person. They rush into financial ruin trying to "keep up with the Joneses," when they don't have the Joneses' money resources. With much less income than Old Man Jones, they spend almost as purposes were torn from the lighthouse and eight windows in the furnace room were broken.

At Grey's Reef six miles south of White Shoals two main deck hatches were torn from the base of the crib and washed overboard. Water was washed into the lighthouse which was without radio communication with the mainland. However, temporary repairs by the crewmen were made to restore the service. The power boat and skiff were also damaged by the sea.

At Lansing Shoals northwest of Beaver Island at the western approach to the Straits of Mackinac a sea storm door of steel reinforced with steel rods was carried away. An inner door was battered in by the heavy sea, allowing the water to enter the engine room.

Despite the damage all stations remained in commission with primary and secondary equipment and remained in operation throughout the storm, Mr. Etienne said.

The District office at Cleveland is contemplating sending repair crews to effect major repairs before the close of the navigation season early next month.

Mr. Etienne added that this is the first time that lighthouses in the area have sustained such serious damage from a storm.

much as he for ears, clothes, and entertainment. At long last insolvency follows unless they come to their senses and simply admit that the Joneses are financially superior to them and therefore can afford to live "higher off the hog."

Many a highway wreck is caused by a driver who cannot tolerate having another car ahead of him on the road. If the driver ahead is going fifty miles an hour, he must be passed. But if he's travelling eighty, he still must be passed. Some drivers cannot accept the fact that there will always be someone ahead on the road.

So with life. Few ever reach the top rung in the ladder of excellency. If you run, there will be someone in the world who can outrun you. If you box, there is someone who can beat you. If not now, very soon. Read the sports page and see the champions fall! If you shine intellectually, there is someone somewhere, who can outthink you. If you teach or preach, if you swim or shoot, if you joke or pray, if you win friends or sell products, there is someone in your world, probably not far from you, who is your superior.

What of it? Supposing you cannot be world's champion in your field. If you can't beat the champ, there is one important opponent over whom you can triumph. You cannot always be better than someone else. But you can be better than the person you were yesterday.

Whenever we refuse to face facts, whether they are the weather, our own limitations, or the imperfections of others, a great emergency or tragedy, or the superior accomplishments of others — whenever we stubbornly reject reality we defeat ourselves.

God has given us a strangely mixed world with hard sharp facts amidst our joys like thorns amidst roses. But it is His world and it is His way. We find our peace and poise in accepting thorns while rejoicing in flowers.

Loeb Farm Being Developed For Sale

Grand Rapids industrialist, has purchased a large parcel of land Loeb Creek and plans to develop it into year-round home sites. Mr. Sobie is currently leasing the Brook cottage near the main gate and plans to spend a part of his time here.

Other parcels have been sold to Charles J. Pontius and James Miller of this city and Mrs. Ruth Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Teter of Chicago. Seventeen parcels including the tip of the point remain in this subdivision which will be known as Evergreen Point and the service road as Evergreen Lane. The new owners plan at some future date to construct year-round homes in the area. In the meantime it will be planted with evergreens.

A second subdivision will include an additional 1300 feet of Lake frontage east of the Ernest Loeb property and a third will take in the property which extends to the Sequanota Club.

The Loeb Farm was established about 1915 when the first property was purchased by the late Albert Loeb of Chicago. During the next few years he purchased adjacent farms until he acquired the property included in the present estate. In the early 1920's the Loeb farm was one of the show places of the north with its herd of Holstein cattle and its Belgian draft horses housed in the barns which still stand along M-66. The farm also boasted its own cheese factory and raised a variety of crops. Many farmers in the immediate area were employed on the farm. In the late 1920's following the death of Mr. Loeb the extensive farm operation was curtailed and in recent years the farm has been idle. The decision to subdivide the property and sell it was made by the heirs following the death of Mrs. Loeb in 1950.

At the same time the sale of the Loeb property was announced, Belding Real Estate announced the development of North Charlevoix Shores near Nine Mile Point north of Charlevoix along Little Traverse Bay where 40 parcels of land are being offered for sale.

Rules Suggested For Safe Driving Day And Throughout The Winter

Snow-covered streets and highways more than triple the hazards of ordinary driving, Chief of Police Clarence Heise warned today in urging extra care not only on Safe Driving Day today but during the forthcoming winter months.

The worst of it is, he pointed out, that snow always comes at the time of the year when there are more hours of darkness which adds reduced visibility to the problems of traction and skidding.

Plans for a party for overseas veterans, their wives, VFW Auxiliary members and their husbands as well as post members and their wives to be held at the VFW post home at 8 p.m. Saturday, have been announced by Harley Warner, post commander.

The Charlevoix VFW post No. 1153 is sponsoring the party to acquaint the overseas veteran with what has been done by the organization as well as what is being done now and what future plans are in behalf of all veterans, Mr. Warner said.

A film about the National VFW Children's home at Eaton Rapids will be shown during the evening. A lunch prepared by the post home's own chef, William Supernaw, will follow.

All overseas veterans are invited to attend the event.

That can mean more accidents unless drivers take the advice of experts of the Committee on Winter Driving Hazards of the National Safety Council. These men, public safety and automotive authorities, who have made scientific studies of the problem, recommend:

1. Stop accidents before they happen by being prepared. Don't blame accidents on the weatherman. Accept your responsibility.
2. When you start out on a slippery road, get the 'feel' of the highway before you get in traffic.
3. Keep your windshield clear of snow and ice, fog and frost. Be sure your lights, windshield wiper blades and defroster are in first class condition.
4. Use reinforced tire chains when snow and ice increase driving hazards. Tests have shown that they cut stopping distance in half and give four to seven times more pulling traction regardless of temperature.
5. Don't jam on your brakes to stop. Pump them gently.
6. Keep a safe driving distance between you and the car ahead. Without tire chains it takes from three to 12 times as far to stop on snow and ice as on dry pavement.

Chief Heise appended a word of warning against haphazard parking that may impede snow plows.

Observe these simple recommendations and you will make not only today but every day Safe-Driving Day, Chief Heise concluded.

Plans Announced For Independent Cage Tournament

Plans for a six-team single elimination tournament for northern Michigan independent basketball teams during the forthcoming holidays were announced this week by Del Terrill, manager of the recently-organized Charlevoix Independent Basketball Association.

The tournament will be played at the Charlevoix high school gymnasium at 7 and 8:30 p.m. Dec. 28-29 and 30.

Drawings for the tournament will be made and the tournament schedule announced shortly, Mr. Terrill said.

Plans for the club call for two games weekly during the winter months. The games will be played Tuesday and Saturday nights. The schedule for the season is now being arranged. It is expected that the local team whose roster will be announced soon will play independent teams throughout the north.

John Swanson is president and Desmond Milligan treasurer of the local association.

At the present time funds are being solicited to finance the cost of uniforms for the squad.

Anyone wishing to contribute to the Independent Basketball team equipment fund may leave their contribution with Mr. Terrill or Mr. Milligan.

Additional State Aid Available To Public Schools Next Month

Additional state aid money appropriated for the express purpose of boosting the current salaries of teachers and non-teaching personnel in public schools will be made available to school districts beginning next month, Charles A. Robinson, Charlevoix county superintendent of schools, has announced.

The special grant of $12½ millions representing $900 per membership child for school district having three or more teachers was made by the state legislature at its recent special session. One and two-teacher districts will receive flat grants of $200 and $400 respectively, Mr. Robinson explained.

Payment will be made to the districts in the January, March and May issues of state aid by adding approximately $3.00 per membership child to each of these payments.

While local control is being given in the disbursement of the funds, all districts will be required to submit a notarized statement showing that the funds have been used only for additional compensation to school employees according to the act.

At the same session the legislature also allocated additional monies for both mentally and physically handicapped programs now in operation. Mr. Robinson added, "These allotments will make it possible for the state to come closer to meeting its full share of the excess cost of these programs."

A bill which will result in the appropriation of monies for driver education and training classes was also passed. Under the terms of the legislation, local school districts will receive up to $25.00 per enrollee in driver training classes. It requires that the Superintendent of Public Instruction establish reasonable rules and regulations for the conduct of such programs. Dr. Clair L. Taylor, state superintendent of public instruction, said he is hopeful that every school in the state will develop driver training course in the local curriculum as soon as the rules and regulations have been established as required by law.

Sheriff Warns Those Damaging Boy Scout Cabin

Sheriff Glenn E. Rose this week issued a warning to individuals who have deliberately damaged the Boy Scout cabin located near Mt. McSaub.

In the past month the lock has been shot or sawed off the door three times, including two times during the past weekend.

ODDS 'N' ENDS

By Fran Martio

FROM Scottsdale, Ariz., a clipping sent by Mrs. Lyle King and taken from the Arizona Republic. It's a picture story on our own Bob Carey. A series of drawings by Kearney Egerton. Told with accompanying pictures is the following story: Good Sports. Bob Carey is polishing the wings on the Arizona State gridiron squad. The 230-pounder end-play expert stands 6-5, probably the tallest coach in the Border conference. He was a member of the Los Angeles Rams until a knee injury forced him out. Carey is remembered in Tucson for his part in the 75-0 rout of the Wildcats. His kick-offs almost went out of the stadium. Carey was an All-Big Ten basketball player and the Conference shot put champion. Each comment was accompanied by an appropriate little drawing. A comment on the bit about the Rams. We haven't checked with his family but the grapevine says he's returning to them. The big drawing is a very fine likeness of Bob and a grand team had a good season. In case you haven't been following the team.

IN A RECENT column printed in a Chicago newspaper was a story about the late Herbert W. Schwarz, a summer resident here, who died recently. The writer of the column mentioned him as a member of the "old guard" and told of the place he and Mrs. Schwarz held in Chicago society. He bemoaned the fact that his death was almost completely overlooked by Chicago newspapers. We don't think that anyone in Charlevoix ever realized their social status or knew of their financial status for it was never discussed. Their friends here just knew them as gracious people whom it was a privilege to know and a pleasure to see each summer. Another one of the differences between the city and the small town. For here they were loved by everyone who knew them both.

NEXT Wednesday, Dec. 7, will mark the fourteenth anniversary of the bombing of Pearl Harbor which catapulted this country into World War II. To many it seemed like the end of the world. To kids in school today it's just another date to be added to a long list of such events one must learn in American history. There isn't much to say about it today but the memories it recalls are many. All there is left to do now is to pray that we'll never have another great tragedy like it.

HAVE YOU recovered from that big Thanksgiving dinner? Are you still relaxed and comfortable? Well, chums, we've got news for you. Snap to for Christmas is only some 24 days (including today) away. And for your information there are only 21 more shopping days 'til the big one arrives. Never saw so many angelic looking little ones around. 'Cause after all, Santa Claus has his little elves around checking on just everyone these days. Gee, to be a kid again with nothing more to worry about than that.

WASN'T it good to see all our young people around over the Thanksgiving weekend. Just like old home week with everyone coming and going. Some of our servicemen were here swappin' stories and a lot of the 'older' crowd was here. Some teaching or working elsewhere. Anyway the place was jumpin'. That's for sure. And it was lots of fun too.

HOW ABOUT that weather Friday night. Just like driving on grease, so we were told. But it didn't stop the mob that went to Petoskey to the basketball game. Even if some of 'em ended up in the ditch. But you couldn't drive fast so even if there were a few accidents none of them were too serious. Don't know if you've noticed it or not but we'll swear we've had more wind so far this fall than we had all last winter. Every other day it seems as tho' there's a storm blowing up. As this is being written the temperature in St. Paul, Minn., is zero and it's snowing like mad. We'll probably be getting it before too long. That is, it will continue to get worse for it's already snowing and blowing. But that's northern Michigan in the winter so one shouldn't be surprised at anything that happens.

HOW WOULD you like some home-grown tomatoes? That's right. Home-grown at Edwards florists. Seems that when the tomato plants were set outside last spring there were a few extras that were left in the greenhouse. The darned things liked the indoors and have spread themselves all over the place. Each plant has wandered about 10 ft. according to Mrs. E. who brought us a couple of the choice bits the other day. And were they good. Just like we like 'em. Not full of seeds. So if you have a yen for home-grown tomatoes, just build yourself a little greenhouse. Or get 'em from the local source. In also experimenting with camellias. Seems someone gave them some slips and they're giving 'em a try so soon there should be some of the lovely blossoms around.

UNDERSTAND the class of 1906 of the Charlevoix high school is making tentative plans for a reunion. Come June. Mrs. J. C. Marshall, just back from Detroit where she saw Mrs. Charles Lamphear, told us about it. Mrs. L. had contacted some of the class and was sending out feelers on others she hadn't heard from in years so if you're a member of that class keep an eye out for developments.

GOT A bang out of a news story in the newspapers the other day. It came from Russia and said that sports fans were sentenced up to 25 years for causing disturbances at a football game and clunking officials and other such things. It's a good thing that doesn't happen over here or we'd be building bigger and better jails than we have. Why, there's rarely a game that someone doesn't call the official something other than a gentleman. And how about those cries of 'We was robbed' or 'Murder de bum' just to mention a few. And we can think of a few state tournaments where the fur almost flew. But then it happened in the good ole U.S.A. so all you got was mad.

DID YOU ever do some comparatively trivial thing that you'd Northern Michigan Class C basketball teams emerged victors in two pre-season non-loop games during the past week.

On Friday the powerful Boyne City Ramblers rolled over Class B Petoskey 46-35 and on Tuesday the Gaylord Blue Devils defeated another Class B outfit, Cheboygan, 40-38.

At Petoskey Nels Northrup racked up 20 points as the Ramblers led the Northern 0-6 at the quarter; 24-12 at the half and 35-20 at the third period mark. Bob Fitzpatrick had 15 points with Bill Hloch pacing the losers with nine points.

In other action a resolution banning parking on city streets from midnight to 7 a.m. was adopted. The ban will become effective at once in order to aid in the snow removal program by city street department crews.

The amendment of the zoning ordinance to change approximately two acres of property in the Eaton addition from agricultural district 1 to industrial district 2 was approved. Cities Service Marine Terminal and Albert V. Edwards had petitioned for the change. It is expected the company will now apply for permission to construct storage tanks for fuel products on the site. At an earlier meeting Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Jullieret who are building a home near the property had appeared to object to the change in the ordinance until more information regarding use of the property was available.

A resolution asking that Charlevoix be considered as a site for a Michigan State Police Post when and if a new post is established was adopted and forwarded to Commissioner Joseph Childs.

Bills totaling $10,855.48 were approved and ordered paid.

New 'Combination' Mailing Service Goes Into Effect

A letter or message may now be mailed inside a package or publication for the first time in United States Postal history following the adoption of a new 'combination' mail service this week.

Effective Monday all the mailer needs to do is indicate the presence of the letter or message inside the package and pay the appropriate postage on it plus the postage for the parcel itself.

A statement reading "First-Class Mail Enclosed" or "Third-Class Mail Enclosed" must be placed on each parcel below the postage and above the address. The postage for each letter and for each single enclosure at the appropriate First or single-piece Third-Class rate must be affixed to the outside of the parcel.

Within the adoption of the new regulation the familiar phrase "We are sending under separate cover" can now join other nostalgic reminders of by-gone days. Postmaster Peter H. Timmer said in announcing the new service.

The new 'combination' mail service is on a 80-day trial basis, Mr. Timmer added.

IT HAPPENED ON BEAVER ISLAND

By Loy Malloy

Winter really came to Beaver Island during the past week. I suppose the hunters are glad to see the snow but anyone else would just as soon it would stay away for awhile.

Up to the time of this writing 13 bucks were shot on the Island. That's two over last year's kill. Rev. Malcolm D. Thomson Will Be Ordained Thursday, December 8

For the second time in its 75 year history Christ Episcopal church will be the scene of an ordination ceremony, Thursday, Dec. 8, at 10:30 a.m.

At that time the Rt Rev Dudley B. McNeil, Bishop of Western Michigan, will ordain the Rev. Malcolm D. Thomson, Deacon, to the Sacred Order of Priests.

The Rev. Mr. Thomson will be presented to the Bishop for ordination by his foster father, the Rev. J. Perry Austin, Ph.D., of Newaygo.

Other participants in the improssive service will be the Rev. C. E. Gren, rector of St. Mary's parish, Wayne, Pa., under whom the Rev. Mr. Thomson worked as a layman, who will deliver the ordination sermon; the Rev. Louis A. Houghton, rector of Trinity church, Heverhill, Mass., the parish church where the ordination was a communicant for many years, who will read the Litany of Ordinations; the Rev. D. W. Fillkins of Petoskey who will serve as the Epistlar and the Rev. F. J. Foley of Trevastra City the Gosper.

The music will be sung by the choir of Christ Episcopal church under the direction of Charles Hamlin.

The Rev. Mr. Thomson was ordained into the deaconate of the Episcopal church in June following his graduation from the Philadelphia Divinity College. In July he was assigned to Christ church here and St. Paul's church in Elk Rapids. Prior to entering into the school of Divinity he had attended Northwestern College in Watertown, Wis., Canterbury college in Danville, Ill., and was graduated from Daniel Baker college in Brownwood, Tex.

The 10:30 a.m. service will be followed by a reception in Christ Church hall to which all attending the service are invited. The Vicar and the members of Christ church mission extends an invitation to the residents of Charlevoix to share with them this joyous occasion.

The day will be concluded with a family dinner for the communicants of Christ church at the church hall at 6:30 p.m.

Attendance Pins Are Awarded At Kiwanis Meeting

Perfect attendance pins were awarded to four members of the Charlevoix Kiwanis club at the regular dinner meeting of the group held Monday at the high school cafeteria.

Receiving the pins from R. G. Bennett, lieutenant governor-elect were Charles J. Pontius, six-year pin; Kit Carson, Glenn Snyder and Bradley N. Stanton, two-year pins.

Pins for the observance of the club's twenty-first anniversary were discussed at the business meeting at which Mr. Bennett, Fred Willis and A. L. Livingston, president and vice president-elect; and Ralph S. Hamilton, secretary, made a report on the 15th division 1955 organizational meeting held recently at Cheboygan. The showing of the film, "Our American Heritage" concluded the meeting.

cock, is the only returning veteran. Ray Walker has received the call to start at center and Cal Darbee and Jerry Herrington, the latter a letterman, will fill the forward slots. Jack Ingalls and Gareth Thomson will be called on to substitute at either the forward or guard positions.

At Boyne City where the Ramblers will host Mancelona, Coach Paul Pfahler is planning to use the same team he sent against Petoskey last week in a non-loop game in which the Boyne five triumphed the Northern 46-35. This line-up includes Nels North at center; Carl Charon and Juday at forwards; Bob Fitzpatrick and Gary Newville, guards with Murray Northup substituting in all positions.

Coach Jake Schurmann of Mancelona has not named a starting five but will pick the quintet from among the following: Bob Hardy or John Phillips, center; Dick Holstad, Bob Johnson or Fayze Jabara, forwards and Galen Christopher, Ron Johnson or Norman LaCroix, guards. Christopher is the only veteran.

Pallaton, with an experienced team will send at least four veteran players against Gaylord this week. Coach Al Gracius reports, Pat Cabinaw or Bob Schiller will start at center, Frank Durkalec and Dale Drier in the forward positions and Les Ball and Harry Bell in the guard spots. All but Schiller were members of last year's squad. Jack Schlosser and Max Bennett, forwards, and Bob Swartzout, a guard, will probably see some action this week.

Coach Paul Skitka of Gaylord plans to send the same team he used against Class B Cheboygan Tuesday night. This will include Mike McKillop at center; Lonnie Campbell, Ken Fitzek and Jim Jenkins, guards and Terry Goeha, Darwin Mason and John Bresnahan, forwards.

When the defending champions, the Charlevoix Raiders, invade Harbor Springs this week Coach Ivan Davis of the Rams plans to send Don Lauer, center; Tor Larson and Jerry Reinwand, forwards and Richie Clarke, Gordon Kruska or Gery Congleton against them. Dick Keller may also substitute in the center or forward positions. Lauer, Larson and Clarke are veterans from last season's squad.

Coach Don Carey has not decided on a starting line-up for the game this week and said that all positions are still wide open with plenty of competition for starting assignments. Garry Vensdenberg, Guy Swanson, regulars from last season's championship squad, Walt Poquette, a letterman and Norm Helms are in line for forward assignments; Quint Walker, a third veteran from last year or Joel Arvilla will start at center and guards will be named from the following candidates: Ken Balch, Charlie Dennis, Joe Etienne and Kit Carson, all lettermen and Terry Davis, Phil Timmer, a center; Bill Kolker and Jerry Gahn, forwards and Norm Cook, a guard, may also see some action along with Charles Pierce and Gary Smith, guards.

Dear Farm Friends:

In the past year 65,830 farm families in this state joined hands "to do together what none can do alone." Our goal is to develop a program that "will do the most good for the greatest number of people." It is a program which has a "must appeal to all patriotic citizens." It is merely practicing good citizenship.

Farm Bureau has a legislative program that is second to none for farm people.

It has a service program that has been developed and expanded consistently, backed by sound business practices.

Some of the services are Farm Bureau Insurance designed expressly for farm people. We have pioneered a new method of petroleum distribution, also pioneered high analysis fertilizer results in saving in freight and handling.

Most farm people are aware of Farm Bureau quality seed program and promotion of effective legislation to insure quality. We of Farm Bureau also were the first to use an "open formula" feed program. Farm supply volume of Farm Bureau Services, Inc., totaled $21,500,000—up more than a million dollars over last year.

Growth of Farm Bureau Insurances continue to be spectacular, over $45,000,000 in fire insurance alone. Farm Bureau Life Insurance, only four years old, has written over $54,000,000.

Farmers' Petroleum Co-op., Inc., rendered nearly $5,000,000 worth of volume in the last fiscal year.

The record shows that in the state legislature of 1955 32 bills favored by the State Farm Bureau were passed by both houses. Twenty-four measures opposed by the State Farm Bureau were defeated. A remarkable record by any comparison.

Farm Bureau also has a program for every member, a Junior Farm Bureau leadership training and community betterment in our youth, a comprehensive women's program. The Women of Farm Bureau have organized committees in every Farm Bureau county, 65 in all. Their program includes, nurse recruitment, Pennies for Friendship, Sister Kenny program and a foreign student program.

Farm Bureau adult education and citizenship program is "second to none."

Your Charlevoix County Farm Bureau wishes to review some of the Farm Bureau program on a county level. The past year has been a year of progress in Farm Bureau. We have had a lot of splendid support and many people have contributed much time, effort and money voluntarily which has resulted in two new programs.

First, after much ground work and study, the Charlevoix County Livestock Marketing Service was put into operation. It is a service which provides a good marketing service for all classes of livestock at the St. Louis Auction which is a branch of Michigan Livestock Exchange, working in close conjunction with Farm Bureau people and college extension specialists. It has been of definite service to the county and warrants continued support. There also is a comprehensive field service that is available under this project. A trained livestock man will advise and make sound recommendations on any of your livestock marketing or production problems. This service is available to any farmer in the county on request. Just notify your trucker to St. Louis, Lyle Smith of East Jordan, phone LE nox 6-7161.

In May of 1955 the Charlevoix County Farm Bureau, after months of study and ground work, initiated the program of direct distribution of petroleum products in the county. This program brings petroleum products direct from the refinery to the farm. The quality of these products is the same high quality of all Farm Bureau products. Our aim is to deliver the highest quality product to the farmer at the lowest possible cost. The program has been very successful and we are very confident of rapid growth in this field.

The Charlevoix County Farm Bureau has Blue Cross available in group form which every one recognizes as one of the best protection available.

In our insurance program we have fire insurance, auto insurance and life insurance which is designed for rural people and it is highly desirable. Liability insurance is also available.

We have a very active Junior Farm Bureau with a good program for rural youth.

Our Women's Committee is very active and is interested in all aspects of the women's program of the Michigan Farm Bureau.

Sincerely,
Charlevoix County Farm Bureau

Handling Anxiety

Upon arising the other morning, we went tramping over our acreage to see what telltale signs our animal neighbors had left, what joyous moments they had made of their night's frolicking, or what solemn accounting they had given of their night's work. The data were there, detailed on a heavy cover of snow — the scratchy notations of whitetailed mice, the hurried scribbles of early-rising birds, and the strong heart-shaped initialing of white-tail deer.

The big buck that stealthily stole past Hideaway House where we slept had paused, alert for danger. His great, cleanly-cut tracks in the snow showed where he had halted among the balsams and peered cautiously toward the cabin, aglow with the butter-gold light of the fireplace fire. Doubtless his black-velvet nostrils twitched at the smell of burning birch, beech, and maple logs. Weighing carefully the dangers of breaking into the open, he stood statue-still, eyes aspartle with a momentary fear. Then, sensing that the clearing was free from peril, his apprehension subsided and he moved across the sequined blanket of clean white fluff, leaped clear of the brook and took a forest path toward some favorite browsing in a sheltered cedar swamp. Following his steps, even a casual observer could tell where he had calmly walked, his hind feet making prints almost exactly in the front tracks. When mixed caution and fear swept through his veins and tingled in his mind, his tracks showed where he had stood. The rounded prints overlaid each other, giving evidence of where he had shifted position, seeking a clearer view of that human habitation that might endanger his life. Then the tracks of an unafraid and walking animal proved that calm had followed fear.

There is a marked difference between a deer's fear of an objective danger, such as a house containing humans who might mean him harm, and the chronic fretfulness that plagues mankind in our time, making our generation more anxiety-ridden than any other era since the Middle Ages. Fear of real danger stimulates the deer to escape from real trouble. Anxiety — the feeling that our welfare is being threatened while we are helpless to do anything about it — leads us deeper into trouble, being the common denominator of most mental ailments and many a there. Like trees on Lake Michigan's shore, we would not be afraid of the high winds if we knew our roots were deep and would hold. It's the shallowness of our roots that gives us apprehension, not life's gusts and gales.

What is the treatment for our anxiety? Since anxiety is self-distrust, we need to begin with ourselves. Take care of your feelings of shame. When you have asked God to forgive you, then forgive yourself. Once you have admitted a wrong to God and yourself and to a person whom you have wronged, it is already uncovered and you need not be fearful that someone else will be the first to uncover it. Then lead a clean life and you will have no dirt to hide.

Make better use of your imagination. Imaginations become jittery if they have nothing worthwhile to do. Then, lacking worthwhile work, they indulge in malicious mischief, stockpiling up mental pictures of forthcoming disasters, or blowing up minor ailments into fatal illnesses, and ballooning the little faults of loved ones into vast moral calamities. Keep your imagination better occupied, planning some good thing for the future, or invest it in a creative hobby, or, as Jesus said, imagine yourself in another's place and treat him accordingly — "As ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise."

Get busy! Since it is when your head and hands are most idle that you fuss and fret most, make worthwhile activity a substitute for anxiety. Hard-working farmers are known for their low rate of insanity. The leisure classes are notoriously vulnerable to the kinds of mental and physical disorders that stem from excessive anxiety. When troubled by vague fearfulness, do something — for someone else!

Moor your uneasy and wayward concerns to something definite and of lasting worth. Because anxiety is usually a vague, drifting, and ill-defined sort of fear, it tends to be vanquished by reason and logic. A "floating anxiety" is no anxiety at all when it becomes anchored to some well-defined object. (Psychiatrists have observed that some people's mental health improves when they become physically sick! Their vague, generalized, unattached anxiety has found anchorage at last, in ill-health.) Tie your concerns to something worthwhile — a plan of self-improvement, a disease-improvement project, or a community service. Let THAT be your interest. Or better yet, "seek ye first the kingdom of God." That is great religion and good mental hygiene, too. The doing of the will of God merits all our concern and care.

Build up your spiritual resources so that you will feel equal to any emergency that life can hurl at you. You will have no dread of life's worst storms if you are confident that your spiritual heartwood is firm and your roots deep. It was the great American psychologist and philosopher, William James, and not a minister of religion, who said, "The sovereign cure for worry is prayer." You don't have to stay up at night keeping watch over your treasured pile of concerns and straining to hold God's crumbling world together with your own tired hands if you know God is on the job — and awake.

Our Hidden Brook buck is always alert and knows occasional fright, but he doesn't drag the fear of a moment after him while he struggles through a day. Maybe that is one secret of his lithe grace and easy poise. It's an open secret that you can master, too.

Registrants For Draft Urged To Adjust Records

All draft registrants are urged to bring their files at the draft board office up to date.

All registrants are reminded that if they have married and if they have become fathers since registering for the draft they must furnish certified copies of marriage certificates and birth certificates of any children born to the marriage which will be placed on file. Also if a child is expected a letter from the attending physician verifying the pregnancy should be obtained and placed in the registrant's file.

Under the proposed new ruling being considered by the Selective Service Commission, fathers 26 years or over will be deferred and fathers under 26 years maintaining a home for their families will be considered for deferment.

The registrant, however, can not be considered for deferment by the draft board if his file does not contain the necessary data.

High School Senior Class Will Present Annual Play December 8

"The three act mystery-comedy, 'The Phantom of the High School', will be presented by the senior class of the Charlevoix high school in the high school auditorium at 8 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 8.

The play, directed by Mrs. Robert Hamilton and written by Anne Coulter Martens, centers around the Benson City Centennial.

Every Centennial celebration must have a pageant. The play opens with the rehearsal of the Benson City pageant directed by Miss Harker (Susan Crump). Miss Benson (Jill Stewart) whose ancestors founded the city and who has written the historical pageant is also assisting in its production.

All goes well until the discovery of a certain book of historical value which results in an accident to the director, Miss Harker. At this point Miss Winslow (Joan Heilig), high school history teacher, is called on to take over. The disappearance of a satchel of money to be used in the pageant creates another mystery which Miss Winslow, assisted by Mr. Gibney (Joe Etienne) and his son, Randolph (Martin Johnson) try to solve.

Rick (Kit Carson), who is accused of taking the money, declares his innocence and his girl, Mindy (Jean Stockwell), who knows some of the answers, backs him up but no one will believe her because of her tendency to exaggerate things.

What was the accident that befell Miss Harker? What happened to the book and what of significance was in the book? Who took the money and why? Who was the phantom of the high school?

All these questions and others will be answered when you go to the high school auditorium to see "Phantom of the High School" next Thursday night.

Others in the cast of the highly entertaining comedy-mystery are Quint Walker and Wanda as Allen and Julie; Wayne Sundberg as the policeman, Mike Gibbons as the reporter, Carolyn Stoe as the secretary, Connie Maxfield, Artis Geer, June Elzinga, James Haggard, Marylee Baker and Walter Poquette.

Two Buildings Have Been Razed

Two local buildings have been razed recently. The house located at 109 Mason st. next to the city hall, known as the Black property, has been raised to make way for the new post office building which will be started this fall. When it is completed the owners, Kit Carson and Fred Willis, will lease the one-story building to the post office department.

The other is the small, wooden frame structure located at 309 Bridge st. between the Turkey Wing and Steve's bar. Plans for this property are not known.

Michigan State University clothing specialists suggest using well sharpened shears and fine sharp pins and needles when working with and cutting synthetics and fabric blends.

ODDS 'N' ENDS

By Fran Martin

WEATHER, and we've sure had plenty of it, is the main topic of conversation recently. For two weekends in a row it has been snowy, blustery and icy with driving most hazardous. If the whole month is going to be like this heaven help us. And that wind... that's what we don't like for it never seems to let up... just shifts from here to there and blows like mad. At the rate we're going we'll not only have a white Christmas but a snowy Easter as well.

SPEAKING of weather, there're a few fellows around town who are a bit reluctant to talk about the big blow we had last weekend. Seems they'd been planning on going to desolate North Fox island directly west of here in Lake Michigan to hunt for coyotes. Jake White Sr. and his tug, the Gypsy, were to supply transportation for the 28 mile run. Sunday came, everyone packed his lunch and grabbed his gear and the six hunters and Jake were off. But this time of year one can't depend on the weather. Came noon and the weather started closing in. Everyone got back to the beach and via the skiff to the tug but by then visibility was practically zero so rather than start for home they moved to the lee of South Fox island some five miles south of where they'd been hunting. Since fish tugs are not equipped with radio or radar there was nothing to do but sit out the storm which they proceeded to do. But on the mainland were some worried wives. Those of us who knew Jake just weren't too concerned 'cause we knew what he'd do. But when they weren't back by noon (when visibility was so bad you couldn't see across the street) to the Coast Guard a couple of them went. There wasn't much they could do either but when the weather cleared the plane from Traverse City went up and spotted where they'd been for about 20 hours. Anchored off South Fox. To make a long story short, the weather cleared late in the evening and they were able to leave for home, arriving here about 1:30 a.m. Hungry, 'cause they'd only had one meal, a meat pie with just about everything aboard the tug tossed into it... and they'd been without cigarettes for hours. Quite an experience for Mark White, Bob Reed, Clarence Goldstick, Ken Watson of Central Lake, Danny White and Claire Martin. PS... The tales they brought back are fabulous, to say the least.

FLOWERS
Charlevoix LI 7-2232

WE MENTIONED last week the camellias that are being grown at Edwards' Florist. But we understand that they're not the only ones who are growing what we always consider almost a tropical flower. Seems the Glenn Krohns have a plant that's just covered with the lovely white, waxy blossoms at the Style Beauty shop. Gee, some people sure have green thumbs. We're indebted to Mrs. Art Geer for this information.

SPEAKING of flowers, we also understand there're two young fellows at Harbor Springs with 'green thumbs'. If you get a poinsettia or any other Christmas plant this year, chances are it will come from their greenhouse. They're two ex-GIs who bought themselves a business... and now are raising all sorts of temperamental flowers for the northern Michigan market. Sure would like to see their greenhouse during the next couple of weeks with its many red and white poinsettias in bloom. In the spring we understand they have equally as many Easter lilies. Wouldn't you love to see it?

OUR CHARLEVOIX Rayders have certainly received a fair share of all state and other honors being doled out recently. As have players from other teams in our league. Sometimes you wonder if anyone knows northern Michigan is on the map and then all of sudden you find out that your football players, for example, are getting state-wide recognition. Makes you feel pretty proud, doesn't it?

HOW LONG is your memory? For instance, did you remember that last year's Rayder basketball team lost its first two games of the season? That's right. To East Jordan and Petoskey. And despite that they came back to take the league title as well as the district and regional titles before being bumped by a team that went on to take the Class C title. If this year's Rayders can do as well, who can complain? But one thing's for sure; they have their work cut out for 'em. This week they're meeting East Jordan followed by Grayling, Boyne City and Petoskey. Can you think of a tougher schedule? We can't. But knowing our Rayders and their coach, you're gonna see a lot of good basketball during the next few months. It's going to be rugged but who'd want it any other way. So, come on, you guys, let's get goin'. We're expecting big things of you. And lots of luck.

SAW A familiar face looking out of a Grand Rapids paper recently... perhaps you noticed it. It was that of Bruce Fairbanks, Charlie's younger brother, who plays for East Grand Rapids and who was named to the Valley Conference all-star team. Gee, what we couldn't do with a guy like that. But even if we don't have him we're glad to know he's doing so well.

HOW'S THIS for forgetting things? A guy we know drove 200 miles to do some skiing at Boyne Mountain over the weekend. Only when he opened the trunk at the lodge to get his ski boots out he remembered he'd left them in the hall at home. But it's alright, Dr. Claire Cartier of Grand Rapids... there'll be more snow and other weekends. But wouldn't that be maddening?

HOW IS that Christmas shopping project coming? Not so good? Why not send something that's made in Charlevoix? There're lots of things... including scrumptious things to eat such as apples, candy made at our two candy shops, the best maple syrup in the world... and the sweetest honey ever. Plus fishing tackle of every description and all sorts of archery supplies from Stream-eye. And all those wonderful things they make at the Paul-Reed plant including those handy little gadgets to hold fish hooks. And don't forget there are always evergreen boughs and Christmas trees that are welcome gifts to city folk.

SPEAKING of evergreen boughs, we're told that there's a fellow who lives in our town who makes a living cutting cedar and other evergreen boughs for sale to big greenhouses or florists in cities in the state. Can't imagine anyone cutting that many, or even finding that many, but we're told it's true. And we can't think of a nicer smelling job, that's for sure.

TROPICAL blossoms from Hawaii... how is that for a birthday in December? Mrs. Al Scheid thinks it's pretty wonderful for that's what she received Monday from her son, Dick, who is stationed in the islands with the U. S. Navy. And on Sunday she talked with him via trans-ocean telephone... quite a thrilling experience to say the least.

LOTS OF mail this week including a note from Mrs. Jack Starnes, the former Sue Webster, who's planning on spending Christmas in Charlevoix this year for the first time in ages. Her husband has re-enlisted, this time in the U. S. Air Force, and at present they're stationed at Randolph, Ill. From her letter bearing this good news we get the idea that she's more than a little homesick for the old town. She'd like to hear from old classmates and make some plans for the holidays so now about dropping her a note at 412 So. Chanute st., Rantoul, Ill. See you soon, Susie.

AND FROM Florida, a card from the Bill Matzingers, who are enjoying their annual vacation in the southland. They're staying at one of those perfectly fabulous motels at Miami Beach. We'd sure like to see them some time for they're simply out of this world and unbelievable. And the temperature at 75 degrees... compared to our 20 Tuesday morning.

OUR FIRST Christmas card arrived this week from someone you all know... and again we detect a note of nostalgia for Charlevoix and old friends at holiday time. It's from George and Phil Wolf and the girls, Dulcie and Vicky... in Tokyo. They write: Feel like getting ready for Christmas in July. If this is winter I like it... no snow to shovel! No matter how nice the weather is we still miss Charlevoix and all our friends and activities. Sure will be lost when basketball season arrives. Would you please put in a big hello and season's greetings to all our friends?

AND WE'D like to take this opportunity to wish all our servicemen stationed overseas a wonderful Christmas. We'll all be thinking of you this holiday season... as we often do whether you realize it or not. When your friends get together they'll recall happy times together and wonder what you're doing. Tho' you feel alone you're not really... 'cause back here, this Christmas season, we'll remember you.

Charlevoix Loses To Harbor Springs Cagers 47-45

Score Is Tied Twice In The Final Quarter

The Charlevoix Rayders, Northern Michigan Class C defending champions, dropped their opening game of the current season 47-45 at Harbor Springs Friday night.

The loss came after the Rayders had taken a 17-14 first period lead but lost it to the Rams at halftime by a score of 32-26. Trying for a comeback Charlevoix whittled the Rams' third quarter lead to four points, 41-37 and in the last period tied the score twice but failed in their attempt to go ahead as the game drew to a close.

Starting for the Rayders were Guy Swanson who left the game at the end of four minutes with three personal fouls and returned at the second half to finish the game, Garry Vandenberg, Quint Walker, Joe Etienne and Kenny Balch. Joel Arvilla joined the line-up in the first period, Walt Poquette, Norm Helms and Charlie Dennis in the second and Kit Carson in the final quarters.

The Northern Michigan Class C last week with Grayling defeating East Jordan 49-38 on Thursday and Harbor Springs upsetting the defending champions, the Charlevoix Rayders 47-45; Pellston winning over Gaylord 51-39 and Boyne City rolling over Moncelona 62-32.

Grayling 49 East Jordan 38 The Grayling Vikings celebrated the dedication of their new gymnasium Thursday night before a crowd of 1,400 spectators by defeating the visiting East Jordan Red Devils 49-38.

East Jordan, playing without their one seasoned player, Dick Johnson, who was out of the game with an ulcerated tooth, trailed the high-flying Vikings 14-7 at the first quarter; 27-14 at the half and 38-28 as the game went into the final period. In the last quarter East Jordan closed the gap briefly but Grayling pulled away for the 11-point victory. Cal Darbee paced the scoring for the Red Devils while Bill Kenyon dumped in 14 points for the Vikings.

Pellston 51 Gaylord 39 The Pellston Hornets got off to an early lead and held it 13-6 at the first quarter; 28-16 at the half and 37-30 as they racked up their first win of the season with a 12-point victory over Gaylord.

Mike McKillop of Gaylord was top scorer for the game with 15 points for the Blue Devils. Pellston's scoring was more scattered with Frank Durkalee dumping in 14 points and Dale Drier and Pot Cabinaw each accounting for 10 points.

Boyne City 62 Moncelona 32 With Nels Nordlund and John Juday accounting for 35 of the Ramblers' 62 points, Boyne City rolled over the visiting Moncelona Ironmen 62-32 at the first quarter; 25-11 at the half and 46-20 at the third period.

Nordlund scored 16 and Juday 17 points for the victors. Ron Johnson led the Ironmen with eight points.

Charlevoix To Meet East Jordan On Home Court Friday Night

The second week of the Northern Michigan Class C basketball season will find Boyne City traveling to Gaylord; Grayling entertaining Harbor Springs; Pellston playing at Moncelona and Charlevoix hosting East Jordan Friday night. Next Tuesday East Jordan will host Moncelona in a loop game and Grayling will entertain Class B Cheboygan in a non-league meeting.

Boyne City with two victories behind them including a win over Class B Petoskey by a score of 46-35 and a lop-sided victory over Moncelona by a 62-32 score will invade Gaylord this week with plans of racking up another win. Paced by high-scoring Nels Nordlund, the veteran squad should have little trouble with the Blue Devils who defeated Class B Cheboygan 46-38 but who bowed to Pellston 51-30.

The Harbor Springs Rams, elated over their 47-45 win over the Charlevoix Rayders, will move into Crawford county this week when they meet the Grayling Vikings. The host team, however, will be at an advantage because they are playing on their home floor, probably the largest in the league. Harbor Springs, used to playing on the smallest in the loop, will find themselves tiring early unless Coach Ivan Davis can come up with plenty of good substitutes. This plus a more experienced Viking squad will be the deciding factors in keeping Grayling in the win column.

Pellston, boasting on of its strongest teams in recent years, will travel to Moncelona this week to take on the Ironmen, who are licking their wounds after their 63-32 loss to the Ramblers. Like other Coach Jake Schurman is working hard to correct first game mistakes and strengthen the weak spots in preparation for Friday's game which could be a close one with Moncelona playing on its home floor. The Hornets, however, should chalk up another win.

The Charlevoix Rayders, dumped last week by Harbor Springs, in their opening game, will try this week to get into the win column. Coach Don Carey is busy this week putting his squad through their paces and correcting mistakes made last week in preparation for the meeting with an old rival, East Jordan Friday. The Red Devils, on paper, don't have too much but with veteran Dick Johnson due back in the line-up after being sidelined because of illness, the Jordanites can be expected to play a good hard game as they try for their first victory. Like Charlevoix they made a comeback late in the game with Grayling which they lost 40-36 and tied the Vikings twice before going down to defeat. The return of Johnson will do much to bolster their morale and the game here this week should be a good one. The Rayders, however, with more experienced players will have an edge over the visitors.

Next Tuesday the Red Devils will host Moncelona. Unless the Ironmen can show more than they have to date the East Jordan five should be able to rack up a win. Grayling hosting Class B Cheboygan, should come through with a victory over the Chiefs whom Gaylord defeated 46-38.

Little Rayders Defeat Harbor Reserves 45-39

Charlevoix's Little Rayders came from behind Friday night to defeat the Harbor Springs Reserves after trailing 10-6 at the quarter; 19-12 at the half and 30-27 at the third quarter.

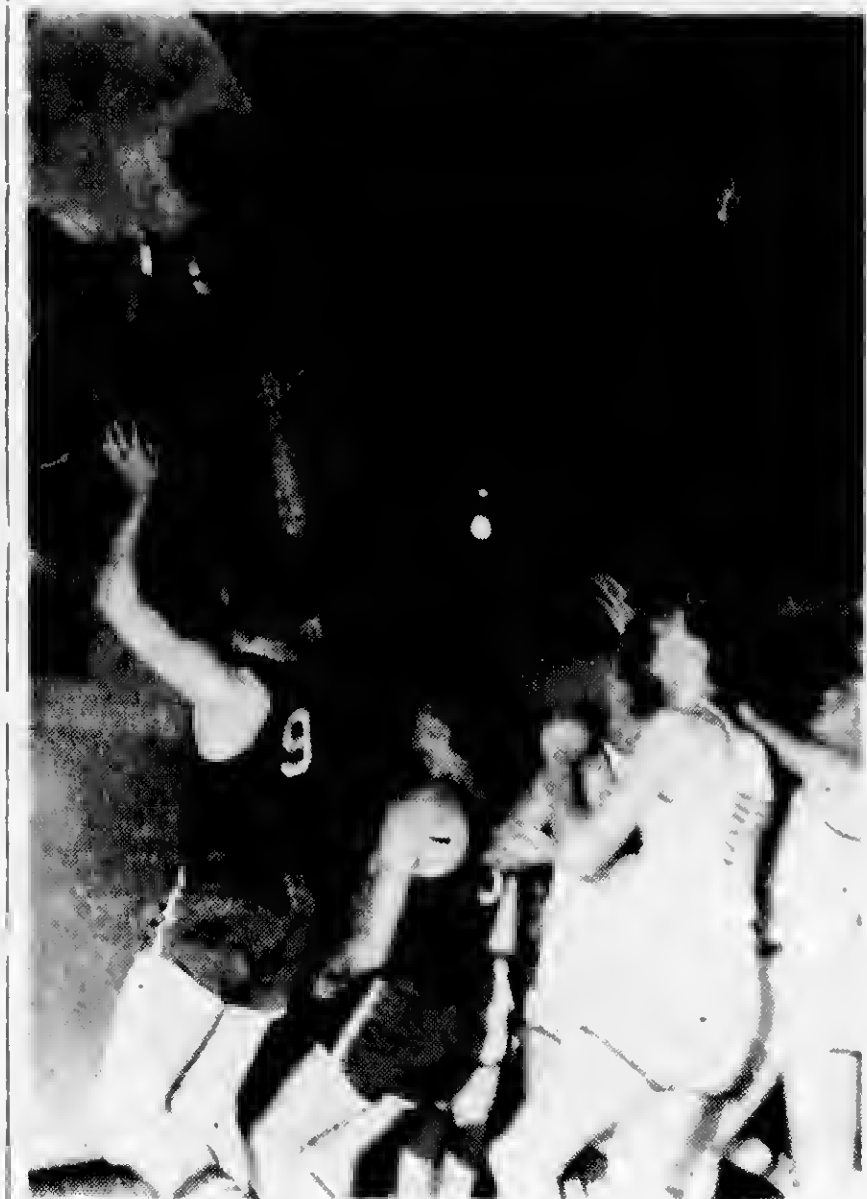

The victory came on the free throw line where the Charlevoix five was successful on 19 of 45 attempts after scoring only 12 field goals to 16 for the Rams who connected on only seven of 30 free throw tries.

In the starting line-up for the local reserves were Steve LaBlance, Glenn Bearss, Lorry Ingalls, Bob Mol and Dale Putman with Bill Pequette, Stan Horwood and Cliff Pierce seeing action later in the game.

In the first period Harbor Springs dumped in five field goals for a 10 point advantage at the quarter with the Rayders' Bearss accounting for all of Charlevoix's points on a field goal and four free throws.

Charlevoix continued to trail at the half on Bearss' field goal, Ingalls' field goal and free shot and Poquette's single from the free throw circle while the Rams added nine points on three field goals and three free throws.

In the second half, however, Charlevoix found its stride and outscored the Rams 15-11 in the third quarter and 18-9 in the final period.

Ingalls scored two field goals and four free throws; Mol added two double-pointers and two singles and Putman came through with one point as Harbor Springs scored five from the floor and one from the circle for 11 points as the Rayders cut the Rams' lead to three points at the three quarter mark.

Ingalls came through with six points in the final period; Bearss and LaBlance added four apiece and Putman and Poquette two each for the last period victory.

Ingalls with 17 points paced the scoring for the game followed by Bearss with 12 for the victors. Bernifert had 10 and Allerding nine for the Rams.

Buy Gifts For Car To Assure Safe Christmas

While you're buying gifts for the rest of the family in preparation for Christmas, don't forget your automobile. Chief of Police Clarence Heise advised Charlevoix motorists this week.

"Give your car the best winter safety job you can afford because it's the best insurance that YOU and your family will be here to celebrate Christmas," he said.

Chief Heise urged particular attention to vision and traction, particularly after the icy, blustery weather Charlevoix has had in the past two weeks. Vision depends on windshield wipers — live blades that don't smear; defrosters, all lights and rear view mirrors.

As for traction, cars lose traction dangerously on snow and ice. He noted that tire chains are recommended by the National Safety Council for ice and snow conditions because Council tests have shown that at a speed of 20 miles an hour on hard packed snow, reinforced tire chains will stop a car in about 38 ft., compared with a stopping distance of over 60 ft. for regular tires.

On glare ice, the need for reinforced type of the chains is even greater, because average skidding distances are reduced from about 200 ft. to 77 ft. even when the surface of the ice is wet.

Even though you have chains, remember they don't permit normal dry pavement speed, Chief Heise warned. They help but it's up to you to drive slowly enough to keep your automobile under control.

"Don't let carelessness spoil your family's Christmas," he said in conclusion.

Whitlow-Browe Wedding Vows Are Exchanged In Alabama Ceremony

At a quiet ceremony solemnized at the Holy Family church in Lanette, Ala., on Thanksgiving Day, Mary Ellen Whitlow of Langdale, Ala., became the bride of Airman first class Theodore E. Browe Jr., stationed at Hunter Air Force Base, Savannah, Ga.

The bride is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. John Whitlow of Langdale. Mr. and Mrs. Theodore E. Browe Sr. of this city are the parents of the bridegroom.

The Rev. Paul J. Loeffler officiated at the single ring service in the presence of their immediate families and close friends.

The bride chose a light blue afternoon dress and beige accessories for her wedding.

Shirley Yarbrough of Langdale, her only attendant, wore a pink and blue figured dress and pink accessories.

Wilfred Browe of Detroit assisted his brother as best man.

Immediately after the ceremony a wedding dinner was held at Whitney's restaurant in West Point, Ga.

Following a wedding trip to Florida, the couple will reside in Savannah, Ga.

In Langdale for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Browe Sr. and son, James, of Charlevoix and Wilfred Browe of Detroit.

Dickens Club Has Meeting Monday For Program On Art

Members of the Charles Dickens study club met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ross Alexander at Ironton.

Mrs. J. Clark Doliver had the subject "Art" for the program which followed a brief business meeting. Mrs. Doliver used the book, "Pastel Painting by Gladys Rockmore Davies," well known pastelist of modern times, as reference. Mrs. George Smith assisted with reading a thumb nail sketch of Mrs. Davies and the primary steps in making a pastel painting.

During the reading Mrs. Doliver demonstrated the various steps to the group as she did a rough-sketch of Mrs. Smith who modeled as a gypsy for the lesson.

Refreshments were served by the hostess following the program. Mrs. Ray Faulkner and Mrs. Ralph Hamilton presided at the tea table which was centered with tall tapers and a Christmas arrangement.

Johnson-Stevens Engagement Told

The engagement of Lorraine Johnson of Grand Rapids to Byard G. Stevens, also of Grand Rapids, has been announced by the bride-elect's father, Lawrence Johnson of Ewart.

The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stevens of Charlevoix.

The wedding will be an event of Jan. 14.

Raymond Schultz presided at the meeting which was under the direction of Mrs. John Cross in the absence of the regular adult advisor, Mrs. J. C. Marshall. Three mothers also attended the meeting.

William Grauel New Michigan Week Chairman

Russell Swaney, general chairman of the 1956 Michigan Week, today announced the appointment of William Grauel of East Jordan as Michigan Week chairman of Charlevoix County. Next year's celebration of the event designed to remind everyone of Michigan's greatness will be held May 20

Mr. Grauel, who is assistant cashier of the East Jordan State Bank, has taken part in numerous community projects during his six years residence in East Jordan. He is treasurer of the Community Chest campaign and the East Jordan Public Library and director for the county of the Michigan United Fund campaign.

Mr. Swaney, who heads Detroit's Federal Reserve Bank, urged all Charlevoix County people to observe Michigan Week and if possible to participate directly by contacting Mr. Grauel and offering their services.

Durward B. Varner, vice president of Michigan State University, is the recently appointed chairman of the 1956 Michigan Week Local Organization Committee.

This will be the third observance of Michigan Week, which began in 1954 and has since attracted nation-wide attention. In addition to the interest generated within the state and its communities, an estimated 15 million people all over the country have heard of Michigan's greatness on radio, television, and in national magazines.

Last year Michigan communities participated in the celebration with parades, special store exhibits, pageants, and speeches—all telling of Michigan's inspiring past, exciting present, and promising future. Mr. Swaney expressed the hope that with the early organization of the local committee next May's observance will be the most memorable Michigan Week yet.

and in nearly every case there are significant gains under the new proposed plan.

Polls have been established in all major schools in the county including Charlevoix, East Jordan, Boyne City, Boyne Falls and Walloon Lake with rural teachers advised of the polls where they are to cast their ballots.

The county superintendent of schools will serve as chairman of the election board with each of the local superintendents serving as board members. In each of the five voting precincts election officials have been appointed from both teaching and non-teaching personnel whose duty will be to carry out the details of the actual voting. Each board member will report to the county superintendent who, in turn, will submit the final results for his entire county to the state office.

Some cast iron fry pans and Dutch ovens come seasoned and ready to use; if seasoned, a utensil will be labeled. Others need to be rubbed with unsalted fat and left in a warm oven for several hours before using. Michigan State University home economists say to prevent rusting, dry cast iron utensils thoroughly after each use.

Fertilizer applied to fruit trees in the fall allows the trees to make quick use of it in the spring. Potash and phosphorus fertilizers can be applied to all fruit trees in the fall but wait until spring for nitrogen.

Top dressing pastures this fall means you can turn cattle in a week earlier in the spring, say MSU soils specialists.

Says Pine Trees Most Suitable For Christmas Greenery

In Michigan, the most common kinds of trees that provide greenery for holiday decorations are red or Norway pine, jack, Scotch and white pine, balsam fir, white cedar, juniper, and black, white and Norway spruce.

The best of these for indoor Christmas decorations, explains Joseph T. Cox, extension specialist in landscape architecture at Michigan State University, are the pines the firs and the cedars.

Both hemlock and spruces are good for exterior wreaths and sprays, but when they are brought into a warm building, they may lose their needles within a week. Of the pines, white pine is easiest to work with, because the stems are thin and the foliage soft and bushy. Juniper provides excellent decorative material, but it is hard to use because of its very sharp-pointed scale-like leaves.

Cox suggests you don't overlook your own yard. Perhaps some of your garden and lawn evergreens need trimming. If you do this, be sure to trim them carefully with a sharp knife or sharp pruning shears. Make the cut close to the tree limb so that no ugly stub is left.

Also remember that all evergreens should be cut with a sharp knife or shears so that the wounds heal quickly. Proper trimming can improve a tree's appearance and stimulate growth. Trimming in late November and December appears to do no harm to forest or garden evergreens.

Cox warns that collecting greenery from federal or state lands is prohibited without the permission of the forester or conservation officer in charge.

It pays to keep eggs in a storage cooler even in the winter months, says Larry Dawson, MSU poultry researcher.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Wilson and family spent a few days here recently.

Johnny La Freniere arrived last week to spend a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pat La Freniere.

Howard Pakquin of Fennville, spent the weekend on the island.

Harry Griffin, Bruce Cotanche and Kenneth Tillison of Walloon Lake were recent visitors here.

Patrol boat No. 1 spent Sunday night on the island.

Mr. and Mrs. George Donat left Monday to spend a few days on the mainland. Ronald O'Donnell left last week for Grand Rapids where he expects to spend the winter.

Mrs. Francis Mooney spent a few days on the mainland recently.

Last Thursday evening the monthly meeting of Civic Association was held in Parish Hall.

Donald Cole was on a business trip to the mainland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Gallagher left Monday to spend the winter in Chicago.

Dick Martin returned home last week after being in Charlevoix for the past month or so.

Making Habit Your Friend

An animal's habits can be its undoing. Hunters know this and take ready advantage of the tendency wild creatures have of regularly eating at a certain time of the day and always resting at a particular time or place. Hunters are aware that a fox has a definite circuit he follows in his travels. They aim to be nearby when next he passes and ambush the poor fellow. Clever as he is, a red fox can be caught or trapped, and most easily by knowing his habits and letting them lead to his demise.

Personally, I'm not fond of either trapping or shooting foxes. I would far rather melt into the deep shadows of a forest's edge and watch a bronze-red sheen of fur, with brush held high, emerge from a wooded hill and steal on soundless feet across a pasture searching for meadow-mice. But always when I am treated to the sight of a wild animal so engaged in his habitual round of feeding and resting, chasing prey or eluding predators that he is unaware of my nearness, I am conscious, too, that another watcher armed and seeking a victim rather than a view, might readily make the animal's habits work his ruin.

Grouse and wild turkey hunters seek out the places where their game habitually feeds. Deer hunters watch the trails regularly used by their prey as they pass from feeding grounds to resting places. Big game men take advantage of the Kodiak bear's practice of sweeping salmon from Alaskan rivers and devouring them. There the hunters wait and the giant bears fall, martyrs of habituation.

Humans are as apt to be ambushed by their habits as are any other creatures. Sir Walter Scott, when a boy, aspired to be at the head of his class in school. But another youngster held that coveted position, and no amount of study or contriving seemed to help the future author storm that scholastic stronghold. The opposition held on stubbornly. Then one day young Walter discovered his opponent's weakness. The bright young fellow had a habit that might possibly bring about his downfall. Whenever the lad was called upon for answering questions, he always recited while fumbling with a certain button on his waistcoat. A demonic plot formed in little Walter's fertile mind.

A few days later, Walter Scott appeared in class far more self-confident than usual. His head was light and giddy from breathing the air of imminent success. Within the day, he was sure, he would be the top scholar of his class. Time for recitation arrived. The boy at the head of the class was called upon. As the teacher announced the questions, the boy reached for his waistcoat button. But there was no magical fumbling ritual that day, nor any easy spilling of the right answers. The friendly, confidence-inspiring button was gone, and with it his presence of mind! The scholar groped for ideas and words, but they were nowhere to be found. Walter, seeing his long-hoped-for opportunity, answered the questions, snatched first place in his class, and held it throughout the school year.

Later in life Sir Walter Scott, then a world-renowned writer, related the incident, adding, "I have often met him since we entered the world and never without feeling my conscience reproach me. I frequently resolved to make him some amends by rendering him a service, but no opportunity presented itself, and I fear I did not seek one with the same ardor with which I sought to supplant him at school. But this weak little habit of fumbling with the button was his undoing."

Many a person headed for a worthy goal in life has been defeated by a habit. It may be the practice of taking the easiest course of action rather than the soundest one. It might be tardiness, boasting, petty or extreme criticism, inattention to what is going on, nagging, touchiness, intoxication, or narcotics. Cynicism is the mental habit of looking at the worst side of everything. The word "cynic" comes from a Greek word meaning "doglike" — carrying the head down like a dog rather than up like a man. A cynic is one who habitually walks with his nose to the ground, sensitive to stench, not stars. Whatever the particular practice, there are few tragedies so disheartening as that of a person of high purpose brought low by a bad habit.

Unfortunately, the word "habit" has only a repugnant meaning to most people. When the term is used, a bad habit comes to mind. While it is true that a fox's regular practices may lead to his sudden death from a hunter's bullet or a trapper's snare, it is well to remember that it was habit that kept him alive UNTIL he was shot — habits of hunting for and snatching prey for food that he learned as a cub at the mouth of his mother's den. Habit can be made to work for life as well as death, and for our improvement as well as our collapse.

We gain proficiency in the realm of the spirit much as we do in the province of the physical — by repeated practice. If our vices are habits, so are our virtues. A principle of good living is to find what actions are useful and which ones improve a person's personality and character. Then practice those actions until they become automatic. Cheerfulness is the habit of acting in a hopeful, good-humored way until geniality is automatic. Dependability, tolerance, humility, consideration, tidiness, generosity, and restraint are virtues fashioned by behaving in a right spirit deliberately, often with great effort, and then behaving in that way again and again until one need not ask himself how he will behave THIS time. At last, right behavior is one's natural behavior.

Staying away from church is a habit. So is going to church. The fact that "church attendance is a habit," as some non-churchgoers protest, need not prevent one from getting good from worship any more than eating dinner regularly at 8 p.m. need prevent digestion and assimilation. Automatic church attendance, like automatically going to work, or regular meals, or a set time of arising, is a sound and wise habit, sparing you the involved problem of weighing whether or not it should be done THIS time. There is one area of life removed from the tension of indecision or wrong decision.

Rodin, when a struggling sculptor, often became profoundly discouraged. He frequently had a vision of a lovely carving he felt he must bring into being. But he couldn't chisel it into marble. When faced with such frustration, he would lay down his tools, brush the marble dust from his garments, and go to the Louvre. There he would spend a while among the statues fashioned centuries before by the great Greek sculptors. Looking at their classic simplicity and symmetry and pondering on their perfection, he would say to himself, "It can be done, because it has been done. There it is." Then he would return to his studio refreshed, with a renewed faith. And with that new inspiration he used the old tools in the old studio in a new way. Worship does a similar thing for us: it lifts our eyes beyond our failures to Christ. We see in Him life as it should be lived, and we feel "It can be done, because it has been done."

We return to the old circumstances with a renewed faith and purpose. Then we do a Christlike deed, although it is most difficult. Later we do a Christlike thing saying, "Well, I did it once before." And at last we do a Christlike thing because we have done it repeatedly and it is automatic. We have made a habit of Christlike behavior.

Love 'n' kisses go to Mrs. W. J. McKay, a former resident of Charlevoix who is now living in Oscoda. She read about the call we issued in the Courier for volunteer layette workers and immediately wrote Jane Gilbert for the material... and EVEN sent money for postage. In appreciation, we elect Mrs. McKay as our Beyond the Line of Duty Member of the week. We should have a BLMDW award... how's about it!

Another award should be presented to Mrs. Samuel Friedman of Cincinnati... the MRCCIGIL award... to the Member Responsible for Getting the Charlevoix Hospital Guild Interested in Layettes.

That's all for this week, girls... we'll pass out more awards next week, we hope.

than a system of well-established good habits. One of the soundest principles for great living is to look for the best, then make the very best your habit. The more you behave in the best possible way, the harder it will become to behave in any other way.

The Edward W. Sparrow Hospital, Lansing

"When you're running a hospital, as I am, you can really see the value of Blue Cross..."

Past President of the Michigan Hospital Association, member of the American College of Hospital Administrators, and Director of the 291-bed Sparrow Hospital, Mr. Glen Fausey knows the importance of hospital protection that keeps abreast of today's hospital costs. "The way Blue Cross protects its members," he says, "it's easy to see why more than half of our patients have it."

says Mr. Glen Fausey, Director,
Edward W. Sparrow Hospital, Lansing

"If you have the same hospitalization coverage you had, let us say, five years ago, and you are paying the same rates, you have something that will not do a job for you in our hospital. I don't know of a hospital where it will do a real job for you."

"You see, our costs have gone up more than 35 per cent during the past five years. The first requirement of realistic hospitalization coverage is that it keep up with hospital costs."

"This is why we are for Blue Cross. Blue Cross benefits always keep up with the times. They give you protection in terms of today's hospital costs and the requirements of today's hospital practice."

"Most people have learned to appreciate this fact. More than half of our patients have Blue Cross - Blue Shield."

Perhaps your own yard has trees and shrubs which would provide decorative greenery for the holiday season. Foresters at Michigan State suggest Douglas fir, yew, arbutus and holly as appropriate. But, they caution, trim your evergreens carefully. Make cuts with a sharp knife or sharp pruning shears. Also make the cut close to the tree limb so that no ugly stub is left.

Nuts, a favorite holiday food, keep better in the shell than out of the shell and unsalted nuts keep better than salted. All nuts keep better at a cold temperature than in a warm place. MSU food specialists say you can keep shelled nuts for a year in tight containers in home freezers.

Dear Farm Friends:

In the past year 65,830 farm families in this state joined hands "to do together what none can do alone." Our goal is to develop a program that "will do the most good for the greatest number of people." It is a program which has a "must appeal to all patriotic citizens." It is merely practicing good citizenship.

Farm Bureau has a legislative program that is second to none for farm people.

It has a service program that has been developed and expanded consistently, backed by sound business practices.

Some of the services are Farm Bureau Insurance designed expressly for farm people. We have pioneered a new method of petroleum distribution, also pioneered high analysis fertilizer results in saving in freight and handling.

Most farm people are aware of Farm Bureau quality seed program and promotion of effective legislation to insure quality. We of Farm Bureau also were the first to use an "open formula" feed program. Farm supply volume of Farm Bureau Services, Inc., totaled $21,500,000—up more than a million dollars over last year.

Growth of Farm Bureau Insurances continue to be spectacular, over $45,000,000 in fire insurance alone. Farm Bureau Life Insurance, only four years old, has written over $54,000,000.

Farmers' Petroleum Co-op., Inc., rendered nearly $5,000,000 worth of volume in the last fiscal year.

The record shows that in the state legislature of 1955 32 bills favored by the State Farm Bureau were passed by both houses. Twenty-four measures opposed by the State Farm Bureau were defeated. A remarkable record by any comparison.

Farm Bureau also has a program for every member, a Junior Farm Bureau leadership training and community betterment in our youth, a comprehensive women's program. The Women of Farm Bureau have organized committees in every Farm Bureau county, 65 in all. Their program includes, nurse recruitment, Pennies for Friendship, Sister Kenny program and a foreign student program.

Farm Bureau adult education and citizenship program is "second to none."

Your Charlevoix County Farm Bureau wishes to review some of the Farm Bureau program on a county level. The past year has been a year of progress in Farm Bureau. We have had a lot of splendid support and many people have contributed much time, effort and money voluntarily which has resulted in two new programs.

First, after much ground work and study, the Charlevoix County Livestock Marketing Service was put into operation. It is a service which provides a good marketing service for all classes of livestock at the St. Louis Auction which is a branch of Michigan Livestock Exchange, working in close conjunction with Farm Bureau people and college extension specialists. It has been of definite service to the county and warrants continued support. There also is a comprehensive field service that is available under this project. A trained livestock man will advise and make sound recommendations on any of your livestock marketing or production problems. This service is available to any farmer in the county on request. Just notify your trucker to St. Louis, Lyle Smith of East Jordan, phone LE nox 6-7161.

In May of 1955 the Charlevoix County Farm Bureau, after months of study and ground work, initiated the program of direct distribution of petroleum products in the county. This program brings petroleum products direct from the refinery to the farm. The quality of these products is the same high quality of all Farm Bureau products. Our aim is to deliver the highest quality product to the farmer at the lowest possible cost. The program has been very successful and we are very confident of rapid growth in this field.

The Charlevoix County Farm Bureau has Blue Cross available in group form which every one recognizes as one of the best protection available.

In our insurance program we have fire insurance, auto insurance and life insurance which is designed for rural people and it is highly desirable. Liability insurance is also available.

We have a very active Junior Farm Bureau with a good program for rural youth.

Our Women's Committee is very active and is interested in all aspects of the women's program of the Michigan Farm Bureau.

Sincerely,
Charlevoix County Farm Bureau

goes up AGAIN

And so does the thrill!
- with Buick's new Variable Pitch Dynaflo!

WITH ALL the big excitement of Buick's 1956 styling and power and ride and handling—it's easy to overlook this fact:

Gas mileage in the '56 Buicks takes a big step upward.
One reason, of course, is the new power plant itself.

Every new Buick cradles an advanced 322-cubic-inch V8 engine with the highest horsepower, Series for Series, in all Buick history. Yet every engine delivers more efficiency, and more usable power to the rear wheels—because each one has a new double "Y" mani-folding, and a new high in compression ratio.

But the major reason for the happy news in gas mileage —and for the new step-up in safety and thrills—is Buick's latest version of Variable Pitch Dynaflo.

In this airplane-principled transmission, you always had a gas-saving cruising range—and, at a switch of the pitch, a full-power getaway range.

Now Buick engineers have brought to this cruising range what they call "double regeneration." It simply means a new way to make flowing oil add to its own velocity to build up driving force.

Rev., Mrs. Struthers Will Speak Sunday At Church Of God

The Rev. and Mrs. Charles Struthers, missionaries to Jamaica who have been on a year's furlough here while attending Ball State College in Indiana, will speak at the 11 a.m. service at the Community Church of God Sunday, the Rev. George L. Majors, pastor of the church, has announced.

Both the Rev. and Mrs. Struthers recently received their master's degrees from Ball State College where they have been students for the past year. Prior to that time they had served as missionaries in Jamaica. They will return later this month to Kingston, Jamaica to continue their work at the Bible Institute there.

Their sons, John and Frederick, will accompany them on their return after attending school in Anderson, Ind., where the family has been living.

The Rev. Mr. Struthers is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Struthers of this city. Mrs. Struthers, the former Florence Palmer, is the daughter of Mrs. John Funk, now of Traverse City and the late William Palmer.

Fun For All; Reading Aloud At Yule Time

Reading aloud is one of the most delightful ways for the whole family to share Christmas joys, declares Grace Harrison. Miss Harrison is an instructor in the child development department at Michigan State University and Christmas poems, stories and legends that appeal to the youngest as well as the oldest members of a family.

The preschooler may catch the feeling of the story, she explains, even though he doesn't understand every word. Or, he may like the sound or the rhythm.

For those reading selections especially directed toward children, Miss Harrison suggests "The Long Christmas" by Ruth Sawyer and "Told Under the Christmas Tree," a collection by the Association for Childhood Education.

One of Miss Harrison's favorite suggestions is to gather around the fireplace and reread the account of Tiny Tim's Christmas dinner or Donner and Blitzen's ride through the air. And, for new volumes with treasures you haven't met, she reminds that your public library is an excellent place to go.

Miss Harrison adds a few more suggestions to her list of family Christmas reading. She asks, "Do you remember Louisa Alcott's description of Little Women making merry of a meager Christmas?" Or, "Bat and Mole's activities in the Wind in the Willows by Kenneth Grahame?" Miss Harrison also suggests for fine reading aloud Eugene Field's "Why Do the Bells of Christmas Ring?"

Farm Economics Session To Be Held On Friday

"I rented out 40 acres to my neighbor on shares this year and that income be counted for social security purposes?" "What form do I use — and when do I have to file my report?"

These and countless other questions regarding social security for farmers will be answered at the 1956 Barnyard Economics program Friday afternoon, Dec. 16, Ed Reisman, Charlevoix county agricultural agent, announced. The meeting, to begin promptly at 2 p.m. and will be held at the Court House in Charlevoix.

Information on social security will be only one portion of the two-hour meeting. National farm issues will also be discussed. Russell Mawby, agricultural economist from Michigan State University, will assist the county extension office with the program.

All phases of the social security program pertaining to farmers and farm workers will be discussed, Reisman indicated. Included will be information on coverage, cost of the program, benefits, options available in reporting, income excluded for social security purposes, records, and reports necessary, and management practices.

A representative from the Social Security Administration field office at Traverse City, will be on hand to assist with individual problems.

Features of farm programs now being considered, with background information, will be presented as another highlight of the meeting. "Farmers will be interested in this farm policy debate since some of the 'off the farm' policy decisions are of major importance in the success or failure of individual farms."

Plans Made By Cancer Society For New Year

Tentative plans for the American Cancer Society in Charlevoix county were made at a meeting of the executive committee held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. E. E. Wade in East Jordan.

Charlevoix was represented at the meeting by Mrs. Charles Bellinger and Mrs. J. C. Marshall. The budget for 1956 was set at $635.00 for the county. Funds on hand will be utilized thus making it possible to cut the budget.

The county chapter is anxious for the public to know that cancer dressings are available to any resident of the county needing them. The chapter is also prepared to offer transportation to cancer patients who must have x-ray treatments. Anyone desiring either may contact Mrs. Marshall or Mrs. Bellinger.

It was reported that Mrs. Ronald Scott is conducting a smoking survey in the county and will report on her findings at a future meeting.

A contribution to the chapter has been given in money of C. W. Hipp of East Jordan. Memorial cards are now available. Mrs. Bellinger said, and may be obtained locally by calling her or Mrs. Marshall.

Plans for a program of education and service will be discussed at a general meeting to be held next month. It is hoped to get up a program of films to be loaned to various service clubs as a beginning in the education program.

Annual Christmas Ball To Be Held On December 27

The annual Christmas ball sponsored by the senior class of the Charlevoix high school, will be presented at the high school gymnasium Tuesday, Dec. 27, it was announced this week.

The king and queen of the Christmas ball will be named during the next week. The coronation of the pair will be a highlight of the ball.

"Stairway to the Stars" will be the theme of the ball, one of the most important events during the holiday season.

Co-Operative Holds Annual Meeting Here

The Charlevoix Co-operative Company held its annual meeting at the V. F. W. post home Monday night with 110 stockholders and interested persons in attendance.

Fred W. Willis, manager of the local cooperative, reported that the company had had a successful year which would allow $5,000 of the oldest outstanding stock certificates in the company to be retired and the payment of four per cent interest on the outstanding common and preferred stock.

Ray Bohnsack of the Farm Bureau Services of Lansing addressed the group. His subject was co-operatives services and how they benefit the farmer.

At the election of directors, L. E. McGhan, Ole Nielsen and George Smith were re-elected for two year terms.

Mr. McGhan presided at the meeting. Rowley Williams, secretary, read the minutes of the 1954 meeting.

The meeting opened with the showing of the film, "We," by Leonard Burns. The Four Goons, a comedy quartet composed of Quinn Walker, Terry Davis, Joe Etienne and Kit Carson, sang several selections.

Winners of the prizes offered were Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan Root, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Brock.

Large Group Meets To Organize A Parent-Teacher Association

More than 100 residents of the Charlevoix school district gathered at the Charlevoix high school band room Wednesday night to discuss the matter of forming a Parent-Teachers association.

Mrs. Robert G. Martin, serving as temporary chairman, introduced Mrs. Frank Dombroski, supervisor in Petoskey school; H. C. Spitzer, superintendent of Petoskey schools; Mrs. Harold Hayner, president of the Petoskey area P. T. A. council, and Mrs. Merlin Farrier of Ithaca, director of District 14 of the Michigan Congress of Parent and Teacher who spoke briefly on what P. T. A. meant to them as a teacher, a school administrator and a parent.

Trophies, Medals To Be Awarded In Area Tournament

Trophies and medals will be awarded to the winning teams and to the all-tournament teams selected during the forthcoming Northern Michigan Independent basketball tournament to be held here Dec. 28-29-30. Del Terrill tournament manager, has announced.

A large team trophy will be presented to the winning team with small gold medals going to the members of the tournament champions. Silver medals will be presented to the runners-up in the tournament.

Five individual trophies will be given to an all-tournament team. Tom LaBlance and Bobo Bennett, former Rayder stars now serving in the armed forces, will serve as officials of the tournament in which six northern Michigan independent teams will participate.

Rennie Oil of Traverse City will replace Traverse City State hospital in the tournament, Mr. Terrill said.

Charlevoix Hospital Receives Grant From The Ford Foundation

The Charlevoix hospital was among the 3,500 voluntary, non-profit hospitals in the United States to share in the $500 million grant being offered by the Ford Foundation.

The Charlevoix hospital has been notified in a telegram that it will receive a grant of $12,600 to be used for improvement of or addition to facilities or service; additions to or training of personnel or conducting research.

The fund cannot be used for operating expenses for services currently being performed by the hospital. Fred W. Willis, chairman of the Charlevoix hospital board of directors, said Wednesday that the grant came as a complete surprise and at this time no plans had been made by the board of directors for utilizing the unexpected 'Christmas' gift. He added, however, that there were many places where it could be used.

The amount of each grant was computed on the basis of patient days of service provided by the hospital and the number of births in the hospital. Patient days reflect the extent to which a hospital is used. Days of care given in newborn infants are not shown in the patient-day tabulation; therefore, the number of births is added to patient days as a measure of an important hospital service.

Computation of grants is based on reports from each hospital to the American Hospital association of which hospitals receiving grants were members. Other hospitals in the area benefiting from the grant are Little Traverse hospital of Petoskey which will receive $66,200; Lockwood general hospital of Petoskey, $22,000; Munson hospital of Traverse City, $32,000; Osego County Memorial hospital of Gaylord, $11,900; Community Memorial hospital of Cheboygan, $12,600.

Henry Stephan, Miss Lulu Mason, Melvin Jones, Mrs. Vernon Mathews, Sanford Matchett, Raymond Griffin, Guy Bost and Charles Svoboda. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the business meeting.

Cards reminding area residents to buy Christmas seals have been mailed by MTA. The cards carry a reproduction of two children who have tuberculosis. Their cases were discovered after many weeks of careful follow-up of known cases in the northern part of the state.

The cards ask "Did you forget?" Charlevoix county cannot afford to forget, Mr. Eddy said for TB is an infectious disease and every family is subject to attack by tuberculosis.

The children pictured are but two of more than 400 youngsters who each year are found among the unknown number of children with TB. They are infected by persons who are ignorant of the fact that they are spreading TB or who willfully ignore early warning of the disease.

There is no effective vaccine to protect children or adults from this disease which still kills more Michigan residents than all other infectious diseases combined, Mr. Eddy concluded.

Tough Trees and Strong Souls

Each year, after apple-blossom time, the trees in our little Hidden Brook orchard begin growing small green apples. As summer moves toward fall and apples increase in size the burden of fruit grows heavier on each limb until by fall the weight a good tree must support amounts to hundreds of pounds. Then branches bend low enough for deer to nibble the succulent fruit upon the boughs, but the limbs seldom break. Over the centuries since wild apple trees, bearing miniature, sour fruit, became domesticated and cultivated to yield a harvest of larger, more luscious product, this fruit tree has grown in strength sufficient to bear its heavier burdens. It has developed the needed firmness of fiber to withstand a weightier load.

Name the "hardwoods" and among them you will find most prominent those trees that have a heavier burden to bear. Oaks, walnuts and hickories, cherry trees and apple trees, and many others, between spring and fall develop an oppressive load of nuts and fruits that put strain upon their limbs and demand an inner strength. And when strength is called for, it is there. Early American pioneers, knowing of the toughness of the hardwoods trees, made agricultural implements, wagons and chairs from the oaks, cabinets, cradles, furniture and gunstocks from black walnut, axe handles and wagon hubs from shellbark hickory, and cabinets from cherry. Apple wood is of so fine a grain and so extremely hard that when stained black it often passes for ebony. Small cog wheels, shoe lasts, buttons and furniture were made of apple wood by the early American frontiersmen.

Big burdens either break trees or develop their strength. Given larger and heavier weights to carry, a person, like a tree, either falls under them or grows a stronger character. Hardwood trees and sturdy souls, alike, are developed by burden-bearing.

ODDS 'N' ENDS

By Fran Martin

Had a grand chat the other day with Mrs. C. F. Wood who returned recently from a trip east with Mr. W. to visit their family. Their son, Bob, is with G.E. in Syracuse, N.Y., and while she was there she watched color television most of the time. Gee, when most of us are satisfied to have the old black and white kind she's talking about the colored kind. But it must be beautiful. Imagine getting television in technicolor. Really, one can hardly imagine it and yet she tells me, being so close to New York, one sees a lot of it out there. And of course G.E. is one of the many companies doing extensive research on the project.

One thing missing this holiday season will be the annual Yesper Concert on the Sunday afternoon before Christmas. That's because the fellow who has directed the Community Choir for these past years has been in the hospital. . . . where that pesky ulcer of his has been getting the 'works'. Sure hope he's out again before too long and back in school. . . . where he's missed. . . . and how. We hope too that all those other people we know will either be out of the hospital, that is. . . . or better, come the big holiday.

With Christmas little more than a week away and with all of you busier by the day, I would like to take this opportunity to wish all my friends who might read this column my best for a happy, happy holiday season. Christmas to me is probably my favorite time of the year because it signifies so much. Everywhere, if you look, you find reminders of that first Christmas. . . . the creches, the Christmas cards, the carols telling the oft-told story so beautifully, the sermons in our churches, the spirit of giving. . . . even the stars seem brighter at this wonderful, wonderful time when we return, in spirit, to the scene in the manger in Bethlehem.

Christmas has always meant a lot to me. It's the one time in the year when I would like to say hello to everyone, just everyone I've ever known and wish them the best of everything for Christmas and the new year. It's the time of the year that I wish I had the means to give every kid the world over everything he wanted for Christmas. But since those things are quite impossible I would like to send you not only my own personal Christmas wishes but those of the entire Courier staff in this greeting written more than four centuries ago by Fra Giovanni which says so beautifully what we all wish for you this Christmas 1955. . . .

I am your friend and my love for you goes deep. There is nothing I can give you which you have not got; But there is much, very much, that while I cannot give it, You can take.

No heaven can come to us unless our hearts Find rest in today. Take Heaven! No peace lies in the future which is not hidden In this present little instant. Take Peace!

The gloom of the world is but a shadow.

Behind it, yet within our reach, is Joy.

There is radiance and glory in the darkness,

Could we but see, and to see, we have only to look.

I beseech you to look.

Life is so generous a giver, but we,

Judging its gifts by their covering,

Cast them away as ugly, or heavy, or hard.

Remove the covering, and you will find beneath it A living splendor, woven of love, by wisdom, with power.

Welcome it, grasp it, and you touch the Angel's hand that brings it to you.

Everything we call a trial, a sorrow, or a duty,

Believe me, the Angel's hand is there; the gift is there,

And the wonder of an overshadowing Presence.

Our joys too; be not content with them as joys.

They, too, conceal Diviner gifts.

Life is so full of meaning and purpose,

So full of Beauty—beneath its covering—

That you will find earth but cloaks your heaven.

Courage then to claim it; that is all!

But courage you have; and the knowledge that we Are pilgrims together, Wending through unknown country, home.

And so, at this time, I greet you. Not quite as the world sends greetings,

But with a profound esteem and with the prayer

That for you now and forever, The day breaks, and the shadows flee away.

Now that you've seen the Ray ders in action, what do you think?

High School Band Festival Held Here

Approximately 250 young high school musicians from 14 northern Michigan schools gathered here Saturday for the annual District II Michigan Band and Orchestra Association Solo and Ensemble Festival held at the Charlevoix high school.

Adjudicators who heard the entries play in more than 150 separate events for which they were rated and criticized were Leonard Falcone of Michigan State University, Norman Dietz of Central Michigan college, Arthur Hill of Holland and Theodore Pryogle of Grand Rapids.

Charlevoix's entries, limited because of the illness of their director, C. A. Odmarr, won one first and two second division ratings. Donno Durance and Carol Duerr playing a flute duet accompanied by Mrs. Leonard Burns won a first division rating and Ellen Miller, playing a cello solo and a brass quartet composed of Janet and Susan Crump, Pat Bulow and Roberto Mayne, accompanied by David Miles, won second division ratings.

First division winners are eligible to enter the state solo and ensemble festival to be held in southern Michigan later this year.

For cereal topping at the family breakfast table, offer a choice of cinnamon - sugar mixture, brown sugar, corn or maple syrup, jam or preserves. They are equally good on hot or cold cereals, declare food specialists at Michigan State University.

As soon as your Christmas tree is brought home, throw cold water all over it, and then cut off the butt end about an inch slantwise to open pores for drawing up water. Set the tree in water and keep it cool and shaded until it comes indoors for trimming.

Oysters, nuts, raisins, sausage, cooked cranberries, mushrooms, and tart apples make interesting additions to dry or moist stuffings.

College Classes Will Continue At Petoskey School

The freshman college classes which have been conducted during the fall months by Central Michigan college in cooperation with the Petoskey Board of Education will be continued next semester, A. D. Shankland, director of Adult Education at the Petoskey high school has announced.

Registration for these classes will be held at the Petoskey high school on Friday, Jan. 6. Classes to be offered will be English 102 for a certainty with at least one more course being selected from the following list: Speech 101 and Speech 102; Personnel 101; Sociology 152; Biology 151; Geography 101.

It is emphasized that prospective students contact Mr. Shankland as soon as possible regarding enrollment in the course. A decision must be made before registration time as to what classes will be offered and the only way this can be done is for the public to make its wishes known, Mr. Shankland said.

The majority of the students who have been enrolled in the classes during the past few months have been enthusiastic about them and are anxious to take more of the same type of work.

The classes are open to any high school graduate or any adult over 21 years who may make application as a special student. The student will receive regular college credits for these courses.

Christmas Theme Of W.S.C.S Meet At Methodist Church

Christmas was the theme of the meeting of the Women's Society to Christian Service held Monday evening at the Methodist church with 34 members present.

Plans for a Women's Society library at the church were discussed and members who had books suitable for the library were asked to contribute them to the new project.

Plans were also made to prepare Christmas baskets for the shut-ins of the church.

The theme of Christmas also was carried out in the program which was presented by Mrs. Harry Stewart and included three readings, "The Perfect Gift," "Lost Melody" and "The Blue Shawl." Mrs. Joseph Arvilla presented the devotion, "The Christmas Thief," "The Shoemaker's Story," concluding with the "Lord's Prayer."

The meeting opened and closed with the singing of familiar Christmas carols.

Members of the B. P. & M. circle served refreshments at a table decorated in a Christmas motif.

"FEELING LOW?"

Pastor, First Congregational Church, Charlevoix

UPLIFTING LESSONS LEARNED FROM NATURE

What readers are saying about "Feeling Low?"

"A superbly beautiful book! Beautiful in illustrations. Beautiful in words. Beautiful in thoughts. Beautiful in high purpose!"

—A Michigan Methodist Minister

"We sent . . . extra copies as far west as Oregon and to several spots in Kentucky. It's such a joy to send something that you know is going to be of so much pleasure."

—An Illinois Housewife

"(The) nature-story parables are only matched by (the) excellent sketches! Just to look at them in a prayerful way is like singing the glories of God's creation and greatness in 'The Psalms.'"

—A Virginia Catholic Priest

"A nervous breakdown caused me to lose all interest in reading and life in general. (This) book was the first thing that held my interest; after pulling through many things for several weeks, I feel that it opened the door toward my recovery. I am reading 'FEELING LOW?' for the second time."

Charlevoix Defeats East Jordan By 58-42 Score

Rayders Face Tough Fives Friday, Tuesday

The Charlevoix Rayders racked up their first win of the 1955-56 season Friday by defeating East Jordan 58-42.

The Rayders, who seem to be shaping up after their 47-45 loss to Harbor Springs will be playing two tough opponents during the next week when they meet the Grayling Vikings in the local gym tomorrow (Friday) night and journey to Boyne City to take on the high-scoring Boyne City Ramblers Tuesday night. Both have records of two wins and are sharing first place in league standings with Pellston.

The two teams have much in common for both are composed of returning veterans or lettermen. Boyne City, however, is a much taller and higher-scoring team. The Viking have not shown the aggressiveness that past Grayling teams have had nor is this team as tall. However, they can be expected to improve as the season progresses.

In the game here Friday night, Garry Vancierberg, Guy Swanson, Quint Walker, Kenny Blach and Charles Dennis started for the Rayders with the remainder of the roster entering the line-up before the game ended. This included Joe Etienne, Norm Helms, Walt Poquette, Kit Carson, Joel Arvilla, Phil Timmer, Terry Davis, Jerry Gahn, Norm Cook and Bill Kolker.

The Rayders scored first in the game when Dennis dumped in two free throws but Ray Walker of East Jordan countered with two more to tie the score before Swanson put the Rayders ahead with a bucket.

Dick Johnson and Larry Woodcock connected for field goals to put the Jordanites in the lead, but Quint Walker came back to tie the score with two free throws. Woodcock scored a field goal with Swanson again knottling the score before Ed Darbee sank a long one to make the score 10-8. Vandenberg with a field goal and a free throw put the Rayders in the lead when Swanson sank a field goal but it did not count because he was fouled at mid-court. He missed the try but Walker scored a two-point.

East Jordan stole the ball on a quick play and Woodcock let go with a long shot which connected and the Jordanites were back in the game. Walker, however, connected with a lay-up shot and the score stood at 15-12. Etienne went into the game for Balch. Woodcock missed a gift shot and a few plays later Walker scored one free throw. Darbee scored from the free throw line to end the quarter with the Rayders ahead 16-13.

continued to outscore the visitors, tallying 17 points to 10 for the Red Devils. Dennis came up with three field goals. Walker with five points, two field goals and a free throw. Vandenberg scored a field goal and two gift shots and Etienne added two free throws. Arvilla entered the game for Walker as the Rayders took a 33-23 halftime advantage. Darbee and Johnson scored three points each and Jerry Harrington and Ray Walker a field goal each for the Devils.

Class 'C' Teams Step Up Action Before Holiday Season Lay-Off

Action in the Northern Michigan Class C league will be stepped up during the next week as most teams in the loop play Friday night and again on Tuesday to fill schedule commitments prior to a two-week holiday lay-off.

Friday will find two first place teams, Boyne City and Pellston, meeting on the Hornets' floor; Harbor Springs entertaining East Jordan; Gaylord traveling to Mancelona and Charlevoix hosting the third first-place team, Grayling.

On Tuesday the defending champions, the Charlevoix Rayders, will play at Boyne City; Gaylord will travel to Grayling; and Harbor Springs will entertain Pellston. Mancelona and East Jordan who met last Tuesday will be idle.

The Charlevoix-Petoskey game to be played here Dec. 23 will be the last game before the holidays. The Boyne City-Pellston game will be the top game this Friday with the pair battling it out for possession of first place in league standings.

Free throws in the third period while Vandenberg scored 14 points. Balch scored two field goals and six free throws for eight of the Rayders' goals and Helms one as the period ended 47-27.

Helms entered the line-up replacing Dennis; Poquette for Vandenberg and Carson for Balch.

With Coach Don Carey emptying the bench in the final period, Vandenberg scored two field goals and two gift shots; Swanson and Carson a field goal apiece; and Helms one free throw. East Jordan came back to score 15 points but it was not enough to close the gap and put the Red Devils back in the game.

Vandenberg with six field goals and 0 of 11 free throws was top scorer with 21 points followed by Walker with 12 points. Darbee had 12 and Walker 11 for East Jordan.

standings. To date both teams have defeated mutual opponents. Grayord and Mancelona in league play with Boyne City also having a victory over Petoskey to its credit. Despite this the Ramblers, a tall rangy and seasoned team will have to be given a slight edge over the Hornets, even though the latter are playing on their home floor.

Harbor Springs, paced by Don Lauer and Tor Larson, the latter back in the line-up after missing the Grayling game, will be hosting the East Jordan Red Devils, who showed unexpected height and promise despite their inexperience. Both teams have been defeated by Grayling while the Rams defeated another mutual opponent, Charlevoix, who won over the Jordanites 58-42 last week. The Rams will have the advantage of playing on their home floor plus a more experienced team, so they should come through with a victory without too much trouble.

Grayord and Mancelona have been bitter opponents for years and each game between the pair marks a renewal of an old rivalry. Both teams have yet to win a game as this is being written although both showed up well against much stronger Boyne City and Pellston squads last week, so the game between the two should be a close one with the outcome a toss-up.

Grayling, sharing first place in league standings with Boyne City and Pellston, will move into Charlevoix this week with plans for remaining on the victory trail. The Rayders, however, have other ideas, so the game should be a good one. As in the case of the Boyne City-Pellston game, the meeting between the Rayders and the Vikings will be a test of strength. In Grayling's favor is their 62-53 win over Harbor Springs, playing without Larson, as compared to the Rams' defeat of Charlevoix 47-45 with Larson in the line-up. Comparative scores, however, mean little in a

Charlevoix's Little Rayders took a close game from the East Jordan Reserves Friday night by a score of 37-34.

The Local live held a sizable lead until the third quarter when the visitors closed in after outscoring Charlevoix 10-2.

Starting for the Rayders were Larry Ingalls, Glenn Bearss, Bob Mol, Dale Putman and Bill Poquette with Steve LaBlance, Mike Genet, John Bingham, Ken Case, Scott Supernaw, Ron Vandenberg and Tom Lakies entering the game in the second period.

Charlevoix got off to an 18-7 first period advantage on four field goals and a free throw by Ingalls; a field goal and three free shots by Putman, and one field goal each by Bearss and Mol. East Jordan scored two field goals and three from the free throw circle.

In the second quarter East Jordan outscored Charlevoix 8-3 as they tallied four field goals to one for Charlevoix scored by Bingham plus a free throw by Genet.

With the half-time score standing at 20-15, the Little Rayders came back in the game in the third period with 14 points to 9 for the visitors for a 34-24 third quarter lead. Ingalls scored three field goals and Mol and Poquette two each as East Jordan added two field goals and five free throws.

East Jordan found the basket in the last period to cut the Rayders' advantage to three points on five field goals. The Rayders lone bucket was made by Ingalls late in the period as the Jordanites rallied.

league where every team, despite its standing, can be a threat, so this weeks game between Charlevoix and Grayling will be a tough one to second guess. One thing is certain, it will not be an easy victory for either team.

If Charlevoix and Boyne City win Friday, Tuesdays game between the two old rivals will be one of the games of the 1955-56 season as far as interest in concerned. At this time, Boyne is the favored team. As has been stated before, the Ramblers have everything desirable in a basketball team except, perhaps, a lot of depth. So far this season they have not run up against a really tough opponent although they may find such a rival in Pellston, so it is not known how they will react under pressure. However, if they show what everyone thinks they have they should have little trouble in controlling the ball and setting the pace for the game. Charlevoix, at times, has looked pretty good but whether they have what it will take to stop both Grayling and Boyne City remains to be seen. The game which will bring the Ramblers and the Rayders together for the first time is expected to be the second real test the two teams have been put to within a week. At this time Boyne City has to be given the nod on the basis of their record to date.

The Pellston-Harbor Springs game, played on the latter's floor, will be another hard-fought game for the teams are rival of long standing. Pellston probably has the best coordinated team but the Rams on their own floor offer a threat in any team so the game at this time is a toss up. Though neighbors in the eastern section of the league, Grayord and Grayling are bitter rivals so their meeting Tuesday should be a close one. Grayling, however, with its first place rating at this time is the favored team to win.

Last Week With Class 'C' Teams

Action in the Northern Michigan Class C conference was stepped up last week as Pellston edged past Mancelona 59-55; Grayling won over Harbor Springs 62-53; Boyne City downed Gaylord 55-44 and Charlevoix defeated East Jordan 58-42.

Pellston 59—Mancelona 55 Mancelona showed unexpected strength against Pellston Friday night when the Ironmen came from behind to take a 45-41 third period lead although they to an inexperienced squad. The Hornets were ahead 12-3 at the end of the first period but Mancelona found the basket and cut the visitor's advantage to three points, 25-22, at the half-time.

In the third period Mancelona outscored the visitors 23-10 for a four point lead going into the final quarter and held it until the final three minutes when Pellston dumped in four quick buckets for the win. Dick Holstad paced the scoring for the game with 19 points, followed by another sophomore, Bob Hardy who had 14 for Mancelona. Dale Drier scored 16 points and Frank Durkalee and Pat Cabinaw had 14 points each for the Hornets.

Grayling 62—Harbor Springs 53

A: Grayling the Vikings took an early lead and were ahead 16-11 at the first quarter only to have Harbor Springs forge ahead 32-29 at the half-time. In the third period, however, Grayling went on a scoring spree and dumped in 25 points to 5 for the visitors for a 54-37 third period lead. Don Lauer set a scoring record for the current season by dumping in 10 field goals and 6 of 10 free throws for 26 points. Bob Strong and Floyd Failing shared scoring honors for the visitors with 13 points apiece.

Lauer's scoring mate, Tor Larsen, was sidelined because he was ineligible.

FHA Authorized To Make Emergency Loans In Charlevoix-Emmet Counties

The Farmers Home Administration office has received authority to make Production Emergency loans to eligible applicants in Emmet and Charlevoix Counties who have suffered a disaster to crops and pasture during 1955. Notice of this designation from Acting Secretary of Agriculture Morse was announced by Carl B. Brown, FHA County Supervisor.

The counties in Michigan designated for the making of these loans as a result of the drought and extreme heat in 1955 are as follows: Alcona, Alpena, Antrim, Benzie, Charlevoix, Cheboygan, Emmet, Grand Traverse, Kalkaska, Leelanau, Manistee, Mason, Muskegon, Montmorency, Ogemaw, Ogemaw, Oscoda, Otsego, Presque Isle, and Roscommon.

These loans may be made in this area to buy feed, seed, fertilizer, insecticides and tractor fuel; pasture rent, grazing permits, and other essential farm and home operating expenses; purchase of livestock, plants and nursery stock, farm and home equipment, the repair of buildings, fences, irrigation systems, farm machinery; also the payment of current taxes on real estate and current interest on real estate indebtedness.

These emergency loans may not be made for the purpose of refinancing existing debts or for the payment of cash rent on crop land.

This emergency loan program will be in effect until June 30, 1956. The interest rate is 3 percent on the unpaid principal balances and loans are scheduled for repayment during the period of time when the principal income will be received from the crop or livestock produced or fed from materials which loan funds were used.

Applications for these loans in Emmet and Charlevoix Counties may be made at the Farmers Home Administration office, 316 1/2 East Mitchell, Petoskey. All applications are approved by the county Farmers Home Administration committee. The Committee in Charlevoix county is Rowley Williams, William Korhase, Sr., and Harold Goebel.

Suggests Creep Feeder For Rats; Protects Animals

Ever try creep feeders for rats? It's a good idea because it protects other farm animals when you spike the rat feed with a poison, points out Ed Rehman, Charlevoix county agricultural agent.

First used in Alabama in a rat control campaign, the one by two-foot creep feeder, or bait station, holds five pounds of feed. A two by two-inch hole at each end allows rats to enter but keeps out cats and other animals.

County commissioners in an Alabama county put up funds for building the feeders. Youth groups pitched in and converted their farm shops to rat feeder factories.

A year after the campaign was started, Rehman indicated, 1,800 pounds of poison to rats. Officials estimated that each pound killed at least five rats. By the end of 1956, the rat population in Alabama will be negligible, according to the campaign's director.

This may be a worthy project for youth groups in Charlevoix county, Rehman believes. But, he adds, cleaning up filth in places that harbor rats is just as important.

EDUCATORS have launched a campaign to remove the last state-level tinge of politics from the Michigan system of public schools.

They are going about it with the encouragement and the support of the man whose job they want to abolish.

He is Dr. Clair L. Taylor, superintendent of public instruction, who, along with his last two predecessors, wants to make the post appointive by an expanded state board of education.

Spearheading the latest attempt is the powerful Michigan Education Association and its executive director, Dr. A.J. Phillips. "I think we can do it this time," he said.

The plan is to put before the voters in November, 1956, proposals to change the Michigan Constitution to create an eight-member state board of education (from the present six members) which would then appoint the superintendent.

Dr. Phillips said details are being worked out to elect the board on a nonpartisan basis.

At present, the board controls Michigan's teacher colleges and fixes policy for the superintendent's office, works on curricula and other matters.

It is a schoolman first, then of necessity, a politician. He is nominated by political conventions and must campaign like the rest.

"I am in full support of this movement to take the job out of politics," said Taylor.

The reform has arisen and vanished several times in the past decade. One of its latter-day advocates was the "Little Hoover" commission which also wanted to abolish the auditor-general's post.

PLANNING MONEY for the two new state office buildings one to house the Michigan Supreme Court and another to house state agencies still renting from private land-lords — has been released.

The $105,000 for plans for the buildings was delayed for months when Atty. Gen. Thomas M. Kavanagh objected to placing the law library in another building, away from his office.

The new arrangement keeps Kavanagh and the law books in the same building.

SCHOOL districts already are working out the details of distribution for the $13,500,000 bonanza of sales tax moneys earmarked for salaries and wages by the legislature a month ago.

Gov. Williams lost his fight for the legislature to specify that each of Michigan's 51,000 teachers get a flat $200 increase, when Republicans turned the money over to local school board with that recommendation.

Taylor made a special plea to local officials to keep the per teacher increase as near $200 as possible. First reports indicated they would.

Detroit, adding money of its own, said each teacher would get $200, the same went for Muskegon Heights and Berkley.

When the final reports are in, I am confident people will be pleased with the distribution, Taylor said.

The extra money came from increased sales tax collections which are earmarked for the schools — two of every three cent. The release of the funds pushed the $184,000,000 school aid bill to $197,500,000, the most ever turned over to schools in one year.

MOVIES are going to patrol Michigan Highways.

That was the promise of State Police Commissioner Joseph A.

Keith F. Farrell Named Manager Of Traverse Auto Club

Keith F. Farrell has been named as manager of Automobile Club of Michigan's Traverse City division to succeed Fred L. Miller, who is retiring January 1. E. S. Matheson, Auto Club general manager, has announced. Farrell began working with Auto Club in Saginaw in 1949 and transferred to Traverse City in 1953. Born in Grand Traverse County, he attended Buckley public school and Michigan State University. During World War II, he served as a bomber pilot in the Pacific Theater for more than five years.

Farrell, with his wife, Lyla, and four children, makes his home in Traverse City.

Miller's retiring after 17 years with Auto Club. He is credited with the major growth of Auto Club membership in the Traverse City region where he has served as division manager since 1940.

Assistant manager of the division and manager of claims is Victor Bliss.

Childs as he planned a "saturation patrol" of the high-accident areas in the state.

Officers already are working on an inexpensive camera mount for police cars and determining whether the operation can be handled by one trooper alone or will need two men.

At the same time Childs said he would assign his 200 new troops to the high-accident areas for the "saturation patrol" — which he defined as one police car every 10 miles around the clock.

"A speeder just gets out of the range of one of our cars when he gets into the range of another," he said.

All this will happen before next Memorial day when the extra troopers are graduated. School in the winter and spring will train the troopers in patrol duties and they will be sent on the road immediately. They will go back to school next fall to finish.

Childs, asked the purpose of the motion picture cameras, said that the films could be used in case in which motorists contest tickets in court.

"Besides, if a driver believes he is being watched by a camera, he's going to be more careful," Childs said. "It's psychological but we're ready to try anything to cut down accidents."

The consensus of opinion seems to be that our lads will come along alright . . . Of course there are a lot of edges to be smoothed down and a lot of progress to be made, but all things considered, we think they'll show up OK. Isn't it amazing how those kids grow in a year? One doesn't notice it so much in the upper classes because we've been seeing them on the football field but those little Rayders . . . They pop up like the well-known weed.

Just a reminder . . . have you all that Christmas shopping done? No? . . . Well, you're not alone although we'll bet there are people who have all their cards in the mail 'cause we've been getting quite a few . . . but you've only eight days after today so you'd better get on the ball . . .

Another reminder . . . while you're addressing Christmas cards how about sending a few to old friends or people you might know who won't receive many . . . the old couple down the block, the old neighbor who's been laid up with an injury or the old gentleman who doesn't seem to have any family . . . there are many people like that and they aren't all old . . . when you have a family who's close to you, it's hard to realize that there are those who have no one, but it's all too true. So how about being real thoughtful this holiday season and if you can send a little remembrance to some of these people . . . a jar of jam, a slip from your favorite plant . . . any number of thoughtful little gestures which will make a real Christmas for someone, for it isn't the size or the cost of the gift that counts . . . it's the fact that you've been remembered by someone when you thought there was no one . . . And don't forget the patients at Grandvue hospital. For your convenience, we're printing a list of the patients at the hospital in a separate news story . . . You'll have a happier holiday because you've remembered someone . . .

Understand the first big freakia weather can bring about the craziest thing on the police short-wave radio . . . as Sheriff Glenn Rose can tell you. Not long ago he picked up the Mason police . . . Thinking it was Mason, Mich., he inquired about something in that general area in Ingram county only to find he was talking with Mason county Wash. At times you can pick up other small units all over the country . . . The road commission often picks up Tennessee, Arkansas . . . and Green Bay, Wis. police come in on the same wave length all the time . . . Quite an experience and an education . . . this short wave business which is setup to serve an area within a 50 mile radius of the county . . .

No more pro football this season . . . except for the big championship game later this month between the Los Angeles Rams and Cleveland Browns . . . It's going to be mighty dull 'cause if there's one thing we love it's football . . . One of the things we like about it is some of the wonderful guys who play the game . . . Guys like Doak Walker who played his last game Sunday . . . Gee, we can remember about the first time we ever listened to a game he played in . . . He was terrific. We watched him as he joined the college football greats and went into pro-ball . . . Detroit and the Lions fans paid him a wonderful tribute Sunday . . . We couldn't help but think that as long as there are guys like him and there are many . . . maybe not all as great as players but all as fine as he . . . and as long as there are opportunities made available to guys like that whether it's in football, baseball, or any of the great sports this is such a bad country . . . even though, with an election year coming up, there are those who would have you believe that we were well on our way to you-know-where in a hand basket . . .

Understand the first big shipments of Christmas mail have already been received at the local post office . . . From now on they

LES JOHNSON
Michigan Bell Manager

OLD MAN SUN powers rural telephone system! That's the news from Americus, Ga., where successful experiments using the Bell Solor Battery were recently conducted. The Solor Battery, an invention of Bell Telephone Laboratories, is the first successful device to convert the sun's energy directly into a substantial amount of electricity. While it is still too early to predict the future role of the Solor Battery, its development is part of continuing research to help bring more and better telephone service to rural areas.

DID YOU KNOW that Michigan Bell is the largest single taxpayer to the State primary school fund? This year over 8 million dollars was paid by Michigan Bell to the fund. The fund is allocated to school districts throughout Michigan in proportion to the number of pupils in each.

TRYING TO SOLVE that Christmas shopping question, "What can I give that's different?" How's this for an answer—EXTENSION TELEPHONES. They make a unique gift—not likely to be duplicated by others. And they'll be appreciated every day of the year—save countless hours—take the "run" out of running the home. The cost—just $1.21 a month, including tax, plus a one-time installation charge. Order them from our business office today—gift-wrapped free to be installed after Christmas.

First Communion Ceremony Held At St. Mary's Church

The most solemn and impressive ceremony of First Holy Communion took place Sunday at St. Mary's church.

At that time 22 children, all seven years of age, marched into church in procession as the children's choir sang "Jesus, Jesus, Come Unto Me." The hymn, "Will Thou Come to Me, My Jesus" was sung during communion. The post-communion hymn was "Soul of My Savior."

During the Mass, The Rev. E. F. Denay spoke simply on the words "Suffer the little ones to come unto Me for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

The beautifully decorated altar and the children in white combined to create a balm of spring in the midst of winter snows.

Suggests Need For Cards, Gifts At State Hospital

With the advent of the Christmas season there is real need for cards and gifts of all kinds for patients at the Traverse City State hospital, according to O. J. Curtis, public relations director at the hospital.

He went on to say that many patients who have been committed to the hospital discover their relatives are no longer interested in them and in many instances patients have not heard from relatives for up to 30 years.

As a result many patients receive no cards or gifts at this holiday season.

One way to help the situation is by sending Christmas cards intended for patients and signed "From a Friend". The cards will then be addressed by the hospital staff and delivered to patients who otherwise might not receive a card. Anyone wishing to do so

ODDS 'N' ENDS

By Fran Martin

The week of Christmas and all through the house . . . If I were a poet which I am not, I could think of a lot of things that I could rhyme about . . . Such as getting the rest of the Christmas cards in the mail, finishing gifts and of course, the monumental task of wrapping said gifts . . . But isn't it wonderful? . . .

During the next week you'll hear the gay sound of 'Merry Christmas' no matter where you go . . . It's such a happy sound and this is such a happy season . . . One thing that makes it so wonderful is greeting old friends . . . kids home from college . . . boys home from the service . . . friends who live elsewhere who are home for the holidays . . . As we said, it's wonderful . . .

Add to that list of grand things the way our Rayders played against Grayling the other night . . . They sure were going alright . . . As this is being written they have to play Boyne City . . . a game which will be the game of the season . . . After snagging two league football titles right out of the hands of the Ramblers as the Rayders did for two years running there's apt to be fireworks . . . That may happen in many games if the lads continue to improve . . . They'll need to keep on the ball with the games coming up . . . Boyne this week followed by Petoskey who's always up for Charlevoix with Pellston schedule Jan. 6 . . . In this league every week is important and this goes on till mid-March . . . Think you can take it? . . .

Noticed by the calendar that winter was scheduled to begin yesterday, Dec. 22 . . . Wonder what they call this stuff we've been having . . . If winter is worse than this, heaven help us . . . Snow, snow, beautiful snow, everywhere . . . But there's a time when it ceases to be a thing of beauty and I think that time is about here . . . But at least we've assured of a white Christmas and at the rate we're going we're liable to have a white May day too . . .

With the extensive building in Charlevoix, the life of a sidewalk superintendent can get almost out of hand . . . But our chief "super" has struck a bit of luck . . . Things are pretty much under control at St. Mary's, at the Kroger store and other places around town and guess what! . . . the newest project is right outside his window . . . That's right . . . the new post office which will be constructed at 109 Mason st. . . And in this weather it's pretty nice to be able to sit in your bedroom and look down on the job as H. G. Feuerfel does . . . You know, some one of these days, somebody's going to put that guy to work . . . And what a loss that will be to the contractors around town . . .

What would you think if you were a hardware operator and got a call asking if you stocked mouse traps in 'quantities' . . . 'Quantities' are you'd think, 'good heaven, where could there possibly be that many mice' . . . And then the inquirer said she wanted three dozen or so . . . I'm afraid I'd be quite speechless . . . That is exactly what happened recently when one of the teachers called and asked those very questions . . . After the hardware dealer recovered from the shock the order was placed and in case he's still wondering what they were wanted for, it wasn't for mice . . . but to be converted into Christmas gifts for Pop . . . to be used as a clip for papers, etc. I'm told they're cute little gadgets but would still like to see one . . . They sound dangerous . . . particularly, like most people, I could never get a mouse trap 'cause when I'd get it almost to the floor I'd drop NOTICED recently that Ferris Institute was offering an adult education course in cake decorating . . . And guess who's teaching it . . . none other than Ron Fairbanks, former local baker who now operates a beautiful bakery in Grand Rapids . . . We mentioned before that he has been appearing regularly on television in Grand Rapids . . .

THE ROSE BOWL game has been an important topic of conversation since Michigan State won the bid . . . It's nice to know what Charlevoix will be well represented at the game and all the festivities which accompany the big New Year's Day event . . . Three Michigan State students, Amy Kipke, Larry Burns and Bob Miles will be leaving right after Christmas for the trip west . . . As will Dr. and Mrs. Larry Grate who'll go west aboard one of three Spartan specials . . . What a wonderful, wonderful experience . . . Enjoy all that wonderful weather and everything that goes with a bowl game . . . while the rest of us sit back here and watch or listen to the game . . . Look, chums, how about waving to those of us at home when the television camera sweeps past . . . We'll be watching . . . But all kidding aside, have a grand time, all of you

HAVE YOU ever seen Charlevoix's Bridge street as lovely as it is this Christmas . . . It's like something out of a fairy story when you come over either the north or south hills and look down on the town nestled in the valley . . . with a myriad of colored lights making a picture beyond description . . . Each lamp post is wound with strings of colored lights . . . Those added to the overhead lights, the Christmas greeting at Park ave, the huge star at Clinton st., and the decorated Christmas tree suspended over the intersection at Mason st. . . It's very lovely, to say the least. Credit for the whole idea, we understand, came from Charles Bellinger, first ward alderman, with Mayor Jim Miller giving an able assist . . . And of course it was our utility department which made the idea a reality . . . A beautiful one, everyone agrees, and certainly one that makes Charlevoix the most decorated community in the north . . .

HAD QUITE a gabfest over the telephone the other day with one of our Beaver Island friends, Archie LaFreniere, who was 'stranded' on the mainland last week when the plane couldn't go and the Emerald Isle wasn't scheduled to go . . . You think it would be bad to be stranded on an island . . . You should have heard Archie's tale about being 'stranded' on the mainland . . . But we had a grand chat, Archie tells me that the Island had a good year and that, with the new docks scheduled to be built, they are looking forward to bigger and better things for America's Emerald Isle . . . There's not a place in the world that deserves it more and it's the wish of everyone that things continue to get better for them . . . Incidentally, a Merry Christmas to all my friends on the Island . . .

IF THERE are those people in our community who have no church home, an invitation is extended to you to attend any of the beautiful Christmas services this weekend . . . In submitting material for our special Christmas services story this week, each and every pastor included a warm and friendly invitation to attend church on Christmas Eve or Christmas Day . . .

ALL OF Charlevoix had quite a 'fright' Sunday night when a 10-year old just simply disappeared . . . One minute he was there and then he wasn't . . . The youngster left home early in the afternoon to go sliding and when supper time came he didn't show up . . . After calling everywhere she thought he might be his mother reported the matter to the police, and in nothing flat they were joined by the sheriff's department, the state police and many more, and boys . . . The park, the lake front, the theater, Christmas programs . . . everywhere you can imagine was checked and re-checked and the telephone calls went on and on . . . with anxiety growing every minute . . . We are happy to report that shortly after 10 p. m., the youngster, Brendon LaBlance, showed up at home . . . with the explanation that he'd stopped at a friends house not two blocks away from his home . . . He'd spent the afternoon, accepted an invitation to supper and then stayed on to watch television . . . Seems the family had urged him to call home but he assured them it was OK for him to be there so they didn't do anything about it . . . His mother was so happy to see him that he wasn't punished but we're sure that he won't do a disappearance act again right away . . . We'd like to add a little warning to parents of children who have their friends in . . . Make sure the parents of your guests know where they are. Kids have a way of shrugging off such things . . . and Sunday the whole town had a taste of what it's like to search for a lost child. We were just lucky that the story didn't have a tragic ending. Mrs. LaBlance asked us to thank everyone who assisted in the search . . . for their time and kindness. After all, it was a pretty miserable night . . .

BEFORE many of you receive another issue of the Charlevoix Courier, old 1955 will have made its exit and a young and hopeful 1956 will have made its entrance. To us, meeting a new year is like standing on a hill top and looking down on a winding road . . . with every month in the year around another turn in the 365 day year . . . only this year'll be another day . . . It's now time to take stock of the old and make a list of resolutions for the new . . . As the strains of 'Silent Night Holy Night' are replaced by 'Let Auld Acquaintance Be Forgotten', we of the Courier staff would like to convey to you in our humble way, our best wishes for a Happy New Year . . . May 1956 make all your dreams realities . . .

P. S. DON'T forget to drive carefully during the holidays . . . It's such a nice time of year we'd hate to see you spoil it by getting yourself hurt or killed . . .

Happy birthday greetings to one of our oldest residents, 'Christ Pop' Drost who'll be 93 come Christmas day . . .

And remember . . . don't forget to feed the birds who have slim pickin's in this weather . . . From the Far Pacific, Christmas greeting from Johnny LaBlance who'll spend Christmas at sea enroute to Hong Kong where his ship will be for New Year's Day . . . and from Gerry Left who's stationed in Japan . . . Both asked us to relay their good wishes to their friends back home . . .

Busy Fellow at Night

This squinty-eyed barn owl has to be a busy fellow at night to satisfy his huge appetite. A friend to farmers, he preys on mice, rats and other farm pests and eats his own weight in food every night. This particular bird was captured by a farmer near Lansing and was banded and released by Conservation Department game workers at the Rose Lake wildlife experiment station.

Rayders Defeat Grayling Vikings By 54-34 Score

Charlevoix Paces Game From Start To Finish

The Charlevoix Rayders toppled Grayling from the ranks of the undefeated into a three way tie for second place in loop standing Friday night when they defeated the visiting Vikings 54-34.

In a meeting which saw the Rayders pace the game from start to finish Charlevoix got off to a 16-9 first quarter lead, increased the advantage to 26-17 at halftime before going ahead 44-27 at the third period as 11 Rayders saw action.

Starting for the Rayders were Garry Vandenberg, Charlie Dennis, Quint Walker, Guy Swanson and Kenny Balch with Joe Etienne going into the game in the second period; Norm Helms in the third and Walt Poquette, Joel Arvilla, Kit Carson and Terry Davis in the final period.

Grayling's Gary Worden scored the first bucket of the game but Swanson countered with a basket followed by another by Walker before Dave Lowe of Grayling was given a free throw. Walker missed two free throws but Swanson made up the deficit with a field goal with Vandenberg stepping up to the free throw line and adding two more points. Bob Strong scored to give the visitors five points but Walker and Swanson made it 12-5 with a basket apiece. Lloyd Failing was fouled and made the first of two free throws before Strong was fouled in the act of shooting and was given two tries, hitting on only one. Balch hit from the side and Swanson dumped in another followed by a lay up shot by Strong to make the quarter score 16-9.

In the second period Swanson and Walker scored two field goals apiece and Vandenberg scored one as the Rayders went ahead 26-17 at the half. Lowe and Strong each scored two field goals for the visitors in the second period.

The Rayders had their best period as the second half got underway, scoring 18 points to 10 for Grayling. Swanson accounted for six points on two field goals and two free throws; Vandenberg and Helms had four points apiece on field goals and Walker four on field goals and two on gift shots. Grayling scored only two field goals but added six from the key for a total of 10 points.

Dennis and Walker each scored two field goals and Swanson one in the last period as Coach Don Carey started substituting.

Grayling scored two field goals and three gift shots for seven points in the closing period. Charlevoix outscored the visitors 24-11 in the field goal department while connecting on six of 12 free throw attempts and collecting 12 personal fouls. Grayling made 12 of 20 free throws and had nine personal fouls called on them.

Rayders Upset Boyne Ramblers By 59-55

The Charlevoix Rayders upset the high-flying Boyne City Ramblers by a score of 59-55 in a hard-fought game Tuesday night at Boyne City with neither team having more than a six point lead at any time.

With the lead changing countless times throughout the game, Boyne City held a 17-16 first period lead but lost it at halftime as the Rayders went ahead 36-34. Charlevoix stretched its advantage to three points at the end of the third period when the score was 46-43. Boyne City made one last stand in the final period but Charlevoix, connecting for 19 of 27 free throws as the Ramblers collected 19 personal fouls, came out of the game with a four-point victory.

Boyne City scored 23 field goals to the Rayders 20 but on the free throw line the Rayders aim was deadly as they hit on 67 per cent of their free throw attempts. Boyne City made nine of 19 free throw attempts. The Rayders had only 12 personal fouls called on them.

Last Week With Class 'C' Teams

Pellston and Grayling were toppled from the ranks of the undefeated Friday night to give Boyne City sole possession of first place in Northern Michigan Class C standings as the Ramblers edged past Pellston 47-46 and Charlevoix soundly trounced the Vikings 54-34.

In other games Friday Mancelona racked up its first win in four starts by defeating Gaylord 58-54 after trailing for three periods, and East Jordan dumped Harbor Springs 67-44.

Boyne City 47—Pellston 46

The Boyne City Ramblers managed to hang on to their first place standing via the free throw line Friday night when Nels Northup was successful on two gift throws to tie the score 46-46 with seconds remaining. In the melee which followed Gary Newville was fouled and hit on the first of two tries for the one point victory. The single point was the only one he scored in the game.

The Ramblers took a 12-7 first period lead but in the second period the game broke wide open with one team and then the other tying or taking the lead. Despite this, the Ramblers held a 25-21 halftime advantage.

As the third period ended the Ramblers stretched the lead four points, 38-34, but in the final quarter the game was again anybody's as a seesaw battle developed with Pat Cabinaw dumping in a bucket with less than 30 seconds remaining to put Pellston ahead 46-44. In the scramble which followed Nels Northup was fouled and tied the score. With five seconds remaining Newville was fouled and put the Ramblers ahead 47-56 on the first of two free throw attempts to give Boyne City the game as the final whistle sounded.

Cabinaw paced the scoring with 17 points for the Hornets. Nels Northup had 14 and John Juday 13 for the Ramblers.

Mancelona 58—Gaylord 54

Playing at Mancelona the Gaylord Blue Devils playing without regular Mike McKillop, paced the game 20-17 at the quarter, 36-35 at the half and 51-41 at the conclusion of the third period before Mancelona, playing without Bob Hardy, started to hit and outscored the visitors in the final period for its first win of the current season.

John Phillips of the Ironmen and Darwin Mason of Gaylord shared scoring honors with 19 points apiece. Both McKillop and Hardy were out of the lineup with the flu.

East Jordan 67—Harbor Sps 44

With only three games behind them the East Jordan Red Devils are beginning to shape up well and Friday night hit their stride as they led the visiting Harbor Springs Rams 17-8 at the quarter, 34-15 at the half and 47-33 at the third period for their second victory of the season.

Col Darbee with 18 and Dick Johnson with 16 points paced the game for the victors. Don Lauer had 13 for the Rams.

From an Elevation

Nearly all songbirds carol their characteristic songs while in flight or while perched on an elevated object, such as a tree limb, a stump, a telephone wire, or a bush. Those perky, happy-hearted little winter songsters, the black-capped chickadees, chant their joyous songs from woodpecker buckets, balsam boughs, axe handles—anything they can find that lifts them above the ground level. Chickadees may occasionally chirp a little while embroiling tracks across the earth's wintry blanket of snow, but they will seldom chime their clear ringing "Chick-a-dee-dee" until a suitable perch is found.

Some birds are content with singing perches only slightly above the surrounding grassland. The savannah sparrow requires nothing higher than a hummock a few inches above his surroundings. The robin seems to prefer a high limb, but if one isn't available when the urge to sing seizes him, he will settle for a twig on a sizeable bush. Even feild sparrows larks and indigo buntings, which will nest in low locations, require perches for singing that are much higher than their nesting level. Songbirds seek elevation for their singing.

Normal people do, too. They need some elevation before their spirits burst forth in song. The pathological may find a kind of contentment in a low life, as the kleptomaniac is resting until he steals, and the pyromaniac until he starts a destructive fire. In low perversity the abnormal mind finds a satisfaction akin to joy. But we recognize such behavior and such people as "unnatural." By nature we are fitted for singing from elevations.

Early in the history of sound motion pictures, a movie producer decided to film and record birds singing in their natural habitats. He thought such a project would demonstrate in a dramatic way the advantages of sound pictures. During the singing season the producer sent two cameramen into good territory with orders to bring back films and sound recordings of a variety of bird songs. After many days of arduous search the cameramen admitted utter defeat. Their days in field and forest had proven fruitless. Not one foot of sound film had they used. Dr. Arthur Allen of Cornell University's ornithology department was approached by the two camera experts and told of their desperate plight. They could hardly face their boss with no bird songs whatsoever. Even a record of one bird's song would help. Dr. Allen told the men to drive their sound truck along a certain country road. He asked them to stop by a particular bush and set up their equipment. Then he suggested that they focus their apparatus on the top of the bush and they would get a splendid recording of a song sparrow.

The cameramen were skeptical, since there wasn't a bird within sight or hearing. But soon, as the men became settled in position and quiet, a male song sparrow flew up to his choicest singing perch and chanted a cheery song. Dr. Allen knew where and on the producer sent two expert apt to sing.

When do we feel most like singing? When are we the most apt to sing? Isn't it when we have arisen to some height above life's ground-level, above our average performance? We are in a singing mood when we are making life worth living for others. We feel like singing when we are giving more than we are getting. Songs come to mind and heart and lips when we are most conscious of God's greatness, His love, and His approval.

Maybe we are happiest at Christmas because life is then most nearly what it should always be, when giving is better than receiving, and another's happiness more important than our own, and God seems strangely near. No wonder even folks who "can't carry a tune in a basket" love to carol at Christmas. Christmas is an elevation above ground-level, the year's choicest "singing perch."

The average Michigan farmer can look forward to having about the same gross and net income in 1956 as he did this year, say MSU farm economists.

Applications For Conservation Post Being Accepted

Applications are now being accepted to fill over 40 vacant conservation officer positions according to an announcement by the Michigan State Civil Service commission.

At the same time the commission announced an examination for park ranger C, a seasonal job which usually begins in May and continues through October.

Conservation officers supervise forest fire control, patrol lakes, streams and forests to enforce laws governing game, fish, and furs, appraise land, timber and platted property, inspect and investigate causes of stream and lake pollution and perform many public services.

Applications may be submitted by Jan. 4. Examination announcements and applications may be obtained from the nearest Michigan Employment Security commission office or directly from the Civil Service commission in Lansing.

Candidates must be at least 23 but not more than 29, at least 5 feet 9 inches but not more than 6 feet 4 inches and weigh at least 150 pounds and be a high school graduate. The salary for the positions is $3,946 to $5,001 annually.

The work of the park ranger offers an opportunity for a summer of outdoor activity. Park rangers issue camp permits, enforce park rules, clean grounds, make minor road repairs and structural repairs to buildings in more than 50 state parks located in every section of the state.

Applicants for the positions which pay $61.60 per week must be between 18 and 60 and have completed at least the eighth school grade.

Applications and examination announcements for these positions may also be obtained from the nearest Michigan Employment Security commission branch office, Michigan Department of Conservation field office or by writing the Civil Service commission in Lansing.

New Legislation For Education Is Subject Discussed At Meeting

New legislation at the national level pertinent to education was the subject reviewed at a conference of the legislative committees of the Michigan Association of School Administrators and the Michigan Association of County Superintendents' meeting with representatives of the Michigan Education Association and the National Education Association in Lansing recently.

Ernest Giddings, field representative of the N. E. A., summarized the results of the National White House Conference held recently and read parts of the record verbatim to illustrate that the conference endorsed Federal aid to education in classroom construction and urged increased participation by providing more monies for that purpose.

Statistics coming from the conference revealed that figures drawn from 41 states which co-operated in the survey having 81.4 per cent of the country's population need 203,450 classrooms in the current school year; that 39 states having 39.9 per cent of the population have plans to build 56,484 classrooms but that the accumulative need to 1960 in the 41 states will be 374,250 classrooms.

Hospital Women's Guild Makes Plans For Christmas At Meeting

Christmas favors for the trays at the Charlevoix hospital were made and popcorn for the lobby Christmas tree was strung at the regular meeting of the Women's Guild of the Charlevoix Hospital held Tuesday at the high school band room.

Mrs. Ralph S. Hamilton, chairman of the hospital committee reported that a large tree had been donated by Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Shanahan and would be placed in the lobby at the hospital and decorated during the weekend. Favors for the trays were made and plans made to remember all hospitalized patients at Christmas time with a gift.

Mrs. Don Gilbert, sewing chairman, said that several layettes had been completed and others would be ready as soon as sewing was returned. The layettes will be given to newborns of indigent families by the Guild. Mrs. Gilbert asked that persons having sewing completed, return it as soon as possible.

The library cart is being operated three days weekly by volunteers for the convenience of the patients. Anyone wishing to push the cart which is stocked not only with books but with toilet items and stationery is asked to call Mrs. Gordon L. Freedman.

Equipment purchased for the hospital has arrived and been placed in operation. Mrs. C. M. Bice, Chairman of the purchasing committee, reports it includes three laundry carts, a sterilizer and sterilbrite wall stand which cost a total of $547.05. A treatment chair for the emergency room is now on order.

Contributions have been made to the Guild in memory of H. E. Schwarz by Mr. and Mrs. John H. King, of Mrs. Mrs. Clyde Smith by the Misses Floranz and Frances Milner and of Dr. Isaac Abt by Mr. and Mrs. James Coleman. Mrs. L. E. Grate is in charge of this service which makes it possible for a contribution to be made in memory of or in honor of someone. A card is then sent in the donor's name. While Mrs. Grate is out of town from Dec. 26 to Jan. 6 the cards may be obtained from Mrs. Gordon L. Freedman or Fran Martin.

Fire Causes Damage To Krahnke Building

Fire of an undetermined origin did extensive damage to the H. O. Krahnke building at 411-413 Bridge st., early Sunday evening.

First estimate of the damage set at "up to $50,000" by Deputy Fire Chief Lawrence Supernaw was later verified by Mr. Krahnke who said that the loss may reach an even higher figure.

The two-story brick building houses the Charlevoix post office and the Stanton Toy and Hobby Harbor on the first floor plus eight apartments on the second floor. A section of the basement was also leased to the Hess Furniture Co. for storage space.

The fire was discovered at 7:55 p. m. Sunday with smoke pouring from basement windows and sidewalk ventilators of the toy shop owned by Bradley N. Stanton.

It is believed that the fire started in the northeast corner of the toy shop basement where the understructure of the building was severely damaged. The fire also went up the partitions between the toy shop and the post office. Heat and water buckled the floor and damaged the walls on the second floor as well as on the street level. The floor of the toy shop is badly damaged as well as the main stairway to the second floor and rear stairway to the basement. Fixtures and the inventory of the toy shop are listed as almost a total loss.

Damage to the postoffice section was confined to smoke and water. Some mail was soaked and later dried out but none was lost in the fire which was confined almost entirely to that section of the building under, and over the toy shop. Windows in this section of the building were broken.

A total of 20 volunteer firemen aided in bringing the fire under control, Mr. Supernaw said. The men worked in 28 degree weather. Residents of the apartments were forced to leave the building and find lodging elsewhere.

Furniture stored in the building by Hess Furniture suffered water and smoke damage.

Two volunteer firemen remaining in the building all night extinguished a blaze which broke out in a box of stuffed toys during the night.

Representatives of the state fire marshal's office, John Girocco of Lansing and Nick Reechko of Traverse City, were here Monday afternoon and Tuesday to investigate the fire. Mr. Girocco said Tuesday afternoon that they had not found the cause of the fire at that time.

Mrs. Krahnke said Wednesday that she and Mr. Krahnke left their apartment at 7:10 p. m. on their way to a movie. As they left the building they stopped at the toy shop window to look at the large toy train, valued at more than $600, on display. She said that at that time the lights on the train displayed were on and there was no sign of smoke.

Snowfall In Area Reaches Total Of Forty-Seven Inches

The snowfall in the Charlevoix area has been a chief topic of conversation during the past week.

Despite the fact that winter is only a week old, a total of 47 inches of snow has fallen in the immediate area since early November, Harry Ladd, who tabulates weather information for the U. S. Weather Bureau, reports.

Approximately 10 inches of the total snowfall came down overnight last Wednesday and early Thursday.

All of the City's 21.7 miles of streets were plowed at an early hour Thursday and beginning at midnight Thursday, Street Commissioner Leo Allard's snow removal crew started the difficult task of removing tons of banked snow from the business district. Hal Hill, city manager, said. The fine work on the part of the street department made it possible for shoppers to park without difficulty to do their holiday shopping.

Charlevoix Defeats Petoskey By 60-52 In Non-League Game

The Charlevoix Rayders stayed on the victory trail Friday night with a 60-52 win over the visiting Petoskey Northmen who have yet to win a game this season.

Neither team was playing top form ball but, paced by Quint Walker and Guy Swanson with 16 points apiece, the Rayders went into a 17-10 first period lead, stretched to 32-23 at halftime and 47-36 as the game went into the final period.

The victory marked the last action of Coach Don Carey's Rayders until Jan. 6 when they travel to Pellston to take on the Hornets.

To date the Rayders have a record of three wins and one loss in loop play plus the victory over the Class B squad coached by Ace Zagaphos.

In the starting line-up for the local quintet were Garry Vandenberg, Charles Dennis, Walker, Swanson and Kenny Balch with Norm Helms playing in each of the four periods, Joe Etienne playing in all but the first quarter and Walt Poquette, Kit Carson, Joel Arvilla and Terry Davis going into the line-up in the final quarter.

Walker with three field goals, Vandenberg with one field goal and four gift shots, Swanson with three and Balch with two free throws apiece gave the Rayders a 17-10 first period advantage. Walker had dumped in the first basket followed by one by Vince Griffin to knot the score 2-2 but from then on the Rayders led throughout the game.

Three field goals by Swanson, five points by Dennis and two each by Walker and Balch kept the Charlevoix team ahead 32-23 at the halfway mark.

In the third period Balch and Swanson tallied four points each.

ODDS 'N' ENDS

By Fern Martin

The big day has come and gone. Everyone's shawed everyone else the wonderful, super, grand gifts they received and repeated messages of friends which arrived with Christmas greetings. The kids with their sleds, skates, skis, dolls and what have you are still floating around on Cloud 7, living in a dream world all their own. The adults are relaxing after weeks of frantic preparation and, come another week, everything will be back to normal.

We hope... But hasn't it been wonderful?

And before we get back to the work-a-day world, we'd like to take this opportunity to thank the many, many people who remembered us with Christmas cards and other things. The gal, for instance, who sent a piece of her wonderful cheese cake (and we didn't even know she knew we liked it), the cards from the many friends we'd met through this column, just a number of nice things that Christmas seems to bring. Each and everyone nicer than the last and each such a big surprise. Many, many thanks for your thoughtfulness.

And now we turn our thoughts to a new year. A year that from where we're standing is filled with beautiful, new, exciting things.

ing things... We're not sure yet exactly what they'll be but we're sure that among the countless things that will happen next year will be some things that we'll treasure always. Now is a good time to take stock of things you'd like to do. Just little things that would make you a happier person. Or things you'd like to be... to make you a better person... and just other things, just small ones, to make this a better world in which to live.

This is the week one makes a list of resolutions... not ones to be broken, but resolutions that you intend to keep. And, come Sunday morning, start living up to them.

Right here and now we'd like to take this opportunity to wish you the best of everything for '56. We hope that every thing you dreamed of having will become a reality... that only the good things happen to you... and that one year from now you can look back and say... This has been a good year.

As the strains of "Auld Lang Syne" are heard this week, we'll look back on this year and count our blessings... and file the unpleasant memories away in a special pigeon-hole marked "To be forgotten". All in all, it hasn't been a bad year, and to tell you the truth, we hate to see it go. We've had a lot of nice things happen to us and we've met a lot of good people. Gee, and when '56 arrives we'll be one year older... that we don't like.

Hasn't it been great fun during the holidays with all the people around? At the basketball game the other night it was just like old home week... just everyone was there... the fellows home from service... the college crowd and others just home for the holidays... but that ball team... They won but who would have thought they could play such lousy basketball after the past two performances against Grayling and Boyne City. Suppose it doesn't matter 'cause they won but after singing their praises it's something to have them play like they did... where was the palish, the finesse? Sure hope they got it out of their systems. But, gee, fellas, we were trying to show you off and like a naughty kid you couldn't manage the right manners.

The weather... now there is a subject that is batted around more than any other. Last week it was beastly... then it warmed up and rains and if we hadn't had so much snow we'd have found ourselves with a green Christmas. The workmen spent hours working on the ice rink and in a few hours it's nothing. Now, Monday night, the temperature's really down again... The weatherman says we're going to have lots of winter... At the rate we're going we don't doubt it.

And speaking of winter, we think Charlevoix's pretty lucky to have a street crew that keeps our streets in such good shape during the difficult months. With 20.7 miles of street to keep cleared and navigatable, we think it's amazing what they accomplish. So when you're asked to move your cars off the streets while they're plowing through the day, won't you cooperate by driving it off the street or around the block while the fellows do their job... You'll be doing them a favor and making your street a better street to travel.

In a recent issue of Michigan Bell is a story entitled "A Second Chance", the story of the rehabilitation institute in Detroit and what Michigan Bell does to assist in a third phase of medical science, physical medicine. And who is director of this institute which is located on the grounds at Herman Kiefer hospital... none other than Dr. C. Robert Dear Sr., who was once director of the district health unit here. Bob attended the local schools and then went into medicine. Accompanying the article are a number of pictures including one of Dr. Dear consulting with a patient and a Michigan Bell representative. One is apt to find former Charlevoixians just about any place.

From down Virginia way a letter from another former resident, Ned Wagner, who has gone into Little Theater work. He played a supporting role earlier this year in "Detective Story" and more recently helped stage "Kiss Me Kate". Director of the group which takes in Buckroe Beach, Hampton, Newport News and that general area is E. M. "Tiny" Hutton who was formerly with Horace Heidt. Quite an experience.

From Mrs. William Flynn in Fort Lauderdale, a special issue of a newspaper telling the story of the new 300-bed Holy Cross hospital constructed at the cost of $1,250,000. And is it ever a beautiful thing... The entire section is dedicated to stories of the hospital, its history, construction... most interesting. And speaking of hospitals, wasn't the recent $12,500 gift from the Ford Foundation to our own hospital something... A real Christmas present.

Michigan was the first state in the country to make provision in its earliest constitution for a state library.

Towsley - Case Marriage Vows Exchanged At Methodist Church

Baskets of pastel gladioli and pompons and evergreens formed a setting for the wedding of Vero M. Towsley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Towsley, and Ross A. Case, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Case Sr., at the First Methodist church Monday morning.

The Rev. Lloyd M. Schlopp officiated at the single ring service in the presence of the immediate families and close friends.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. A. C. Belding played a program of traditional music and accompanied Roberta Case who sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Amen". Mrs. Belding also played the wedding march.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a red velvet afternoon dress and white accessories for her wedding. She carried a colonial bouquet of sweetheart roses centered with a white poinsettia.

Merrie Case, niece of the bridegroom, as her only attendant, wore a winter white dress with navy accessories and a corsage of red and white carnations.

Frank Case Jr. of Sandusky assisted his brother as best man. Kenneth Case, nephew of the bridegroom, and Roger Towsley, brother of the bride, were ushers.

Mrs. Towsley chose a gray dress and black accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Case wore a gray suit and black accessories. Each had a corsage of red and white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception for 30 guests was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alden Ulrich. A tiered wedding cake centered the refreshment table, which was decorated with seasonal flowers.

The couple has gone to Grand Rapids where they will make their home at 135 Indiana ave. The bride is attending the Grand Rapids School of Beauty Culture. The bridegroom is employed in Grand Rapids.

Earlier the bride was honored at a miscellaneous shower by Mrs. Robert Wright and Mrs. Alden Ulrich.

The guests enjoyed a number of games with Linda Towsley, Jean Murrell and Mrs. Howard Griffin winning the prizes.

After the honoree had opened her many lovely gifts, refreshments were served at a table decorated in a Christmas motif.

From An Elevation

Nearly all song birds carol their characteristic songs while in flight or while perched on an elevated object, such as a tree limb, a stump, a telephone wire, or a bush. Those perky, happy-hearted little winter songsters, the black-capped chickadees, chant their joyous songs from wood-piles, sap buckets, balsam boughs, and handles—anything they can find that lifts them above the ground level. Chickadees may occasionally chirp a little while embroidering tracks across the earth's wintry blanket of snow, but they will seldom chime their clear-ringing "Chick-a-dee-dee" until a suitable perch is found. Some birds are content with singing perches only slightly above the surrounding grassland. The savannah sparrow requires nothing higher than a hummock, a few inches above his surroundings. The robin seems to prefer a high limb, but if one isn't available when the urge to sing seizes him, he will settle for a twig on a sizable branch. Even field sparrows, larks and indigo buntings which will nest in low locations, require perches for singing that are much higher than their nesting level. Songbirds seek elevations for their singing. Normal people do, too. They need some elevation before their spirits burst forth in song. The pathological may find a kind of

It Happened on . . . Beaver Island

By Loy Malloy

Midnight Mass was celebrated at Holy Cross Church with caroling beginning at 11:30 p. m. Mrs. Edna McCann and Erwin Belfy spent Christmas with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Belfy.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Bonner and son and Mary Bonner arrived to spend Christmas with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Bonner. It's the first Christmas in quite a while that Johnny spent at home.

Mrs. Betty Lockton and family and Jack and Larry Cull arrived last week to visit their parents.

Mrs. Ray Osbourne arrived Saturday to spend a few days with her dad, Frank Gillespie.

Donald Cole arrived Saturday to be with his family for the weekend.

Word was received here Friday that Mr. and Mrs. Jack Burke of Cleveland are the parents of a daughter born Friday, Dec. 23.

Lawrence Mc Donough and son Larry and Mrs. Mary Mc Donough left Monday. Lawrence and Larry are going to Mt. St. Francis, Ind., to see Gary.

Perry Gatliff spent a few hours on the Island recently.

Bobby O'Donnell and Donald McCafferty spent the weekend with relatives here.

Janet Gallagher arrived home Saturday to spend the holiday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gallagher.

Douglas Burke and Billy Martin spent Christmas with Douglas' mother, Mrs. Ed. Burke.

Christmas evening the Sadelty sponsored a party in the contentment in a low life, as the kleptomaniac is restless until he steals, and the pyromaniac until he starts a destructive fire. In low perversion the abnormal mind finds a satisfaction akin to joy. But we recognize such behavior, and such people as "unnatural". By nature, we are fitted for singing from elevations. Early in the history of sound motion pictures, a movie producer decided to film and record birds singing in their natural habitats. He thought such a project would demonstrate in a dramatic way the advantages of sound pictures. During the singing season the producer sent two expert cameramen into good bird territory with orders to bring back film and sound recordings of a variety of bird songs. After many days of arduous search the cameramen admitted utter defeat. Their days in field and forest had proven fruitless. Not one foot of sound film had they used. Dr. Arthur Allen of Cornell University's ornithology department was approached by the two camera experts and told of their desperate plight. They could hardly face their boss with no bird songs whatsoever. Even a record of one bird's singing would help. Dr. Allen told the men to drive their sound truck along a certain country road. He asked them to stop by a particular bush and set up their equipment. Then he suggested that they focus their apparatus on the top of the bush and they would get a splendid recording of a song sparrow.

The cameramen were skeptical, since there wasn't a bird within sight or hearing. But soon, as the men became settled in position and quiet, a male song sparrow flew up to his choicest singing perch and chanted a cheery song. Dr. Allen knew where and when a song sparrow was most apt to sing.

When do we feel most like singing? When are we the most thoroughly happy? Isn't it when we have arisen to some height above life's ground-level, above our average performance? We are in a singing mood when we are making life worth living for others. We feel like singing when we are giving more than we are getting. Songs come to mind and heart and lips when we are most conscious of God's greatness, His love, and His approval.

Maybe we are happiest at Christmastime because life is then most nearly what it should always be, when giving is better than receiving, and another's happiness more important than our own. No wonder even folks who "can't carry a tune in a basket" love to carol at Christmas. Christmas is an elevation above ground level, the year's choicest "singing perch".

Parish Hall.

Glen Mc Donough arrived Christmas day to spend the day with his mother.

Class 'C' Schedule To Be Resumed On Friday

Northern Michigan Class C basketball teams will return to the hardwoods this week after a two-week vacation from active competition during the Christmas holidays. With the return to regular play the battle for the league title now held by Charlevoix will begin in earnest with each team eyeing the title or an opportunity to topple a contender. With four games behind them, each team has 10 loop games remaining to be played and with the last place team only four games out of first place anything can happen before the regular season draws to a close just two months from now.

The job of breaking up the four-way tie for first place will begin this week with two of the top four teams meeting for the first time on Friday when Charlevoix travels to Pellston to take on the Hornets. At the same time Boyne City will host Harbor Springs; Grayling will play at Mancelona and second place East Jordan will invade Gaylord.

The Charlevoix-Pellston meeting will be the game of the week with each team defending its first place standing against a strong contender. Pellston's only loss thus far has been to Boyne City by a one-point margin while the Raydeis defeated the same team on the Rambler floor by four points. Charlevoix's only loss has been to the Harbor Springs Rams by a 47-45 score in the opening game of the season on the Rams' floor. Pellston defeated the same team 59-40 on the same floor just before the holidays.

Candidates whose names will appear on the ballot in the April general election include James Hiller who is seeking election to the office of mayor for the first time. George A. Brewer, Jr. Bound Over To Court For Robbery Attempt George Alfred Brewer Jr., 20, of Clarion, waived examination in justice court here Wednesday on a charge of robbery armed and was bound over to the present term of circuit court by Justice John J. Connolly who set bond at $5,000. Brewer was returned to the Charlevoix county jail when he failed to furnish bond.

Charged with assaulting Mrs. Helen Kruczkowski, 54, operator of a small grocery and gas station at Clarion, Brewer was arrested at his home near Clarion after the injured woman furnished a description of the youth. He denied any knowledge of the attempted robbery when Deputy Ted McCutcheon and State Police of the Gaylord post apprehended him. However, after Mrs. Kruczkowski identified him from her bed at Little Traverse hospital in Petoskey, he was brought to the sheriff's office where he later admitted striking the woman with an 18-inch steel bar in a robbery attempt which was foiled when a family dog attacked him.

He told police he had left his home, a former school house now used as a residence by him and his mother, and drove to Walloon Lake where he purchased 10 gallons of fuel oil. Enroute home he stopped at Rudy's grocery at an intersection on US-131 with the idea of robbing the store. He ordered a quart of milk and a tank of gasoline which Mrs. Kruczkowski pumped. When she returned to the store she told him how much it cost and, as she walked around a counter, he struck her on the head with the bar which he had brought into the store with him, he is quoted as saying. She fell backwards, knocking the bar from his hand before he could strike her again. Her cries aroused the family dog which attacked Brewer who then fled from the store in his car without robbing the cash register.

At Charlevoix he admitted planning the robbery. He said he thought that there would be money in the cash register after the New Year's weekend. He also planned to rob the store where he knew Mr. Kruczkowski was away at work.

Mrs. Kruczkowski was discharged from the hospital later in the day of the assault.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Melin returned home from a two-weeks holiday visit with relatives in Grand Rapids, Plymouth, and Shepherd. On Christmas day they received a telephone greeting from their daughter, Mrs. Elmer Arthur of Portland, Ore.

For the first time crippled children of Charlevoix county have been included in an invitation to attend the annual Shrine Circus in Grand Rapids during the week of Jan. 23-27, Charles A. Robinson, Charlevoix county superintendent of schools who received the invitation.

On Monday, Jan. 23, all crippled children, grades one through nine will be entertained free. To make it possible for the children to attend the circus a chartered train will operate between Traverse City and Grand Rapids daily that week, leaving Traverse City at 7:15 a. m. and returning at 9:45 p. m. On Monday one adult chaperone will accompany each four children. In Grand Rapids ambulance and police escorts will be provided to and from the Civic auditorium, the site of the circus, where the children will occupy a block of reserved seats. They will be completely protected with insurance on the train and at the circus. The only expense to the children will be transportation to and from Traverse City and money for lunch and dinner which may be purchased on the train at cost.

Each crippled child must have in his possession a written statement from his doctor approving the trip. Adults who wish to attend will be given tickets and transportation for $5.45. For children, other than the crippled children, the cost will be $4.05 which will cover the cost of transportation and admittance to the circus. Further information regarding this top-rate circus and the chartered train may be obtained from Mr. Robinson.

ODDS 'N' ENDS

By Fran Martin

Time was when people thought that there wasn't such a place as northern Michigan . . . in the football world, that is . . . In recent years, however, they have learned that we not only play the game up here but have some mighty fine players . . . Our own Bob Carey proved that to all doubters . . . And if there were any remaining before the Rose Bowl Monday . . . well, certainly now they've been convinced for a guy named Dave, Kaiser from Alpena, a fellow who had not been a spectacular player until then . . . came through with that all-important boot that saved another northern Michiganander, Capt. Buck Nystrom, from eating his words . . . namely, that State wasn't making the trip to the west coast to lose . . . State wasn't losing exactly but who wants a tie game when they can have a win . . . Anyway, the big game is over and the middle west represented by Michigan State has once again proven what all of us know to be a fact . . . the best football in the world is played in our part of the country . . . And what a day for that great guy Duffy Daugherty, who truly came into his own these past few months . . . And it couldn't happen to a nicer guy . . . Don't know about you but if those Spartans were as tired from playing as we were from watching . . . it will take them weeks to recuperate! . . . Anyway, wasn't it wonderful?

And now that the Bowl games are over we'll turn our attention to basketball . . . Our Rayders will be playing at Pellston this week where they'll have to put their best foot (and playing) forward to come up with a win . . . There's nothing in this world Pellston would like more than a win over Charlevoix . . . and don't think they won't be giving their all in trying to realize that dream . . . But we think our lads, despite what we said about them last week, can do it . . . So come on, fellas, show us what you can really do . . . you've eleven games remaining and each as important as the other . . .

In case you aren't already sold on the idea of short wave radio our radio commission and police and sheriff's departments now have, here's a story that should prove its worth . . . All road commission trucks, including the one on Beaver Island are equipped with radio . . . First we'd like to mention that there are few telephones on Beaver Island . . . One day recently the base station at Boyne City received an SOS from its Beaver Island truck. Being a man of few words the sender merely said "Call the Coast Guard station and tell them there's a fire at the school" . . . In nothing flat Ralph Hamilton, clerk of the commission who had received the message, was putting through an emergency call via telephone (through Petoskey) to the lifeboat station which hurriedly dispatched the fire-fighting equipment to the school some two miles away . . . As it turned out the fire was soon extinguished and small damage was done . . . thanks to the radio and telephone which together carried the message some 100 miles or so in minutes to a spot some two miles from the scene of the fire . . .

Speaking of fires, our postoffice still smells like a smoke-house or something equally as smelly as a result of the fire in the Krahne building on Christmas night . . . Seems the postal employees are accused these days of everything from scorching dinners to smoking fish . . . But we were lucky that the postoffice loss wasn't any worse for it could have been really bad . . . not only for the postoffice proper but the remainder of the two-story building . . . which just goes to show that our fire department is on the ball . . .

But the fire took one of the volunteer firemen from his own birthday party . . . seems a group of friends were scheduled to meet at J. C. Marshall's home for a little party in honor of J's birthday. As they were coming in the door he was going out and didn't get back until high onto midnight . . . just in time for the refreshments . . . What a way to spend a birthday . . . but after 27 years as volunteer he kinda takes it in his stride . . .

Remember those mouse-traps we mentioned just before the holidays and wondered how they worked? . . . We found out 'cause we got one for Christmas . . .

College English Class Assured For Spring Term

A class in English 102 has been assured for the spring semester of freshman college classes at Petoskey, A. D. Shankland, head of the Adult Education department at the Petoskey high school, has announced.

In addition to the English course, considerable interest has been shown in biology 151, Mr. Shankland said. If a few more students will enroll in these courses it will be possible to offer them he added.

Registration has been scheduled for 7 to 9 p. m. Friday at room 11 in the Petoskey high school. However, it is important to contact Mr. Shankland prior to this date so that tentative classes and instructors can be arranged. If prospective students cannot come Friday night they may register between 3 and 5 p. m., Friday.

Friday's classes will be for registration only and not as a class meeting night. Classes will begin the following week on nights to be determined by the class.

not the kind the youngsters made in school but the plastic kind with the cute little mouse on the end . . . cuter than a bug (or a mouse) . . .

And speaking of Christmas gifts . . . we're going pearl-diving one of these days . . . into a can which contains an oyster which in turn contains a cultured pearl. Sent by the George Wolfs from Tokyo, it's guaranteed to contain a black, pink or gold cultured pearl . . . We haven't opened it yet but it's great fun to speculate on what we'll find . . . we'll let you know and if we start spotting a beautiful pearl, you'll know where it came from . . .

As though Earl A. Young, local realtor, and Dr. Walter Hoffman don't oo enough quibbling across the channel, they were asked to go to East Jordan recently to serve as judges in the Christmas decorating contest financed by the bank and the newspaper . . . The third judge was from Boyne City but she didn't have a chance as the Charlevoix pair argued about this one and that . . . The judges were entertained at dinner and then made the rounds to look over the decorations at 14 business places and 30 residences and what a tough job . . . for each was prettier than the other . . . but after several hours they came up with winners . . . Why can't Charlevoix get going and have something like that? We do a bang-up job in the business district and a few people decorate their homes but receive no reward for their efforts . . . How's about starting right now on a deal for next Christmas? . . .

Christmas means carollers . . . and no one enjoys them more than we do . . . or the patients in the hospital . . . or those around town who can't get out, especially Ken Forbes whose activities have been very limited recently . . . but each year they sound more beautiful than the year before . . . And they're certainly appreciated by everyone who hears them . . . By the way, Ken Forbes has waited more than 50 years but he finally got a toy train for Christmas. Guess if you can, be patient enough you'll get what you want.

Does 100 push-ups before breakfast!

But he's so very weak—so dependent. Without air to breathe, water to drink, food to eat, where would the "strong" man be?

On whom is the "strong" man dependent?

The Answer Is God.

Screens For Open Minds

Hideaway House must have looked inviting to the night-travelling flying squirrel. While on the prow across the cabin roof, he peered down the chimney and felt the house warmth rising into the cold late-winter air. The chimney's depths seemed somewhat like a man-made hollow tree, familiar, safe, and cozy, a shelter from wintry winds and icy chill. He dropped down the chimney shaft, his loose skin, stretched between fore-feet and hind legs, billowing like a parachute, easing his fall. We have little idea how long he made himself at home in Hideaway House before we found him, curled up near the hearth in a nest made of paper scraps, stolen insulation, and a miscellany of odds and ends taken from table, fireplace mantel, and desk. He was dead, probably from lack of food and warmth, for the life fires of a flying squirrel's body burn so fiercely that they soon die unless frequently replenished with food. The fault was ours. We should have had a screen over the open chimney to keep out unwanted guests. Since the squirrel's untimely demise, we have put a screen over the chimney's opening so that squirrels, white-footed mice and insects do not have a standing welcome at Hideaway House. Open minds are like open chimneys. It is good to have an open mind, provided it is equipped with screens that keep out vermin. Open windows let in fresh air, but they had better be screened to keep the bugs out. Too many people have unscreened open minds, full of flying squirrel ideas, racing pell-mell about, tearing up the furnishings. There are too many folks proud of being open-minded, who have never taken precautions against bug-fires of a flying squirrel's body like ideas that buzz about in noisome confusion, irritating with

Clark Community Mrs. William Parsons

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Jolliffe and daughter of Grand Rapids were weekend guests at the William Jolliffe Sr. home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Way visited relatives in Cadillac last biter and stings and carrying disease. The world could use more open-minded people who have the common sense to put up screens that keep out the "vermin".

These screens of critical analysis would obstruct ideas that should not be allowed to make themselves at home in us.

Is this idea worthy of being put into practice by everybody? That is to say, supposing everyone, everywhere thought as I think, planned as I plan and did what I intend to do—would this be a better world? Or would the world be worse? This is the test of good sportsmanship as well as of good character. The rules apply equally to everyone, including myself, and I can do only what is good for the entire team. Unless everyone can crowd ahead in the lineup at the ticket office, I must not let the thought of it rest in me. Unless it would be good for the whole country if everyone cheated on his income tax, I must not let the thought of it make itself at home in me. Unless everyone should drive carelessly, jay-walk, break marriage vows, engage in petty dishonesties, I should not let such thoughts and practices enter my life either.

Will the thought bear the white light of publicity? Will it take a public airing? Could I reveal it without shame to my family, friends, neighbors? Above all, will it stand the greatest publicity test of all, conscious exposure to God?

When I realize He knows, does that make me uncomfortable? When held up to His penetrating look, does the thought or plan look vulgar, foolish, shoddy, and cheap? Would it not be a vastly better world of every open mind were screened by this test of publicity, allowing no ideas as overnight guests or permanent roomers in our minds if we have to be ashamed to introduce them to others?

Will this idea, if admitted and made to feel at home in my life, be inductive or obstructive to my growth? I want to be better than I am. Will this idea help or hinder? Some wild ideas, like flying squirrels, seem winsome and attractive while in the wide out-of-doors. But let them inside and they riot and tear and devastate. Other ideas are like cabinet-makers and interior decorators. Admit them and they go to work dressing up the interior, adding value and beauty to everything they touch. Is this kind of thought a wild and destructive one, or one that will improve me?

The chimney screen did something else for Hideaway House besides keeping out unwanted guests. It kept in the sparks from our roaring fire so they could not kindle dry leaves and start a fiery conflagration on our Hidden Brook acreage. Screens for open minds keep the sparks from flying, too. Before expressing yourself, "letting fly" with a thought, clamp these self-criticisms over your open mind and mouth.

Before saying anything about anybody, ask yourself, "Could I swear in court that it is true?" The courts require this minimum of assurance that a witness is telling the truth, making him swear that a thing is so. Certainly we should be willing to practice in everyday life this minimum of morality.

Will this thought when expressed by out of my control, like a spark that leaves a fireplace chimney? And, do I want it out of my control? Some unknown author has said: "Boys flying kites haul in their white-winged birds. You can't do that when you're flying words. Careful with fire is good advice, we know. Careful with words is ten times doubly so. Thoughts unexpressed sometimes fall back dead, but God himself can't kill them once they're said."

Will I be saying what I intend to do, redeem or worsen a bad situation? Am I helping or hurting? These days there is a great deal of publicity about needless traffic fatalities. But more people are run down by human tongues than by automobiles. Every ruinous fire starts with a very small ignition, and nearly all human conflagrations begin with sparks from someone's unguarded mind and tongue.

Open-minded? I hope you are. But be certain the opening is screened to keep sparks in and vermin out.

St. Ignace Independents Defeat Charlevoix 72-71 To Win Tourney

The first annual Northern Michigan Independent Basketball tournament came to a thrilling climax Friday night when the St. Ignace Independents captured the tourney title in an overtime game with the Charlevoix Independents. The final score was 72-71 after the regulation game had ended 63-63.

The consolation game was equally as exciting with the Manton Ikes defeating Petoskey Fochmans 58-56.

St. Ignace and Charlevoix advanced to the tournament finals after the former had defeated Petoskey 83-29 and Charlevoix had edged past Manton 50-49 in the semi-finals Thursday night.

In the opening games Wednesday the local quintet defeated Grayling Bear Archery 88-49 and Petoskey won over Traverse City Rennie Oil 80-46.

St. Ignace 72-Charlevoix 71. In the seesaw action which marked the championship game

Charlevoix held a one-point 18-17 first period edge which they managed to cling to at halftime by a score of 30-29. In the third period, however, St. Ignace outscored Charlevoix 22-29 for a 51-50 advantage going into the final period. Charlevoix matched the visitors point for point until the final seconds when Johnny Swanson dumped in a basket to tie the score at the final whistle sounded. The battle continued into the three-minute overtime with big Jumbo Soeltner scoring the basket which gave the visitors the tournament championship. Soeltner who had been the mainstay of the St. Ignace squad paced the scoring with 22 points. Swanson had 16 and Bill Denemy and Bob Klooster 15 points each for Charlevoix.

Manton 58-Petoskey 56. In the consolation game, Petoskey took a 15-14 first period lead but fell down in the second period as Manton outscored them 14-8 for a 28-23 edge. Petoskey cut the advantage one point, 39-35, at the third period and though they outscored Manton 21-17 in the final period were unable to overcome the second quarter loss.

Jack Behan lead the scoring with 19 points and Bob Hitchmough scored 15 points for Petoskey. Bill Nye and Bob Benson scored 13 apiece for Manton.

St. Ignace 83-Petoskey 79

Petoskey outscored St. Ignace 31-29 in the field goal department Thursday night but it was not enough as the Strals team led the Motor team 20-16 at the first quarter. Petoskey went ahead 33-36 at the half before St. Ignace dumped in 23 to 18 for Petoskey for a 56-52 third period lead. Leroy Soeltner scored 28 points, the highest individual scoring record in the tournament. Utter tallied 21 and Jerry Mayo 20 for the victors. Bob Stowe had 21 for Petoskey.

Charlevoix 50-Manton 49. Manton got off to a 12-10 quarter and 29-26 halftime lead before the local quintet came up with 16 points for a 42-39 edge going into the final period. The last quarter was a seesaw battle with Charlevoix winning by one point.

Tony Stayer led the scoring with 13 points for Manton. Bob Klooster had 10; Bill Lusk, 9; Bill Denemy and Dick Hardy, 8 apiece for Charlevoix.

Petoskey 60-Traverse City 46. Traverse City took a 12-7 first period lead over Petoskey but in the second quarter the Fochman Motors team started to hit and dumped in 21 points to outscore their opponents for a 28-24 halftime edge. Petoskey continued to hit and went ahead 41-34 before taking the game. Bob Stowe scored 20 for the victors and Harold Gruber 19 for Traverse City.

Charlevoix 88-Grayling 49

Charlevoix 68-Grayling 49

Charlevoix got off to a 12-9 first period lead only to lose it to Grayling 31-28 at the half. In the third quarter, however, the local lads dumped in 28 points for a 54-39 advantage. Klooster was top scorer for the victors with 17 points. Don Feldhauser had 11 for Grayling.

The tournament championship team was presented with a team trophy. Team members were also presented with individual gold medals while the runners-up, the Charlevoix Independents, were given silver medals.

A five-player all tournament team received individual trophies. Named to the honor squad were Leroy "Jumbo" Soeltner and Jerry Mayo of the St. Ignace squad, Tony Stayer of Manton, Harold Gruber of Traverse City, and Bob Hitchmough of Petoskey. The all-tournament team was named on the basis of tournament performance.

Oddfellows Win In First Tourney Round

The Oddfellows ran up a 174 point lead to win the first round Monday night in the annual Mason-Oddfellow eribbage tournament.

Individual high score went to Ray Ashton, playing for the Masons, with 964. Richard Bergmann scored high for the Oddfellows with 947 points. The teams will meet next Monday evening for the second round.

game a toss-up. Pellston, however, is flooring its strongest team in several years and with the advantage of playing on their own floor, the Hornets could be a serious threat. The Rayders, on the other hand, have played some fine ball as well as some mediocre games and if they are at their best should take their hosts if only by a slight edge.

Boyne City, rated as probably the best team in the loop, will be entertaining Harbor Springs, a team that got off to a fine start but which has failed to develop with the season. Unless Coach Ivan Davis Jr. comes up with something new, including an ardent desire to win, the Ramblers should continue along the victory trail.

The Grayling Vikings, whose only loss in four starts has been to Charlevoix, should come up with a win this week despite the fact that they are meeting the Ironmen in the Mancelona gym. Barring an upset, which is possible after a holiday lay-off, Grayling should have little trouble from Mancelona's young and inexperienced squad.

East Jordan, where Coach Gayle Saxton was starting almost from scratch in re-building his team, has come a long way since the season opened. After losses to Grayling and Charlevoix, the team has caught fire and should finish the season among the top four. Gaylord, however, has not been as fortunate and though the Blue Devils have several veterans on their roster thus far they have failed to show much promise. East Jordan should remain in the win column this week unless Coach Paul Skitka returns to the court with a rejuvenated team, which hardly seems likely.

I will be at the Norwood township hall Jan. 6 and at the Charlevoix County State Bank Jan. 7 to collect taxes for Norwood Township.

ODDS 'N' ENDS

By Fran Martin

Wasn't it a wonderful treat to see the sun shining all day Saturday and Sunday? Made you forget that the temperature was near zero? Everything was covered with such a pretty frost Sunday morning. And if you didn't have to be out it was wonderful. A little more weather like this and Lake Michigan will start freezing, although by the looks of the mist rising from it Sunday it's still pretty warm as a result of last summer's heat. Ohh... what are we saying? But couldn't we use a little now.

All that snow we had last month sure meant a lot to the ski resorts in our northern Michigan ski country. Understand both Boyne Mountain and Gaylord had terrific weekends over New Years and almost as good last week. We've always been told that a great deal of study went into weather conditions before the two big resorts were established. If there's snow in the north they have it there so we can believe that statement.

Fishing through the ice has been real good too. For those people who have that much patience... lots of perch and smelt at Ironton and elsewhere on Lake Charlevoix for the interest of those sturdy souls who can sit out on the ice that long.

Seems that a certain rector around town has been giving Walker Miles of the Christian Science Society building committee quite a few arguments about churches having steeples. The picture we used last week gave the new church a steeple, for the moment, even if it was "borrowed" from the Congregational church around the block for the occasion.

Wasn't it good to see a familiar face looking out of the pages of the Chicago Tribune a couple times during the past week? Of course we mean our own Dr. Louis Mann. Looking more wonderful than ever. He sure gets around and does many, many things in addition to his duties at Sinai Temple. And other six months and we'll see him and the charming Mrs. M. over on Dixon ave.

If you've wondered what our boys who were overseas during the holidays were doing, here's a typical example, from reports we've heard whether they were in Germany, Japan, Korea, or where have you. It's from Gerry Left who's stationed at Itazuke Base on the island of Kyushu in Japan. In a recent letter to his parents, the Gerald Left Sr., he wrote: "Sunday we had a party for the orphans. You should have seen them—were they ever a happy bunch. There were 35 of them and we had a gift for each one plus a lot of other things under the Christmas tree. They probably were sick Monday for we had ice cream, cookies, candy, hot chocolate and just about anything else you can think of. They really had a great time. The nurse came in handy. In another letter Gerry had written that the officers' wives had arranged a party... and he didn't know who had the best time, the little kids or the big ones in U. S. Air Force blues. What better public relations can you have than a home-sick GI, regardless of rank, when there are kids around... especially at holiday time. Gerry was probably one of many of our boys who spent Christmas in much the same manner.

There may be a few more gray hairs on the heads of some of our rabid basketball fans but the Rayders did come through so we suppose that's what's important. To our way of thinking a two-point margin is too close for comfort... especially when Charlevoix had about a nine-point margin with less than three minutes remaining. But the game was a thriller. That's for sure and everyone here was happy about the results. Including us. This week they'll take on the Gaylord squad who won their first game last week. Next week it will be Mancelona and then on Jan. 27 the second round starts. And if you think the first was bad, look out. It's going to be tough every play of the way.

And speaking of basketball, as we were, we'd like to commend the powers-that-be (who ever they might be) for keeping the Charlevoix cheerleaders in slacks. We'd like to go on record as saying we like 'em much and think they're the thing to wear. They look neater and smarter than any combination we've seen to date.

Last week a record was broken at Cheboygan. Petoskey won a ball game... the first one this season. It was won by a slim margin in the closing minutes, but a victory, nevertheless. We had visions of Coach Ace Zographos claiming a new record for his Northmen.

Don't forget the March of Dimes fund campaign that has opened and will continue through the month. The Salk anti-polio vaccine is wonderful... a god-send... but polio isn't licked yet. And it won't be licked until it becomes as rare as the blue moon or something as fantastic that you're always hearing about. Look about you and see the cases still receiving care through the National Foundation... look at statistics which show the number of new cases in '55 and you'll soon find that the real battle has just begun. So dig down deep and support the March of Dimes.

In the recent issue of Lakeland Yachting was a story of local interest. Seems Judge Robert S. Marx has donated his 52-ft. ketch, the Panchara, whose home port has been Charlevoix, (See Scouts) to be used for their training program. In addition to the boat which was fully equipped, he gave the Scouts $1,500 to help them commission the vessel. It will be renamed the Resolute. But Judge Marx will not be without a ship for he has purchased the 85-foot yawl, Cormorant, and renamed her the Panchara. She has a 14-foot beam and is constructed of double plank mahogany. Can't help but wonder if Judge Marx winter home at Alcapulco, Mexico, was damaged in the earthquake which hit that resort city.
